The Metropolitan National Bank was taken over during 1902, however, so that the earnings last year were less in proportion to the capital stock than during 1902.

A Boston dispatch says: "Believing that current prices are not a sufficient inducement, dealers in Wools have been indifferent as to trading. The market, however, is steady and better conditions are looked for. There has been some trading to close up accounts. There is a firm tone in the market for Territory Wools. In the market for pulled Wools a steady tone prevails. The market for foreign Wools is quiet at unchanged conditions."

A director of the Tidewater Steel Company says: "There is talk of legal proceedings against the officers of the Investment Company of Philadelphia, who applied on Christmas eve for a receiver for the Tidewater Steel Company. The answer was to be made on the day following Christmas at 9 A. M., at Media, a country town fifteen miles outside of Philadelphia, and as the President of the Tidewater Company was in Pittsburg and the other directors and officers scattered for the holidays, the case would have gone by default except that the directors, hurriedly notified by wire, assembled and worked all Christmas day and night and were able to appear next morning with a case prepared, which resulted in the judge deciding against the investment company and denying the appointment of a receiver."

The Chicago Inter Ocean says: "The Chicago and Alton and the Kansas City Southern railroads, both controlled by Harriman interests, are to be consolidated in the near future. After John W. Gates wrested the Kansas City, Pittsburg and Gulf railroad from A. E. Stilwell and reorganized it as the Kansas City Southern, the Harriman syndicate bought it for the purpose of adding it to the Chicago and Alton. This plan was blocked by a suit filed by Henry D. Laughlin, attacking the validity of the lease of the original Chicago and Alton Railroad company to the Chicago and Alton Railway company organized by the Harriman syndicate. This suit hung in the courts until the recent visit of E. H. Harriman to Chicago. After a conference between him and Mr. Laughlin the suit was withdrawn, smoothing the way for carrying out the plan of consolidating the Alton and the Kansas City Southern roads."

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Fair demand and strongly held. Sales for export at 1s advance.

WINTER WHEAT—There was no cash business to-day and prices entirely nominal. Receipts small and the Board adjourned before the samples were brought on the floor. No. 2 Red in store was nominally about 83@87c and fresh arrivals nominally 90@92c. No. 3 Red nominally 87@90c. No. 2 Hard local nominally 80@82c, and No. 3 Hard quotably 73@80c. A sale of No. 4 Hard was made at the river at 67½c.

SPRING WHEAT—A few cars of No. 4 sold local at 58@64c for common and choice hard variety sold at 78c. Aside from these few cars there was nothing doing and prices entirely nominal. The Board adjourned before the samples were brought on the floor. No. 1 Northern in store was nominally 82@84c and fresh arrivals quotably 85@87c. No. 3 Spring was nominally 73@78c for common to fair and 80@82c for good hard variety.

REGULAR WHEAT—The trade was large and market decidedly excited and nervous, fluctuations covering 2½@3c range. The close showed May up 3c and the July 3⅛c. Sentiment was "bullish" and market acted oversold, there being a rush on the part of "shorts" to cover, resulting in the advance noted above. The opening was particularly unsettled, the offerings being small. The war talk from Europe, decline of three to four-sixteenths in British consols, absence of snow in Kansas and none indicated were among the "bull" helps. The small Argentine shipments, only 16,000 bu, also acted as a strengthening factor. Outside markets were all up and market at times was on the runaway order. At the advance the "bull" party was credited with liquidating. Receipts in the Northwest were fair and heavy in the Southwest, 441,000 bu at Kansas City and St. Louis, against 121,000 bu one year ago. Primary receipts for the week were 6,557,000 bu, compared with 4,246,000 bu week previous and 3,629,000 bu one year ago. Good snows were on the map through Missouri, Illinois and Ohio and more indicated, but none for parts of the West where much needed. A cold wave was predicted by the signal service. London was quoted strong and ⅛@1d higher. Liverpool was closed. Exports were liberal. Local weekly receipts were 143,000 bu and shipments 271,000 bu. Australian shipments for the week reported at 592,000 bu. Weather conditions in Argentina, according to Broomhall, were more favorable and harvesting operations progressing satisfactory. Receipts at Duluth holiday and at Minneapolis 592 cars, a total of 592, against 579 cars Thursday, holiday a week ago, and 250 cars last year. Local receipts included 12 cars Winter, 8 cars Spring and no car mixed, a total of 20 cars, against 103 cars last year. Included in above was none of contract grade. There were 6 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are no cars. Withdrawals were 10,300 bu. Receipts at Western points were 1,027,627 bu, against 1,492,112 bu last year. At Eastern points 113,681 bu, against 284,857 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 397,374 bu, against 244,371 bu last year, and from Eastern points 408,116 bu, against 511,237 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 20,915 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 502,233 bu.

JULY—Sold at 80@82½c. Opened with sales varying from 80c to 81¼c; sold to 80⅞c, to 80½c, to 81½c, to 81¼c, to 82¼c, to 82c, to 82⅝c, to 82c, to 82½c, to 82, to 82¼c, to 82⅜c, to 82⅜@82½c, and closed at 82⅜@82½c.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 78@80⅛c. Opened at 78c; sold to 80⅛c, to 79⅞c, and closed nominally 80c.

CORN—A large trade and a very strong market, the close showing gains of 1½c and 2⅛@2¼c. The demand was general, commission houses and "shorts" buying, while offerings, particularly at the start, were small. The advance in Wheat and war scare were the "bull" factors, though the small receipts and lighter Argentine shipments, 712,000 bu, were indirect influences. Outside markets were all strong and higher; St. Louis at one time 3c. Receipts were 164 cars, with 124 cars low grades; no estimate compiled for Monday. Weekly receipts were 1,218,000 bu and shipments 673,000 bu. The weather was favorable and continued cold conditions indicated. Deliveries on January contracts estimated at 200,000 bu. Transfers from private to public elevators 8,000 bu and 324 cars. Argentine shipments for 1903 78,217,000 bu, compared with 43,110,000 bu in 1902. Local arrivals 182,000 bu, while the shipments were 255,000 bu. Exports were 108,000 bu. Shipping demand fair. Car lots were in good request and moderate supply. Feeling was firm and prices about 1@1½c higher. Receipts at Western points were 758,000 bu and the shipments 462,000 bu. No. 2 and No. 3 closed nominally about 44c. No. 2 and No. 3 Yellow closed at 45c.

Corn by sample—Was firm and about 1@1½c higher. Demand was fair and offerings moderate. The early adjournment of the Exchange restricted business. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 36@40c. No. 4 at 40@41½c. No. 3 Yellow at 41½@46c. No. 2 at 44½c. No. 3 White at 41½@42c. Billed through: No Grade at 36½c. No. 3 Yellow at 43c. No. 3 White at 40@40½c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Active, excited and strong, closing 1½c to 2⅛@2¼c higher.

JANUARY—Sold at 42¼@43½c. Opened at 42⅜c and sold at 42¼c, to 43½c, and closed at 43½c.

MAY—Sold at 45⅞@46c and 47⅞c. Opened at 45⅞@46c and 46¼c, sold at 46⅛c, to 46¼c, to 46⅛c, to 46½c, to 46⅜c, to 46¾c, to 46⅝c, to 47⅛c, to 47c, to 47¼c, to 47c, to 47⅞c, to 47¾c, to 47¾@47⅞c, and closed at 47¾@47⅞c sellers.

JULY—Sold at 45½@47⅜c. Opened at 45⅝c to 45½c, and sold at 45¾c, to 45⅝c, to 46⅛@46¼c, to 46⅛c, to 46⅝c, to 46½c, up to 47⅜c, to 47¼c, to 47¼@47⅜c, and closed at 47¼@47⅜c.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 45⅜@46⅞c. Opened at 45⅜c, sold to 46⅞c, and closed at 46⅞c.

OATS—Were active and advanced ¾@1c and closed ½@¾c better than Thursday. The war scare and advance in other Grains, scared the "shorts" into buying and prices were easily moved up. Fair cash inquiries existed and sales were 25,000 bu. Arrivals were 106 cars, no report estimated for Monday. Withdrawals were 39,800 bu. There were 26 cars Standard inspected from private elevators. Seaboard clearances were 15,077 bu. Car lots to go to store were higher. Standard in store closed about 36⅜c.

Oats by sample were firmer and ½@¾c higher, but trading restricted by the early closing, as samples did not get up until too late. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 White at 33@35½c. No. 3 White at 36½@38c. No. 3 at 35¼c. Billed through: At the River: No. 4 White at 31@35c.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows light snows in Minnesota, Dakotas, Nebraska, Iowa and Kansas, and good snows in Illinois, Indiana, Missouri and Ohio. The precipitation in Kansas and Nebraska is very light. It is very much colder in the Northwest and a general cold wave is indicated.

Indications are the storm will advance northeastward, accompanied by considerable snow in Central Valleys and Lake region. Fair Sunday. The cold wave will continue its movement eastward, with under-zero here to-night.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The Osceola Mining Company has declared a dividend of $1 00 per share. The last dividend was $3 00.

The plant of the Chicago Steel Company at Hammond, Ind., was destroyed by fire, Wednesday. Loss, $250,000.

A Chicago Packing company received 515,663 Hogs direct from the country during 1903. The valuation was $7,900,000.

Kalamazoo, Mich., has awarded the $70,000 4½ per cent one to ten year school bonds to a Chicago banking firm at 102.007, a basis of 4.03 per cent.

Before work is started on the Panama Canal the Government and its contractors will be in the market for $125,000,000 of materials and supplies.

Fire, Monday, totally destroyed the Grain elevator at the Corning distillery, Peoria, Ill., with a loss of approximately $40,000, covered by insurance.

The Buffalo and Susquehanna Railroad Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¼ per cent on its common stock, payable Jan. 2.

The Calumet National Bank of South Chicago has had its corporate existence extended and its title changed to the Calumet National Bank of Chicago.

The Gardiner, Me., $275,000 4 per cent thirty-year bonds to purchase a water plant have been awarded at 102.90 and interest, a basis of 3.83 per cent.

Orders received by the United Box Board and Paper Company in December are reported to be considerably less than the orders in December last year.

The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent, payable Jan. 20. Books close Jan. 4 and reopen Jan. 20.

The New York World declares that the control of the Steel trust is now in the hands of John D. Rockefeller and H. C. Frick, and that the Morgan-Perkins-Schwab-Carnegie party will be eliminated.

The Comptroller of the Currency is quoted as follows: "The outlook for business in the coming year from a banker's standpoint is certainly better than at this time one year ago. The great volume of our exports and the big crops which are now being sold at good prices are the most encouraging features in the situation."

Estimates regarding the earnings of the United States Steel Corporation for the final quarter of the year, which ends Dec. 31, continue to be more optimistic than they were about two weeks ago. The opinion seems to be pretty generally held that the net earnings will be between $14,000,000 and $15,000,000, with the probability of the latter figure being nearer correct. It has been estimated that the dividend on the common stock might be declared next month, but so far as can be learned from excellent sources, there is no likelihood of such action being taken.

The board of managers of the Delaware and Hudson Railroad have declared out of this year's earnings a dividend of 7 per cent on the stock for the year 1904, payable in quarterly installments. This is the same as the dividend paid this year. The first installment of 1¾ per cent is payable March 15. Books close Feb. 24 and reopen March 15. The second installment is payable June 15. Books close May 25 and reopen June 16. The third installment is payable Sept. 15. Books close Aug. 31 and reopen Sept. 16. The fourth and last installment for the year is payable Dec. 15. Books close Nov. 30 and reopen Dec. 16.

More than 80 per cent of the general mortgage 5 per cent bonds of the Denver and Southwestern Railway, the total issue being $5,500,000, have been deposited with the reorganization committee, of which these gentlemen are members: Charles F. Ayer, R. E. F. Flinsch, Arthur H. Day, C. E. A. Goldman and Montgomery Rollins. The amount deposited is sufficient to enable the committee to proceed with the reorganization if it cared to do so, but approval of the reorganization plan which was placed before them some time ago is wanted from every bondholder before steps looking to reorganization will be taken. The time for depositing the bonds closes next Tuesday. It has been extended twice in order to reach bondholders who are not in close touch with the situation. There is small prospect of objection to the committee's plan from any bondholder, but should even the slightest opposition arise it would result in the sale of the road under forclosure.

Chicago banks will distribute to their stockholders in January $1,150,000 in dividends. In nearly all cases the disbursements will be for the quarter ending with this month. Of the total, $67,750 is for the July quarter, the payments of some of the banks being semi-annual, and $62,000 is extra dividends. The total dividend disbursements for the year on local bank stocks figure well above $4,000,000.

The Echo Agricole, Paris, Dec. 20, states that the weather has again been rainy with rather thick fogs, and such atmospheric conditions have not been favorable to farmers In Beauce complaints are heard of damage caused by mice, and some of the Wheat fields will have to be resown in Charente. It does not reflect any change in the company's financial position, or any negotiations with any other electric companies. You can deny as officially as you like that there are negotiations of any kind between the General Electric and the Westinghouse Company."

The total production of Coal, anthracite and bituminous, during 1903 is estimated by the Coal Trade Journal to be 360,000,000 tons, an increase over 1902 of 87,000,000 tons This is nearly 1,000,000 tons a day, and is the greatest production in the history of this country. All the anthracite collieries at Wilkesbarre, Pa., which have been idle since the day before Christmas will resume work Jan. 4, and the first anthracite mined in the new year will be taken out. Operators expect that there will be steady work for some weeks, owing to the demand for the domestic sizes. Despite the great production of 1903 there was a partial famine in Wilkesbarre and several other cities of the region last week, the companies being unable to make deliveries. The cold weather exhausted the Coal left in the chutes when the mines stopped working.

A Colorado Fuel bondholder who recently visited Mr. Rockefeller's office, is quoted by the Wall street summary as saying that Mr. Rockefeller and Mr. Gould are unquestionably desirous of having the funding plan of the committee carried through; they believe it to be for the best interests of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company and of the debentures of which they themselves are large holders. They think it a fair and equitable solution of all the difficulties which all classes of creditors and security holders of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company are faced with, due to the fact that the project is unfinished and that the company is unable to borrow money. This gentleman says, however, that viewed solely as a question of personal financial advantage to themselves, Mr. Gould and Mr Rockefeller can be entirely indifferent as to whether the plan succeeds or not. They have for a long time foreseen the bankruptcy of the company unless some plan should be adopted by the debenture bondholders which would permit the company to borrow money and furnish satisfactory security.

REGULAR WHEAT—A good trade, rather on the spasmodic order, the market at times being quite nervous. Feeling, all things considered was weaker, and the close was ⅝@¾c lower for May, while lost ⅝@¾c and September down ⅜@¾c. Commission houses were free sellers from the start, while the support was confined mainly to the "bull" party in May Covering for Northwestern account was a feature at the decline The more peaceful political advices from abroad, heavy receipts Northwest and Southwest and prediction generally for rain or snow were the main factors in bringing about the change in local sentiment. Primary receipts were 454,000 bu ahead of last year, those at Kansas City and St. Louis being 334,000 bu, against 150,000 bu in 1902. The weather crop bureau said, "Greater part of the Winter Wheat belt has been subjected to continued low temperatures, with little snow protection. The southern portion has suffered from alternate freezing and thawing and general lack of moisture." The official weekly snow map showed a good covering from the Mississippi River eastward. There was a trace of snow over the northeast part of Kansas and a trace over most of Missouri. It is still the fact that the southeast portion of the Winter Wheat belt has very little snow protection. Stocks here in all positions 5,631,000 bu, show a decrease of 364,000 bu for the week. Stocks year ago 11,510,000 bu. Liverpool quoted spot ¼d higher, while futures were ¼@⅜d lower. Receipts there the past three days were 1,016,000 bu of which 264,000 bu came from America London came ¼@¾d lower. Paris was unchanged to ¼c lower Antwerp steady. Minneapolis wired stock there had increased 750,000 bu in four days Ohio report made the condition of Wheat January 1 77 per cent, against 78 per cent in December, and 93 per cent one year ago. Berlin closed ½c higher while Buda Pesth closed ⅛c lower. Argentine weather was cabled as favorable. Broomhall weekly European crop summary was construed as moderately "bullish." Receipts at Duluth 83 cars and at Minneapolis 545 cars, a total of 628, against 674 cars Saturday, 500 cars a week ago, and 378 cars last year. Local receipts included 32 cars Winter, 18 cars Spring and 2 cars mixed, a total of 52 cars, against 56 cars last year. Included in above was no cars of contract grade. There were 3 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 15 cars. Withdrawals were 9,100 bu. Receipts at Western points were 1,094,881 bu, against 630,681 bu last year. At Eastern points 251,838 bu, against 230,675 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 498,980 bu, against 173,253 bu last year, and from Eastern points 288,146 bu, against 152,478 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 25,316 brls. BARLEY—There was a quiet business and nothing in the way of news or change appeared. There were few cars of good quality and no choice offered. Such grades would have sold readily. Low grades, of which the supply was mostly composed, sold in a slow way. Such grades in limited request from maltsters, some of these buyers did not care for such grades at all For feed and mixing Barley the demand was tame and yet under restricted offerings, the best lots were salable and steady. Only 29 cars were inspected in, and none graded above No 4. In values there was no change to note. Sales of Screenings were made at 28@30c and market quotable at 28@30c for poor to choice Barley, feed or mixing, depending on quality, 35@37c; malting, low grade 37@40c; common, 41@42c; fair, 43@45c; good, 46@52c; choice, 53@58c; fancy, 60c and possibly above.

HOG PRODUCTS—Trade was quite active in a speculative way, and the market was greatly unsettled Outside orders were liberal, with a good proportion of a realizing character, and local trading was active Hogs were in good supply, and lower, and this had a weakening effect on the market The undertone to the Grain market was rather easy and had some effect in a general way. When certain figures were reached "stop-loss orders" made their appearance, and this tended to further depress the market, and cause a material decline in prices. Fluctuations in prices were frequent and at times quite wide, making the filling of orders rather unsatisfactory. Trading chiefly in May contracts, and prices ruled lower on all the leading articles, though there was some recovery from the inside prices reached. MONTHLY WEATHER REPORT.

WASHINGTON, Jan 4.—The crop report issued by the weather bureau says the prominent features of the month were low average temperature and generally marked deficiency in precipitation over nearly the whole of the country east of the Rocky Mountains. There was also a decided shortage in precipitation on the Pacific Coast, but the departures from average temperature were not marked.

The reports respecting Winter Wheat, on the whole, are not encouraging. The greater part of the Winter Wheat belt has been subjected to continued low temperatures, with very little snow protection, the southern portion having suffered considerably from alternate freezing and thawing and general lack of moisture.

The following reports were received from the Middle States:

Illinois—Month cold and dry; growth of Wheat retarded by dry conditions; plant small and not in condition to withstand severe cold; tops frozen slightly, but roots uninjured; Rye fair; much soft Corn in north beginning to mold; quality good in south; pastures failed except in north.

Indiana—Some abrupt changes in temperature and severe cold weather during December, but most Wheat in north and central sections protected by snow, and although small is in fair condition; in south section drouth during seeding time and since retarded germination of seed and growth of plant; Wheat is unpromising; considerable Corn is yet in fields.

Ohio—Coldest December on record in parts of State; grass and winter Grains well covered by snow, except in southwest, where there has been some damage to Wheat; early Wheat fair to good; late fair in north and very poor in south; Wheat started very poorly on account of dry weather and stands very poor and weak; some Corn yet to be husked.

Michigan—December cold and snowy; Winter Wheat and Rye generally well covered and protected by snow during entire month; both healthy and promising where covered with snow.

Wisconsin—Month unusually cold, with frequent light snows; winter Grains and grasses well protected from cold, except in limited areas in western counties; Stock reported in good condition.

Minnesota—Temperature below freezing nearly all the month, reaching about 20 degrees below on 30th in southern portions; several light snowstorms, with snow covering State all the month from two to five inches deep in prairie and much deeper in timber regions.

North Dakota—Month generally favorable for Stock on ranges, but little snow on ground and that badly drifted, leaving large bare places on ranges. Stock all in very good condition.

South Dakota—Considerable cold weather; winter Grain well protected by snow during month and considered in satisfactory condition; condition on Live Stock ranges in west portion reported generally favorable; snow on ground in east necessitated larger consumption of Hay than usual, but little Corn in field.

Nebraska—Very favorable month for Corn husking and all fall farm work; Corn nearly all secured. month very dry and rather unfavorable for Winter Wheat, and while the condition of this crop is slightly less promising than a month ago no material damage has been done.

Kansas—Favorable working weather; some plowing done, much Corn gathered; Wheat fair to good condition, being pastured in southeast; early Wheat much damaged by fly in a few central counties.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Generally clear weather and seasonable temperatures. The extreme North not reported. There was practically no precipitation anywhere. The snow map shows a good covering from the Mississippi River east. There is a trace of snow over Missouri and Northern Kansas.

Indications are the temperatures will moderate. The Western storm will advance accompanied by snow in the northern and rain or snow in the southern portion of the district.

The Gulf and Ship Island Railroad Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1 per cent, payable Jan. 15.

The mills of the Republic Iron and Steel Company at Alexandria and Newcastle, Ind., are closed, owing to falling off in business.

Directors of Street's Western Stable Car Line have declared a quarterly dividend of 50c per share on the common stock payable Jan. 25, 1904. Transfer books close January 14 and reopen January 26.

Report of the superintendent of the New York State Bank Department, made public in Albany, declares that the Trust Company of the Republic in its loans to the Shipyard Trust transgressed the law.

Another effort is being made by American capitalists to acquire the several breweries in Mexico with the view of controlling the Beer product of that country. It is stated that brewing interests of St. Louis are back of the project.

The financial statement of the Northern Trust Company, Chicago, shows profits for the past year of $222,130, or 22 21 per cent on the capital stock of $1,000,000. These earnings are not quite as large as those of the previous year, when better than 23 per cent was earned.

Louisville and Nashville net earnings for November decreased $64,965. "Soo" November net increase, $23,346. Norfolk and Western November net increase, $76,069. Lehigh Valley November surplus, decrease, $393,716, including a decrease of $218,379 in net earnings.

Imports into the United States last month estimated at $82,000,000 and exports $162,000,000, an excess of exports over imports of $80,000,000. For the year the imports are estimated at $999,782,381 and exports at $1,472,120,323, an excess of exports over imports of $472 357,945.

The San Francisco Weekly Commercial News of Dec. 31, says: "Rain is needed in nearly all the Hay sections at the present time and growers are beginning to wonder if we are to have a dry year. Grain is in a healthy condition, however, and it is hoped that the needed showers will come soon."

The report that the Pennsylvania, Rock Island, and Baltimore and Ohio Railroads would, within a short time, be practically under one ownership, or that they would at least form a very close alliance, now that L. F. Loree has been made president of the Rock Island system, is pronounced on the highest authority in Rock Island affairs as not only untrue, but too absurd to merit even a denial.

The Mark Lane Express of Dec. 21 says: "An improvement in the weather has meant an improvement in the markets, and it has also been possible to make some needed progress both with threshings and with Wheat sowings. The area at present under Wheat is almost certainly the very smallest on record at the date, for low prices and much agricultural discouragement have coincided with a wet autumn and an unworkable state of the land."

Some of the employes of the Carnegie Steel Company of Homestead, Pa., have gone on a strike as a protest against the reduction in wages made at the end of the year and the tonnage men have given five days' notice in which the company can revise the reduced wage schedule. Refusal to do so to be followed by a strike. The employes of the Steel Hoop Company at Glassport, Pa., have gone out and the men of the Canonsburg Sheet and Tin Mill have gone on strike.

The Agricultural Gazette of Dec. 21 says of British crops "Up to the present the weather of December has been an improvement upon that any of of the autumn months, in relation to farm work. The land had dried sufficiently for plowing by the middle of last week, though it was still wet a few inches below the surface, and heavy soils broken up after harvest turned up in a pasty condition. Wheat sown before the last week of November is now showing nicely in the rows. Possibly some arrears of sowing were cleared off last week, but there is no reason to expect that the full area intended for Wheat will be sown this season. For threshing last week was tolerably favorable, except when the atmosphere was misty."

Reports of gross earnings of railways continue to show a larger volume of traffic than a year ago. Earnings of all the railroads making public reports show total receipts for the first three weeks of December of $20,931,775, a gain of 5.6 per cent as compared with the same period in December, 1902. The same roads in November reported earnings 5.3 per cent larger than a year ago. Nearly all classes of roads continue to report larger earnings than last year, though the increase is mainly in the South and Southwest, where the traffic in Cotton continues very heavy.

Documentary Sterling firm at 481.

New York Exchange 25c premium, bid.

Chicago Bank Clearings to-day, $30,421,767.

British Consols closed ⅛ to 7-16 lower than yesterday.

Reported that 96,000 bu Wheat and 218,000 bu Corn were taken at the seaboard to-day for export.

Deliveries on January contracts to-day were 25,000 bu Wheat, 30,000 bu Corn and 5,000 bu Oats.

Estimated receipts for to-morrow are: Wheat, 20 cars. Corn, 225 cars. Oats, 80 cars: Hogs, 41,000.

Average cost price of Hogs at Chicago, Tuesday, was $4 77, against $4 62 a week ago and $6 35 a year ago.

The Corn crop of Roumania is officially estimated at 78,000,000 bu, against 60,000,000 bu in 1902, and 120,000,000 bu in 1901.

Ten packers purchased 32,800 Hogs to-day; shippers 8,000; left over, 5,000. Market closed strong to a shade higher than the opening.

Stocks of Wheat at Odessa were reduced 1,600,000 bu during December, being 12,800,000 bu, compared with 14,400,000 bu Dec. 1, and 12,800,000 bu on Jan. 1, 1903.

It was reported near the close that a bulletin was posted at San Francisco that war had been declared between Russia and Japan, and this was reported near the close to have been taken down again.

Broomhall cabled Liverpool was strong on a reported skirmish between Russian and Japanese troops, on the lower Consols, and on small Argentine offerings. Corn strong on a large spot and c. i. f. trade.

Local Securities were moderately traded in and an unsettled feeling prevailed. There was weakness and declines in Box Board, Diamond Match, Quaker Oats preferred and Radiator common, and advances in Can preferred and City Railway.

The entire movement of Corn at present seems to be confined to the northern half of Illinois and Western Indiana, and there are no indications of any movement elsewhere, though roads are in perfect condition and weather conditions favorable.

A report of condition on Jan. 4, 1903, of the Colonial Trust and Savings Bank, Chicago, shows undivided profits of $14,557, earned in a year and a half of business. This is about 5 per cent per annum on the capital stock of $200,000. The statement shows loans and mortgages of $708,408 and deposits of $713,693.

Advices from New York regarding the Russo-Japan situation are conflicting, but the report that Japan is ready to land a large force in Corea, and that such landing will precipitate hostilities, receives more attention than the statement that the Russian reply to Japan's note is conciliatory, and that negotiations over some of the disputed points will be continued.

The New York Cotton market opened easy at a decline of 6 to 18 points. The weakness followed disappointing cables, more war talk, and a rather full movement, with the attitude of spinners unsatisfactory and the public not an aggressive buyer. Room traders sold for a turn. On reports of free offerings of spot Cotton by the South in Liverpool prices showed net loss of 14 to 16 points. Prices receded heavily and irregularly, and closed at losses of 72@76 points.

Stocks in Wall Street were depressed by war rumors. London was weak and liquidation by "longs" was a feature. The passing of the dividend on Steel common was the basis for selling, and started rumors that dividends on other Industrials may be reduced or passed. The main support came from "shorts" who found it easy to buy Stocks. Railway shares declined ¾ to 3¼. Coalers 1¼ to 3. Steel 1⅜ to 1¾. Copper 1½. Westinghouse 7 points and rejected 2. Money 2 to 3½ per cent.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Prices have been advanced 10@15c a barrel and the outlook is for much higher prices owing to the bulge in Wheat. Demand mainly domestic. There is some Flour changing hands to go abroad, but the lots are generally small.

WINTER WHEAT—Was steady for the fresh arrivals for which there was no change in price. A moderate demand existed and offerings light. For round lots in store prices were higher and 20,000 bu of No. 2 Red sold, making a range of 87½@88½c, and fresh arrivals free on board quotably 90@91c. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals quotably 86@90c. No. 2 Hard at the river quotably 80@82c, with a sale local free on board at 85c. No. 3 Hard local sold at 74c, and at the river sold at 72@77c, and covered a range of 71@80c for ordinary to choice. No. 4 Hard at the river sold at 70c and ranged at 60@71c depending on quality.

SPRING WHEAT—The market for the fresh arrivals ruled steady and unchanged. A fair inquiry existed and the receipts were small. Round lots of No. 1 Northern followed the advance in the speculative market, and 100,000 bu changed hands at about 4⅜c under May prices, making a range of 87⅜@88½c, and fresh arrivals were quotably 84@87c. No. 3 Spring fresh arrivals ranged at 76@87c for ordinary to choice hard variety, with a sale at the river at 78½c. No. 4 free on board sold at 69c and ranged at 60@78c for very poor to choice, with sales at the river at 71@71½c.

REGULAR WHEAT—The close showed advances of 1¼@2¼c for the day. The volume of trade was of enormous proportions, and about every firm on the floor was in and out at various periods during the session. A late cable received from Paris read: "Speculators are buying Wheat on war news." A San Francisco message read: "Bulletins here say war has been declared." Minneapolis, St. Louis and Kansas City report large sales of Flour for export at good prices. The seaboard reported 12 loads of Wheat for export. At Chicago 150,000 bu were sold. A late message from Wall Street reported a break of ¼ in Consols. There was a genuine war scare on at the opening this morning when nearly all of the leading houses held orders on the buying side of the market. The opening was a wild one and the excitement was at fever heat, with everybody in the pit either scrambling to buy or to sell. May started at 87¼c to 88½c in various parts of the pit. The upturn was not unlike a released balloon, and it was some time before the trade could get its bearings. There were rumors of a skirmish between Russian and Japanese troops in Corea. English consols closed 5-16 to 7-16 lower and English cables closed higher—Liverpool ⅛@⅞d and London 1⅛@1⅝d. Paris was up, too—the resting spots showing gains of 1½@1¾c for the day. On the upturn there were enormous amounts of May Wheat to come out through brokers credited with acting for the principal "long" in the market. Besides the war scare as a help to the "bulls," the snow and rain predicted for the Southwest last night failed to materialize, and that section is still in need of moisture. Odessa stocks of Wheat show quite a good decrease during December. Argentine offerings of Wheat were reported as smaller by Liverpool. There was a sharp bulge at Minneapolis and lesser markets of the country were all better. Receipts at Duluth 25 cars and at Minneapolis 475 cars, a total of 500, against 628 cars yesterday, 690 cars a week ago, and 380 cars last year. Local receipts included 14 cars Winter, 9 cars Spring and 2 cars mixed, a total of 25 cars, against 46 cars last year. Included in above was no cars of contract grade. There were 2 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 20 cars. Withdrawals were 4,000 bu. Receipts at Western points were 941,846 bu, against 600,527 bu last year. At Eastern points 170,692 bu, against 359,288 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 367,830 bu, against 143,447 bu last year, and from Eastern points 77,890 bu, against 41,990 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 32,883 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 225,863 bu.

CORN—Advances of 1@1⅜c were made during the day and there was a strong undertone at the close of the day. The seaboard reported 30 loads for export, and at Chicago 75,000 bu were taken. The first buying rush in this market was by locals some of whom were short, but there was also a demand from a few scattered "longs" who believe that Corn is a purchase even on the hard spots. The strength in Wheat was a feature. The selling came from the old "long" and was in the way of taking profits. Liverpool advanced ⅝d. Local inspection was 266 cars, with none contract. There were 91 cars switched from private to public houses. Local receipts were 371,578 bu, and the shipments 347,000 bu. Weather indications are for generally fair weather, with perhaps a few scattered snow flurries. Warmer weather will prevail. The export demand for Corn shows improvement and is likely to continue good in case Argentine shipments are small for a time. Car lots were in light supply and inquiry good. Prices ½@1c higher. No. 2 closed at about 44c. No. 2 Yellow closed at 45½c. No. 3 closed at 41c for new and 44c for old. No. 3 Yellow closed at 42½c for new and 45½c for old. No. 3 White sold at 41c. OATS—Were actively traded in and the market was strong on war rumors and in sympathy with other Grains. Prices advanced ⅜@¾c, and closed at net gains of ¼@½c. There was heavy commission house trading both ways, and liberal selling for profits on the rise. The ordinary influences had no effect. Receipts were smaller than expected, 35 cars, with 80 cars expected to-morrow. Withdrawals were 14,000 bu. Seaboard clearances were 9,176 bu. Car lots to go to store were ½@1c higher. No. 4 White sold at 36½c. Standard in store closed about 36⅝@36¾c.

Oats by sample were ½@1c higher and in good demand, while offerings were small. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 at 34½c. No. 4 White at 34½@37c. No. 3 at 37c. No. 3 White at 36½@38½c. RYE—Was firmer in sympathy with the other Grains and prices ½@1c higher. The receipts were only three cars. There were no withdrawals from store here and no export clearances reported from New York. No. 2 in store was nominally 53c and fresh arrivals free on board quotably 53@57c for ordinary to choice, with a sale at 53c. No. 3 fresh arrivals quotably 50@52c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet for January, which was nominally 53c. May in some demand and sold at 57c to 57½c and closed at 57½c.

BARLEY—Mixing, that is low grade Barley and Screenings were in fair demand, in light supply, very firm, the latter fully 1@2c better. Malting Barley also strong. Supply very small on the spot market. This fact kept buyers away. Some seemed to want Barley, while others are still supplied. No essential change in prices, but market favored sellers. Hardly any good Barley on sale; it was all common to low grade which was offered. Good Barley apparently is being held back. Only 19 cars inspected in. Sales of Screenings were made at 32@37c and market quotable at 28@37c for poor, seedy to choice. Barley, feed or mixing, depending on quality, 36@37c; some poor, musty down to 34c, malting, low grade 38@41c; common, 42@43c; fair, 44@45c; good, 46@52c; choice, 53@58c; fancy, 60c and possibly above.

SEEDS—Quietness prevailed in all lines and as a rule a steady to firm feeling was apparent. There were evidences of slight improvement in Flax; otherwise no change noticed.

Timothy—The market was without trading. There were present evidences of steadiness. Futures were quoted either nominally unchanged or former prices bid. Little cash Seed on sale. January delivery was nominally $2 95, February $3 00, and March was $3 05 bid. Country lots quotable at $2 00@2 90 for poor to fancy; fair to good, $2 55@2 70, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 35@2 50; tailings lower.

Flax—Threatening war-like conditions in the far East having so much influence on other markets, are affecting Flax also. Situation in the Northwest was strong, and here Flax was firm. No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest salable at $1 05, or at 1c advance. In other respects prices were unchanged. No. 1 was 98½c bid, and Rejected nominally 92@98½c, outside for choice from the Northwest. January was nominal at 98½c, May was $1 03 bid and $1 04 asked. Local movement was receipts of 3 cars or 2,550 bu and output of 1 car or 1,062 bu. Minneapolis got 45 cars and Duluth 17 cars.

Clover—Was quoted as salable and firm. It would command full late prices. The market was without offerings, hence inactive. Contract Seed, spot $11 25, and country lots, common to choice, at $8 00@11 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $7 50@9 00; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00; fair to good quality about $8 50@10 50.

Other Seeds—Remained nominally steady and salable, but no consignments on sale. Hungarian, common to choice, would bring $1 50@1 70. Common Millet, 90c@$1 25 for poor to fancy. German Millet, 90c@$1 25. Siberian, 75@90c. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 75@90c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat, good milling Silver Hull sold at $1 35. Some poor appeared for which buyers and sellers could not agree on value.

HOG PRODUCTS—Quite an active speculative business was transacted in Hog Products and an unsettled feeling prevailed. Outside orders were fairly large, and local trading rather active. Offerings were fair, especially early in the day, and credited to packers, while the demand was moderately active. "Shorts" accepted fair quantities, and there was some inquiry on investment account. Bulk of the trading was in May contracts. Market opened with a good general inquiry and prices were higher. After the early orders were provided for, an easier feeling was developed temporarily, and prices receded slightly. At the decline the demand improved, and a firmer feeling was manifested. Prices rallied again quite sharply, with fair trading at the advancing scale. About the middle of the session, the market was not so strong, and prices receded moderately, but rallied sharply again, and the market closed steady. Receipts of Hogs were liberal, and prices lower, but had no particular effect on the market for Products—offset by the strength in Grain. Receipts at the leading Western packing points were 107,900, compared with 68,000 one year ago. Foreign markets were quiet, with Hams 6d higher and Backs 6d lower. Lard was easy at 9d decline. Domestic markets rather quiet—buyers slow to follow any advance. Receipts of Products were rather large—of Lard and Meats about 32 cars. Shipments were fairly large—of Lard and Meats about 157 cars. Demand on shipping account was fair, and mainly for domestic wants. Offerings was not very large, and steadily held. Sales were moderate, and prices without material change.

Mess Pork—Rather an active business was transacted in Mess Pork, and the market was unsettled and prices irregular. Offerings were fair, and the demand was quite active. Interest centering in May delivery. Opening trades were made at 15@25c advance, but a little pressure to sell caused a decline of 10@15c. Later the demand improved, and prices irregularly rallied 45@50c, but toward the close settled back 7½@10c, and closed steady. Shipping demand was light and offerings were small. Cash lots quotable at $13 50@13 62½.

JANUARY—Quiet, with scattering sales at $13 00@13 05, but the market closed nominally at $13 32½.

MAY—In active request and offerings were fair. Sales were made at $13 20@13 70. Opened at $13 25 to $13 35, sold to $13 37½, to $13 32½, to $13 42½, to $13 25, to $13 20, to $13 35, to $13 27½, to $13 35, to $13 32½, to $13 35, to $13 32½, to $13 40, to $13 32½, to $13 40, to $13 35, to $13 70, to $13 62½, and closed steady.

Lard—Trade was fairly active in the Lard market, and the feeling was stronger. Offerings were not very free, and the demand was rather active. "Shorts" rather anxious about their outstanding contracts. Opening trades were made at 5@7½c advance, but a little pressure to sell caused a temporary decline of 2½@5c. At the decline the demand improved, and prices were advanced 10@12½c. Toward the close the feeling was not so strong, and prices settled back 2½@5c, but suddenly rallied again to outside figures and the market closed rather steady. Foreign advices were unfavorable to holders. Demand on shipping account was moderate and the offerings were somewhat limited. Cash lots quotable at $6 80@6 85. Loose lots called for sparingly and offerings were light. Prices were steady at 72½c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in fair request and offerings moderate. Prices were quotably steady at $7 00. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $8 37½@8 50 for No. 1 and $7 75@7 87½ for No. 2.

MAY—In good request and offerings were fair. Sales were made at $6 97½@7 12½. Opened at $7 00@7 02½, sold to $6 97½, to $7 10, to $7 05, to $7 12½, and closed steady.

Short Rib Sides—Trade was brisk in the market for Short Rib Sides and the feeling was unsettled and prices irregular. Offerings were fairly liberal and the demand was active. May contracts met with most favor. Opening trades were made at 5c advance, and a further improvement of 5@7½c was gained. About the middle of the session, the feeling was not so strong, and prices settled back 2½@5c, but rallied again 10@15c, and the market closed rather steady. Shipping demand was rather light, and the offerings were small. Cash lots were quotable at $6 37½@6 62½ according to weight.

JANUARY—Demand light and the offerings were small. A few trades made at $6 45@6 52½ and closed quiet at $6 52½.

JULY—Offerings were small, and demand light. Sold sparingly at $6 80@6 82½.

Other Meats—Trade was moderately active and feeling was comparatively steady. Offerings not very large and the demand was moderate. Buyers and sellers were somewhat apart in views. Green Meats were in small request, with moderate offerings, and prices ruled steady. Pickled Meats in moderate demand, with only small offerings, and prices were unchanged. Dry Salted Meats in good demand, and offerings were fairly liberal. Prices ruled rather steady. Smoked Meats in moderate demand, chiefly in a jobbing way, and prices ruled steady. CROPS IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

[From Broomhall's Corn Trade News, Dec. 22.]

United Kingdom—The weather has shown some slight improvement during the past week and some arrears of sowing may have been cleared off, but there is no probability of the usual full area being devoted to Wheat this season. The drier spell has admitted of some progress being made with threshings, which must be greatly behind hand and millers may now perhaps look for an enlarged supply of native Wheat.

Russia—The weather in the South is now milder again after a short period of storms, frost and snow, the latter having been sufficient to allow of sledge roads being formed. The weather in general has been variable throughout Russia, but our latest reports show that, except in the South, wintry conditions again prevail. Shipments last week kept at the lower level of the week previous, but are still of good size for the time of year.

Roumania—The weather has been colder, but not severe, and the aspect of the young crops continues to give cause for favorable comment. Some snow has fallen, but not sufficient to give the crops good cover. The season is now getting well advanced and a hard frost would be likely to bring the shipping season to a close at the upper ports, but at date of our last report from Braila there was no appearance of a sudden closing. Shipments of Wheat and Barley keep very liberal, but Corn is coming out very slowly. It is stated that in any case only a few more belated steamers will go up the river to load after the nine now loading are dispatched, and if this forecast turn out correct shipments should fall off at an early date.

Bulgaria—The autumn crops are growing well and growers have made good progress with plowing for spring seeding.

Austria-Hungary—The weather last week was dull and rainy with a relatively high temperature. This weather cannot be considered very seasonable, but the crop outlook continues to be described as satisfactory. The Wheat trade has been rather dull, for holders are not pressing sellers and the mills hold good stocks.

Argentina—The weather has continued very unsettled, one day being reported fine and the next wet. To-day we have a cable advice reporting a change for the better and our agent adds that the crops of Entre Rios have been all secured, the quality being very good. Entre Rios is not a big grower, but it has 500,000 acres under Wheat and nearly as much under Flax Seed. We have just received mail confirmation of the recent big estimates of the exportable surpluses of Wheat and Flax Seed, which were cabled to us from Buenos Ayres and duly inserted in the Corn Trade News. The confirmation proves that the quantities were expected when our cable was dispatched, and as far as size goes the crops must now be made, but very much depends on the weather conditions during and after harvest. It is one thing to have a crop of big size, but it is quite another to have a big crop in good condition to ship.

India—Prospects are still very favorable and new crop Calcuttas are being offered and sold in Liverpool and London.

Australia—In spite of some losses through rust and failure of the ears to fill, the crops of the different States are reported to have given excellent yields, and estimates are running to big figures.

France—In France the weather last week was again too wet on the whole. The continued rains are not regarded as favorable for the crops, although it is fairly certain that the mild, damp weather has enabled the late sown crops in the North to get a fair start, whereas a spell of severe weather might have killed off a large area. The general situation of the crops is still regarded as satisfactory, but in most parts colder weather with snow is much wanted, and it is thought that should the wet weather continue much longer, complaints would become general. Trade is very slow and prices last week changed but little. Offerings are fairly liberal, but millers are very reserved.

Italy—The weather continued wet during the first ten days of December, which rather suited the Wheat crop. However, all districts had had sufficient moisture by the 10th inst., and the need of fine cold weather was increasing.

Spain—General rains have now fallen throughout the country and the crop outlook has much improved in consequence.

Belgium and Holland—Favorable crop weather is reported.

Germany—The crops have a light cover of snow in the South, but in the North the weather has again turned quite mild. The crop outlook is described as quite satisfactory, but more seasonable weather is desired.

North Africa—Good rains have now fallen in Morocco as well as in Algeria and Tunis. The crops in the last mentioned growers continue to look well.

TO IMPROVE GRAIN INSPECTION.

The Directors of the Board of Trade of the City of Chicago adopted the following resolution at their meeting January 5:

Resolved, That the Other Inspection Committee and the Grain Committee, jointly, be authorized to employ one or more competent persons to examine Grain going into and out of elevators declared regular warehouses; and also, to examine Grain in which members of the Board of Trade are interested and which may be stored in other places than regular warehouses in Chicago; and if evidence of wrong or unfair inspection of such Grain is discovered such evidence shall promptly be submitted to the committee and to the State Grain Inspection Department. Should the State Grain Inspection Department refuse to adjust such wrong or unfair inspection, then the joint committee shall collect evidence and submit the same to the Board of Directors of the Board of Trade, in order that legal action may be taken against the proper officials of the State Grain Inspection Department under and by virtue of bonds given by such officials for the protection of the public and for the proper performance of their duties, that the aggrieved party or parties may recover the amount of loss sustained arising from such wrong or unfair inspection.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows there is a trace of snow at Chicago and a trace or two in Nebraska and Iowa. There is practically no precipitation anywhere and none in the Southwest where it is needed. Temperatures are moderate. The feature of the map is that the predicted snows and rains were not realized.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

A fire, Monday, at Taunton, Mass., caused a loss of $50,000.

Twenty-six active copper stocks in the Boston market declined $55,450,000 or 21 per cent in 1903.

The amount of circulation in the United States on Jan. 1 is given at $2,466,345,397, or a per capita circulation of $30 38.

The public debt in December decreased $11,618,000, and cash in the United States treasury increased $10,137,465.

Wabash gross earnings in the fourth week of December were $627,000, and for the half year they were $12,966,700, an increase of $1,421,000.

The fire loss of the United States and Canada for the month of December aggregated $17,225,000, against $14,616,500 for the same month in 1902.

The quarterly dividend of 2 per cent on the stock of the North Chicago Street Railway Company is payable January 15. Books close to-day and reopen January 16.

Rock Island system reports: For October, net earnings, including other income, $1,282,611; November net earnings, $1,245,602; five months ended Nov. 30, net, $7,086,597.

A Chicago commission man who is now in California wired: "If we do not get rain soon California, south of Stockton and San Jose, will raise no Wheat crop at all."

The stockholders of the Brooklyn Union Gas Company have voted to increase the capital stock of the concern from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000, which will increase the number of shares from 150 000 to 200,000 of the par value of $100 each. Out of 150,000 shares there were 113,649 voted in favor of the increase. Not a vote was cast against it.

Chicago's Elevated Railroads broke all previous monthly records in December, except in the instance of the South Side Elevated Company, whose figures for November, set during the City Railway strike, were not equalled. For December the South Side company showed a daily average increase of 5,424 passengers, or 6.13 per cent, over the corresponding month of the previous year. For the full year the road's gain was 10,714 passengers per day, or 13.65 per cent, over 1902. The Metropolitan showing was not so large. For the month of December that company made a daily average gain of 5,012 passengers, or 4.33 per cent. For the year the gain was 6,543 passengers a day, or 6 19 per cent. The Northwestern increased its traffic 4,652 passengers per day, or 4.33 per cent, during December, and the daily average for the year was 4,324 passengers, or 6.77 per cent, in excess of the average showing for 1902.

A New York Stock Exchange man says: "A careful balancing of all conditions leads to the conclusion that 1904 will be a better year in many respects than its predecessor. Times ought to be good for the coming year, especially for Wall Street interests, as it is scarcely possible to have two panic years in succession. Much depends upon our next crops. If they pan out good, then times will be correspondingly so. An accurate opinion of the business situation can only be determined by the Corn, Cotton, and Wheat crops, particularly that of Corn, which is now king of crops. It is food for both man and beast. Corn and what it produces make the bulkiest freights for our railroads. Abundance of food for our people and a surplus for export is the real basis of prosperity in this country, and we can only safely measure it from one crop year to the other. I am inclined to be optimistic for the future between now and the next crop year. Furthermore deponent sayeth not."

In a summary of foreign trade and finance for 1903, published by the Commercial National Bank, Chicago, the following is said of the outlook for 1904: "In summing up the results of the year 1903, we find that trade was as a whole very active; capital found ample employment at remunerative rates. Our foreign trade has been satisfactory, especially with regard to price obtained abroad for our principal staples—Cotton and Grain. The prospects are favorable for continued fair business activity in 1904. Bankers expect easier money conditions, which should help to stimulate new enterprises. One of the favoring conditions to bring about this situation will be a general readjustment along conservative lines of both wages and prices of raw and finished materials. With abundant crops, marketed at good prices, the farmers, the essential source of property in our country, should be in a condition to help us tide over the season of dullness which usually confront us with the appoach of a Presidential election."

The London Statist says: "The control of the money market by the Bank of England in the early months of 1904 will be a somewhat more difficult process than it usually is in the first quarter of the year. Under ordinary circumstances the Government is heavily indebted to the Bank of England at the end of December, and, as the bank is paid off out of the taxes in the March quarter, the market is denuded of cash. This year, however, the Government has borrowed from the market to a greater extent than usual, in anticipation of the revenue to be received in the March quarter. The new treasury bills to be redeemed before the end of the fiscal year are for £8,500,000, whereas last year the amount was only £7,500,000. In the first quarter of next year the sum to be received from income tax will be over one-fourth less than it was in the March quarter this year, while the amount of treasury bills to be redeemed is larger than it was last year. In spite, however, of the prospect that money will accumulate in London rapidly in the new year, and that the market will not be denuded of its resources to the usual extent, it is probable that the bank rate will be maintained at 4 per cent for a considerable period, and that the open market rate will be maintained at a fairly high level until the position of the bank is sufficiently strong to warrant a reduction in the official minimum. One factor which is affecting the market at the present time and is causing discount rates to be maintained is the uncertainty as to the political position in the far East. The hope that no trouble will result is generally felt and expressed. Still, there is a disposition to act with caution, and it must be admitted that so long as negotiations do not result in a settlement caution is necessary."

New York Exchange 20c premium.

The minimum rate of discount of the Bank of England is unchanged at 4 per cent.

Reported that 120 000 bu Wheat and 200,000 bu Corn were taken at the seaboard to-day for export.

Private discount rate in Berlin is 2¾ per cent. In Paris the private discount rate is 2¾ per cent.

Stocks of Hog Products at Chicago estimated at 19,500 brls Mess Pork, 12,500 tcs Lard, and 30,000,000 lbs Short Rib Sides.

Local Securities were slow but irregular, the trade being in small lots. There were declines in Biscuit and Can, and ¼ advance in Swifts.

Average cost price of Hogs at Chicago, Wednesday, was $4 76, or about the same as Tuesday. The quality was the best in some time. Average cost the first three days of this week, $4 83, against $4 68 a week ago, and $6 35 a year ago.

Reserve of the Bank of England increased $4,885,000. Bullion increased $5 121,400 Proportion of the Banks reserve to liability is 37 50 per cent, against 32 68 per cent last week, and compares with advance from 28.0 per cent to 38 38 per cent in this week last year.

According to cable from Liverpool Corn Trade News to the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN the aggregate stocks of Breadstuffs in store in Europe and Argentina on January 1, were 86,834,000 bu. compared with 90,581,000 bu on December 1, and 63,272,000 bu on January 1. 1903.

At a meeting of the directors of Union Pacific Railroad Company, held to-day, E H Harriman now chairman of the Union Pacific board, and president of the Southern Pacific Company, and of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, was elected president of the Union Pacific Company.

The Cincinnati Price Current reports the packing of the West for the week at 545,000 Hogs, compared with 360,000 for the week previous, and 485,000 for the corresponding week in 1903. Aggregate packing since November 1 reported at 1,735,000 Hogs, compared with 4,870,000 for the corresponding time last year—a decrease of 135,000 Hogs.

A London cable says: "Private information of an authoritative character has been received from officials connected with the Nagaski cable station to the effect that while war in the far East is certain, it is unlikely that hostilities will begin for another month. Both Russia and Japan are believed to be finessing for time in order to perfect their armaments."

The Cincinnati Price Current, in its weekly crop summary, says: "Snow covering on Wheat is more extensive than previously. Otherwise no material change. Conditions fair to good in West; fair in northern sections; unpromising appearance in southern regions. Movement fully normal. Corn movement increasing slightly. Some holding. Feeding supplies plentiful."

Stocks in Wall Street developed weakness at the start, but rallied and mostly closed with fair gains. There was less pressure from London and more general buying by the "bear" interest, as there appeared to be too much company on that side. News from the East appeared to be less of a depressing factor, and prices responded more readily to the buying. Money was easy at 2½ to 3 per cent.

The Northwestern Miller says: "As to the Winter Wheat crop, reports vary, but they indicate that conditions are not so favorable as they might be and have been previously. In the Ohio Valley some damage is found to have been done by Hessian fly, and the severe weather has been very trying on the young plant. Within the last few days snow has fallen to a sufficient depth to cover the Wheat, and undoubtedly will prove beneficial. Snow covers the new Wheat in Kansas, and prospects are favorable for the ample protection of the plant there."

The net earnings of the United States Steel Corporation for the December quarter were $14,845,042, as against $31,985,760 for the same period in 1902, and net earnings for the year amounted to $109,979,012, as compared with $133,308,763 in the year before. The balance available for dividends, all fixed charges being deducted, including an item of $5,750,000 for depreciation in inventory values and adjustment of various accounts, for which no sums were charged off in 1902, stand at $55,074,380, against $90,306,524, and leaves undivided profits for 1903 of $11,962,615, as against $34,253,656 in 1902.

In the New York Cotton market cables from Liverpool were better than expected, and estimates for receipts at the ports very light. "Bulls" gave the market good support, and prices advanced about 10 points on the call. At the advance however more or less selling developed, as the news regarding the situation in the far East was an unsettling factor, and some of the private cables intimated that hostilities between Japan and Russia were inevitable. Later, the early gain disappeared and some stop-loss orders were caught, which materially increased the feverishness of the market. Closing sales were 10@14 points higher.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—While the foreign trade is only in small lots at Chicago there were claims by Minneapolis this morning of large sales to Japan. Chicago millers report an excellent domestic demand for Flour at the late advance

WINTER WHEAT—Very little Wheat arriving and but few samples offered. A moderate demand existed, chiefly on milling account, and prices practically unchanged. Nothing doing in round lots. No. 2 Red in store quotably same as January to same as May—83@88¼c depending on quality—and fresh arrivals free on board quotably at 90@91c. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals sold free on board at 89@90c. No. 2 Hard at the river quotably 80@82c, and local at 80@85c. No. 3 Hard local sold at 80c and at the river at 72@77c. No. 4 Hard local sold at 68c and at the river at 62@67c.

SPRING WHEAT—Was quiet and prices without change for the car lot fresh arrivals, while round lots in store were 1c lower. General market weaker. Receipts small and demand light and confined to millers. No. 1 Northern in store quotably 4¼c under May and ranged at 83@84c and fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 85@87c. No. 2 Northern nominally 82@84c. No. 3 Spring local sold at 75c and ranged nominally at 75@80c for common to good up to 83c for choice hard variety, with a sale at the river at 79c. No. 4 local sold at 60@65c and ranged at 55@79c for poor to choice, with a sale at the river at 6 c.

REGULAR WHEAT—The close showed losses of ⅝@1c for the day. It was an irregular and unsettled market, with the changes, at times, quite sharp. The local crowd seemed to have accumulated lines during the day, and near the close, this Wheat came out causing sharp recessions. The seaboard reported 15 loads taken for export. In the absence of warlike dispatches there were pronounced declines in both the May and July futures during the forenoon, and the volume of trade as compared with yesterday and the day before was much smaller. Commission houses had Wheat on sale in lots to suit. There was Wheat to come out through brokers and room traders, but the latter showed a disposition to keep within certain limits on both the buying and the selling side. There were somewhat of a change in the character of the early buying, both the May and July selling into the hands of some best houses in the trade a reflection of profit-taking on Wheat that was put out on the advance yesterday. About noon a Broomhall message was received saying there were rumors of engagements between the Japanese and Russians in the far East. These cables caused some buying and a sharp reaction from the bottom prices reached New York reported foreigners as sellers in that market. The Flour situation in the Northwest was somewhat "bullish," with reported sales to Japan late yesterday. The Northwestern Miller, in its weekly resume of the Flour market, was rather "bullish." The output at Minneapolis decreased 12,030 bbls last week, but an increase is expected for this week. There was a perceptible improvement in the domestic Flour trade at advances of 15@20c, and the bids from abroad were about 3@6d higher. Minneapolis stocks of Wheat increased 1 200,000 bu, with one day more to make up the week, while Duluth increased 250,000 bu for the week. Antwerp advanced ⅛c, while Paris was off ¼@1c. Liverpool was up ⅛d, while London declined ¼@⅜d. The Price Current was a little more assuring in regard to the matter of snow covering, reporting conditions as fair to good in West and fair in Northern sections, but still unpromising in Southern sections, and movement normal. There were continued complaints of dry weather in the Southwest. Indications are for fair weather. Receipts at Kansas City and St Louis 202,000 bu, compared with 322 000 bu a week ago and 71,000 bu a year ago. Primary and Northwestern receipts were larger than a year ago. Cable advices from Liverpool reported a large trade in the Manchester Wheat market to-day, which was considered of interest in England, owing to the strength in English country markets and the resulting advance of 6d@1s the past few days. Berlin May Wheat closed ⅞c higher and Buda Pesth April Wheat was up ⅝c. Receipts at Duluth 39 cars and at Minneapolis 317 cars, a total of 356, against 500 cars yesterday, 679 cars a week ago, and 278 cars last year. Local receipts included 12 cars Winter. 4 cars Spring and 1 car mixed, a total of 17 cars, against 82 cars last year. Included in above was no cars of contract grade. There were 2 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 15 cars. Withdrawals were 59,000 bu. Receipts at Western points were 653,730 bu, against 429,862 bu last year. At Eastern points 134,358 bu, against 259,695 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 305,174 bu, against 170,187 bu last year, and from Eastern points 1,600 bu, against 206,276 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 84,940 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 292,785 bu

CORN—The close showed declines of ¼@⅝c for the day. As the day wore away trade became smaller, and was mainly of room trading character and sympathized with Wheat. The cash business here was moderate, with some sales for direct export but no amount was given. The seaboard reported takings of 25 loads for export. As in Wheat, there was a lack of war news during the early part of the session, but along toward noon a Broomhall cable said that a rumor was current in Liverpool that hostilities in the far East had commenced. Other cables from Berlin, London and Paris said that those cities would not be surprised to hear that shots had been exchanged between Russia and Japan. During the morning hours there was liberal selling by the buyers of yesterday, and later in the day there was buying by the early sellers. Western receipts of Corn were 488,000 bu, compared with 490 000 bu a year ago. Clearances for the day were 139 000 bu, against 335,000 bu the corresponding day last year. Liverpool was ¼@⅜d higher, but there was no report received from London. The local inspection was 217 cars, but none of it was contract, there were 174 cars switched from unlicensed to public houses. MAY—Sold at 47@47⅛c to 48c. Opened at 48c to 47⅝c sold to 47¾c, to 47¼c, to 47½c, to 47@47⅛c, to 47⅜c, to 47⅛c, to 47⅝c, to 47½c, to 47¼c, to 47⅜c to 47⅛@47¼c at close.

JULY—Sold at 46½@47⅜c. Opened at 47⅜c to 47⅛c sold to 47c, to 47½c, to 46⅝c to 46¾c, to 46½ to 47c, to 46¾c, to 47c, to 46⅝c, to 46¾c, closing at 46½@46⅝c

OATS—Were actively traded in. Prices receded ⅜@½c early, advanced ⅝@¾c, but yielded and closed about the same as yesterday to ⅛c higher. Prices were influenced by the action of other markets, the buying by the leading "long" interest and the profit taking by holders in general as prices have advanced 5c from the recent low points. Arrivals were 82 cars, with 95 cars estimated for to-morrow. Withdrawals were 40,400 bu. Seaboard clearances were none. Car lots to go to store were steady. No 3 White sold at 37½c Standard in store at ¼@½c over May, closed about 36⅞@37⅛c.

RYE—Was quiet and prices unchanged. Trading both in cash and futures light. In cash trading was limited to a few car lots of fresh arrivals. Among the receipts was again some poor Western Rye, and it was found necessary to accept lower prices to sell. No. 2 in store nominally 53c, and fresh arrivals free on board quotable at 57½@57c, with a sale at the river at 52c. No. 3 poor sold at 48c to go to store; good at 53@53½c free on board, and at 48½@49c at the river

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet. January nominally 53c. May sold at 57½c and closed at 57½c asked.

BARLEY—Arrivals were about the smallest on the crop. Only 13 cars inspected in. This left the market almost bare of offerings. Medium to higher grades of malting Barley firm and wanted. A little more inclination to negotiate for to arrive lots. Some sold and said to have brought 1c advance, but particulars could not be learned. All grades salable. Mixers not exerting themselves much for Barley owing to Oats being scarce. Screenings were quotable at 25@37c for poor, seedy to choice. Barley, feed or mixing depending on quality, 36@37c; poor, musty below; malting low grade 38@41c, common, 42@43c; fair, 44@45c; good, 46@52c; choice 54@58c; fancy, 60c and possibly above

SEEDS—A stronger feeling came over the Timothy market, and all other lines were steady. There was at the same time general quietness, due to meager offerings

Timothy—Was firmer. For March delivery 5c advance was bid and futures this side quoted at prices nominally 5c better. Few fresh country lots on sale. Some held over Seed on the market, firmly held, above the views of buyers was asked, and some slight improvement in bids reported. January was nominally $3 00. February about $3 05 and $3 10 bid for March, with $3 15 asked. Country lots quotable at $2 00@2 80 for poor to fancy; fair to good $2 55@2 70, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 35@2 50; tailings lower.

Flax—Was quotably steady. A small lot for January delivery sold at ½c decline, but in all other respects prices were unchanged. The market remains bare of offerings and inactive on that account. Thirteen cars or 11,000 bu inspected in, 5 cars or 4 839 bu out. Minneapolis and Duluth each got 26 cars to-day. No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest was quotable at $1 05. No. 1 was 98½c bid. Rejected nominally 92@98½c, outside for choice from the Northwest. January sold sparingly at 98½c. May was $1 03 nominal.

Clover—Was quotably firm. Prices quoted a shade higher outside. There was no essential change here, but feeling strong. Arrivals small. Trade said to be improving. Contract Seed, spot $11 25@11 35, and country lots, common to choice, at $8 00@11 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $7 50@9 00; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00; fair to good quality about $8 50@10 50

Other Seeds—There were some lots of Hungarian and German Millet which had been here a few days disposed of. Prices obtained said to be within the range of late quotations but they were not made known. Market steady and unchanged. Hungarian, common to choice would bring $1 50@1 70. Common Millet, 90c@$1 25 for poor to fancy. German Millet, 90c@$1 25. Siberian, 75@89 c. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 75@90c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat, good milling qotably steady at $1 35. Some poor offered for which much less was bid

The Minneapolis Flour output last week decreased 12 630 brls. The mills, due to New Year's coming on Friday, ran practically only half time. This week nineteen mills, about the same as a week ago, are in operation, but they will run through the six days without any stop. The week's production should be 200,000 brls. A year ago it was 279,000 brls. With the advance in Wheat, shipping directions are coming in more freely, and considering that feed is commanding good prices and that there is an unusually good supply of water for power, inducement to run stronger is not lacking.

There was a perceptible improvement in the Flour trade for the week, especially considering that it was holiday time. Some mills did a fair domestic business Monday and Tuesday, and when the jump of 2½@3c in Wheat came Saturday, there were quite good bookings of orders. Most mills advanced the price of Patent 10c per brl on Wednesday and 10c again on Saturday. The mills naturally had offers out, and these were pretty freely accepted, especially on Saturday. While a good many orders were placed at 10c advance, when it came to paying 20c more, there was reluctance shown and business was checked. The easier Wheat market in the last two days has not helped trade.

Foreigners evinced more interest, but while advancing their bids 3@6d, were more than heretofore out of line with millers' prices. Millers felt that as long as they were so apathetic, there could be no serious apprehension of war in the East. Millers have advanced prices of First Clear 10@15c per brl, and Second Clear even more. This has made it harder than ever to sell these grades abroad

Patent is quoted at $4 40@4 65 per 196 lbs in wood f. o. b. Minneapolis.

The range of Eastern prices to-day, Jan. 6, asked by Minneapolis mills for Patent in wood was: Boston, $5 15@5 25; New York rate points, $5 10@5 35; Pittsburg points, $5 00@5 25; Baltimore, $5 00@5 25, Philadelphia, $5 05@5 25; Albany, $5 10@5 35; Buffalo, $5 00@5 25; Michigan, $4 60@4 75; Iowa, Illinois and Wisconsin, $4 60@4 75.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows a few traces of snow in Northern Minnesota and North Dakota, elsewhere there is no precipitation. Temperature are considerably higher.

Much warmer weather is indicated. The continued lack of snow or moisture in Kansas and the Southwest is the feature of the present weather.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

Reports of lines directly operated by the Pennsylvania Railroad show a net gain of $277,400 for the month of November. Lines west of Pittsburg and Erie show a net decrease of $84,500.

The Pearsons-Taft Land Credit Company had outstanding Dec. 16 a total investment of $12,328,-000, on which only $759 interest was overdue more than six months, none being overdue a year.

Advices from New York, Wednesday, stated that the United Box Board and Paper Company had retired $350,000 of its $2,000,000 Gold bonds under the provisions of the sinking fund mortgage.

The Diamond Steel Company plant at Philadelphia is now closed entirely. The prices of raw and finished products are said to be so close manufacture of Steel has been rendered unprofitable.

The United States Steel Corporation has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on the preferred stock, payable Feb. 15. Books close Jan. 19 and reopen Feb. 16. Nothing was declared on the common stock.

It was announced, Wednesday, at the Southern Pacific Company's offices that the Western roads which have agreed upon the advance of west and east bound freight rates, effective on Jan. 18, are now arranging for an expansion of these rates to points beyond Chicago.

A bill in equity has been filed by the Crucible Steel Company of America in the United States Circuit Court at Pittsburg asking for the appointment of a receiver for the Clairton Steel Company. Judge Buffington, after hearing the petition, appointed William G. Park and the Union Trust Company of Pittsburg as receivers, to take charge of the property of the Clairton Steel Company and operate its plant.

The Chicago Inter Ocean says: "Interests concerned in the People's Gas Light and Coke Company, Chicago, litigation at Washington are of the belief that they will be notified to appear before the United States Supreme Court for oral argument of the 75c gas ordinance case some time between Jan. 10 and Jan. 15. The decision of the Supreme Court in this case should be rendered within a fortnight after the argument."

A party of Des Moines wired: "Reports gathered, Tuesday, all agree that the run of Corn from first hands the past fifteen days has dropped off until there is very little being taken in by country elevator people. The farmers are not selling. As for Oats there is practically no movement from first hands, and no prospect for any present movement. Oats seem to be about the scarcest article of any kind of Grain The supply back in first hands is unusually light for this season of the year."

Dornbush's Buda Pesth correspondent writing under date of Dec 19 says of Flour: "The coming holiday season has interfered with business to such an extent that scarcely any new contracts have been made The forwarding on old engagements also was disappointingly small Stocks of Flour, therefore—despite the reopening of the Fiume route after a three weeks' interruption—show a considerable increase, and are once more larger than perhaps ever before We are now approaching the time of the year when stocks regularly and naturally increase and still the mills go on grinding merrily, without so much as mentioning a possible reduction of the output Prices are nominally unaltered. Feeding-stuffs continue quiet."

There were 9,768 failures reported to Bradstreet's in the calendar year 1903, with liabilities of $154,-277,623 and assets of $84,060 475. This marked a decrease in number of just 2 per cent from 1902 and of 8 per cent from 1901. With the exception of 1899, the increase over which is 1 4 per cent, the year 1903 shows the smallest number of failure casualties reported since 1887. Liabilities, however, owing primarily to the increase in suspensions of financial institutions, but also because of the considerable number of heavy manufacturing concerns suspending, were larger by 45 per cent than those of 1902 and the heaviest, in fact, since 1897. There were 956 failures, involving $8,328,362 of liabilities and $3 852,187 of assets, in the Dominion of Canada in 1903, a decrease of 12 per cent in number on a practically identical total of liabilities.

The New York Life Insurance Company's annual statement shows assets of $352,652,000—an increase of $30,000,000 during the year, although a new rule has been adopted of not taking credit in securities for the market values at close of year over the cost values—an excess of $2,000,000. This is the first time that an insurance company has made a report on this basis, and the rule has been adopted because of the fluctuating character of all securities during the past year. The new paid-for business is $326,000,000—an increase of more than $23,000,000 over the new business of 1902. The total paid-for insurance in force exceeds the enormous amount of $1,745,000,000—a gain of $191,000,000 over the previous year The gain in income over 1902 was $9,000,000. The policy reserves were increased $32,000,000 and the dividends to policy-holders were $5,500,000—an increase in dividends of $1,800,000 in the year. The total Government, State, municipal and other bond holdings exceed $250,000,000, and no single bond in the list is in default of interest. No stocks of any kind are invested in or loaned upon under the company's by-laws.

Formal announcement is made of the failure of a sufficient amount of shareholders of the United States Leather Company to approve the scheme proposed by the Pe body committee. A circular has been sent out which contains the following: "Preferred stock to a par value of $24,872,800 has approved of the agreement either by deposit of the stock or by signing agreements to deposit, and the committee is informed that owners of about $9,000,000 more in par value approve the plan, and would deposit their shares if such shares would make up the requisite 80 per cent, so that more than a majority of the preferred stock has in effect approved the plan. In view, however, of the tacit indifference of the great majority of the non-assenting holders, the committee has decided to withdraw the plan. The plan was proposed upon the request of the executive committee of the company and with its approval it is now withdrawn. Neither the executive committee of the company nor the members of the committee deem the present a suitable time to propose any less comprehensive or alternative plan."

An appeal will doubtless be taken by Charles Flowers to the United States Court of Appeals from the decision of Judge Swan on Thursday last, in which he confirmed the foreclosure sale of the Michigan Telephone Company. The Michigan Telephone bondholders, however, regard the matter as already practically settled, and will proceed with the reorganization plan They have sixty days in which to raise the money, pay for the property, and take it over. Judge Swan held that there was nothing to substantiate the accusations of fraud. He said be could find no instance where the purchasers, for the bondholders, had acted in anything but good faith; the bonds were acknowledged to be valid; the interest was unpaid; and as there were no errors of law in the foreclosure proceedings and no irregularity in the manner in which the special master had conducted the sale, he was compelled to deny the petitions and confirm the sale. Additional funds will be required in whatever plan is adopted, for betterments and extensions It is hinted in Boston that the independent lines will be brought into the new organization.

Representatives of twenty of the thirty-two Grain exchanges of the country met at the New York Produce Exchange, Wednesday, to consider a proposed protest against the bill introduced in the United States Senate by Senator McCumber of North Dakota to provide for the national inspection of Grain. J. O Foering of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce was chosen chairman. A resolution was adopted unanimously expressing the opinion that any measure disturbing existing conditions would be injurious to the best interests of the producer, dealer and foreign buyer: declaring that "the inspection of Grain by the National Government at terminal markets would be detrimental to the agricultural interests and the Grain trade of the country"; that the conference is "absolutely and unalterably opposed to any attempt to exercise governmental inspection of Grain," having found the "supervision of inspection under political bodies to be entirely unsatisfactory," and favoring "the inspection in all terminal markets under the supervision and control of the commercial organizations of such markets." The Chicago Board of Trade recently refused to send delegates to this convention, and favors the action of the National Board of Trade which has indorsed a national inspection. A Government inspection is preferred to a State inspection.

Bradstreet's reports the exports of Corn from the Atlantic and Gulf ports the past week at 1,250,000 bu, against 525,000 bu for the previous week and 2,857,000 bu for the corresponding week last year. Exports from July 1 reported at 29,490,000 bu, compared with 12,576,000 bu for corresponding time last year.

Bradstreet's reports the exports of Wheat and Flour from the United States and Canada for the past week at 3,369,000 bu, against 2,915,000 bu for the previous week, and 5,100,000 bu for the corresponding week last year. Exports from July 1 reported at 93,104,000 bu, compared with 134,216,000 bu for the corresponding time in 1902-03.

Broomhall cables: "Liverpool Wheat opened firm on the small Argentine shipments, but declined later on the advance in Consols. The market is awaiting the developments in the far East. Corn opened lower in sympathy with Wheat decline. Argentine cables report harvesting continuing to make favorable progress. The strike is interfering with shipments."

In Wall Street Stock traders assumed that from the character of the foreign news war might be averted. London was a good buyer, and there was a good deal of covering by the "bear" interest. Easy money also exerted a strengthening influence and a higher average of values was secured. Industrials had good support and gained ¾ to 1¾. Railway shares were up ¼ to 1½, except National Railway of Mexico which gained 4 points. Coalers advanced ⅛ to 1¼. Money 2 to 2½ per cent.

The Modern Miller says: "Snow or sleet has covered the larger portion of the Winter Wheat territory except in the Southwest, where moisture is still lacking, and badly needed. Complaints of insufficient moisture are also coming from the Pacific Coast. The Winter Wheat plant generally has a small top growth. In a few localities no growth above ground is reported. The plant in general is well rooted however. Wet, spring weather is necessary to overcome the backward conditions of crop."

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—The market is in good, healthy condition, but a fair domestic demand with prices steady at the recent advance.

WINTER WHEAT—Was quiet and steady. Receipts are small, and the fresh arrivals, especially of choice Wheat, were taken up readily by millers. Soft Red Winter Wheat especially wanted. No change in prices. No. 2 Red in store ranged nominally 82½@87¼c and fresh arrivals free on board sold at 91c. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals sold at 89c. No. 2 Hard at the river quotably 79@82c. No. 3 Hard local sold at 79½c and at the river at 75c, and the latter quotably 70@79c depending on quality. No. 4 Hard local sold at 65c and at the river at 70c, and quotably 62@70c depending on quality.

SPRING WHEAT—Was steady. A moderate milling demand existed and, besides the car lots of fresh arrivals sold, there were 25,000 bu of No. 2 Northern sold out of store to millers at 5½c under May price free on board. No. 1 Northern in store quotably 82½@83¼c and fresh arrivals quotably 83½@87c. No. 2 Spring at the river sold at 81c. No. 3 Spring local hard variety sold at 80c. and ranged at 74@83c for ordinary to choice hard variety. No. 4 Spring local sold at 62@66c and was quotable at 56@79c for poor to choice and sold at the river at 70c.

REGULAR WHEAT—A good trade and nervous market, but volume smaller than yesterday. Fluctuations were frequent within the limits established and the close was unchanged for May and also for the July. The market started out easier on the better feeling in Wall Street, advance in British consols and indifferent cables. This started the opening rush to sell, but at the decline commission houses were good buyers and a fair reaction followed. The map showed continued dry weather and fair conditions, with moderate temperatures generally predicted by the signal service. While conditions in the far East were considered very serious there was less war news at hand. British consols closed one-sixteenth to ⅛ higher. Argentine shipments 152,000 bu, against 32,000 bu last year. The visible supply there was reported 736,000 bu, against 552,000 bu last week, and 120,000 bu one year ago. Primary receipts were 70,000 bu ahead of last year, and receipts at Kansas City and St Louis were 153,000 bu, against 93,000 bu in 1903. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ½d lower and futures ¼d lower. Receipts there the past three days 592,000 bu, of which 232,000 bu came from America. London came ¼d lower to ⅛d higher. Paris was reported steady to ½c lower. Public cables reported rain interfering with harvesting in Argentina and a strike interrupting traffic in Grain. A direct Rosario cable read: "Wheat receipts increasing; quality of the new crop is very good." Minneapolis wired: "All Flour offerings accepted and millers the best buyers of cash Wheat." Kansas City wired "Look for very much smaller receipts." The prospect of a 2,000,000 bu addition to the visible on Monday was one of the "bear" features. Duluth is expected to decrease 275,000 bu and Minneapolis 1,300,000 bu. Clearings were limited, and total for the week 3,369,000 bu, compared with 5,100,000 bu same week in 1903. Seaboard reported 10 boat loads accepted. According to the monthly statement of the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN there was an increase of 4, 00,000 in the world's supply of Breadstuffs during December, compared with 10,000,000 bu decrease for the same month one year ago. The Modern Miller crop summary was construed as "bullish." A late Paris cable stated that Russia had granted concessions to Japan which would avoid war. Receipts at Duluth 54 cars and at Minneapolis 401 cars, a total of 455, against 356 cars yesterday, holiday a week ago, and 286 cars last year. Local receipts included 10 cars Winter, 8 cars Spring and 1 car mixed, a total of 19 cars, against 38 cars last year. Included in above was no cars of contract grade. There were 1 car and 16,000 bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 45 cars. Withdrawals were 4,000 bu. Receipts at Western points were 653,261 bu, against 452,888 bu last year. At Eastern points 140,794 bu, against 334,916 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 282,933 bu, against 196,866 bu last year, and from Eastern points 7,400 bu, against 290,500 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 8,413 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 45,268 bu.

CORN—There was a good trade and relatively strong market the close being ½@⅝c better for January while May gained ⅛@¼c. The start was easy with Wheat, but after the first rush to sell was over the market displayed considerable independent strength. One of the features was the buying of January by warehouse interests, the discount under May narrowing to 3⅝c, as against 4¼c yesterday. Argentine shipments were small, and spot at Liverpool quoted steady to ¼d better, while futures were ⅛@½d lower. Receipts were 222 cars and 410 cars estimated for to-morrow. Country offerings were light, as also speculative, it being easier to sell than buy futures. The weather was favorable for the movement, but Western receipts were 567,000 bu, against 603,000 bu in 1903. Shipments were 355,000 bu and 469,000 bu respectively. Argentine shipped 334,000 bu; last year, 214,000 bu. Visible there reported 2,169,000 bu; previous week, 1,817,000 bu; one year ago, 197,000 bu. Shippers were after No 3 Corn and demand reported better. Exports were 78,000 bu and total for the week 1,250,000 bu, compared with 2,857,000 bu in 1903. The seaboard reported 5 boat loads accepted. Local arrivals 223,000 bu and shipments 148,000 bu. Transfers from private to public elevators 175 cars. Fair weather, with moderate temperatures, was predicted by the signal service. Sales on track and free on board. No Grade sold at 32@40c. No 4 at 36@41½c. No. 3 at 41½@42c. No 3 Yellow at 42½@42¾c. No. 3 White at 41½@44¾c. Ears at 43c. Billed through: No Grade at 35@39c. No. 4 at 37@41½c. No. 3 at 40@41½c. No 3 Yellow at 42@45c. No. 3 White at 40¼@40½c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Fairly active and weaker at the start, but rallied and closed ⅛c to ½@⅝c higher.

JANUARY—Better demand. Sold at 43⅛@43⅞c. Opened at 43⅛c and sold at 43⅞c, to 43¾c, and closed at 43¾c.

JULY—Sold at 46¼@46⅞c. Opened at 46¼c to 46½c, and sold at 46¼@46⅝c, to 46⅞c, to 46½@46⅝c to 46⅝@46¾c, to 46½c, to 46⅞c to 46¾c to 46⅞c, to 46⅝c, and closed at 46⅝c bid.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 45⅞@46½c. Opened at 45⅞c to 46⅛c, and sold at 46½c, to 46¼c, to 46½c, to 46¼c, and closed at 46¼c.

OATS—Were active within ⅝c range. They opened weak with other Grains, but advanced on reports of a strong cash demand and on good local buying. There was heavy selling by commission houses to secure profits, which caused a recession after the ½@⅝c advance from the low point. A feature was the buying of 135,000 bu Standard for spring shipment at 36¼c in store, and in all 300,000 bu sold for spring shipment. In a few days there has been 500,000 bu of this business here and in the Northwest. Arrivals were 406 cars, with 115 cars estimated for to-morrow. Withdrawals were 19,100 bu. Seaboard clearances were 5,000 bu. Car lots to go to store were firm. No. 1 White in store sold at 35c. Standard in store closed about 36⅞@37¼c.

No. 3 White at 36½@38¾c. Standard at 38@38¾c. Billed through. No 4 White at 37½c. No 3 White at 37¾@38¾c. Standard at 38¾c. No 2 at 38½c. At the River. No 4 White at 33@37c. No. 4 White at 35½@37½c. Standard at 37½c.

RYE—Dull and neglected. Nothing doing and no change established in prices. There were six cars received. There were no withdrawals from store here, and no export clearances from New York. No. 2 in store nominally 52½@53c, and fresh arrivals free on board at 53@56c. No. 3 fresh arrivals quotably 49@52c for common to choice.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Nothing doing. January 52½c bid and 53c asked. May nominally 57½c.

BARLEY—There was a strong market. Little business was done, owing to Barley being scarce. The market favored sellers. For mixing purposes low grade Barley was wanted, and about 1c advance obtainable, and malting grades also salable at full former prices to, in some instances, at somewhat better figures. Holders of to arrive lots reported a better inquiry and some improvement, in some cases 1c advance, in bids. The figures asked were, however, above those bids. Arrivals remain small. Only 21 cars inspected and but a part of these offered. Market for screenings quotable at 28@38½c for poor, seedy to choice. Barley, feed or mixing, depending on quality, 36@38c; poor, musty below; malting low grade 32@42c; common, 43@44c; fair, 45@47c; good, 48@52c; choice 54@58c; fancy, 60c and possibly above.

SEEDS—Firmness prevailed for all lines but Flax. Cash Timothy and all Clover ruled some higher, at the same time Flax prices declined, and the rest were nominally unchanged.

Timothy—There was a strong tone to the cash market. Some which had been held for several days on limits was to-day taken. The cash market was called 5@10c better, with a fair demand and a range of quotations as follows: Country lots quotable at $2 00@3 05 for poor to fancy; fair to good, $2 55@2 75; choice $3 80@2 90, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 40@2 50 tailings lower. Cash offerings very small. Futures were inactive. In these no change quotable. For January $3 00 was bid. February nominally $3 05 and $3 10 bid for March; no regular offerings.

Flax—No business was transacted. Nominal prices were ½@1c below last quotations. Shrinkage in values was in sympathy with decline in Northwestern markets. There were no offerings and no transactions occurred. Movement small; only 2 cars or 1,700 bu inspected in and 4 cars or 3,899 bu out. At Minneapolis 33 cars were received and at Duluth 53 cars. No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest nominally $1 04. No. 1 about 98c. Rejected nominally 92@98c, outside for choice from the Northwest. January was 98c bid and $1 02 bid for May.

Contract Seed, spot $11 50 and country lots, common to choice, at $8 50@11 25; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $8 00@9 50; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00; fair to good quality about $9 00@10 75.

Other Seeds—Nothing in the line of late sowing Seeds offered. All were nominally steady; salable at former prices. Hungarian, common to choice quotable $1 50@1 70. Common Millet 90c@$1 25 for poor to fancy. German Millet, 90c@$1 25. Siberian, 75@90c. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 75@90c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat, good milling quotably at $1 35. Some poor full of Pigeon Grass had to be sold for less.

HOG PRODUCTS—Only a fair business was reported in the market for Hog Products, and the market was somewhat unsettled. Outside orders were not so free, and local trading was on a moderate scale. Hogs were in good supply and lower, and this feature, in connection with an easy feeling in Grain, encouraged an increase in the offerings early in the day, while the demand was only moderate. Prices ruled lower early in the day, but after the early orders were provided for, a little more strength was developed, and prices rallied to outside figures. Toward the close, the feeling was rather weak, with rather free offerings, and prices receded sharply, but closed comparatively steady. Trading mainly in May contracts. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points estimated at 79,200, compared with 62,900 one year ago. Foreign advices indicated an easy feeling in that quarter, and quotations were reduced 6d on Lard and Cumberland Sides. Domestic markets were fairly active. Receipts of Products were good—of Lard and Meats about 31 cars. Shipments were moderate—of Lard and Meats about 106 cars. Demand on shipping account was fair, and mainly from the Southern markets. Export inquiry light. Offerings were fair. Sales were moderately large and prices well maintained.

Mess Pork—A fairly good business was reported in Mess Pork and the market was considerably unsettled. Offering were rather free, and the demand was fair. Market opened rather easy, and prices ruled 15@20c lower. At the decline the demand improved and prices irregularly advanced 15@17½c. Toward the close the feeling was rather easy, with some pressure to sell. Prices receded 22½@25c, but rallied 5@7½c, and the market closed rather steady. Shipping demand was fair, with rather light offerings. Cash lots quotable at $13 00@13 12½.

JANUARY—Quiet, with small sales at $12 80@12 90, and closed at $12 80.

Lard—Trade was fair in the Lard market and the undertone was rather easy. Offerings were fair and the demand was moderate. Foreign advices were unfavorable to sellers. Market opened rather easy and prices ruled 2½@5c lower. Later, a little more steadiness was manifested with moderate miscellaneous buying, and prices rallied 2½@5c. Toward the close the feeling was rather weak and prices receded 7½@10c, and the market closed comparatively steady. Demand on shipping account was small and the offerings were somewhat limited. Cash lots quotable at $6 70@6 72½. Loose lots called for sparingly and offerings were light. Prices were steady at 70c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in good request and offerings were larger. Prices were quotably steady at $6 87½. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $8 37½@8 50 for No. 1 and $7 75@7 87½ for No. 2.

JANUARY—Quiet, with light trading at $6 70@6 72½, and closed at $6 70.

MAY—In fair request, and offerings were rather free. Sales were made at $6 90@7 00. Opened at $6 95, sold to $6 97½@7 00, to $6 97½, to $7 00, to $6 90, to $6 92½ and closed steady.

Short Rib Sides—Rather a good business was reported in Short Rib Sides, and the feeling was not very strong. Offerings were rather free, with a fair proportion credited to packers, while the demand was fair. Prices ruled 5@7½c lower early in the day, but a steadier feeling prevailed later, and the decline was recovered. Toward the close the feeling was easier with rather free offerings and prices receded 7½@10c and the market closed steady. Shipping demand was light and offerings were moderate. Cash lots quotable at $6 25@6 50 according to weight.

Dry Salted Meats in good demand, and offerings were fairly liberal. Prices ruled rather steady. Smoked Meats in moderate demand, chiefly in a jobbing way, and prices ruled steady. PORK PACKING AND PROVISIONS.

[From the Cincinnati Price Current, Jan. 7.]

There is a fair movement of Hogs, considerably in excess of corresponding week last year. Total Western packing 940,000, compared with 390,000 the preceding week, and 815,000 two weeks ago. For corresponding time last year the number was 485,000, and two years ago 610,000. From Nov 1 this to-date is 4,735,000 against 4,250,000 last year—the deficiency being reduced to 135,000. The quality is fair to good. Prices are higher, prominent markets of the close averaging about $4 70 per 100 lbs, compared with $4 55 the previous week, $4 40 two weeks ago, $4 35 a year ago, $5 5 two years ago and $5 15 three years ago, $4 40 four years ago.

The speculative Provision market was firm the past week, and prices made an average advance. The chief factor influencing quotations was the advance in the Grain markets, which was credited to "war scare" reports. While the high prices reached on Saturday were not maintained to the close the market had support enough to fairly well hold most of the gain, and closed higher than a week ago. Aside from the war excitement, there have been no important developments in the situation. The export clearances of Product were fair, showing an increase over the preceding week, but a decrease compared with the corresponding week last year. The reports of stocks of Product reflect considerable increase in Meats for the month, while domestic supplies of Lard are not increased, and are of comparatively small proportions. There is some gain in the stocks in Europe and afloat.

The receipts Cut Meats at centers making monthly returns show the comparisons as to totals, in pounds, according to Cincinnati Price Current compilations, as follows:

	Dec. 1903.	Jan 1, 1903
Kansas City	28,317,000	20,407,000
Omaha	27,783,000	17,450,000
Milwaukee	1,620,000	3,120,000
St. Joseph	15,825,000	12,825,000

This indicates an increase of 21,735,000 lbs in total compared with a month ago, while the stocks were one-sixth less than last year for the corresponding period. The total at these points is now 87,000 lbs more than a year ago and 21,735,000 lbs less than two years ago. The stocks of Lard at Chicago, New York, Afloat and in Europe on Jan 1 were 6,000,000 lbs more than a month ago and 29,000 less than a year ago. The total stocks of Lard at the five centers named in the foregoing table on Jan. 1 were 33,400 tes, compared with 56,300 tes a month ago and 38,200 a year ago.

The total stocks of Cut Meats, of Short Rib Sides, of Sweet Pickled Hams, in pounds, and of Lard in tierces, at Chicago, Kansas City, Omaha, Milwaukee and St. Joseph, compare as follows, for dates indicated:

	Jan. 1, '04.	Dec. 1, '03.	Jan. 1, '03.

[From the Cincinnati Price Current, Jan. 7.]

A greater extent of the Winter Wheat area was covered by snow during the week than in any week previous time this season, and although the temperature ranged very low, nothing of an unfavorable nature has developed during the week. Practically the whole area from the Mississippi River has a covering of snow and portions of Missouri and Kansas have had a light fall of snow. In a general way the northern portion of the Wheat belt reports the condition of the crop as very promising, while in the southern portions the appearance of the crop is more or less unpromising. At present weather conditions are favorable for Wheat.

The recent dry cold weather has facilitated the gathering, husking and cribbing of Corn, which is now well advanced, the bulk of the reports indicating that this work is about finished. Little movement is irregular, in some localities the Grain is being held, in others it is offered rather freely; on the whole there is a fair movement in Illinois and Indiana. In the West there are a little reports that feeders are buying Corn a little better, but the tendency is not general. The prevalence of much soft Corn is still reflected in low prices for Hogs.

In nearly all sections there are ample to liberal quantities of rough feed, including Hay, for which there is fair demand. Live Stock so far have wintered well, and are generally in good condition for the season, the most marketed freely.

THE HOP SITUATION.

[From New Producers' Price Current, Jan. 2.]

The Hop market has continued in a very firm position even through the holiday week. Large purchases are being made on the Pacific Coast at 25@30c, and as California is practically cleaned up, with Washington only holding a small crop, the bulk of the business is being done in Oregon. Speculators are selling some of their holdings and taking profits. Considerable business has been done on this market among dealers. The medium Hops have changed hands at 22c and prime Hops now command 25@27½c. For choice growths the asking price is now 30@32½c. While the margin is little doing owing to the fact that growers are practically sold out. What remaining stocks of State Hops are left can only be obtained from the dealers. The German market is also 10 marks higher since last report, and quality that was deemed unsalable is now commanding as high prices as choice Hops did a few months of the season. From England we hear that the market is stronger, but the chief demand seems to be for the choicer grades, which have advanced in price, while choice have remained about stationary.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows snow at Moorehead—.02—and a trace at Dubuque and a few traces of rain in the Ohio Valley. This is all the precipitation shown. There is none at all in the Southwest, where moisture is needed. Temperatures are everywhere mild. The dry weather in the Southwest continues.

HOPS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

[From San Francisco Commercial News, Dec. 31.]

The California market is firm, with supplies going steadily out of first hands. All indications are for a light stock in a short time, and Brewers have bought freely in view of the season. Oregon reports the first large sale of fancy Hops in several months, a lot of 600 bales, at 23½c. The medium grades continue dull at the 20@23c. According to the Oregonian if the market continues brisk the stock in growers' hands will soon be reduced to 5,000 bales. There are at present about 7,000 bales in Washington, 4,000 in Oregon and 2,000 in California, at 23½c and choice from 20c to 22c. It is estimated that stocks in growers' hands do not exceed 2,500 bales, of which 1,500 bales are in the Yakima district and 1,000 in Western Washington.

George Foster Peabody has issued a circular announcing the withdrawal of the plan for funding the back dividends on United States Leather preferred.

The Finance Company of Pennsylvania has declared a dividend of $1 00 per share on the second preferred stock, payable Feb 1 to stockholders of record Jan 2.

Stockholders of five of the State Banks of Chicago held their annual meetings, Tuesday. All the meetings, as on Monday, were routine and perfunctory, the changes made indicating no interlocking of ownership.

The Supreme Court of Ohio, Tuesday, decided two cases involving the suicide clause in life insurance policies, holding that such restrictions are void. The decision affects about 300,000 companies in a case where the insured committed suicide within two months after taking out the policies.

It is rumored at the Santa Fe general offices in Topeka, Kan., that the tariff clerks of the freight department of the road are to be moved to Chicago in a short time. The assistant general freight agent of the road was expected at any time ago to Chicago, and the tariff clerks will be in his department.

The Secretary of the Chicago Stock Exchange, Wednesday, received a notice from certain stockholders of the common and preferred stocks of the United Box Board Company have been enjoined from transferring their holdings by the New York Stock Exchange in the event of a merger with the American Can Company. The action was due to a suit started last summer.

It is reported that the American Car and Foundry Company is likely to close some of its plants for a few days during the month, in addition to them it will close, as the matter is still under discussion. Some of the plants are now working on short time, and it is said that is said to be growing less and the alternative remains to close until business picks up.

During the last two weeks over 40,000 wage-earners who have been idle for months have been furnished employment by the resumption of operations in the Pittsburg, Pa., district. It is said the demand for Iron and Steel products is increasing, and contracts are being placed in good condition any time during the depression, which covers a period of nearly four months.

The Steel rail mills of the United States are estimated to have in operation 15 in all, with a total aggregating 1,600,000 tons, just about one-third of their capacity. This is compared with the new year opening with 27 mills, orders for about 4,000,000 tons carried over from 1902 and the capacity for the year at 1,800,000 tons, a total of 2,200,000 tons, or more than two-thirds of the entire capacity.

Traffic on the Lake Shore Elevated Railroad, Chicago, for December shows a gain amounting to 2 45 per cent including transfers, and 2 81 per cent on the main line. For the year the total passengers carried, including transfers, amounted to 2,745,771, as compared with 15,849,411 in 1902, a gain of 1.49 per cent. On the main line the total passengers carried were 10,000,000, as compared with 15,000,983 in 1902, a gain of 3 81 per cent.

The receiver for the United States Shipbuilding Company, Monday, filed at Trenton an answer and cross bill to the suit of the Mercantile Company of New York to foreclose its lease for the $16,000,000 mortgage executed Aug. 12, 1902, be set aside as fraudulent, and that Charles M. Schwab and his associates be required, for reason of using Judge Kirkpatrick and testify. The answer declares that the mortgage is not valid as against the receiver.

The Union Trust Bank, Chicago, last year passed the most profitable twelve months in its history. There has been some talk of beginning dividends, but it is officially stated this will not be done. The policy which has been followed for years of using the earnings to strengthen the bank will be pursued for some time to come. Probably $50,000 more will be added to the surplus account, making $100,000 added during the year. The surplus will then be $400,000. The capital of the bank is $1,000,000.

Directors of the American Car and Foundry Company met in New York, Wednesday, and reduced the dividend on the common stock from a 6 per cent basis to a 2 per cent basis. Regular dividends at the rate of 7 per cent on the preferred stock were declared. Dividends were declared for two quarters on both. The reasons for the reduction by the directors are the close of the fiscal year, and of earnings for the quarter ending Nov. 30 last. A falling off of about $400,000 in net receipts was shown.

A Boston dispatch says: "The prevailing cold weather has been exceptionally good for the Wool trade the past week, even if in an indirect way. Buyers have taken in large orders of heavy-weight goods, and the mills report a rush of business. Manufacturers have no large stocks of Wool on hand, but heavy purchases have been made and more are probable. The market for territory Wools is firm; pulled Wools hold firm in price, with a fair demand ruling. In foreign Wools the demand is quiet at steady prices."

The preliminary statement of the Equitable Life Assurance Society shows total assets of $365,000,000. The outstanding insurance is $1,460,000,000, and the income last year $72,000,000. The surplus fund has grown to $73,000,000. The new insurance written last year was over $200,000,000 larger than any previous year in the society's history. The amount paid in dividends to policy holders was larger than during any previous year in the society's history, and also larger than the amount ever paid in any year by any other company.

Nearly 18,000 employes have been discharged in the past three months by the railroads terminating in Chicago. Most of the discharged were in the maintenance of way department. In addition to the sum saved by discharging employes, nearly all of the railroads have reduced their working expenses by reducing the number of hours of work. As a result engineers, firemen, and trainmen in many cases are actually getting less money per month than they could before the general increase in wages last summer.

The Illinois Trust and Savings Bank, Chicago, gives notice that it has made arrangements for the convenience of the local holders of the preferred stock of the Alton Railway, Light and Power Company to accept the deposit of such shares of stock for forwarding to Messrs. Kuhn, Loeb & Co., New York, under the plan of reorganization, and for an advantageous sale. Temporary receipts will be issued by the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank, which will be exchanged for receipts of Messrs. Kuhn, Loeb & Co. "This notice is important that all stockholders who desire to deposit their stock for sale under the terms of said agreement should do so at once."

Proceedings regarding the injunction prohibiting the transfer of certain amounts of stock of the United Box Board and Paper Company came from New York Thursday. It appears that the injunction was issued by Justice Leonard of John H. Schutts restraining the transfer of the stock which was given as a bonus to the purchasers of the company's bonds. It is this stock which is being held in escrow. There is $1,000,000 worth, $500,000 preferred thus tied up. The company has made no effort to dissolve this injunction, but is waiting until near the date set for the trial to do so. The company's officials say that they have no doubt that the injunction will be dissolved in due time.

The New York Sun in its annual financial review for 1903 says: "Making all due allowance for the desire that is instinctive with most people to believe that the future will bring gifts of jewels rather than of thorns, and for the sanguine temperament in which the American blood is half, the prognosis of financial and business affairs in our country for 1904 must be held, so far as present indications go, to be reasonably favorable. And concerning the stock market particularly, the conclusion is irresistible that, if it were not for the Eastern war cloud and the fears of disturbance proceeding from the Presidential election, we should have, easy money being assured, a very liable boom in prices."

The voting trust in the common stock of the Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company of Chicago, will expire by limitation on Feb. 1, at the end of its five years' existence. The common stock will then have equal voting powers with the preferred stock. A voting trust agreement for the Central Trust Company of New York for the common shares will be exchanged for the certificates of stock. As the other securities of the Metropolitan Elevated are listed on the New York Stock Exchange, the management has decided to list the common stock also when released from the voting trust, and application has therefore been made to the New York Exchange to list the $10,000,000 common stock. A financial statement of the company has been sent to the Exchange for the purpose.

Pursuant to the call of the Illinois Auditor of Public Accounts, the State banks of Chicago, Thursday, made public their statements of conditions at the close of business on Dec. 30. The statements are more than ordinary interest, since it closed the year for the banks and permitted a close estimate of the growth of the banks of the city during 1903. In this, for example, the figures of the First Trust and Savings Bank and the Jackson Trust and Savings Bank, which began business since the last previous report, on Oct. 15, the twenty-eight State banks in the city in existence on Dec. 30 show a total aggregate increase in loans since the previous call of $6,137,717, or 4 14 per cent; an aggregate decrease of deposits of $1,501,000, or 1 per cent, and an aggregate decrease of $8,626,111 in cash means, or 11.11 per cent.

The ruling in the negatives as to whether regular soldiers of the United States, who receive pay in excess of ten or more, are entitled to the "pay" now given by railroad companies to theatrical troupes and other such organizations, was affirmed in an opinion announced at the session, Wednesday, of the United States Court of Appeals at Chicago, Thursday. In ruling against the Government when the case was heard in the lower court, Judge Grosscup entered judgment in favor of the Illinois Central and Northwestern Railway Company for $113, the difference between the party and the regular rate of fare charged. A number of questions in the opinion states in substance that the denial of the party rates does not amount to a violation of the interstate commerce act.

Advance sheets of the annual report of the Illinois Railroad and Warehouse Commission for the year 1903 show the railroads of the State have enjoyed a year of unlimited prosperity. Former recommendations for legislation are restated, especially along the lines looking to a more complete control of the interurban lines by the Railroad and Warehouse Commission. Among other important items it is shown that the total capital stock of all corporations in the State owning roads was increased during the year $10,676,833. In 1903 the capital stock amounted to $3,940,363,884. For the year ending June 30, 1903, the total assets of all railroads in the State were $1,440,353,535, an increase of $127,198,043. For the same period the total liabilities were $1,411,384,501, an increase of $388,320,413. The report says the total mileage in the State is 18,511, an increase over the year 1902 of 496 miles.

A director of many leading railroads and industrials in the United States is quoted as saying: "The financial requirements of the large railroads and industrial combinations is causing grave concern in leading banking circles. When I consider the financial needs of the various railroads and industrial properties with which I am connected and have knowledge, I have to hold up my hands, for, for the life of me, I cannot see where the millions are coming from. A Russo-Japanese war will not help the situation, for we have been depending somewhat upon Europe to take some of the securities we are offering, and a disturbance in the far East would interfere somewhat with this program. I do not know of a large railroad corporation which is not in need of money. It is the same with the banks, which are credited as having trouble in providing for their requirements. Imagine the position of the second-rate roads with questionable credit."

The Philadelphia Ledger says: "For the first quarter of 1904 we think there is every assurance of easier money; that there will be a turn for the better in the iron trade, and that the railroads have been cut so radically that surplus stocks will be consumed and the market cared up for a better demand; that the bond market will improve, so far as transactions are concerned, because the investing public is becoming familiar with the accumulated demand must be larger than for years; and that the general Stock market will continue narrow, except for the better grade of dividend payers. We believe that a genuine revival of bull speculation will be deferred until the final decision in the Northern Securities case is handed down, and the Government Suits against other trusts. This may be next month. If it is in favor of the Northern Securities Company there is likely to be a renewal of the movement for the consolidation of various railroad and industrial interests, and now maintain separate organizations. If the decision is adverse to the company we do not look for any serious consequences. A legal decision, however, is not final, and does not affect valuable property, and there will be just as much freight to haul after the decision as before, while dividends may just as easily be declared upon the various stocks as upon one Stock representing the whole."

WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW.

MONEY AND STOCKS.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY EVENING, Jan. 8, 1904.

There is an easier tone to the money market not only in Chicago, but in New York and in Europe. There has been an accumulation of funds in all quarters of late and more disposition on the part of lenders to shade rates. More money was loaned in Chicago this week at 5½ per cent, and there were rumors of 5 per cent being accepted. Currency is returning from the country in normal volume, and the general belief is in easier money all around. New York banks have gained from the interior of late and call money on the Stock Exchange there was down as low as 2 per cent. Bankers are not looking for any lower rate than 5 per cent. Deposits are increasing, packers are borrowing to a fair extent, and the general requirements of merchants and manufacturers is fair. There are those who believe that requirements of the railroad, mercantile and manufacturing interests will be very large in the future, and they may possibly make a stronger market. Time money in New York loaned at 4½ to 5 per cent and was easier to get. There has been a large increase in loans the past few weeks, and all the predictions of low rates for the first part of the year are being verified.

Foreign exchange was stronger and rates on sixty day documentary sterling bills on London ranged at 480 to 481½, and closed at 481¼@481½, with the offerings somewhat reduced.

In the New York Cotton market there were wild times. The week opened with a "bearish" sentiment, and prices receded, but on Wednesday there was a movement against the "shorts" and prices advanced 68 to 80 points, and broke later on war rumors. The fluctuations the remainder of the week were sharp, and closing sales were at gains of 100 points over the previous week. The census bureau's report showed 8,848,747 commercial bales ginned up to December 12, 1903, compared with 9,311,835 bales up to and including December 13, 1902. Counting round bales as half bales, the number of bales ginned is 8,526,244 bales this season, against 8,905,503 last season. The "bull" element was active on the buying side and the disposition of "shorts" to sell whenever the market weakened gave them plenty of material to work upon.

Local Securities were unsettled, with light trading within a wider range of prices. The erratic feeling in Wall Street was in a measure reflected here and price changes were frequent and on a few stocks decidedly marked, with the principal changes in the way of declines. The Industrials that were traded in chiefly were Biscuit, Can, Boxboard and Diamond Match. Elevated shares were sparingly handled, the traffic statements for the year showed good gains over 1902. The bond market was slower than anticipated, sales on the Exchange and over the counter were not as brisk as they should be for the season.

Stocks in New York were influenced to a great extent by the war rumors. When the news from the East had a pacific tone stocks advanced, but when it changed and it looked as though war was imminent prices weakened perceptibly and it appeared to have little support. Foreigners played the war news extensively and the action of London was immediately followed by Wall Street. Weakening in the money market was offset by the action of the Steel Corporation in passing its dividend on common, and it led to general selling in the way of liquidation. The support on the whole was poor except in a few specialties that are controlled by Standard Oil interests. The ordinary influences have little effect for the time being. Railroad earnings, the labor situation and the condition of the Steel market are subordinated by the war news. The close as compared with a week ago was at good declines. Total sales on the New York Stock Exchange for the week were 3,102,000 shares, compared with 6,374,000 shares last year.

The New Year opened with a moderate business in all lines of merchandise. The buying was confined to small lots, the disposition on the part of most distributors being in favor of taking supplies as they are required, and to buy more frequently. Salesmen have started out on the road after the holidays, and have done fairly considering the cold weather in the Northwest. The latter has brought in fair reassuring orders for heavy goods to the dry goods houses. Conditions in the Steel market have improved, although the mills have less unfilled orders on their books than for several years. The United States Steel Corporation on December 31 had orders booked for 3,215,123 tons or 300,000 tons less than at the beginning of the last quarter of 1903. This is taken as an indication of a good business in the future. There was fair buying of pig Iron and liberal deliveries on previous contracts. Supplies are not increasing to any extent, and the longer furnaces and mills remain closed the better will be the conditions for the future, as the surplus stock will be used up. There was a fair jobbing trade in light and heavy hardware, and a light business in lumber. The stocks here are larger than a year ago, considering the white pine and hemlock, but of hardwoods show a decrease. In other lines of merchandise sales were light. Collections are not so good.

COMMERCIAL.

Business on 'Change the past week was quite satisfactory, the volume being larger than for several weeks. Outsiders apparently were more disposed to invest their capital, and local traders operated on a more extensive scale. Part of the large January disbursements no doubt are finding their way into the Grain and Provision markets, the chief motive and incentive no doubt being the prospect of war between Japan and Russia. Ordinary influences had little or no effect on speculative values, the movement, foreign demand and exports being lost sight of for the moment. "Bull" interests were strengthened in their attitude and "shorts" became frightened and, while liquidation by "longs" was on an extensive scale, all offerings were readily absorbed. Indications are that speculation in Grain is likely to further broaden and continue to enlarge with the approach of the spring months. The annual election of officers for the new year occurred this week, and while some changes from the late policy are likely to be made, no radical measures are contemplated.

Foreign advices received this week would indicate winter crops in important growing sections were not in the best of condition. Temperatures were reported too severe in Russia, but in some portions of the country were accompanied by snow storms. Snow is said to be wanted in France, Germany and Hungary, and more is needed in Roumania. The outlook for the crops in India continues satisfactory and weather conditions in the Argentine were on the whole more favorable than a while back. Conditions in the United Kingdom were only moderately satisfactory. Reports from Australia stated the yields were excellent. In Spain and Italy the conditions are satisfactory, and in Belgium and Holland favorable weather was reported.

Weather conditions in the United States were not altogether satisfactory the past week. There is a lack of snow protection to Winter Wheat in important sections of the West and Southwest, but the Ohio Valley was visited by further precipitation and snow, greatly improving the outlook. Reports from certain divisions of the Winter Wheat belt were not very encouraging, an extended area being subjected to continued low temperatures, and some injury has resulted from alternate freezing and thawing and general lack of moisture. The state report of Ohio made the condition only 77 per cent, compared with 93 per cent one year ago. Early Wheat was reported damaged by fly in Kansas, and the general outlook in Nebraska is less promising than a while ago. Wheat growth, too, in Illinois has been retarded, and this is also the case in Indiana, more particularly in the South.

The movement of Grain from the farms and interior elevators was very fair the past week at terminal points. Arrivals in the Northwest showed up well and the stock at interior elevators Jan 1 was reported 6,514,000 bu, compared with 6,636,000 bu Dec. 1 and 6,887,000 bu Jan. 1, 1903. Through Central West marketing of coarse Grains was somewhat freer, the recent advance in prices no doubt being responsible for same. In the Southwest the movement of Wheat continues liberal and there is apparently no limit to the supplies in Kansas and vicinity. Through the South the movement of Grain was moderate. Shipments to the seaboard from the West were just fair. A few contracts are being made to load and hold until spring on a basis of 2½c for Corn and 1¾c for Oats. Arrivals of Grain at the seaboard were fair and exports of Flour and Wheat liberal and fair of Corn. Bookings forward shipment were moderate. According to the domestic visible supply of Grain as compiled by the Secretary of the Chicago Board of Trade there was an increase in the supply of Wheat, Corn and Oats, and a decrease of Rye and Barley.

Speculation on the Chicago Board of Trade was quite brisk the past week, increased activity being manifested in all the leading markets. All influences were subservient to the war news, the chief topic from day to day being the advices received from the far East. Sentiment in consequence leaned to the "bull" side and substantial advances were scored in Grain as well as Provisions. Buying for foreign account was a feature and lent color to the sensational advices of war between Japan and Russia, which was feared might possibly involve Great Britain later on. "Bull" interests liquidated large quantities of Wheat on the various advances, but the offerings were absorbed readily and apparently from outside sources. The absence of ample snow protection in important growing sections of the West was also one of the "bull" influences. The comparatively small rural movement and statistics in general were the "bear" features. Corn and Oats sympathized with Wheat. Hogs Products were active and stronger. Outside orders were for larger quantities and local trading on a broader scale. "Shorts" accepted fair quantities and inquiry on investment account better. Bulk of the trading in May contracts. Hogs were in good supply and prices somewhat irregular. Foreign markets comparatively steady. Stocks of Product on hand January 1 were about as anticipated outside of Lard, which were lighter. Stocks of Pork was 3,221 brls less than on December, while the stocks of Meats was 43,605,000 lbs more. Packing of the West for the season was reported 4,735,000 Hogs against 4,870,000 in 1902-3, a decrease of 135,000 Hogs.

The trade in cash Grain was fair considering the season of the year. Current receipts sold well and there was apparently more business done in round lots than reported in the open market. The quality of the offerings was rather poor. Very little Wheat now coming that was desirable and the off grades were rather dull. Offerings of Corn moderate and demand fair. More inquiry on export account. Oats sold well at higher prices, the offerings being small. Rye was quiet but firmer. The trade in Seeds was light, but a firm undertone prevailed. Hay was in good request, that is Timothy and prices were firm. Prairie quiet. Hog Products were in fair request, but mainly for domestic wants. Offerings were not large and steadily held. Sales fairly large, with slight change in prices.

FREIGHTS—Eastbound roads have more cars for Western business and Grain shippers are faring better. The tariff is as follows:

Boston	22	15	25	17½
New York	20	15	22	17½
Philadelphia	18	14	20	16½
Baltimore	17	13½	19	16
Newport News	17	13½	19	..

Flour rates are 20c domestic and 16½c for export. Provision rates are 30c per 100 lbs, Chicago to New York.

Rail rates from Buffalo to the seaboard are 4½c per bu on Wheat, 4¼c on Corn, and 3½c on Oats. To New England they are 5½c on Corn and 3¼c on Oats.

Ocean rates on Grain are low, with a light business. Rates on Grain are ¾@1d per bu from New York and ¾d from Boston. Through rate on Wheat from Chicago to Liverpool is 11¾c per bu and Corn 11½c. Flour 24.94c per 100 lbs and Provisions 44.00c per 100 lbs.

FLOUR—Advances of 10@20c have been made in this market during the period under review. The strength in Wheat and the premium that millers are forced to pay for good milling qualities of that cereal are the principal factors against the buying side of the house. The outlook at present is for a still higher range for Flour, but this will depend entirely upon the action of the Wheat market, which is now in the hands of, and under complete control of, the "bull" party. The domestic demand for Flour is the principal mainstay, but none of the buyers are taking hold in a big way. Buyers have been used to holding off and have refused to take hold unless concessions were granted by millers, and as conditions have favored them for two years or more they are now inclined to buy only in a consumptive way—hoping for a turn in the tide in their favor. The bids from abroad show that foreigners are taking more interest in the Flour markets on this side and some Flour has been sold at Chicago during the past week for foreign shipment. The consignments continue small and wholly from the interior mills of the Spring Wheat country. The Southwest is not offering a pound of Flour on consignment and all shipments are made only after the Winter Wheat miller has been thoroughly satisfied as to the price. All the city mills are running on full time and selling their output, helped some by deliveries on old contracts. The Minneapolis millers claim that their sales on foreign and domestic account show considerable improvement and that the holiday dullness has come and gone, leaving higher prices. During the week sales ranged as follows:

MILLSTUFFS—A good demand existed during the past week and the receipts were only fair. Bran in bulk quotably $16.00 per ton, and sold in sacks, sacks included, at $17.00. Middlings, in 100-lb sacks, sacks included, sold at $16.50 and Shorts in sacks at $15.50.

WINTER WHEAT—The cash market has been in good condition during the past week. A satisfactory demand has existed for all good to choice milling Wheat and such lots have ruled firm and brought higher prices. Very little really desirable Wheat has been received and fresh lots which meet the milling requirements were taken up readily even in the face of declining speculative markets. The reason for this lay partially in the fact that the receipts have been very small and less than actual requirements; larger receipts could easily have been disposed of. Soft Red Winter Wheat was what was wanted, and choice Hard Winter Wheat also had good sale for certain purposes, but the poor Wheat remained dull. Of course there was sale for the poor lots, but they were not sought after and were relatively harder to sell and that meant less satisfactory prices, in other words it meant to meet buyers views to make sales. The receipts have been small. No shipping business of consequence was transacted and but few round lots sold out of store, trading being confined to supplying the wants of millers and home buyers and restricted principally to the car lots of fresh arrivals. The receipts for the week aggregated 101 cars and there were withdrawn from public elevators 4,200 bu and from private warehouses 28,200 bu and 37 cars. The stock of contract or No 2 Red Winter Wheat in store here is 412,000 bu. No 2 Red in store ruled from the same as January to May prices depending on quality and ranged at $1⅝@88½c and fresh arrivals sold at 91c. No 3 Red sold at 89@91c for choice and ranged at 86@91c. No 4 Red sold at 64@80c. No 2 Hard Winter local sold at 83½@85c and at the river at 80@81c. No 3 Hard local sold at 71@80c for ordinary to choice and a choice car billed through sold at 82c with sales at the river at 70@79c. No 4 Hard at the river sold at 60@73c.

SPRING WHEAT—There has been only a light trade and the market has ruled quiet during the past week. No shipping demand existed to speak of, but a few round lots changed hands in a speculative way. A fair milling demand existed for good to choice milling Wheat, and the fresh arrivals of such were taken up readily, but the receipts have been very small and little business could be done. There was ready sale for all the desirable milling Wheat and more could have been sold. Of the poor Wheat there have been a number of cars received, and while ordinary Wheat was salable there has been no special call for it, and low prices had to be accepted—it did not improve to the same extent that the better samples did. The receipts for the week aggregated 69 cars. There were withdrawn from public elevators 25,700 bu, and taken from private warehouses 16,000 bu and 1 car. No. 1 Northern in store ranged at 81⅝@84½c and fresh arrivals free on board quotably 84@87c. No 2 Northern from store free on board sold 5½c under May price. No. 3 Spring local sold at 75@82c for ordinary Wheat to choice hard variety, with sales at the river at 75@85c. No. 4 Spring local sold at 58@81c for poor to choice hard variety, with sales at the river at 60@75½c.

REGULAR WHEAT—The trade was of good volume the past week, the market at times being decidedly nervous and unsettled. Price changes were sudden and frequent, the attitude of the "bull" interest in May and foreign political situation being the two chief influential factors. The close, compared with the final figures of last Thursday, show May 2¾@2⅞c higher while July gained 3¼@3⅜c and September 3½c. The week under review started out as an old-fashioned "bull" market, the May advancing under an urgent miscellaneous demand to 87¾c, July to 82½c and September to 80⅛c. The war scare was the dominent influence and "shorts" covered freely, prominent operators in the East being credited with evening up outstanding contracts. The light Argentine shipments, absence of moisture and snow covering over an extended area in the Winter Wheat belt, together with the strength displayed in other outside speculative centers, also added to the "bull" enthusiasm. The market acted oversold and for a time was on the runaway order. The more peaceful tone of the European war news, coupled with the freer movement in the Northwest and Southwest, together with predictions of rain or snows over areas where much needed, tended to change local sentiment from the "bull" to the "bear" side and on the general selling which followed May touched 85¾c, July 81c and September 78½c. The decline would probably have been even greater but for support by the "bull" party in May. Argentine crop news was less in evidence this week, but most of the cables indicated no serious interruption with the harvest. Broomhall's weekly crop summary on the outlook in foreign countries was generally looked upon as a trifle "bullish." United Kingdom—The weather during the past week has been only moderately favorable for crops. Russia—Too severe freezing weather mentioned in our summary of a week ago has continued, being followed by snow storms. France, Germany and Hungary—Snow is wanted, otherwise conditions are generally satisfactory. India—Wheat crop continues to make satisfactory progress. Roumania—More snow is wanted. Navigation on the Danube has practically ceased. The official weekly snow map showed a good covering from the Mississippi River eastward. There was only a trace of snow over the northeast part of Kansas and a trace over most of Missouri, but as snows were indicated for these sections, the report did not have any material influence on values. According to the monthly report of the Weather Bureau advices respecting Winter Wheat, on the whole, were not encouraging. The greater part of the Winter Wheat belt was subjected to continued low temperatures, with very little snow protection, the southern portion having suffered considerably from alternate freezing and thawing and general lack of moisture. There was also a decided shortage in precipitation on the Pacific Coast, but the departures from average temperature were not marked. The San Francisco Weekly Commercial News of Dec. 31, said: "Rain is needed in nearly all the Hay sections at the present time, and growers are beginning to wonder if we are to have a dry year. Grain is in a healthy condition, however, and it is hoped that the needed showers will come soon." The serious situation in the far East again started fresh investment buying and May touched 88¼c and the July to 83½c. Routine statistics were about evenly divided the past week. World's shipments were fair at 8,648,000 bu, compared with 7,792,000 bu the previous week and 7,856,000 bu for the corresponding week in 1903. The quantity on ocean passage was reduced 1,248,000 bu and is now 24,520,000 bu, or 2,048,000 bu larger than on the same date in 1903. The English visible increased 991,000 bu, while one year ago there was a decrease of 1,819,000 bu. The domestic visible increased 1,319,000 bu; last year increased 60,000 bu. Total now 33,204,000 bu; 1903 was 49,738,000 bu and in 1902 68,929,000 bu. Local public stocks decreased 39,000 bu, to 2,729,000 bu, compared with 7,850,000 bu one year ago. Stocks here in all positions 5,631,000 bu, show a decrease of 363,000 bu for last week. Stock year ago 11,510,000 bu. Contract stocks decreased 23,234 bu to 1,868,303 bu, compared with 4,212,578 bu the corresponding date in 1902. Bradstreet's increased 91,000 bu; last year decreased 3,440,000 bu. Stocks of Wheat in the interior elevators of the Northwest reported at 6,514,000 bu, compared with 6,636,000 bu on December 1, and 6,887,000 bu on January 1, 1903. The movement to primary markets made a fair showing and the total from July 1 to January 1 aggregates 164,093,000 bu, compared with 185,968,000 bu in 1902-3, and 175,958,000 bu in 1901-2. Exports from Atlantic and Gulf ports the past week were very fair and the total 3,369,000 bu. Since July 1, they aggregate 93,164,000 bu, as compared with 134,216,000 bu in 1902-3. Bookings at the seaboard were moderate. The Ohio State report made the condition of Winter Wheat but 77 per cent on January 1, against 78 per cent December 1, and 93 per cent January 1, 1903. Argentine shipments this week were small at 152,000 bu, compared with 32,000 bu one year ago. The visible supply there was reported 736,000 bu, compared with 5,2,000 bu last week and 120,000 bu same time in 1903. The visible supply on Monday is expected to show 2,000,000 bu increase.

CORN—The Corn market attracted considerable attention the past week, the trade being of good volume and fluctuations frequent within the limits noted below. The tone, all things considered, was strong and the close 1½@1⅝c higher than last Saturday for May, while July gained 1½c and September 1⅜c. The week under review started out with the sentiment decidedly "bullish," a sharp advance being scored on Saturday, influenced as much as anything by the war talk and bulge in Wheat. May touched 47⅞c, July 47⅜c and September 46⅞c before the demand was satisfied, "shorts" displaying great uneasiness. European advices intimated war between Russia and Japan was inevitable and was reflected in the decline in British and American securities. Routine news had little or no influence on values at the time, the one topic being the political situation in the far East. Later, however, the sentiment changed about and more normal conditions prevailed. More assuring political news from the other side started general selling, "long" property coming out in large quantities, and the market turned decidedly weak. Wheat broke badly and also affected the market adversely, May declining to 46c, July to 45⅝c and September to 45¼c before fresh investment buying and active covering by "shorts" checked the decline. A 2c recovery followed, the market closing firm. The weather conditions of late were favorable for the movement and curing the crop, and the late advance brought somewhat fewer offerings from Illinois points. The receipts this week were 1,697 cars, compared with 2,088 cars for the same week in 1902. The quality was slightly better than recently noted, but there is still much poor wet and damp Corn among the arrivals. The crop as a whole is expected to be of very irregular quality and much of the same will require careful handling to bring it up to the standard grade. The monthly weather bureau report stated considerable Corn is yet in the fields in Indiana, and some yet to be husked in Ohio. In Nebraska the crop is nearly all secured, which is also the case in Kansas. Routine statistics were generally looked upon as moderately bearish. World's shipments were moderate, 2,816,000 bu; previous week, 3,847,000 bu; year ago, 2,403,000 bu. Quantity on ocean passage decreased 1,414,000 bu to 12,626,000 bu; last year, 8,516,000 bu. The visible increased 55,000 bu; last year decreased 528,000 bu. Total, 5,783,000 bu; 1903 6,584,000 bu; 1902, 11,702,000 bu. Local stocks increased 72,010 bu to 2,316,000 bu; last year 1,874,010 bu. Stocks here in all positions 4,184,000 bu; decreased 47,000 bu last week. Stock year ago was 3,073,000 bu. Contract stocks increased 68,817 bu to 2,081,639 bu, compared with 1,849,160 in 1902. Bradstreet's increased 89,000 bu, while last year there was a decrease of 195,000 bu. The outward movement the past week was moderate and local stocks are expected to enlarge. Exports were fair and total for the week 1,250,000 bu, making 29,49,000 bu since July 1, 1903, compared with 12,570,000 bu for the same period in 1902-03. Bookings at the Atlantic seaboard are moderate and the Eastern demand here improved, but most of the Corn arriving being placed in store or sent to dryers. The Argentine crop is reported as making satisfactory progress, and shipments from there the past week were moderate at 314,000 bu, the labor troubles possibly interfering with exports, also the higher ocean rates. For the corresponding week one year ago the shipments were 214,000 bu. Present visible is reported 2,169,000 bu, compared with 1,517,000 bu last week and 197,000 bu for the corresponding week in 1903.

OATS—The market for Oats during the past week was excited and prices advanced. The influences were war rumors, wild fluctuations in other Grains, the small receipts and light country offerings, and by the large purchases by local "bull" interests who have increased their lines. Prices advanced sharply and were met by heavy selling for profits. There has been a jump of 5c from the recent low point in May, and the concentrated holdings of the "bull" interest are about equal to the visible supply. The "short" interest was largely reduced and there was more general commission house trading on both sides. May advanced from 38c to 39¾c and closed at 39½@39⅝c, a net gain of 1⅜c. The cash demand is fair, with the East the best buyer. The South is also inquiring for Oats and prices in the sample market were advanced sharply. Receipts for the week were 830 cars, compared with 1,635 cars last year. The visible supply increased 178,000 bu, and was 8,508,000 bu, compared with 4,804,000 bu last year. Stocks in public houses decreased 58,110 bu, and were 1,169,618 bu, compared with 900,961 bu last year. All but 100,000 bu of the present stock is of Standard, or the contract grade. Seaboard clearances were 148,369 bu.

RYE—A stronger feeling was developed in this market and prices during the week were advanced 1@1½c, with the most strength shown in the May delivery. Trading has been only of a limited character, and the market was influenced wholly by the action of the other Grain markets, and possibly in an indirect way by the trouble between Russia and Japan. Very little speculation existed in Rye and consequently no great interest was manifested. In a shipping way nothing has been done and the cash business was confined to the car-lot fresh arrivals. The best car lots were taken by millers, distillers and for manufacturing purposes and brought a good premium, while the poor samples were found to be very slow sale and sold at considerably less than the choice lots. The reason for this is that there is little use to which this poor Rye can be put to. Cleaners or millers do not want it, because there is not enough choice to be had to mix it with at low enough price to make it pay. This poor Rye has been coming from Nebraska. It was thin, shrivelled berry and dark colored and some of it was musty. The receipts for the week aggregated 32 cars, and there were 200 bu withdrawn from public elevators here and no export clearances from the seaboard. The visible supply decreased 48,000 bu and was reported at 1,228,000 bu, against 1,276,000 bu the previous week and 1,097,000 bu a year ago. The local stock in store was 211,000 bu and a year ago was 352,000 bu. No. 2 in store was quotably 51½@53c, some fresh arrivals poor Rye sold to go to store at 51c, and sales free on board were made at 51@57c for poor to choice and at the river at 52c. No. 3 local sold at 48@50c for common up to 53½c for choice, with sales at the river at 48@49c. No. 4 sold at 50c. For future delivery the market was quiet and firm. May sold at 57c to 57½c.

BARLEY—Rather a quiet market was experienced the first week in the year. Steadiness, however, prevailed. Low grades, mixing goods, Screenings and thin Barley below malting grade rule firm when sweet, being wanted. There got to be 1@2c advance in prices. Poor, musty cars at the same time were not cared for, and were dull even at a liberal discount. Screenings early were quoted 25@36c for poor to choice, later at 28@38½c and very good sales of choice at one time at 36@37c. Low grade or feed Barley ranged 34@37c to 36@38c. For malting grades values did not change so much. Offerings were light and were usually of common qualities. Good Barley scarce, choice to fancy absent in the spot supply. All good qualities salable and very strong. Lower grades also salable, and finally the market seemed to favor sellers for all. Malting, low grade, 38@42c; common, 43@44c; fair, 45@46c; good, 47@52c, choice, 53@58c; fancy, 60c and possibly above. Hardly any business in to arrive lots. Good Barley back in the country firmly held. Late in the week demand was better with some improvement in bids. Receipts for the week 185 cars. No output from local houses. Exports from New York 25,128 bu. Visible supply decreased 200,000 bu; it appeared as 5,380,000 bu, against 2,876,000 bu the same time last year. Local regular stock decreased 6,580 bu and was 277,890 bu, compared with 1,223 bu the same time a year ago.

SEEDS—A steady to firm feeling prevailed throughout the market. Timothy prices improved slightly late in the week. Flax quiet from the start and Clover was stronger. Price changes at the same time were in no case important and the general business was of a quiet order. At all times country lots of all lines were offered sparingly.

Timothy—Averaged steady to firm; closed strong with 5@10c advance. At times moderate cash offerings appeared. They were steadily held. Better grades found buyers while common lots were not cared for especially. There was little done in futures. On the opening of January over 50 cars were delivered on contract. This about filled outstanding trades. Hardly any of cars so delivered came on sale again. Regular speculative trading was very quiet, January was usually $2.95, but closed at $3.10 bid. February very quiet at $3.02½ to $3.00, finally $3.0?, and March quoted at $3.07½ early to $3.0?, with a closing of $3.10 bid. Country lots quotable at $2.10@3.05 for poor to fancy; fair to good $2.55@2.75, choice $2.80@2.90, and rough dark and foul lots about $2.35@2.50; tailings lower.

Shipments—The past week, lbs	286,825
Same time last year	938,900

Flax—Firmness prevailed in the Flax market. Cash and January delivery advanced 1@1½c. May did not change materially. The market was influenced by firmness in the Northwest. Fluctuations in prices here were tame compared with those occurring in the quarter named. What made Wheat higher affected Flax, viz: war-like conditions in the Orient, one of the nations involved being a large Flax producer. Trading was on a small scale. There were very limited offerings, both of cash and futures. At the close the feeling became weak and a part of the advance was lost. Stocks showed a large net gain, and the year opens with a liberal quantity of Flax in sight. Chicago decreased 12,086 bu; Minneapolis gained 35,108 bu, and Duluth 275,182 bu. There was reported a visible supply in the three leading Western markets as follows:

Duluth, bu.	5,899,000	2,094,060

In this the stock was 2,428,124. In interior elevators in the Northwest there were reported 918,-000 bu, compared with 1,570,000 bu corresponding time one year ago. Local receipts were reported 98 cars, and there was no output. Cash No. 1 Northern in or No 1 from the Northwest improved from 71 c to 81 c5, and closed at $1 c4. No. 1 was nominally white early to 08c and 09c. Rejected ruled in the usual manner at 95@96c. Trade outside for choice Northwestern January delivery improved with an occasional small sale at 97½@98c; closed at 98c. May opened at $1.00¾ to $1.01, later $1.00⅜ bid; there was little trading. September at times was offered at $1 03 and then again would not be heard from.

Closer—Little was done on the regular market. Arrivals were slightly larger than a year ago. Shipments were good. They exceeded the arrivals. They also were larger than the same week last year. Few consignments came on the regular market. Prices were less firm, more in accordance. Stocks were said to be moderate -not large. A steady feeling prevailed and prices finally closed 25c lower. Sept sold at $7 50 and Oct at $7 40. Old and country lots, common to choice, $8 00@11 25; fancy mixed; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $8 50@9 00; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@5 00; fair to good quality about $3 00@10 75.

Same time last year. 145,400

Other Seeds Were very quiet. There were probably no country lots offered. Samples of Hungarian and Millet were shown for value. Any of the lines quoted were salable and there was a strong tone to the market. Former prices were tenable. Hungarian, common to choice, quotable $1 80@1 70. Common Millet, 90c?$1 25 for poor to fancy. German Millet, 95c@$1 25. Siberian, 75@ 90c. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 75@ 90c. Mustard, $2@$4 00.

Buckwheat was offered and when nice met with $1 35 bid. A few shade lower lots were offered and some sold. Some cracked and dirty would not bring so much. Wheat off in quality it has to be discounted, and liberally in some instances.

Hay—The receipts for the week were 11,064 tons against 6,314 tons for the previous week. Shipments for the week were 188 tons, against 165 tons for the previous week. A good demand existed for Timothy Hay during the past week and a firm feeling prevailed. The arrivals were small and local dealers were taking hold quite freely, they having let their stocks run down some of the close of the year. Prices show an advance of 50@ $1 00 per ton. Prairie Hay ruled quiet throughout the week. The receipts were only moderate, but the demand was light from all sources, and prices show no particular change. Quotations at the close ranged as follows: Choice Timothy, $11 50@ 12 00; No. 1 Timothy, $11 00@11 50; No. 2 Timothy, $9 00@10 00; No. 1 Mixed Timothy, $8 50@9 00; Choice to fancy Prairie $10 50@11 00; No. 1 Prairie, $9 00@10 00; No. 2 Prairie, $8 00@8 50; No. 3 Prairie, $6 00@7 00; No. 4 Prairie, $5 00@6 00. Inside prices on Prairie Hay for State and outside for Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas Hay. Sales ranged as follows: $8 00@12 50 for fair to choice Timothy, $6 50@8 00 for State, and $7 50@ 10 50 for Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas Prairie Hay. Rye Straw sold at $5 50@6 00 and Oat Straw at $5 00.

COOPERAGE Little interest was manifested in the market for Cooperage during the past week, and there were no particular changes to note. Offerings were small and the demand was also comparatively light. Local packers were slow to purchase, and the outside orders were somewhat limited. Offerings were only fair, and sellers stood to grant concessions. Flour Barrels were in moderate demand and sold slowly at $1 27½@1 30 for sash and $1 30@1 32½ for oak—occasionally both selling at same price. Land lard in nests sold to order request, with moderate offerings, and quotably easier at $1 23½@1 25. The official announcement made by a representative of the General Managers' Association that fifteen railroads had discharged 18,000 men in three months led to the disclosure, Wednesday, that the railroad managements in general are in reality making one of the most sweeping reductions in general expenses in their history. Not a single department of the railway service is escaping the pruning knife. Clerks are being dispensed with wherever possible, landscape gardening forces are being done away with, and men are being let out in all places where their services can be dispensed with. The railroad managers feel that they are facing a crisis, and that the time has arrived when operating expenses must be materially reduced at all hazards.

[New York Producers' Price Current, Jan. 9.]

The movement of Hops has been more moderate of late owing to the comparatively light supplies and strong views having curtailed the demand, but the business doing has been at full values. On the Pacific Coast only about 3,500 bales remain in growers' hands and less than 1,000 bales in Washington, while California is entirely cleaned up from first hands. Most of the late business on the coast has been from speculators' hands who have been willing to realize their large profits. Sales have ranged from 24c to 27c for fair to choice grades, with latter freely offered for choice and few takers. In this State advices continue strong but little remaining stock in first hands. On the local market there has been some trade passing, but the high asking prices check the movement. We hear of a sale of 1,500 bales Pacifics for export, said to have been at 31c. In England advices continue firm, but demand is still mostly for the cheaper grades. The German market continues strong.

KNOTTY QUESTIONS TO BE SOLVED.

[From the Duluth Commercial Record, Jan. 9.]

The case of the State Railroad and Warehouse Commission against Edwards, Wood & Co., for omitting to make a proper return to Victor Carlson of Hallick, Minn., on a car of Flax shipped to them by him last January, was decided adversely to the defendants

Although it was shown that Edwards, Wood & Co. gave Carlson the highest market price obtainable on the day the car arrived, it was decided that they had no right to buy the car themselves and that the sale of it on the succeeding day was really the only sale and was the one on which returns should have been made to Carlson.

The case will be appealed by Edwards, Wood & Co., as there are several knotty questions involved that should be passed on by the Supreme Court.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows light snows through Illinois, Missouri, Iowa and the Ohio Valley. These snows are very light. There were a few light snows in the Mississippi Valley on the Sunday map. No moisture as yet in Kansas or the Southwest. Temperatures keep moderate.

Indications are for unsettled weather, with some snow Temperatures will not change much.

The Mark Lane Express of Dec. 28 says: "The weather has not been adverse to the farm, but many farmers would have welcomed frost and a crisper, drier air. There had been a severe drouth in the Southeast and an excess of rain in the Northwest; moreover, the temperature had ruled very low in the Center and Northeast. In the Provinces of Bessarabia, Kherson, Taurida and Ekaterinoslav the condition of the crops left much to desire, a great deal of the Winter Wheat not having apparently germinated."

We hear very little of sowing having been resumed, although the land would have harrowed well enough last week, as proved by a case or two that came under our notice. In some districts reports state that very little Winter Wheat has been sown, while in a few sowing is said to have been finished. That there is still a great deficiency in the area sown is beyond doubt; but in the absence of sufficient information as to December seeding, the extent of the deficiency cannot be estimated with any degree of confidence."

REGULAR WHEAT—A fair trade was witnessed, the market ruling quite active at times, fluctuations covering ⅝@¾c range The feeling manifested was nervous and price changes hinged a good deal on the war news as received. May and July closed ⅝c higher and September unchanged. There was a sharp advance early on active covering by "shorts" and buying by the "bull" party in May, influenced by the seven sixteenths decline in British consols, higher cables, and dry weather talk from the Southwest. A Washington special received early quoted the Japanese Minister there as saying that war seemed inevitable from the advices at hand Liverpool quoted spot ¼d lower to ½d higher and futures ⅜d higher Receipts there the past three days were 512,000 bu, of which 160,000 bu came from America. Kansas City and St. Louis received 291,000 bu, against 171,000 last year Exports were moderate, and 19 boat loads taken at the seaboard. The reaction was due to selling by locals on the rumor that Japan had accepted the proposals as presented by Russia. Minneapolis wired stocks had increased 325 000 bu so far this week. Receipts at Duluth 114 cars and at Minneapolis 302 cars, a total of 416, against 613 cars yesterday, 628 cars a week ago, and 327 cars last year. Local receipts included 27 cars Winter, 25 cars Spring and none mixed, a total of 52 cars, against 70 cars last year. Included in above was 1 car of contract grade. BARLEY It was a poor day for handling Barley; it was too dark There was really more business done in Screenings than in Barley. Main sales were of choice city Screenings and outside paid was ½@1c better than top of late quotations. Feed Barley was wanted. It was very scarce and firm Malting Barley presented nothing of interest. Little offered. On account of dark weather buyers paid little attention to the market. Feeling may be said to have been strong. To-arrive lots in demand, but asking prices have lately been raised above the views of buyers It was a firm but quiet market Forty-two cars inspected, mainly No. 4—none graded above. Screenings ranged at 30@39½c for poor to choice, very good sales of lots loaded from store at 30@39c Barley, feed or mixing, depending on quality, was quotable at 37@40c; poor, musty below; malting low grade, about 40@42c, some very dirty sold at 38c; common, 43@45c; fair, 46@48c; good, 49@53c; choice 54@58c; fancy, 60@61c.

Timothy Considerable cash Seed was offered. None was of the better grades, unless it was a small lot. It ranged mostly from fair to low grade. It met with buyers and was taken, but did not sell so well as if it had been of the better grades. The market was called steady and unchanged Futures were quite neglected. Contract Seed, spot $11 37@11 40 and country lots, common to choice at $8 50@11 25; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $9 00@9 50; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00; fair to good quality about $9 00@10 75.

CROPS IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

United Kingdom—The weather has been cold, dull and dry during the past week, but the air has not been frosty nor even crisp, such as farmers would welcome. Plowing for spring crops was carried on under fairly satisfactory conditions and a good quantity of Wheat will have been threshed, so that we may expect farmers' deliveries to be relatively large presently, although it is probable next Saturday's official returns may be inconsiderable owing to the holidays

Russia—Severe weather is now reported from the South. Our latest mail advices from the Southwest do not speak more hopefully of crop conditions there; only a comparatively limited area could be seeded and the plant is neither well grown nor well rooted. A good cover of snow would give the young seedlings their only chance to winter satisfactorily. As regards the situation in the Southeast, our correspondents at Rostoff-on-Don writing under date Dec. 17 say the weather was then cold, without snow, but hitherto there have been no complaints regarding the crops. The Odessa Wheat stock is well maintained, our correspondent's latest estimate being still 14,400,000 bu. Shipments last week totalled nearly 2,400,000 bu, which is a liberal quantity for the time of year.

Roumania—We have word to day that the weather on the Danube has become very severe. If this continue navigation will probably close at an early date, and unless the young crops have a good cover of snow, they are likely to be damaged. At date of our last mail advices, frosty weather without snow was already causing anxiety to growers, for the crop in the backward districts is in no condition to stand a spell of bad weather.

Hungary—Snow was reported yesterday from Budapesth and if the fall is general, the crops will be provided with needed cover against frost.

Argentina—Our cable advice of last Thursday stated that the weather had turned favorable again, and harvest work was progressing satisfactorily, but to-day we hear that a cable to a Liverpool firm mentions frost damage in the South of Buenos Ayres, and a small reduction of about 1,000,000 quarters in the estimates. Probably the frost damage is that done by the cold weather of a short while back, and which is only now becoming apparent.

India—We hear that some slight beneficial rains have fallen, which can be regarded as an installment of the winter rains which are needed to produce a good crop. The condition in the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, which had nearly 7,000 000 acres under Wheat last year, is described as generally good, with an increase of 10 per cent in the acreage. Shipments last week were smaller, but are generally well maintained for the time of year, and sales of old and new crop continue to be made

Australia—We have heard some mention of disappointing yields, but nothing very definite. The shipping season has now fairly started, and last week chartering was again reported brisk with a good demand

France—Colder weather is reported to-day, and if there is some snow, this will be just what growers require. Last week the weather continued mild and wet, and although crop news was generally satisfactory, there were some complaints of damage from vermin and of fields infested with weeds.

Italy Some reports have mentioned further heavy rains with floods.

Spain -Further general rains have fallen and crop conditions are improving.

Germany—The weather generally continued mild last week, although in the South and East it was colder and more seasonable. The crop outlook is still regarded as satisfactory, but growers would like to see a good fall of snow to give the plants winter cover. Fair supplies of native Wheat continue to come forward of which a good deal is being taken by Hamburg.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows light general snows in Iowa, Illinois Missouri, Indiana, and Ohio. There is no precipitation in the Southwest. Temperatures are moderate. The snow map shows no covering in Kansas, and very little in Missouri or southward.

Indications are that snow in this section will be followed by fair Wednesday. It will be some colder.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The entire business portion of Pisek, N D, has been destroyed by fire. The losses are estimated at $40,000.

There has been cancelled $500,000 of the $1,500,000 Gold taken in London a week ago for shipment to London

The American Radiator Company has acquired 120 acres of land adjoining Litchfield, Ill, on which it proposes to erect a plant to employ 500 men. Business is reported as continuing excellent.

It is reported that the quarterly dividend due on North Chicago stock Jan. 15 will be 1¼ per cent instead of 2 per cent. Such an amount has been earned. The full 1 per cent has been earned on West Chicago stock and will be paid Feb. 15.

The Echo Agricole, Paris, Dec. 27, states that the weather during the past week has been variable with frosts and rather thick mists. Snow and a cold spell are now desired to destroy the field mice and other parasites which seem to be causing some mischief in a good many localities. Crop accounts are rather satisfactory on the whole, and the sowings are now almost completed.

Wheat exported from Portland during the six months ended December 31 amounts to 2,090,597 bu and Flour 626,665 brls, and Barley 810,381 bu. Wheat shipments fell off about 50 per cent from the previous year, but Flour exports have broken all records. Shipments to California from July 1 to December 1 were 542,794 bu Wheat and 60,681 brls Flour.

A director of United States Steel says: "Our real low water mark in orders was reached in November. Since then there has been a steady increase in orders of miscellaneous character. The last quarter and the present quarter may be put down as the poorest quarters in orders and earnings that the company will have for many years to come. The outlook for business is steadily brightening."

A dispatch from San Francisco says: "The Court of Appeals has handed down a decision declining to vacate a supersedeas granted by the Circuit Court of Appeals Dec. 31 against the Butte and Boston Mining Company, one of the Amalgamated Copper properties. This is a signal victory over the Amalgamated, and it will likely result in moving the Michael Devit controversy from a Federal court to a State court."

The New York Produce Exchange committee on information and statistics has adopted the following quantities to constitute car loads of Grain at that port, to be in force from date to March 1, 1904: Wheat, 975 bu; Corn, 1,075 bu; Oats, 1,500 bu; Barley, 1,200 bu; Rye, 950 bu; Malt, 1,500 bu; Buckwheat, 975 bu; Peas, 850 bu; Flax Seed, 1,000 bu Of Wheat, compared with the last rates, there are 25 bu more in a carload; of Corn, 75 bu, and of Rye, 50 bu

A Beet Sugar firm have prepared the following statistics showing the progress made by the Beet Sugar industry in the United States in the past twelve years:

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Elgin, Aurora and Southern Electric Railway in Cleveland, Monday, the dividend on the stock was passed. For the past nine months the company has been paying at the rate of 3 per cent per annum, the dividend declarations having been three-quarters of 1 per cent per quarter. The report, which was issued by the company about Dec. 1, indicated that the company was on a good, substantial financial basis. The directors, however, have decided that the interests of all would be better served with a surplus rather than its distribution.

One who represents some millions invested in the metal trades says: "The American Steel and Wire Company took orders on the last day of 1903 for 28,000 tons, which was the largest day's order for business in the entire year and since that day the orders have been daily from 12,000 to 14 000 tons, with a daily average of 10,000 tons for immediate shipment. There has been a greater improvement in the Steel business the last three weeks than the public has yet heard of. I believe we have seen lowest earnings for the United States Steel Corporation. The fact was, labor was getting away from us and the check to industry came at just the right time to permit a readjustment, and this readjustment has turned out just as was wanted."

The Chicago Inter Ocean says: "The Inter-State Commerce Commission, Monday, closed a three days' investigating session in Chicago in which were revealed the conditions under which the railroad companies advanced rates of carrying Grain and produce from Missouri River points to Chicago. The Commission left last night for Washington and will at once prepare a report of its findings as to the unreasonableness of a certain freight rate, which ruling the attorneys for the Commission will furnish to the nine defendant railway companies not later than Feb 15. The Commission will grant the railway companies until March 1 to file a brief in reply. Testimony of witnesses connected with large Steel and car building companies brought out facts in contrast to the statements of railway freight traffic managers that the main reason why they advanced freight rates was because of a heavy advance in the price of railroad materials."

The Colorado Springs Mining Stock Exchange's official weekly letter says: "The total production of Gold for the year just closed from the Cripple Creek district shows a decrease over the preceding four years, but this is very easily explained when the miners' strike is taken into consideration that closed the mines during the months of August, September, and October. Notwithstanding the drawbacks the camp has encountered during the year, the first month of the new year will likely see it back in its old-time form, producing at the rate of $2,000,000 per year. For a number of years this great Gold camp, which is confined to an area of four by six miles, has produced more Gold than the entire State of California with one or two more States thrown in. In this small boundary there has been produced during the year 1903, 546,079 tons of Gold-bearing Ore, from which was extracted $17,630,107. The entire output of the district since its discovery in 1891 amounts to $150,000,000. There was paid in dividends from Cripple Creek mines during the year 1903 the sum of $1,706,962. The total amount paid in dividends to date is $33,000,000, or about $2,500,000 for each year of the camp's existence.'.

A New York dispatch says: "While it is, of course, at this time and in this country almost impossible for any one to conclude definitely that peace is assured between Russia and Japan, the developments of the last forty-eight hours certainly point to this end. There is a consensus regarding the diplomatic negotiations that have already passed that Russia has in substance conceded that Corea lies within the Japanese 'sphere of influence.' If press cable dispatches are to be trusted, the ground taken by Russia regarding Manchuria, the other bone of contention, is that Manchuria is owned by neither Russia nor Japan, and that so far as Russia is concerned she means steadfastly to fulfill her treaty obligations with all nations concerning the country, and has reaffirmed in a very solemn manner her engagements of this sort. It would seem as if this is a position to which Japan can offer no objection, and that Russia's action, therefore, makes very decidedly for peace. All these developments go to strengthen the opinion that has been constantly held to by banking interests ever since the imbroglio has attracted public attention, that while the situation looked very war-like and dangerous, it was not so in reality."

Directors of the North Chicago Street Railroad Company have recommended to Judge Grosscup the payment of a dividend of 1¼ per cent out of earnings for the quarter ending Nov. 30, 1902.

Local Securities were handled moderately. Box Board preferred and Union Tract on preferred were the most freely traded in, with but little change in prices. Can preferred sold off ½, and reacted.

Average weight of Hogs at Kansas City the past week, 222 lbs, against 218 lbs the previous week and 223 lbs a year ago. Average at St. Joseph last week, 219 lbs, against 221 lbs the previous week and 228 lbs a year ago.

In the New York Cotton market there was a weak and lower opening in sympathy with Liverpool. Local "longs" and the South sold liberally. Trading was active, especially in May. The list rallied before mid-day on covering. The close was 22@29 points lower.

A London cable says: "Lloyds war risks against Great Britain becoming involved in the Russo-Japanese imbroglio until the middle of February, 75 per cent. The premium on insurance against any European power being drawn in for twelve months is 7 per cent.

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool: "Nearby futures of Wheat firm on bad weather in Argentina. Distant futures some lower. Later, both deliveries declined on higher Consols and lack of support. Navigation on the Danube River is wholly closed. Corn was weak on easier feeling on Wheat."

Actual receipts of cars of Live Stock at Chicago, Monday, were 3,228, or 417 cars more than ever before for one day. The Northwestern road headed the list with 842 cars, being a record breaker for that road The Milwaukee contributed 610 cars, Burlington 590 cars, and Rock Island 416 cars.

In the New York Stock market trading was professional and centered largely in low-priced Railway shares, which advanced ¾ to 2¼ Amalgamated Copper was also a feature, one trader covering a large "short" line, and the price moved up ¾, only to react ½ Steel shares were taken freely and made small gains. Standard Western Railways were unsettled, but changes small. An easy money market and an advance in London were "bullish" factors.

A Detroit dispatch says. "The bondholders' committee of the Michigan Telephone Company, with counsel, are now in conference with N. W. Harris, in New York, formulating a plan for the operation of the Michigan Telephone property purchased by the bondholders through Mr Harris in this city some weeks ago. The property, valued by experts at above $10,000,000, was sold under the hammer and went to the bondholders at $4,100,000, considered by financiers in this State as an excellent bargain."

Fraud subscription orders stopped by the Postmaster General, as told in his last official report: "Rulings have been made and sustained under the act of March 3, 1879, which tend to correct the great evil by which many advertising sheets, contrary to the express prohibition of the statute, both gain and maintain the second-class mailing privilege by having advertisers or other interested parties contract for a bulk number of copies of several or many issues to be sent to persons designated by them. Such pretended subscriptions made in bulk were formerly classified as regular in making up what the statute requires—'a legitimate list of subscribers.'"

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—The market is holding steady under a fair demand, chiefly domestic.

SPRING WHEAT Only a light trade and market steady. Fresh receipts small and for hard variety a fair milling demand exists. No. 1 Northern in store ranged 4c under May, at 82½@83¾c and fresh arrivals free on board at 85@87c No 3 Spring local quotably 75@84c for ordinary to choice hard variety, with sales at the river at 77½@79c. No. 4 Spring sold at 57@76c for poor to good, with sales at the river at 61@77c.

REGULAR WHEAT—A fair trade and rather nervous market, large quantities of May changing hands, with last prices shade lower for May, while the July lost ¼c, and the September ⅛c. The start was easy on the better price for British Consols, easier Grain cables, and less warlike advices from the far East, though the latter were quite conflicting. Local temper was "bearish," but operators at the same time were timid about selling. The free selling of one of the larger commission houses, with Northwest connections, was the chief feature of the day, and part of the same was supposed to have been absorbed by the "bull" party in May. Consols closed one-sixteenth higher. Liverpool quoted futures off ⅜@½d, while London declined ¼@¾d Paris was steady to ½d lower and Antwerp unchanged. Primary receipts were 428,000 bu ahead of 1903; those at Kansas City and St. Louis being 355,000 bu, compared with 124,000 bu last year. Receipts in the Northwest were 225 cars larger than reported one year ago. The map showed no precipitation in Kansas and Oklahoma. Fair and warmer weather was predicted for Kansas, Nebraska, Dakotas, Iowa, and Missouri, and fair and colder for Illinois and Indiana. St. Louis wired bad reports were coming in from good sources in Oklahoma and Kansas. Argentine advices were again of both kinds. Rossario cabled: "Weather improving; not much damage, quality above an average, will probably ship 5,600,000 bu this month, against 1,750,000 bu in January, 1903." Another cable reported rain in all parts of Argentine except Province of Cordoba. Navigation on the Danube was reported closed. Minneapolis wired that stocks had increased 250,000 bu so far this week. Northwest advices were rather "bullish," regarding contract supplies. Exports were again moderate and 15 boat loads were accepted at the seaboard. Berlin was reported ¼c lower. Receipts at Duluth 41 cars and at Minneapolis 445 cars, a total of 486, against 416 cars yesterday, 500 cars a week ago, and 261 cars last year. Local receipts included 15 cars Winter, 4 cars Spring and none mixed, a total of 19 cars, against 27 cars last year. Included in above was no car of contract grade. There were also 6 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 25 cars. Withdrawals were 4,200 bu. Receipts at Western points were 951,467 bu, against 523,290 bu last year. At Eastern points 241,761 bu, against 310,746 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 367,483 bu, against 143,913 bu last year, and from Eastern points 52,847 bu, against 208,213 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 41,285 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 238,634 bu.

CORN—A fair trade and comparatively firm market in Corn, the close showing May up ⅜@½c and July up ¼@⅜c. The strength came chiefly from the small offerings, commission houses taking the May, while professionals bought July. Selling was principally by floor traders The start was a little easier on the irresponsive cables, firmer Consols, more peaceful outlook in the far East, and action of Wheat. Offerings, however, were readily taken and it soon developed more was wanted. Strength of Oats was one of the "bull" helps The grading was poor. Out of 283 cars in, 213 were low grades. Last year 184 cars were received and 97 cars of the same were off grades. To-morrow 285 cars are expected here. OATS—Were excited and sold at the highest prices on the crop for May—40½c The feature was the buying of over 1,000,000 bu May by the local "bull" interest and active covering by "shorts." Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye Quiet and firm. January nominally 53½c and March nominally 55c. May sold at 57½c and closed at 57½c bid.

BARLEY—A very strong market was experienced. Low grades to medium averaged fully 1c better again The better grades were very scarce; quotably firm and salable at full late outside prices. Firm Oats caused Barley to be wanted for mixing; little of this kind offered. Outside of some held over common malting Barley the supply was light. Only 19 cars inspected in. HOG PRODUCTS Rather a good business was reported in the market for Hog Products, and the undertone to the market was quite strong. "Shorts" were credited with fair purchases, and packers sold only moderately. Prices ruled considerably higher on all the leading articles, but extreme figures were not fully supported to the close Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 78,300, compared with 92,100 same time a year ago. SUPPLY OF BREADSTUFFS

Stocks in Europe and America.

According to the special cablegram from Broomhall's Corn Trade News, Liverpool, to the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN, the supplies of Breadstuffs—Flour and Wheat—in second hands in store in the principal countries of Europe, in Argentina, and afloat for Europe on January 1, 1904, exhibited a decrease equal to 3,702,000 bu during December, compared with a decrease of 3,810,000 bu during November, and a decrease of 14,074,000 bu during December, 1902. The aggregate quantity of Breadstuffs afloat for Europe on January 1, 1904, exhibited a decrease of 1,000,000 bu during December, compared with a decrease of 5,360,000 bu during November, and a decrease of 6,530,000 bu during December, 1902. Supplies en route to the United Kingdom were reduced 270,000 bu, and those for the Continent reduced 2,460,000 bu and those "for orders" increased 1,640,000 bu. The aggregate supplies afloat for Europe on January 1, 1904, were 1,320,000 bu more than reported one year previous, and 8,200,000 bu less than reported two years previous. During December, 1903, the aggregate supplies in store in the principal countries of Europe were decreased 2,602,000 bu, compared with an increase of 2,210,000 bu during November, and a decrease of 7,370,000 bu during December, 1902. Stocks in the United Kingdom were increased 590,000 bu, those in France increased 350,000 bu, those in Germany, Belgium and Holland decreased 30,000 bu, those in Russia decreased 1,880,000 bu, and those in other portions of Europe decreased 1,160,000 bu. Stocks in Russia were increased 4,410,000 bu during November and were reduced 3,150,000 bu during December, 1903. Supplies in store in Russia are about 6,600,000 bu more than reported one year ago, and 12,454,000 bu more than reported two years ago. The aggregate stocks in store in Europe on January 1, 1904, were 21,610,000 bu more than reported one year previous. Compared with the returns of one year ago, the supplies of Breadstuffs in store and afloat for the United Kingdom on January 1, 1904, were 8,640,000 bu more, those for the Continent 18,660,000 bu more, and those "for orders" 4,170,000 bu less. The aggregate supplies of Breadstuffs credited to Europe in all positions on January 1, 1904, were 23,130,000 bu more than reported on January 1, 1903. Advices from Europe indicate a fair outlook for the fall-sown crops, except in Southern Russia, where there is a general lack of moisture. Not to exceed the usual acreage has been sown in most sections. Farmers are selling fair quantities of Grain, especially in Russia and the Danubian districts. Advices from Argentina represent that little damage has been sustained, and that the outlook favors a crop of about 115,000,000 bu to 120,000,000 bu, which would leave 85,000,000 to 90,000,000 bu for export. Australia has entered the list of exporting countries again, and the crop may be safely placed at 75,000,000 bu. Advices from India continue favorable for a good crop.

DOMESTIC SUPPLIES OF BREADSTUFFS.

The aggregate supplies of Breadstuffs—Flour and Wheat—in the United States and Canada on January 1, 1904, as compiled by the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN and the Minneapolis Market Record exhibited an increase during December equal to 7,891,000 bu, compared with an increase of 13,503,000 bu during November and an increase of 3,827,000 bu during December, 1902. There were good increases in the principal Eastern markets through the Southwest, in the Northwest and in Canada, and moderate decreases in other sections of the country. Aggregate stocks of Flour in the United States and Canada were reduced 28,000 brls during December, compared with an increase of 282,000 brls in November and a decrease of 176,000 brls in December, 1902. Stocks enlarged materially in the East, through the Central West, South, Southwest and in Canada, while supplies were materially reduced in the Northwest owing to large shipments to meet outstanding contracts. The following table exhibits the stocks of Flour in the principal cities of the United States on the dates named:

Chicago	17,700	37,900	88,400
St. Louis	52,440	62,874	71,406
Toledo	4,000	3,000	4,000
Baltimore	48,000	42,000	48,000
Detroit	12,000	12,000	12,000
Boston	70,691	82,438	91,909
Milwaukee	24,000	151,500	47,400
Duluth	29,000	140,000	32,000

Stocks of Flour at these points were decreased 161,081 brls during December, compared with a decrease of 2,267 brls during November, and a decrease of 225,899 brls during December, 1902. The aggregate supplies of Flour at these markets on January 1 were 24,284 brls less than reported one year previous. Stocks of Flour at the Atlantic seaboard markets on January 1, 1904, were 425,691 brls compared with 328,628 brls on December 1, and 353,909 brls on January 1, 1903. The aggregate supplies of Flour in the United States and Canada on January 1, 1904, were 163,000 brls more than reported on January 1, 1903.

During the month of December the supplies of Wheat in the United States and Canada were enlarged 8,017,000 bu compared with an increase of 12,231,000 bu during November, and an increase of 4,619,000 bu during December, 1902. The increase was mainly in the Southwest, Northwest and Canada and at the Atlantic Coast markets. In other sections there were moderate decreases. The increase in the Northwest was equal to 5,344,000 bu, compared with 5,792,000 bu in December, 1902. Supplies in the interior elevators of the Northwest were reduced 212,000 bu during December compared with an increase of 615,000 bu during November, and a decrease of 834,000 bu during December, 1902. The total stocks were reported at 6,514,000 bu, compared with 6,636,000 bu on December 1, 4,787,000 bu on January 1, 1903, and 11,344,000 bu on January 1, 1902. The aggregate supplies of Wheat in second hands in the United States and Canada on January 1, 1904, were 21,552,000 bu less than one year ago, and 39,594,000 bu less than two years ago.

SUPPLIES AT HOME AND ABROAD.

The aggregate supplies of Breadstuffs afloat for Europe, in store in Europe and Argentina, and in store in the United States and Canada on January 1, 1904—including a larger number of points than in any other compilation—were equal to 178,274,000 bu, against 171,085,000 bu on December 1, and 175,482,000 bu on January 1, 1903. The increase during December was equal 4,189,000 bu, compared with a decrease of 10,247,000 bu in December 1903. The aggregate supplies in all positions in America, Europe and Argentina on January 1, 1904, were 3,792,000 bu more than reported one year previous, and 30,354,000 bu less than reported two years previous.

POSITION OF WHEAT IN THE UNITED STATES.

The movement of Wheat in the United States at the primary markets from July 1 to January 1 was about 154,000,000 bu, compared with 182,000,000 bu for the corresponding period in 1903. The exports of Flour and Wheat during the same period were about 82,000,000 bu, compared with 122,000,000 bu for the same time last year—a decrease of 41,000,000 bu, or 33.6 per cent. The official visible supply is about 11,000,000 bu smaller than one year ago. Estimating the Wheat crop of the United States at 675,000,000 bu—which is the most conservative figure that could be placed on the advices of the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN—and allowing 78,000,000 bu for supplies in all positions on July 1, 1903, the aggregate supplies for the twelve months would be approximately 753,000,000 bu. Allowing 410,000,000 bu for domestic consumption, 72,000,000 bu for seeding purposes, 82,000,000 bu for exports to date, and 90,000,000 bu for supplies on hand July 1, 1904, makes an aggregate accounted for of 654,000,000 bu, and would leave for export during the remaining six months 99,000,000 bu, or an average of 16,500,000 bu per month. The exports from January 1, 1903, to July 1, 1903, were about 78,000,000 bu, or equal 13,000,000 bu per month.

FLOUR TRADE DURING DECEMBER.

While the millers of the United States and Canada enjoyed quite a good trade during December, it was not equal that reported in November. The demand on domestic account was fairly active, while the export inquiry was less urgent. However, millers were well sold ahead and they manufacture Flour with considerable freedom. Stocks were enlarged materially, though a fair proportion may be awaiting shipment. Exporters made fair offers, but in many cases were below the views of sellers, as millers were a little independent in face of the war rumors and holding of Wheat by farmers. In New England, trade in Flour was fair, but chiefly for domestic wants. In New York trade was fair, with moderate export orders provided for. Advices from Pennsylvania indicated an active trade, with a fair proportion for export. In Maryland, the trade was fair, with moderate export orders accepted. In Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee, sales were moderate and chiefly for domestic wants. Export demand rather light. In Ohio, trade was moderately active, with the bulk for home wants. In Michigan, trade was fairly active, with a little more inquiry at some points on export account. In Indiana and Illinois, the general trade was only fair, and chiefly on domestic account. In Missouri and Kansas, the demand was only moderate. Export orders rather light, and domestic demand only fair. Stocks materially enlarged. In Oklahoma, trade was moderate, and in Texas, only fair. In Iowa and Nebraska, the demand was fairly good, but largely for home wants. Millers in Wisconsin reported rather a good general trade. In the Northwest the production of Flour was quite liberal—both at terminal and interior points—and sales were fairly large. Millers have good contracts ahead. In the Rocky Mountains district trade was fairly good for home wants. On the Pacific Coast, the production was rather good, and the demand moderately active, with a fair proportion for export. Millers in Canada reported a good home trade, while the export inquiry was less urgent.

WHEAT MOVEMENT DURING DECEMBER.

The movement of Wheat from the farms of the United States during December was equal about 60,000,000 bu, compared with 53,000,000 bu for the corresponding month last year. The weather has not been very favorable for an active movement in some sections, while in some portions of the country the deliveries were quite free—notably where farmers are to some extent compelled to dispose of their holdings. Transportation facilities were improved considerably, especially in the Southwest and the Northwest. In New England, the receipts were larger, and the export movement was quite good. Supplies of Wheat in New York were materially enlarged by free arrivals from the Northwest and West, but the offerings from farmers were moderate and in small lots. In Pennsylvania, the movement was somewhat larger, yet farmers were conservative in their offerings, and have good supplies on hand for which they expect higher prices. In Maryland, the offerings were fair. In Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee, the movement was comparatively light. Reports from Ohio indicated only fair offerings—farmers inclined to hold. In Michigan, the offerings were slightly larger. In Indiana and Illinois, the movement was moderate, and supplies are only fair. In Missouri and Kansas, the offerings were free, and stocks were materially enlarged at most points. In Oklahoma and Texas, farmers marketed only moderate quantities. In Iowa and Nebraska, the movement was fairly good, with some increase in stocks. In Wisconsin, the movement was moderately free. In the Northwest, the movement was liberal at all points, and stocks were materially increased. Interior millers credited with good purchases. In the Rocky Mountains district offerings were moderate. On the Pacific Coast, the movement was on a limited scale. In Canada, the offerings were fairly good, and stocks were slightly enlarged.

WHEAT IN FARMERS' HANDS.

According to the estimates of the correspondents of the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN—in most cases based on the Department of Agriculture yield—the quantity of Wheat in farmers' hands in the United States on January 1 was about 238,000,000 bu, or about 37 per cent of the crop as reported. Of this amount the Northwest is credited with 85,000,000 bu, of which quantity about 19,000,000 bu may be required for seed, and interior mills will probably consume 45,000,000 bu before September 1, which would leave 21,000,000 bu to be marketed the next eight months. On the basis of the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN estimate of the crop, the farm supplies would be about 250,000,000 bu. Farmers in the Winter Wheat sections are very independent in their views, especially since the war-talk in the East, and will probably sell slowly for some time to come. There is considerable Wheat in Western Nebraska and Western Kansas, and also in Ohio and Pennsylvania, where farmers are not compelled to sell. The following are the estimates by States:

States.	Bushels.	States.	Bushels.
New York	4,030,000	Texas	1,680,000

Virginia	1,380,000	Wisconsin	3,220,000
Kentucky	1,060,000	North Dakota	23,000,000
Ohio	11,520,000	Oregon	3,2 0,000
Michigan	4,840,000	Washington	4,900,000
Indiana	7,640,000	California	4,500,000
Illinois	5,800,000	Other States	15,000,000
Missouri	8,6 0,000
Kansas	31,30 ,000	Total	238,000,000

CONDITION OF WINTER WHEAT.

The area of Winter Wheat is reported slightly less than last year and the condition is only fair. In most portions of the West the plant is covered with snow. In the Southwest and in Southern California moisture is greatly needed. Generally the plant is short and rather thin on the ground and fairly well rooted, but has an unfavorable appearance.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows light snows in Iowa, Nebraska and Missouri; traces in most instances. There are heavier snows in Illinois, Indiana and Ohio. It is snowing generally through the Ohio Valley this morning. There is a good deal of precipitation from the Mississippi River eastward. There is no precipitation in Kansas or Oklahoma. Temperatures continue mild.

Indications are for fair weather, with scattered snow flurries. There will be unsettled weather again by Thursday.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Continues to rule firm under a fair local and domestic demand Stock in second hands very moderate

WINTER WHEAT—Choice milling Wheat is holding up very firmly, notwithstanding the easy tone in the speculative market Fresh arrivals small and taken up readily, and sales made to-day at higher prices. A lot of in store Wheat also sold to-day. Poor Wheat dull and does not meet with any demand; it has to be forced to be sold. No. 2 Red in store quotable 85¾@88c depending on quality, and a sale made free on board at 85¾c and a car fresh arrival very choice sold at 93c; fresh arrivals quotable 80@90c. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals ranged at 80@91½c, with a sale of choice at the top figure No. 4 Red sold at 75c and No Grade at 63½c No. 2 Hard sold local at 86c free on board and 50 000 bu sold in store on private terms; quotable at the river at 79@82c. No 3 Hard sold at the river at 75@78¼c and was quotable as low as 72c for ordinary. No 4 Hard at the river sold 62@73c

SPRING WHEAT—Ruled quiet, but choice milling Wheat was wanted and commanded full former prices. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals quotable at 83@86c No 3 Spring local fresh arrivals free on board quotable at 75@83c for ordinary to choice hard variety, with sales at the river at 77@80c. No. 4 Spring local sold at 60@73c for ordinary to good, and quotable at 55@77c for very poor to choice

REGULAR WHEAT—A very fair trade, but activity in coarse Grains detracting interest to some extent The feeling manifested was rather nervous and unsettled, with the close ⅜c lower for the May and ⅜c lower for the July The Southwest news was an early factor, the advance at Kansas City attracting considerable attention. The Kansas City Star was credited with estimating but 26,000,000 bu in farmers' hands in Kansas, including country stations, and possibly affected values there. A representative of the "bull" party in May was said to be in Kansas City and this fact may have had something to do with the sharp bulge Argentine advices were "bullish" and also imparted strength to the market. Buying was led by the "long" interests and "shorts," though at the advance the former was credited with selling through commission houses, and locals did likewise, causing the break. Coarse Grains likewise helped Wheat as also did the talk of dry weather from Kansas and the Pacific Coast. One Argentine cable read: "Incessant rains still prevail; low barometer prevailing in Argentina as a whole; little of the new crop arriving. Buenos Ayres strike unimproved: Grain Exchange reopens." Another cable reported rain in all places except parts of Santa Fe and Cordoba. The Price Current stated it was dry in the Southwest and top growth unfavorable, but root believed sound. St. Louis wired that Western Kansas has only one rain since harvest Pacific Coast advices stated the outlook for the crop was very poor owing to lack of rain. Fair and warmer weather was predicted by the signal service for Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri; unsettled and colder for the Dakotas; snow and warmer for Minnesota. Broomhall attributed the action at Liverpool to rumors of a settlement of the Argentine strike Liverpool quoted spot and futures unchanged and London steady to ⅜d lower Paris was off ¼c. and Antwerp unchanged. Northwest cars were 159 ahead of last year, and primary movement 233,000 bu larger. Kansas City and St Louis received 220,000 bu; last year 108,000 bu. Shipments were larger at 288,000 bu. Minneapolis stocks reported to have increased 260,000 bu past five days. Flour news from there stronger Output the past week 504,000 brls; last year 441,000 bu. The war news received less consideration. British Consols closed ½ point higher, and the advices from the capitals of Europe were more peaceful in tone. Exports were quite limited and 15 boat loads were accepted at the seaboard Local cash sales small. Receipts at Duluth 60 cars and at Minneapolis 392 cars, a total of 452, against 486 cars yesterday, 356 cars a week ago, and 283 cars last year. Local receipts included 16 cars Winter, 13 cars Spring and 1 car mixed, a total of 30 cars, against 19 cars last year. Included in above were 40 cars of contract grade. There were also 7 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 40 cars. Withdrawals were 5,000 bu. Receipts at Western points were 691,597 bu, against 453,420 bu last year. At Eastern points 123,277 bu, against 335,217 bu last year Shipments from Western points were 432,211 bu, against 202,781 bu last year, and from Eastern points 2,400 bu, against 356 015 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 19,419 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 88,784 bu.

CORN—Was active and strong, with a large general trade, the close showing May up ½@⅝c and July shade lower. Demand was urgent from the start the buying being led by several of the larger commission houses The moderate receipts, poor grading, cash demand and light speculative offerings being the chief strengthening influences. The buying was of such character that "shorts" became frightened and covered May, touching 49⅛c, and the July 47⅝c "Longs" with profits in sight sold on the rally, causing values to recede sharply. Out of 283 cars received 218 cars were low grades Last year 279 cars were inspected in and 116 cars went low grades. Estimates for to-morrow 330 cars Part of the day's buying was credited to New York account. The Price Current referred to the poor quality of the crop Liverpool quoted spot unchanged and futures ⅝d higher. Fair and milder weather was generally predicted for Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri. Southwestern markets were all higher. Western movement, 668,000 bu, was 131,000 bu larger than a year ago, and the shipments, 493,000 bu, were 15 000 bu larger Local arrivals 264,000 bu and shipments 219,000 bu. OATS—Advanced ⅜c, and reacted ¼c, the close being at a net gain of ⅛c on May and July. The feature was the heavy buying by local "bull" interests and covering by "shorts." Arrivals were small, 83 cars, with 110 cars estimated for to-morrow Withdrawals were small, and seaboard clearances 11,000 bu. Cash sales were for 70,000 bu for spring shipment. Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Some demand and offerings light. Feeling firm. January nominally 54c. March nominally 55½c May sold at 58c to 57½c and closed at 57½c bid and 58c asked.

BARLEY—Low grade or mixing Barley was wanted. The market was almost bare. It was quotably very firm when sweet and salable at about 1c advance. There was even a demand for it to arrive. Malting Barley also sparingly offered. Buyers gave the market little attention. They held off, perhaps, because there were no offerings to speak of. The largest sale of spot Barley was for Pearling. To arrive, round lots, were reported in fair request. For some such lots a little better bids were said to have been received Screenings sold well, and outside quotation was 1½c above the highest lately quoted Twenty two cars inspected in. Screenings quotable at 30@41½c for poor to choice; sales were made at 34@41½c Barley, feed or mixing, depending on quality, was quotable at 40@42c; poor, musty below; malting low grade, about 42@43c; very dirty below; common, 44@45c; fair 46@48c; good, 50@55c; choice, 56@58c; fancy, 60@61c.

SEEDS—Offerings of all Seeds were small. Grass Seeds averaged steady, with previous prices prevailing. Flax alone developed any change and that was 1c higher.

Timothy Was quotably steady to firm. Cash Seed on the regular market has become scarce. It was salable, yet there was nothing to draw out buyers so as to give a measure on the demand. Good dry milling quotable at $1 20@1 25; common below.

HOG PRODUCTS A fairly good trade was reported in Hog Products, but the market was somewhat unsettled. At the opening, the feeling was rather easy, with fair offerings, owing to the weakness in the Hog market, and prices ruled lower. Selling mainly by local parties. Later, there was good miscellaneous buying, chiefly on outside account, while there was less pressure to sell. A firmer feeling was developed, partially in sympathy with the advance in Corn, and prices ruled considerably higher on all the leading articles. *Minnesota and Dakota mills outside of Minneapolis and Duluth.

The Minneapolis Flour output last week increased 153,000 brls. Nineteen mills were in operation to-day, the same as a week ago, and the week's output should approximate 350,000 brls. In the corresponding week a year ago the figures were 305,285 brls. While the water power is somewhat better than usual at this time of year, the mills are being restricted to a slight extent in the use of it.

As a rule, Minneapolis mills sold an increased quantity of Flour last week; the orders booked perhaps a little more than offset the production.

Some reported a comparatively steady trade, while others said that orders came in most freely early in the week. The boom in Wheat induced foreigners to accept offers that millers had out, and in that way moderate foreign sales were made. A limited business with Japan continues to be done, and millers and brokers in many localities are looking into this trade. The advance in Wheat loosened up shipping directions to a considerable extent, and in that respect Minneapolis mills are better situated than they have been. However, the milling business is in a fairly satisfactory condition and millers are quite content with their lot.

The range of Eastern prices to-day, Jan. 12, asked by Minneapolis mills for Patent in wood was: Boston, $5 15@5 25, New York rate points, $5 10@5 35, Pittsburg points, $5 00@5 25; Baltimore, $5 00@5 25; Philadelphia, $5 05@5 25; Albany, $5 10@5 35; Buffalo, $5 00@5 25; Michigan $4 60@4 75; Iowa, Illinois and Wisconsin, $4 60@4 75.

BREADSTUFFS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

[From the Portland Commercial Review, Jan. 7.]

Wheat—Very little change can be noted in the Wheat situation here at present, except that holders are more inclined to keep their Grain, owing to the rumors of war between Japan and Russia. They are all under the impression that millers will need their Wheat for Flour exports to Japan. In this they will find that they are mistaken, as the same has been discounted and Japan is well supplied with Flour, if war should come. Over one million barrels have been shipped to that country from July 1 to January 1, and more going this month. Exporters are not chartering new tonnage for Wheat loading, as farmers want more money for Wheat than the same is worth to do any business abroad. Cables for cargoes are without change, and business at present charter rates for ships, and values abroad for cargoes, does not allow the exporter to pay more than 73c for club Wheat, and for bluestem 78c; valley is worth about the same as bluestem, and very little offered, as millers are the only buyers of that quality at present, as we have not shipped a cargo of valley Wheat for several years.

Flour—The market during the week has undergone no change, notwithstanding rumors of trouble in Japan, that many are inclined to believe will take place between Russia and Japan. The shipments to Japan have exceeded 1,000,000 brls of Flour during the past six months, and there is plenty of stock on hand, whether they have war or not, for some time to come. The shipments this month will practically clean up all orders received some time ago, and the outlook for the next month or two does not indicate any great activity. The demand for Flour to China is also slow, and other countries who have been customers of our Flour do not seem to be in any need of Flour, as orders are slow from there. To the United Kingdom we have not shipped any for many months. California is purchasing only in small lots to keep up brands. One vessel is on berth here at our docks loading a full cargo of Flour for South Africa. The trade there has fallen off considerable; during the last cereal year we exported to that country the first six months over 400,005 brls; the exports of 1903 cereal year were a little over 45,000 brls. Quotation for export brands range from $3 25 per bri to $3 60; Patents from $4 00 to $4 25 per barrel.

The United States Steel Corporation has applied to the London Stock Exchange to list $16,478,000 additional 10-60-year 5 per cent sinking fund Gold bonds of $1,000 each.

The Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railroad Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¼ per cent on its preferred stock, payable Feb. 8. Books close Jan. 23 and reopen Feb. 9.

Comptroller Grout of New York City has advertised for sealed proposals to be received until Wednesday, Jan. 20, for $10,000,000 of 3½ per cent corporate stock of the City of New York. The principal and interest will be paid in Gold.

Beerbohm of Jan. 1 says: "The Buenos Ayres Handels Zeitung of Dec. 5 estimates, we may add, that the Argentine Wheat crop might reach 136,000,000 bu, and the home requirements being 36,000,000 bu, leave a surplus for export of 100,000,000 bu."

All the property of the International Wireless Telegraph Company, including its patents, etc., have been transferred to the American De Forest Wireless Telegraph Company. By this action the International Company is wiped out of existence.

During the month of November Italy imported 2,616,000 bu Wheat, against 4,936,000 bu in November, 1902. In the four months ending November last the net total import was 9,708,000 bu, compared with 14,396,000 bu in the same four months of 1902-3 and 9,320,000 bu in 1901-2.

The Chicago Title and Trust Company, Monday, issued its annual statement of operations, covering the fiscal year ending Dec. 31, 1903. The surplus after all charges and dividends was practically $200,000, the best showing yet made by the company. The net earnings for the year were $499,347, or 9.99 per cent on the $5,000,000 capital stock. Dividends of 6 per cent were paid.

The executive committee of the Paper Products Company is preparing a list of brokers who will act as the approved selling agents of the company throughout the country. It is said that the company will enter into an agreement with these brokers whereby they will be allowed an extra 5 per cent discount in addition to the regular 3 per cent for cash. The brokers in each case will be required to handle the Paper Product Company's boards exclusively.

An Italian official crop bulletin covering the period from Dec. 10 to Dec. 20 says that heavy rains had caused further interruption to field work in Northern and Central Italy. The young Wheats suffered a little in consequence, and owing to the mild temperature insect pests were active. In Lower Italy weather conditions were better and field work made satisfactory progress.

The Corn Trade News of Dec 28 says: "Advices received to-day from Odessa and Nicolaieff have nothing very cheerful to say about the crop situation in the Southwest. The winter crops were undoubtedly seeded under most unfavorable conditions, and as the plant lacks strength and root, a period of severe frost without snow would be disastrous. At Odessa the weather has been colder, but the frost not very severe. Stocks at Odessa are maintained at big figures."

The Continental Trust Company of the City of New York, in which many Chicago capitalists are interested, reports in its latest statement for Jan. 1, 1904, total deposits of $14,328,928, compared with $13,172,458 a year ago. Its undivided profits are now over $400,000, against $144,670 on Jan. 1, 1903. The company's capital is $1,000,000, surplus $3,000,000, undivided profits $400,046, while its resources aggregate $18,742,739. The Continental Trust Company, incorporated in 1890, besides being a legal depository for the reserves of State banks, is also designated by the Supreme Court as a depository for both court and trust funds.

The large wholesale dry goods house of H. B. Claflin & Co makes a rather favorable showing for the year ended Dec. 31, notwithstanding the depression that existed in certain classes of business. Net earnings for the year were $620,000, a decrease of about $10,000. For the last six months of 1903 net earnings were $316,000, an increase of something like $3,000. Earnings on the common stock, which pays 4 per cent. for the year amounted to 8.75 per cent, as compared with 9.04 per cent in the preceding year. It is stated that the business of the firm in the West was larger than in 1902. A heavy falling off in the demand for dry goods is reported in the Steel district.

The Times of Argentina, Dec. 7, says: "Prompt cargo is below requirements and spot rates are, therefore, very weak. Very low figures have been accepted for full cargoes and parcels, great difficulties being experienced by steamship agents in filling up the boats berthed. There is plenty of Corn left for shipment, but sellers are holding out for prices they cannot obtain, and as the stuff is in strong hands they have no necessity to dispose of their stock. Unless they anticipate a good rise in prices at consuming markets, the holding-out process is not recommendable, because whatever blunders may be committed by owners there is no chance of lower rates of freight after this current month. There is a limit to everything, even to low rates of freight."

Traffic officials of lines between the Twin Cities and Chicago say they have not been officially informed that the Inter-State Commerce Commission proposes to investigate charges of the cutting of rates and payment of rebates on Flour shipments. "I do not believe there has been any strife between the lines from Minneapolis over Flour traffic, or that there has been any violation of the law as to rate cutting," said a well-informed traffic official at Chicago Tuesday. "On the contrary, the statistics of Flour traffic from Minneapolis indicate that the railroads, while not illegally pooling the business, have a friendly understanding regarding Flour traffic, whereby the weaker lines are given an undue share of that because of conditions which make it impossible for them to get a large percentage of other kinds of freight."

The following official statement was issued regarding the proposed Rock Island bond issue: "The board of directors of the company has for some time been giving careful consideration to, and conferring with, bankers and other friends of the company concerning the character of the new bonds which under existing circumstances it would seem desirable in the interests of the stockholders to issue for the purpose of refunding the obligations of the company and maintaining and protecting the strong position of the company and its properties. A statement of the conclusions reached will shortly be laid before the stockholders." President L. F. Loree, while in Chicago, is reported to have told a friend that no issue would be decided on until he had thoroughly investigated the needs of the company, and then only enough to refund existing obligations and protect the property.

The announcement that American Car and Foundry directors had reduced the salaries of officers and the clerical staff indicates that the company purposes to cut down the running expenses during the present period of depression and husband its financial resources in other ways besides reducing the dividends on the common stock. The saving that will be effected by reducing salaries, while not stated in figures, will be no small item, and considered in connection with wage reductions made at different plants will materially reduce operating expenses. The inauguration of this policy of retrenchment by the company indicates the feeling of the company's management in regard to the outlook during the year 1904. Had the company's business for the current quarter given promise equal to the quarter ended Nov. 30 there would have been no change in the common dividend. It is believed that the coming six months will be especially trying for all the railroad equipment companies, among which Car and Foundry is included.

The monthly review of the government bond market published by the National City Bank of New York says: "The outlook for increasing public deposits is not favorable. While the government accounts for December resulted in a substantial surplus of $10,499,000, as against $10,619,000 the corresponding month last year, the good showing for the month was wholly attributed to a sharp decrease in expenditures, the income being $1,491,000 less than for the corresponding month of the previous year. More important than the unfavorable figures of government receipts and expenditures in their bearing on the amount of government funds deposited in national banks, is the progress made in Washington toward the conclusion of the treaty with the new republic of Panama, and the approach of the time when $40,000,000 must be paid to the representatives of the Panama Canal Company security holders, and $10,000,000 to the Panama government. The present indication is that this money may be paid within three or four months, possibly at an earlier date, and it seems probable that while the Secretary of the Treasury will undoubtedly endeavor to provide for this payment as largely as possible out of funds in the treasury, depository banks will be called upon for some portion of it, perhaps $10,000,000 or $20,000,000.

Broomhall cables from Liverpool: "Wheat firm at Liverpool on small Argentine shipments and on renewed fears of war. Corn declined on larger American offerings and favorable Argentine news. Recent fine rains have benefitted Corn."

Local Securities were unsettled. The feature was the break of 3 points in North Chicago Railway and Northwestern Elevated preferred on light selling. Biscuit preferred, while traded in fairly, broke ⅝, and Can preferred advanced ⅞.

The Modern Miller says: "Snow has fallen in a large area of the Winter Wheat belt—the section east of the Mississippi River most favored. The crop in the Southeast has been most benefited, as drouth has prevailed there since seeding. In the Southwest the precipitation has been light, and moisture is still needed. Considerable complaint is heard regarding the unfavorable appearance of the plant owing to backward growth, but few claims of damage are being made."

Stocks in Wall street averaged higher, and in some instances made good gains. This was in the face of lower Consols and free selling by London. A few Stocks displayed marked strength, notably Rock Island, Steel, Realty and American Ice preferred. The buying of Rock Island was for insiders and may have been intended for effect on the new bond issue. A good bank statement is expected, as the banks have gained about $7,000,000 from the Sub-Treasury this week. Money 2 to 2¼ per cent.

Judge Cutting in the Probate Court at Chicago has allowed a claim filed by Canby & Co., a Board of Trade firm, against the estate of the late William M Jones who once operated on the Board of Trade, and had business relations with Canby & Co. After his death the firm presented a bill for $1,300, but the administrators objected to it, and contended that the Board of Trade operations consisted of gambling, and therefore the claim could not be legal. Judge Cutting, however, said that there were numerous decisions on the same matter and therefore he decided in favor of the firm.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—The demand continues very fair and market is holding firm at last week's advance. Stocks small.

WINTER WHEAT—Cash Wheat ruled firm, and prices show further advances, especially for fresh arrivals of fancy soft Wheat. The receipts are very small—only an occasional car of choice milling Wheat received. Poor Wheat is slow. No. 2 Red in store quotable at 83@87¾c and a car of choice fresh arrivals free on board sold at 93½c. No. 3 Red fresh arrival was quotable at 85@91c for ordinary to choice and a car sold at 91c. No. 2 Hard at the river quotable at 79@82c. No. 3 Hard sold at the river at 76@78c and ranged at 72@81c depending on quality. No. 4 Hard sold at the river at 61c. No. 3 White sold at 90c.

SPRING WHEAT—Ruled quiet and firm. Very little Wheat arriving and this prevented trading in fresh arrivals. Choice hard variety of Wheat in good demand on milling account. No. 1 Northern in store sold to the extent of 30,000 bu and quotably 4c under May price and ranged at 82⅞@83¾c, and fresh arrivals free on board quotable at 85@88c. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals quotably 84@87c. No. 3 Spring fresh arrivals quotably 78@86c for ordinary to choice hard variety. No. 4 Spring local sold at 57@70c for poor to fair, and ranged up to 75@80c for good to choice, with a sale billed through at 69c.

REGULAR WHEAT—A smaller market, but the feeling, nevertheless, was nervous, and fluctuations sudden. The close was ⅛c better for the May, while the July gained ¼@⅜c. The tone most of the session was firm, owing to the decline in British Consols, the close being five-sixteenths lower. Japanese Bonds, too, were quoted easier, and the market, in fact, was influenced chiefly by renewed fears that war between Russia and Japan was inevitable. A Washington message read: "Grave news are expected from the far East by officials here." The above started "shorts" to covering, the Southwest and "bull" party in May also being credited with buying. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ¼c lower and futures unchanged to ⅛d lower. Receipts there the past three days were limited to 24,000 bu, and all from America. London came unchanged to ¼d lower. Paris was up ¼@¾c and Antwerp unchanged. Argentine shipped 892,000 bu and since Jan. 1, 552,000 bu, compared with 272,000 bu one year ago. Present visible 1,696,000 bu; last week 736,000 bu; year ago 363,000 bu. Arrivals from interior liberal and quality satisfactory. Argentine weather was reported improved. The map showed dry weather in the Southwest, and Modern Miller was rather "bullish" on crop conditions in that section. Colder conditions were generally predicted, with snow in some sections. Primary receipts were 180,000 bu ahead of one year ago, the arrivals in the Northwest being 33 cars larger. Kansas City and St. Louis received 233,000 bu, against 122,000 bu in 1903. Minneapolis stocks are expected to increase 325,000 bu and Duluth increase 240,000 bu. Exports were again moderate and total for the week 2,771,000 bu, against 4,878,000 bu in 1903. The seaboard reported 11 boat loads accepted. Cash sales here 30,000 bu. A feature was the free selling of July by one of the larger commission houses and was credited to the Northwest. Receipts at Duluth 35 cars and at Minneapolis 386 cars, a total of 421, against 442 cars yesterday, 455 cars a week ago, and 388 cars last year. Local receipts included 21 cars Winter, 7 cars Spring and none mixed, a total of 28 cars, against 31 cars last year. Included in above were 2 cars of contract grade. There were also 12 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 30 cars. Withdrawals were 3,500 bu. Receipts at Western points were 750,479 bu, against 570,324 bu last year. At Eastern points 122,465 bu, against 213,719 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 369,777 bu, against 191,656 bu last year, and from Eastern points 2,820 bu, against 300,510 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 43,024 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 195,910 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Fair trade and market strong.

JANUARY—Entirely nominal and closed at about 83⅝c.

MAY—Sold at 86⅞@87¾c. Opened at 87c to 87⅛c; sold to 86⅞c, to 87¼c, to 87c, to 87⅝c, to 87¼c to 87½c, to 87⅛@87¼c, to 87⅝c, to 87¼c, to 87⅝c, and closed at 87⅝c bid.

JULY—Sold at 81½@81⅝c and at 82⅜c. Opened with sales at 81⅝c to 81¾c; sold to 81⅛@81¼c, to 81⅝c, to 81¾c, to 81½@81⅝c to 82c, to 81¾c, to 82½c, to 82c, to 82⅛@82¼c, to 81¾c, to 82¼c, to 82c, to 82⅜c to 82⅛c, to 82⅜c, and closed at 82⅜c asked.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 78¼@78⅞c. Opened at 78¼c; sold to 78½c, to 78⅜c, to 78½@78⅝c, to 78⅜c, to 78⅞c, to 78½c to 78⅞c, and closed nominally 78⅞c.

CORN—Fair trade, but market less animated, fluctuations covering ⅝@¾c range. Feeling rather unsettled, but the close ⅛c better for May while July showed ⅜@½c gain. Commission houses absorbed the early offerings, which came chiefly from local operators. The Argentine news, better weather and cables started the market easy, but May soon firmed to 49⅛c, at which figure "long" Corn again came out, causing ⅜c reaction, but rallied to 49c and closed at 48⅞c bid. The war talk and rally in Wheat were the chief "bull" helps. Some replacing of lines sold yesterday. Liverpool was steady to ¼d higher, while futures were ¼@⅜d lower. Receipts there the past three days 184,000 bu. Argentine shipped 1,242,000 bu, making 1,576,000 bu since Jan. 1, against 431,000 bu same period in 1903. Visible there 1,929,000 bu; last week 2,169,000 bu; year ago 197,000 bu. New crop estimated 120,000,000 bu. Recent splendid rains have been of much benefit and prospects excellent. Receipts, 319 cars; for the week, 2,225 cars; previous week, 1,697 cars; year ago, 2,030 cars. Estimates for to-morrow, 195 cars. A further lowering of temperatures was predicted for the West. OATS—Were active, and advanced ½@1c, the latter on May. The close was at the top, with a net gain of ½@⅞c. There was persistent buying by the leading "bull" interests, heavy covering by "shorts" and extensive taking of profits by "longs." The latter caused several recessions from the best prices, but the buying continued until the last. Cash sales were 60,000 bu. Arrivals were 104 cars, with 130 cars estimated for to-morrow. Withdrawals 9,606 bu. There were no seaboard clearances. Car lots advanced ½c. No 3 White sold at 39½c. Standard in store at 38½@38⅝c at the close with special location held higher.

There was withdrawn from store 100 bu and one car. No export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 in store nominally 54@54½c, and fresh arrivals free on board quotably 56@59c, with sale of a car at the top figure. No. 3 local quotably 50@53c, and a choice car at the river sold at 56c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet. January nominally 54@54½c, and March nominally 55c. May 57½c bid and 57¾c asked.

BARLEY—There was an active trade in mixing goods, Screenings and feed Barley. Firmness and advance in Oats exerted a brisk demand. Offerings of fresh cars small. Full late advance in prices obtainable, and in some cases 1c better was obtained. Advanced prices brought out a number of stored lots, and main sales were of these. Some sales were of lots to arrive. Malting Barley also firm. Car lot offerings light and on that account probably maltsters did not show any unusual interest in the car lot market. Round lots to arrive were at the same time reported in good request. Good sales made, but prices could not be learned, though sales were said to have been at some advance, and besides the lots sold negotiations were in progress for others. Only 13 cars were inspected in. Screenings quotable at 32@42c for poor to choice; good sales made at 41c. Barley, feed or mixing, depending on quality, was quotable at 40@42c, something fine above, and poor, musty below; malting low grade, about 42@43c; very dirty below; common, 44@46c; fair, 47@50c; good, 50@55c; choice, 56@58c; fancy, 60@61c.

SEEDS—There was but little done. Price changes also were absent. Values were quotably steady all around. Offerings in every case remain exceedingly limited.

Timothy—Quietness again prevailed. Little cash offered and no futures on sale. High grade spot Seed quoted as firm and wanted, with none on sale. Under grades not especially cared for; these also sparingly offered. Nothing developed indicating any material change in prices. Futures were again nominal, with January delivery about $3 00, February $3 05 and March $3 15. Country lots quotable at $2 00@3 25 for poor to fancy; fair to good $2 60@2 90; choice $2 95@3 00, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 40@2 55; tailings lower.

Flax—Was ½@1c higher. Little was done. Offerings remain very small. Better prices prevailed in the Northwest and that probably had a good deal to do with causing a better market here. Local movement very small. Only 7 cars or 5,950 bu received and 2 cars or 2,116 bu taken out. There were 29 cars received at Minneapolis and 18 cars at Duluth. No. 1 Northwestern or No 1 from the Northwest salable at $1 04½, that was bid, and 98½c paid for No. 1. Rejected was quotably 93@98c, outside for choice Northwestern. January delivery was nominally 98½c. May sold at $1 03 and finally offered at that.

Clover—The market remains without offerings. It was quotably steady and former prices obtainable if any were offered. Contract Seed, spot $11 35@11 40, and country lots and March delivery about $11 45@11 50; common to choice at $8 50@11 25; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $8 00@9 50; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00; fair to good quality about $9 00@10 75.

Other Seeds—Nothing could be said of this market any more than that the different lines were salable and quotably firm, but as no offerings appeared nothing could be done. Hungarian, common to choice, quotable at $1 50@1 70. Common Millet, 90c@$1 25 for poor to fancy. German Millet 90c@$1 25. Siberian, 75@90c. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 75@90c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat easy. Good dry milling quotable at $1 20@1 25, common below.

HOG PRODUCTS—Considerable interest was manifested in the market for Hog Products, and the feeling was somewhat unsettled. Hogs were in good supply and lower, which encouraged a little selling of Products early in the day, and prices were lower on all the leading articles. At the decline, the demand improved, partially in sympathy with the Corn market, and the prices advanced sharply all around. At the improvement there was a little pressure to sell, and prices settled back slightly, but toward the close rallied to outside figures, and the market closed comparatively strong. Outside orders were fair and local trading was moderate. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 84,700, compared with 70,300 one year ago. Foreign markets were quiet and easy, and quotations were reduced 6d on Lard and Hams. Domestic markets steady. Receipts of Products were fair—of Lard and Meats about 19 cars. Shipments were fair—of Lard and Meats about 126 cars. Demand on shipping account was moderate and offerings were not very large. Sales were only fair with little change to note in prices.

Mess Pork—A fair trade was reported in Mess Pork, and the feeling was unsettled, and prices irregular. Offerings were fair, and the demand was moderately active. Market opened rather easy, and prices were 7½@10c lower. Later, the demand improved, and fair miscellaneous buying caused an advance of 17½@20c. At the advance, the offerings were larger, and prices receded 2½@5c, but toward the close rallied 10@12½c, and the market closed steady. Shipping demand was light and offerings were moderate. Cash lots quotable at $13 00@13 12½.

JULY—Quiet, with small sales at $12 87½@12 90, and closed at $12 90.

MAY—In rather good demand with fair offerings. Sales were made at $12 87½@13 15. Opened at $12 87½ to $12 90, sold to $12 97½, to $12 92½, to $13 07½, to $13 02½, to $13 10@13 12½, to $13 10, to $13 15, to $13 12½@13 15, and closed steady.

Lard—Rather a good trade was reported in the Lard market, and the feeling was somewhat unsettled. Foreign advices unfavorable to holders. Offerings were fair, and the demand was moderately active. Opening trades were made at 2½@5c decline, but a stronger feeling was developed, and prices were advanced 5@7½c. Later, the market was not so strong, and prices settled back 2½c, but toward the close rallied 7½@10c and the market closed steady. Trading was chiefly in May contracts. The demand on shipping account small and the offerings somewhat limited. Cash lots quotable at $6 62½@6 70. Loose lots called for moderately and offerings were light. Prices were steady at about 72½c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in fair request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotably steady at $6 75. JULY—Quiet, with a few trades at $6 97½@7 07½, and closed steady at $7 07½.

Short Rib Sides—A fairly good trade was reported in Short Rib Sides, and the feeling was rather steady. Offerings were moderately free, and the demand was fairly active. Trading chiefly in May contracts. Prices ruled 2½@5c lower early in the day, but a steadier feeling prevailed later and prices advanced 10@12½c. The market closed steady at outside figures. Demand on shipping account was limited, and offerings were moderate. Cash lots quotable at $6 25@6 37½, according to weight.

PORK PACKING AND PROVISIONS.

The movement of Hogs to market has been liberal, with an increase over the preceding week, and decidedly larger number than for the corresponding time last year, so that the requirements of consumption is now practically removed. Total Western packing, 595,000, compared with 540,000 the preceding week and 390,000 two weeks ago. For the corresponding time last year the number was 475,000, and two years ago 578,000. From Nov 1 the total is 5,830,000, compared with 5,315,000 a year ago, the difference being but 15,000. Prices have had further sharp declines, and the close the average for prominent markets is about $4 50 per 100 lbs, compared with $4 70 a week ago, $4 85 two weeks ago, $4 85 a month ago, $4 70 two years ago, $5 20 three years ago, and $4 55 four years ago.

The speculative Provision market was quite active the past week, and prices fluctuated with the changes in the Grain market. Supplies of Hogs and prices for them had but little effect on Provision values. The low point on Grain was reached on Monday and a sharp upward turn for Provisions were reached on that day. As the Grain market advanced Provision prices recovered. Interest centered in the Grain and was calculated to induce particular strength or weakness, but rather favored an easier trend of values under normal conditions. Receipts of Hogs were liberal, and fresh supplies of Provisions were offered. Clearances of Product were fair, and show an increase over the preceding week and a gain over the corresponding week last year.

GRAIN TRADE AND CROPS.

[From the Cincinnati Price Current, Jan. 14.]

The status of the growing Wheat crop has not been essentially changed during the past week. Practically the entire crop east of the Mississippi River has now covering of snow, and there has been a slight fall in Northern Kansas and Missouri. There has been a light precipitation over a portion of the Southwest, but not sufficient to say that the dry spell in that territory has been broken. The Wheat plant in the northern portions of the Wheat area has been mostly covered in the United States for several weeks, and is fairly promising, but in the southern portions the appearance of the plant is against it; but notwithstanding the unfavorable Fall appearance, many correspondents believe the roots of the plant to be still sound. The movement of Wheat to market is equal to or more than normal.

In regard to the Corn crop recent correspondence continues to reflect the soft condition of much of the crop. In Indiana and Illinois there is a fair movement of Corn to market, but local millers in Ohio are shipping in Corn from the West principally from Indiana. In Iowa feeders are the best bidders. In Missouri, Nebraska and Kansas the movement is moderate to fair, with some tendency to increase.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows a few light snows in Manitoba and traces of snow in the Ohio Valley. Through Kansas, Oklahoma and the Southwest generally there is no precipitation. Temperatures through the West and Southwest are still moderate, but there has been a drop of the mercury in the extreme North and colder weather indicated.

In the extreme North at 7 A. M. the mercury was 18 below to 18 above, in Dakotas and Minnesota 10 to 42 above, in Nebraska and Iowa 16 to 40 above, in Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio 20 to 34 above. The continuation of the Southwest holiday trade has been the important feature of the weather situation.

Indications are the Western disturbances will advance East with some snow. Colder weather will overspread the district.

The Spencer & Co. lard refinery, at Tama, Iowa, paper mill and filler plant for one year, and will operate them for the purpose of utilizing the output in their own business. The Tama Paper Mill and Filler Company was capitalized at $100,000. It is probable the Armours will buy the plant.

The Bureau of Insular Affairs of the War Department, Tuesday, accepted the proposal of Harper & Brick & Son, Chicago, and Seligman Bros. & Robinson and the National Bank of New York, for the entire $7,200,000 ten to thirty-year 4 per cent bonds of the Philippine Government at 107.577.

There was much dissatisfaction expressed, but it is thought the matter will accept the new terms.

The Illinois Central and Yazoo & Mississippi Valley Railroad Company has declared a dividend of 1 per cent on the common stock. This is a reduction of ½ per cent from the previous payment. The usual dividend of 2 per cent was declared on the preferred stock. Both dividends are payable Jan 28. Books close Jan. 16 and reopen Jan. 28.

The first report of the new State Bank of Lake Forest, Ill., which was recently organized by Chicago and Lake Forest capitalists, shows a good business The bank's capital is $25,0 0. Its loans and discounts are $47,000, its cash resources $17,305, a total of $50,001. The savings deposits are $9,335, demand deposits $18,916; total deposits, $28,251.

The Consolidated Car Heating Company has declared a regular semi-annual dividend of 1½ per cent and an extra dividend of 1½ per cent, payable Feb 1. Reports were presented at the meeting showing that the business of the company increased very largely, and that there is an apparent need that the factory of the company should be enlarged.

Gross earnings of all railroads in the United States reporting for December are $37,758,283, a gain of 5.4 per cent, compared with the preceding year. The increase indicates continued larger tonnage and traffic movement, notwithstanding the adverse conditions. Practically the same roads in November reported an increase of only 3 per cent over the year before.

Secretary Trimble of the United States Steel Corporation gave out the following statement, Tuesday, in announcing the company's profit-sharing offer of common stock: "The plan adopted Dec 31, 1902, is still in force, and employees are subscribing for the second year on the same basis as the first year, except that the price fixed for the stock is $10 per share instead of $9."

The Baldwin Locomotive Works turned out 2,032 complete locomotives during 1903, which is 334 per cent in excess of the output of 1902. In addition to this number 1,600 sets of parts were furnished which were equivalent to 200 other locomotives. Of the completed locomotives 1,026 were for service in the United States, and the value of the entire output was between $27,000,000 and $28,000,000.

A Portland, Ore., dispatch says: "Live Stock men, Wednesday, threw down the gauntlet to the Harriman lines by passing resolutions to the operation of the National Live Stock Association declared to organize a corporation with $5,000,000 capital for the purpose of building independent packing houses. Of this amount $250,000 already is pledged and the remainder will be raised immediately."

In the application of the Federal Trust Company, Boston, holder of $250,000 bonds of the Penwood, Mich., Water Company, for a receiver on grounds of wasteful management, Judge Wanty has adjourned hearing to give the United States Court commissioner an opportunity to take testimony bearing on the case. Judge Wanty expressed himself informally to the effect that if the allegations were substantiated by testimony a receiver would be appointed.

Dornbusch's Buda Pesth correspondent, writing under date of Dec. 24, says of Flour: "A complete holiday lull has prevailed in the Flour trade, and neither any noteworthy purchases nor satisfactory consignments have to be reported. If business does not revive again after the holidays a material increase, this circumstance is merely due to the fact that most of the millers have availed themselves of the holidays to more or less suspend the working of the mills."

A Boston dispatch says: "A heavy business has been done in the past week in the Boston Wool market, the volume of sales running high. Although buyers have operated freely, the price situation has been good with the market firm. Mill owners have bought in large bulks. A stronger market is expected. There is a steady trade in territory Wools. The demand for pulled Wools is active, with only a moderate supply. Foreign Wools are quiet, but firm."

The North British Agriculturist of Dec. 30 says: "During the past week the weather has varied greatly over different parts of the country. Sharp frost has prevailed over the North of Scotland, but over most parts of the South the weather has been foggy and unseasonably mild, though it is now showing signs of clearing up to frost. Generally speaking, however, farm work is in rather backward state as yet, and much will depend on the weather of the next few weeks."

Action on the "Soo" dividends is due in the latter part of February. There is good authority for the statement that the directors of the Steel and Iron Company will be issued soon. In well-informed circles it is considered probable that it will show about 16 per cent earned on the common stock, after payment of all fixed charges and dividends on the preferred stock and allowing for depreciation of plant. The company is now doing an excellent Coal business, and it is receiving better prices on it than it got last year. Industrial development in the South is going ahead steadily and thereby enlarging the demand for Coal.

A director of the Diamond Match Company is authority for the statement that the earnings for the fiscal year ended Dec. 31 will not show a great deal of change in the net and surplus as compared with the report for 1902. Slight increases are expected. During 1903 the Match company is said to have sold more goods than the preceding year, but the profits therefrom are believed to have been slightly larger. The company has met a number of items of extraordinary expense, however, which have been charged to operating account, thus lessening the net profits.

A director of Metropolitan (New York) Securities says that in the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1904, earnings of the Metropolitan system will show something earned on the stock of the second preferred issue and that it will be made on the holders of the latter until they have received some dividend on their stock. This does not contemplate the building of any new lines by the Metropolitan company, which, should that enterprise be undertaken, might involve a change in the present plan. In any case no further call will be needed for a time.

The bondholders of the Michigan Telephone Company will receive as good as par and interest for their bonds, and have an opportunity of taking their preferred stock to the extent of $1,500,000 to carry on the business. When this is spent the company will have a property costing or worth by some estimates $14,000,000, against which it has bonded and securities to the amount of $9,000,000 subscribers, the capitalization per subscriber will be 50 per cent less than any other of the Bell companies. The bondholders have been asked to subscribe for the new stock and take an active management in the property

The Michigan Telephone Company has now about 54,000 subscribers, having gained 4,000 during the year 1903. Its earnings for 1903 will exceed the bond interest, $250,000, and a on the basis of the month of December net earnings of $600,000 can be counted on. The securities to be issued are $7,000,000 bonds per cent upon old Michigan stock did the same exist. By the sale at $4,100,000, the Western Telephone Company, 31 per cent of which is owned by the Bell Telephone Company, have a profit of over $3,000,000 that once sold at $108 00 per share and a floating debt for money advanced by the Western Company of $2,400,00 besides back interest.

The footing up of our exports of cereals products for December amounts to $110,854,312, as against $92,120,542 in December of the preceding year. The large gain of nearly $18,000,000 in these exports was chiefly due to the large exports of Cotton, but it is interesting to note that all items of export, except the single one of Breadstuffs, have increased over December, 1902, and that the decrease in Breadstuffs was not large. The total value of our exports of domestic products in the year just ended stands at $818,306,240, or more than $100,000,000 more than the preceding year, this being that six months ago indications were that the yearly total of these exports would decrease.

Prominent Steel men admit that the present strained relations between the railroad managers of Steel rails are responsible for the waiting attitude and the listlessness of the general market. If the United States Steel Corporation and its associates in the Steel trade would reduce the price of rails from $28 00 to $24 00 per ton it is asserted there would come at once a general revival in the tonnage movement that would more than compensate for the decreased price. Through reductions in wages and other economies the railmakers have cut the cost of rails per ton at the mills below $18 00, while the consumers are still paying $28 00 per ton.

Municipal bonds issued in December aggregated $18,141,297. This amount, according to the Financial Chronicle, is about 50 per cent above the average for the month of the preceding eleven years. These figures do not include temporary loans nor the $4,500,000 "general fund bonds" of New York City, $7,500,000.

Excellent progress has been made in the last week or ten days in getting deposits of Lake Street Elevated Railroad, Chicago, securities with the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank in assent to the plan of reorganization. It was officially stated, Saturday, that over 70 per cent of stock had been deposited as assenting to the plan, out of the 100,000 shares existing. Of the income bonds more than 90 per cent were reported deposited, as compared with 83 per cent officially stated as on deposit Dec. 28 by the reorganization committee. About 8 per cent of the first mortgage bonds were reported as assenting, but it is understood enough more are pledged and can be controlled by the management to make the amount above 97 per cent.

The annual report of the receivers of the Pacific Packing and Navigation Company has been filed in the United States Circuit Court at Trenton, N. J., showing receipts and disbursements for the year considerably above those of the 1903 annual report. The statement shows that the new value of the 1903 "pack" was $1,064,653, or considerably larger than for 1902. The trial balance shows that but four canneries of salmon made a loss for the year, and that the net earnings of all the canneries for the year 1903, including the Alaska canneries, has grown from $1,162,000 on July 31 to $1,380,000 on Nov. 30, 1903, the full decreased income of the certificates. The receivers declare that the net earnings of the Pacific Packing and Navigation Company for the year ending Nov. 30, 1903, were $68,812.

The committee of stockholders of the United States Realty and Construction Company, Jackson Boyd, chairman, appointed by the stockholders, announcing that the members deem it to be for the interest of the stockholders that the shares already deposited with the committee be returned to owners free of charge and to wait for the future to determine whether the committee should apply to stockholders for their proxies to be used at the annual meeting next May. This action is taken, it is announced, in view of the fact that the former incumbent of the offices of president of the Geo A. Fuller Company and vice-president of the United States Realty and Construction Company has resigned those offices and that the George A. Fuller Company has joined the Building Trades Employers' Association.

Stock traders in Wall Street ignored the war news, and, although trading was slow, 110,300 shares, there was a stronger and higher market. Closing was at gains of ¼ to 2⅛ on Alton, 2⅝ on Pacific Mail, ⅝ to 1 on American Ice, 2 on Realty preferred. Grangers were steady to 1 point higher. Money 2 per cent.

The receipts of Flour and Grain at Chicago for the past week were equal to 4,873,000 bu, and the shipments were equal to 2,773,000 bu. For the corresponding week in 1903 the receipts were equal to 4,813,000 bu, and the shipments to 3,670,000 bu. These figures are supposed to include the through shipments of Flour.

The weekly statement of the New York banks shows the following changes: Increases—Reserves, on all deposits, $9,494,775; Reserves, less United States deposits, $8,541,400; Loans, $16,403,-400; Specie, $15,277,500; Legal Tenders, $2,106,400; Deposits, $35,355,300. Export clearances for the past week from Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Newport News, New Orleans, and Galveston included 187,000 brls of Flour and 581,000 bu Wheat, against 244,000 brls of Flour and 993,000 bu of Wheat the preceding week, a decrease of 57,000 brls of Flour and a decrease of 412,000 bu of Wheat. For the corresponding week last year the exports were 222,000 brls of Flour and 1,343,000 bu of Wheat.

The Illinois Secretary of State granted permission, Thursday, to allow the Chicago Cattle Company to reduce the capitalization of the company from $1,000,000 to $100,000. The reduction was the result of the selling of the company's Cattle ranch in New Mexico. The Chicago Cattle Company had two Cattle ranches, one in Wyoming and the other in Sierra and Socoro Counties, New Mexico. The reduced capitalization represents the value of the remaining Wyoming ranch.

Broomhall cabled: "Our agent at Agra, India, cables that a light rain fell in United Provinces and Wheat is doing well. In Central Provinces and Province of Berar the condition of Wheat excellent and bumper crop expected. Last year the Wheat crops of above provinces were as follows: United Provinces, 111,975,000 bu, the largest crop of any of the districts; Central Provinces, 24,868,-000 bu, the third largest and Berar, 6,100,000 bu—about the smallest. The total Indian Wheat crop was 290,261,000 bu."

In the New York Cotton market although Liverpool cables failed to hold all the advance scored after its opening they disclosed enough unexpected strength to cause an advance in New York, with "shorts" good buyers and not much for sale. Owing to the disturbing news regarding the far Eastern situation traders were somewhat puzzled over strength of English market, and finally attributed the firmness to the "bullish" showing of the American movement and a growing alarm over the question of supplies. Closing prices were 1@2 points higher.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Demand fair and market very firm as quoted on the second page.

REGULAR WHEAT—A large trade and strong tone, the close showing May up 1@1⅛c, July ⅝@¾c better and the September ½c higher. The start was barely steady, due to the irresponsive cables unchanged prices of British consols, reports of rain in California and large Australian shipments 792,000 bu. The price soon rallied, however, the dry weather in the Southwest with continued fair conditions predicted being something of a factor as also the advance in coarse Grains and fear of fresh developments in far East over Sunday. The "bull" party in May was credited with buying, and "shorts" covered freely, the market acting congested. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ½d lower, while futures were unchanged. London came ⅛@¼d higher. Paris was ¼c higher to ½c lower. Antwerp unchanged. Receipts in the Northwest were liberal and total this week 2,833 cars, compared with 2,907 cars last week and 1,903 cars in 1903. Advices from Clayton, Mo., were very bullish on the crop situation. Minneapolis wired that country offerings of Wheat were light. Sales of 150,000 bu cash were reported there. Exports were again most limited and but 5 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Kansas City advices were "bullish" on the crop outlook and milling situation. One of the large local tea houses received a cable from its representative in the far East saying war was almost certain. The English visible decreased 363,000 bu, compared with 471,000 bu decrease same week last year. Crop advices from India were reported very favorable. WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW.

MONEY AND STOCKS.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY EVENING, Jan 15, 1904.

The money market is easy An effort is being made to force the call rate on gilt edge bonds as collateral to 5 per cent and on a few loans on such security borrowers paid that rate and 5½ per cent during the week. Some of the bankers are receiving easy on rates, but are not disposed to make any loans at less than 5½, and some are getting 6 per cent. The demand for money has not increased and there is enough of a general character to absorb a good part of the offerings. In the East the market was easy, with call loans on the Stock Exchange at 2 to 2½ per cent. Time money was 4½ to 5 per cent. The war scare had little effect but if war should come it is believed that rates would advance as war costs $1,000,000 to $2,000,000 a day, and to raise this money it would be necessary to pay higher rates. The call for financial assistance by either Russia or Japan would be in London, Paris or Berlin, and they in turn would borrow from New York. There were arrivals of $1,050,000 in gold and very few fresh engagements made in London.

Foreign exchange was irregular with moderate offerings of bills. Shippers' sixty-day documentary sterling bills on London ranged at 484 to 482 and closed at 484@482½.

Cotton in New York was active with war an influential factor and fluctuations were sharp. The close was at gains of 11 to 31 points for the week. The news was mostly of a bullish character and the leading "bull" interests were active on the buying side. The "bears" were also aggressive at times and the speculative trade was large. The export movement was fair and spinners are moderate buyers.

Local Securities were neglected and prices irregular, although the ranges for the most part were narrow. Union Pacific was the most active attention. North Chicago Railway sold at 80, the lowest on record, and the dividend has been cut down to 6 per cent Industrials were lower in the main, with Can preferred, Steel Boards and Oats and Swifts showing fair declines. Bank stocks, particularly the new issues, were taken to a fair extent, but the tendency was toward a lower snap and was largely of a professional character. Bonds met an increased demand both on the Exchange and over the counter

The New York Stock Market was irregular and closed with moderate advances over the previous week. The tone was influenced largely by advices from London and, by the action of British Consols. There were many traders who believe that the market for American securities would not be adversely affected even with war on between Russia and Japan. A general conflagration would disturb the money market by increasing a large demand and h gher interest rates might adversely affect securities. Interest rates were low, 2 to 3½ per cent on the Stock Exchange and this was the basis for professional buying The "short" interest was a large quiver of Copper and the leading holders of standard Western railway shares were reported on the bear side of the market. The big "short" interests in Copper covered. Steel was well supported Low-priced railways were taken up and advanced, and the total sales of the New York Stock Exchange for the week were 2,939,000 shares, compared with 3,102 600 shares the previous week and 4,173,000 shares last year.

Business with jobbers in dry goods and collateral lines was quiet for immediate delivery, but there was a fair run of orders secured for spring shipment. This class of buying, however, is not as brisk as a year ago. Prices of cottons are firm and stocks with jobbers are low for the season. In the Pig Iron market the feeling was stronger. A good many of the large consumers have covered their requirements for the first quarter, but there are others coming in all the time who have secured good orders for finished products and are buying the iron to cover them. In the market for finished products there has been an improvement of late both in the new buying and in the specifications of old orders. There were sales of 40,000 tons of Steel plates, also good inquiries from implement makers. The balance sheets of some of the local Iron manufacturers, which were expected to show a handsome profit, will show a reverse, due to an increase of 15 to 20 per cent in the cost of labor and to the other unfavorable conditions There was an advance of $1.00 per ton in Wire and Nails on the part of manufacturers. The movement of Lumber was light particularly of white pine, but of the yellow pine and hard woods there was more buying. The car builders are busy on new orders and are holding up the prices. The Coffee and Sugar market was strong with a good consumptive demand. In other lines trading was slow and collections in general are not so good.

COMMERCIAL.

Business on the Chicago Board of Trade was of fair volume the past week. Speculation in the Grain as well as the Provision markets is evidently on a large increased, outside interest serving, and local traders more disposed to trade on a larger scale. The war scare was possibly responsible for part of the improvement. Indications point to still greater activity in cash and broader markets, and the operator in the interior as well as shippers of Grain should not overlook the fact that Chicago is the greatest primary Grain receiving point in the world. The new offers of the Exchange were installed in office this week and new measures were recommended which are expected to be acted upon soon. The new rules will provide for a standard to take up the matter of inspection of Grain in this market and the relations of the Exchange with the State Inspection Department. The Chicago Board of Trade Clearing House report for the year 1903 showed cash on hand, $47,274, against $10 411 a year ago, and $16,938 is due from the telegraph companies. Receipts from market quotations were $11,000, compared with $10,000 in 1902. Disbursements' account, executive of construction, interest and insurance $30 047. Receipts from rentals, etc., against $129,233 in 1902.

According to the cash sales received the past week there is no particular change to note in foreign crop outlook. The weather was reported too dry in the United States and Spain, and in Russia freezing temperatures still continue, with little snow protection except in the Southwest. A deficiency of snow covering was also reported in Roumania and Japan. Taken as a whole crop conditions are so far satisfactory though the weather of late has been unseasonable. Rain is said to be needed in India, but considerable quantities of wheat are being sent to Europe for forward delivery. Reports from Argentine noted a return of wet weather and the harvest there is said to be impeded by the strike at Buenos Ayres is still interfering with the export of Grain. Satisfactory Wheat yields were generally reported in Australia.

Crop conditions in the United States are not particularly changed from one week ago. In Kansas, the Southwest and Southern California moisture is greatly deficient. The Wheat plant is generally reported in fair condition on the ground but fairly well rooted, but in many important districts has an unfavorable appearance. The area is supposed to be slightly under that of a year ago and generally speaking is thrifty.

The movement of Grain from the farms and interior elevators was fair the past week. In the Northwest the movement was reported with moderate freedom and arrivals at terminal points somewhat in excess of one year ago Through the West and Central West the movement was moderate of Wheat and Corn, but fair of Oats. Through the Southwest Wheat continues to be forwarded in large quantities and receipts at the chief points of accumulation were heavy. Through the South and on the Pacific Coast the movement was fair. The movement of Grain to the market was moderate. Shipments toward the seaboard somewhat more liberal of all kinds of Grain Exports of Flour and Wheat were moderate and fair of Corn. Oats and Rye were in good demand.

Through the Southwest Wheat continued to be forwarded in large quantities and receipts at the chief points of accumulation were heavy. Through the South and on the Pacific Coast the movement was fair. The movement of Grain to the market was moderate. Shipments toward the seaboard somewhat more liberal of all kinds of Grain Exports of Flour and Wheat were moderate and fair of Corn. Oats and Rye were in good demand.

Through the Southwest Wheat continues to be forwarded in large quantities and receipts at the chief points of accumulation were heavy. Through the South and on the Pacific Coast the movement was fair. The movement of Grain to the market was moderate. Shipments toward the seaboard somewhat more liberal of all kinds of Grain Exports of Flour and Wheat were moderate and fair of Corn. Oats and Rye and a decrease of Barley. According to the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN the Russian shipments of Grain for the week were 238,000,000 bu, or 37 per cent of the crop as reported. Of the above amount the Northwest is credited with 85,000,000 bu. The amount of Wheat marketed during December was 53,000,000 bu, as compared with 53,000,000 bu during the corresponding month in 1902.

Speculative operations on 'Change the past week were of good volume, the principal feature attracting more than usual attention. Price changes were frequent within the limits established, and fluctuations were a great extent by the advices from the far East and from Europe affecting the war situation. All other news was secondary, though the crop outlook in Kansas and parts of the Southwest occasionally received some attention, as snow prediction is lacking through that section of the Winter Wheat belt. All things considered, the advices at hand apparently favored holders. The "bull" party in the "long" of Wheat was watched closely, and also exerted considerable influence on the price of that delivery. Corn was governed by mild weather, poor grading and improved demand. Oats were quiet, easy, the falling off in the shipments from Argentine also being an indirect "bull" factor. Oats in urgent demand and materially higher. The cash demand was good, but stocks are steadily increasing. Hog Products were active under a fair demand and rather liberal offerings. Buying for outside "bull" account was the feature. Hogs were in large supply and prices somewhat unsettled. The bulk of the trading is still in May contracts since the deliveries governed to some extent by the course of the cash market. Primary advices indicated an easier feeling in that quarter Prices on the whole ruled fairly steady. Packing of the Western for the week was reported at 650,000 Hogs, against 6,365,000 in 1902-3, a decrease of 15,600 Hogs.

Rather a better trade was reported in the market for cash Grain this week. Demand was prevailed for coarse Grains and choice Wheat, which was in light supply was in fair request. Competition for fancy and good dry Corn was greater and higher prices were obtainable. Barley, Damp and wet Corn, however, was slow sale and relatively weaker. The call for round shipping lots to go East was full weather and a large business booked. Considerable No. 1 Northern also taken at about 4c under May. Rye was quiet and dull. Timothy Seed business was transacted in Seeds, more particularly in Timothy, and prices were steady. Timothy Hay was in light supply and prices firm Prairie was quiet. Hog Products were in moderate demand and offerings fair Holders displayed no anxiety to sell. Stocks large. Cattle were marketed freely and prices weakened, as also was the case with Sheep.

FREIGHTS—Gold weather has retarded the operation of railroads and cars have not been so plentiful. The tariff is as follows:

To—	From Lake.	From Miss. River.
	Domestic.	Export. Domestic.	Export.
New York	20	15	21	17½

Flour rates are 20c domestic and 16½c for export. Provision rates are 30c per 100 lbs, Chicago to New York.

Rail rates from Buffalo to the seaboard are 4½c per bu on Wheat, 4¼c on Corn, and 3½c on Oats. To New England they are 5½c on Corn and 3½c on Oats.

Ocean rates on Grain are steady with a light business. Rates on Grain are 4½d per bu from New York and 4d from Boston. Through rate on Wheat from Chicago to Liverpool is 16c per bu and Corn 10½c Flour 24.9¢ per 100 lbs and Provisions 41c per 100 lbs.

FLOUR—The market is generally reported in very fair shape from the millers' standpoint. A firm undertone prevails and the advance established last week is still maintained. Millers report a fair local and country demand for flour, and the call from abroad shows but little improvement. Stocks in the hands of jobbers and the large wholesale dealers have become so depleted that they are obliged to come into the market and replenish the same. Offerings from the outside moderate and consignments light. All the celebrity mills are running on full time and the output is selling well. New England and the seaboard were in the market this week on a more extensive scale. Considerable Flour is going toward the seaboard. In the local trade there is considerable Spring Wheat stood to be for blending purposes, to mix with the inferior article made from Russian, Indian and Argentine Wheats. The output at the principal mills during the week ending Jan 9 was reported at 505,000 brls, compared with 444,000 brls for the corresponding week in 1903. Stocks in the United States and Canada on January 1, as reported by the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN, were 2,540,000 brls, compared with 1,936,000 brls December 1 and 1,745,000 brls on January 1, 1903. Stocks of Flour in the principal markets of the United Kingdom on January 1 were 1,000,000 brls, compared with 910,000 brls same date in 1903. The week closed firm at the following prices:

MILLSTUFFS—Ruled firmer during the week. The receipts have been small and prevented trading. A good demand existed. Bran in bulk was quoted $15 00 per ton and in sacks, sacks included, quotably $18 00.

WINTER WHEAT—The cash market has not been much affected by the fluctuations in the speculative markets, owing to the light offerings which has acted independent and held up strong in spite of ups and downs in futures. A highly satisfactory condition prevailed. There has been a good demand to fill local trade and milling Wheat, and while for choice in some instances slightly higher prices were realized, yet the general market did not show any change. Very little really desirable Wheat has been received. Soft fresh lots which meet the milling requirements were taken up readily. The reason for this lay naturally in the fact that receipts of such Wheat were small and less than actual requirements; larger receipts could easily have been disposed of. Soft Red Winter Wheat was what was wanted and choice Soft White was in fair request. Hard for certain purposes, but the poor Wheat remained dull Of corse there was sale for the best lots, but they were not sought after and were relatively harder to sell and not such a satisfactory price. No shipping business of consequence was transacted and but few round lots sold on that account, trade being confined to supplying the wants of millers and home trade and restricted principally to the car lots of fresh arrivals. The receipts for the week aggregated 1,444,000 bu, of which 1,000,000 bu were No. 2 Red. were withdrawn from public elevators 11,100 bu and from private warehouses 16,000 bu and 58 cars. No 2 Red in store quotable at January to May prices depending on grade and rating, No 3 Red 2c and fresh arrivals free on board at 91@93c. No. 2 Red fresh arrivals sold at 83@91½c per bu according to grade, with a sale at the river at 86c. No. 4 Red sold at 77@78c for common to fair. No. 2 Hard as the river ranged at 78@83c. No. 3 Hard local was quotable at 76@79c and at the river ranged at 79@79c. No. 4 Hard sold at 67@71c for poor to good and at the river sold at 82@73c.

SPRING WHEAT—Only a light business was transacted and the market ruled quiet all week, with a tone to the offerings which leaned decidedly the choice Wheat. There has been no shipping demand for round lots, but a few changed hands in a jobbing way. A fair milling demand existed for car lots, and the fresh arrivals of such were taken up readily, but the receipts have been very small and the business reported was light. No ready sale for all the desirable milling Wheat, there was not enough received for the demand. Of the poor Wheat there have been a number of cars received, and with considerable of this quality there has been no special call for it, and low prices had to be accepted—it did not improve to any change on this the better samples did. The receipts for the week aggregated 1,444,000 bu, 69 cars the previous week. There were withdrawn from public elevators 50,000 bu, and from private warehouses 16,000 bu and 58 cars. No. 1 Northern in store quotable at 81¼@83½c, having ruled 4½@5c under May prices, and fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 83½@87c. No. 2 Spring sold at 80@82½c free on board, with a sale at the river at 72@80c. No. 3 Spring, ordinary to good, up to 83@88c for choice hard variety, with a sale at the river at 76@80c. No. 4 Spring ranged at 70@75c for poor to fair, at 70@72c for good and at 75@77c for hard variety, with sales at the river at 67@77c.

REGULAR WHEAT—The speculative market was subject to frequent and sudden changes the past week and the close shows the May 4@5c higher, while the July lost 4c and September 3c. The transactions were of large volume and the feeling decidedly nervous. The fluctuations being governed to a considerable extent by the war news and attitude of the "bull" party in the "long" of May, which on several days was "bullish" and the buying of better character than the selling Domestic, as well as foreign, statistics were considered as "bearish" but received but casual consideration in face of the war news. The steady declines in British Consols advance in both the English and Continental Grain markets, adverse crop news from Argentina and talk of dry weather and lack of snow protection in the Northwest were among the chief "bull" helps. May advanced to 87¼c, July to 82¾c and September to 79¾c before the demand was satisfied. Conservative authorities on the Continent looked upon war between Japan and Russia as inevitable and the Grain markets of the world over were affected by the advices received in the capitols of Europe. A London Grain expert writings under recent date on the possibility of war in the far East and its probable effect on prices sa d: "War between Japan and Russia would no doubt sentimentally affect the Wheat market, but it is clear that two countries there is no reason to suppose that supplies would be in any way interfered with. However, on the probability of war quite an active trade has been done in new Australian Wheat cargoes to arrive next May and June. The Wheat market maintains a firm attitude notwithstanding the bearish influences, but the general feeling continues to be displayed by buyers in view of the rosy reports regarding the yield in Australia and the expectation of big shipments shortly from Argentina." As the improvement in prices is considerable "long" property came on the market, the "long" interest in May being credited with reducing its line and prices settled back May reached 84¾c, and then the July. There comparatively free liberal movement, the arrivals at primary markets exceeding those for the same week in 1903, when one of the "bear" influences. In addition to the domestic as well as European crop outlook and the showing of Bradstreet's were also factors which temporarily depressed values Primary receipts during the week were reported at 8,232,000 bu; previous week 8,618,000 bu, and 8,664,000 bu one year ago. There was an increase in shipments of Wheat from India, 1,016,000 for the week, against 888,000 bu the previous week and 256,000 bu a year ago. Russian shipments were smaller than the week before those from the Danube a trifle larger, the combined total, 2,664,000 bu, against 3,016,000 bu last week and 3,192,000 bu and 3,892,000 bu one year ago. Quantity on ocean passage decreased 960,000 bu to 23,920,000 bu, against 24,172,000 bu the corresponding date one year ago. The world's shipments were 11,504,000 bu, against 876,000 bu increase same week in 1903. Total is now reported 40,495,000 bu, compared with 30,116,000 bu last week and 31,371,000 bu a year ago. Local stocks increased 85,000 bu to 2 814,000 bu. Stock year ago, 7,755,000 bu. Stocks here in all positions 5,957,000 bu, an increase of 816,000 bu. Stock last year 10,000,000 bu. Primary stocks decreased 144,281 bu and are now 1,834,019 bu, compared with 4,075,881 bu last year. Bradstreet's increased 1,231,000 bu, against 3,598,000 bu decrease one year ago. The Northwest was generally dry, while damp and wet was the greater part of Missouri and all of Kansas and further south without snow covering. The Michigan State report, however, said 97 per cent of correspondents believed the fall sowing of Wheat in December and uninjured. War news again made "shorts" nervous and the May advanced to 87¼c and the July to 82¾c. Foreign crop advices were also generally choice Weekly crop following summary cabled by Broomhall on Tuesday would indicate: "United Kingdom, Spain—Weather at present too wet. Russia—Recent severe freezing weather conditions. Italy—Soil is frozen and partially covered with snow. Roumania—There continues a deficiency of snow covering and crops in consequence are under exceptional cold influence —Crop conditions generally satisfactory, although at present time weather unseasonable. Germany —Weather during the past week has been colder. Crops generally satisfactory. Rain is much wanted in some parts; fair quantities new crop Calcutta being offered." Berthoim of Dec. 29 said of the Russian crops: "An official report says that as the result of the destruction of Winter and autumn-sown crops was generally unsatisfactory. There had been a severe drouth in the Southeast and an excess of rain in the Northwest; however, the conditions were favorable in the Center, South and Northeast. In the Provinces of Bessarabia, Kherson, Taurida and Ekaterinoslav the condition of the crops left much to desire, a great deal of the Winter Wheat and Rye having been totally exterminated." The primary movement between July 1 and January 11 now aggregates 195,372,000 bu, against 181,000,000 bu 1902 and 179,453,000 bu in 1901-2. Exports were moderate the past week at 2,771,000 bu, making the total since July 1, 139,694,000 bu, as compared with 95,945,000 bu for the same period in 1902-3. Clearances of Wheat and Gulf ports were likewise moderate. Indications are for a fair addition to the visible supply: on Monday stocks in the Northwest being expected to increase 800,000 bu, against 1,000,000 bu in 1902 bu this week, and since January 1, 552,000 bu, as compared with 273,000 bu in 1903. The visible there is 1,698,000 bu, against 363,000 bu one year ago.

CORN—Ruled firm and a fair business was transacted under this head the past week and the feeling prevalent, while considerably mixed, at times was strong. May fluctuated between 46¾c and 49¾c, closing at 49¼@49½c, or 2½c higher than last Friday. July ranged at 46¾@47¾c and rested at 47¾@47½c, or 3@3½c better than the week previous. September gained 4@4½c. Price changes were governed to a considerable degree by the war news and action of Wheat. The early tone was "bullish," influenced by the decline in Wheat, but subsequently turned mild weather and more active call for the cash article. "Shorts" were much disturbed by the war-like outlook in the far East and covered freely. Interior receipts were light, and there was no general of the large commission houses taking May and July in large quantities and situation for a time was quite strong. May advanced to 49¾c and the July touched 47¾c, when the bearish feeling was satisfied. The Liverpool market was higher and the shipping demand noticeably better, round lots being in active request. Shipments all-rail. Receipts were fair, the total for the week being 2,225 cars, against 1,697 cars last week and 2,030 cars for the corresponding period in 1903. One of the features of the week was the excellent quality of receipts There is some difference of opinion this season as to the effect on the price of the very low grades. The generally taken for granted a poor quality crop is against the price, but this season the handlers appear to assume the quality is no poor that, after an experience with the very low prices, the country will finally stop shipping the very low grades. Country buyers are liberal in the purchase of the poor Corn in the country unobtainable, for the price of No Grade here is so low that there is no profit in shipping it to the handler. It is thought this experience will also tend to keep the very poor Corn in the West. Since the mild weather began Corse which has been inspected No 4 by the inspectors has in many cases been thawed out and become so wet as to bring no better than No Grade prices when sold. Statistics, too, were construed as moderately "bullish" World's shipments were quite small at 2,400,000 bu, previous week, 2,816,000 bu; year ago, 3,540,000 bu. Quantity on ocean passage decreased 1,243,000 bu to 14,583,000 bu, compared with 5,633,000 bu one year ago. The visible supply increased 428,000 bu, compared with 411,000 bu increase a year ago. The total was reported 6,268,000 bu, against 5,095,000 bu in 1903 and 11,843,000 bu in 1902. Local public stocks are now 2,394,000 bu, compared with 2,000,000 bu same date in 1903. Total local stocks increased 218,000 bu to 4,402,000 bu, as against 3,422,000 bu one year ago. Contract supplies increased 48,398 bu to 2,120,085 bu, compared with 1,681,231 bu same date in 1903 Bradstreet's available increased 815,000 bu, against 600,000 bu in 1903. Primary and foreign markets were comparatively firm, influenced to some extent by, the falling off in the Argentine shipments and excellent demand for spot. Argentina's shipments for the week were reduced and the stock at Liverpool last week was reduced by 168,000 bu to 783,000 bu, compared with 1,22,000 bu same date in 1903. On the advance there was selling by interests with profits in sight, and this selling caused some reaction in values. May selling of to 48¾c and the July to 45¾c. More peaceful views of the international complications between Japan and Russia induced "shorts" to cover in many instances to unload, the reaction in Wheat also tending to weaken values. The movement through the West was fairly large and the receipts were somewhat in line with that of 1903. Market rallied again to 49¾c and 47¾c respectively. Exports at Atlantic and Gulf ports moderate and total for the week were 1,000,000 bu, against 1,200,000 bu, making 1,578,000 bu since Jan 1, compared with 431,000 bu in 1903. The visible supply was reduced 1,243,000 bu, as against 1,351,000 bu the week previous and 197,000 bu one year ago. The Argentine crop is now estimated at 120,000,000 bu. The call for car lots was more brisk and good dry Corn sold readily, while damp and wet was slow sale and relatively weaker.

OATS—The market for Oats the past week was excited and May sold at the highest price on the crop 1903-4, 36c, a net gain of 1½c, while values above 40c was made by large purchases on the part of the leading "bull" interest who control more than the visible supply. The "short" interest was forced to cover by the large purchases of all the leading holders of May. At 40c and above there was active selling forproits, and the Oats were readily absorbed. January was bid up owing to a scarcity of offerings of 36,000 bu. The July sold as low as a hedge against cash holdings as operaters did not care to take the risk in selling May. The discount under July widened from 3½c to 4½c. Receipts were moderate and not equal to the cash requirements The Eastern cash demand was good and export business fair. In the sample market there was a good trade. Receipts for the week were 728 cars, compared with 1,000 for the previous week and 1,081 cars last year. Export clearances were 73,355 bu, against 148,000 bu the previous week and 234,000 bu last year. Local stocks in public houses increased 32,000 bu, and now 1,391,708 bu, compared with 813,287 bu last year. The contract stocks are 1,005,000 bu, an increase of 1,000 bu for the week and 1,000 bu with 647,000 bu last year. The visible supply increased 192,000 bu and was 8,700,000 bu, compared with 4,587,000 bu last year.

RYE—Ruled firm while ruling quiet, developed a rather firm feeling during the past week and prices were slightly higher. There has been some shipping and there has been a little more disposition to purchase, but the trade was in a jobbing way and the volume of trading has been rather light. The market acted somewhat independent from the other Grains and values ruled firm and the Corn ruled easy. Rye did not always follow the great interest, however, was manifested and trading confined within the circle of a few who operate in that article. There is a shipping demand, but nothing has been done and the cash business was confined to the car-lot fresh arrivals. The best car lots were taken by millers, distillers and for manufacturing purposes. Poor to medium lots were neglected and the poor samples were found to be very slow sale and sold at considerably less than the choice lots. The reason for this is that there is little use to which poor Rye can be put and the Eastern consumers do not want it, because there is not enough choice to be had to mix it with at low enough price to make it pay. The receipts for the week aggregated 18 cars against 24 cars the previous week. There were 425 bu withdrawn from public elevators and 6 cars from private warehouses. No export clearances for the week ended. The visible supply increased 11,000 bu, and was reported at 1,339,000 bu, against 1,328,000 bu the previous week and 1,091,000 bu a year ago. The local stock is now 1,339,000 bu and a year ago was 852,000 bu. No. 2 in store was nominal and quotably at 52@53½c, with sale of fresh arrivals free on board at 54@55c for common to choice, and sold at the river at 52@55c. No. 3 from store quotably at 50@51c and sold at 50@55c for common to choice, and sold at the river at 49@55c. No. 4 local sold at 48@ 0c and sold at 50@55c for common to choice, and sold at the river at 49@55c. No. 4 local sold at 48@ 0c and sold at 50@55c for common to choice, and sold at the river at 49@55c. No. 4 local sold at 48@ 0c and sold at 50@55c for common to choice, and sold at the river at 49@55c. For future deliveries of No. 2 Rye the trading has been light and the quotable at 53½@54c. March nominally 53@55½c. May sold at 57@58c.

BARLEY—A firm feeling prevailed in this market. It was very strong in tone. Only a part of the arrivals came on sale Usually there was only a light supply on the cash market. Low grades were in fair supply. The shipping demand active for Oats led to a brisk demand. Screening in good demand. Few country lots on sale. The largest sales were out of local storage. Malting was in good demand and very little was offered. Prices during the week scored 1@2c advance Choice to fancy Barley was very scarce. To arrive was more active. In most cases asking prices were advanced Maltsters are not buying Barley up to figures usually asked. still sales were fair. Receipts were 151 cars, compared with 155 cars a week back. By sample on track Chicago New York reported exports of 14,844 bu, against 28,228 the week ago. There was 11,000 bu decrease in visible supply; stock in sight, however, was liberal in the face of a decrease of 6,000 bu, the total being 2,503 000 bu a year ago. Local stock did not change, remaining at 277,000 bu against 1,233 bu the same time last year. Receipts yesterday advanced from 30@38½c to 32@42c, feed Barley 28@30c, and Rejected with very poor lower. Malting—low grade advanced from 40@43c to 42@43c, common from 43@ 45c to 45@47½c, fair to good from 47½@50c. Good improved from 49@53c to 50@55c, choice from 52@ 58c to 56@56c, and for fancy there was a nominal quotation of 60@66c Low grades for mixing showed little change. Receipts yesterday were brought out stored lots, and finally several round lots of screenings and mixing Barley were sold.

SEEDS—There was nothing animated about the market Open market trading was all but small. Free output of Timothy, Clover and other Grass Seeds reported. The figures of the past week exceed those of a year ago in every case, and by considerable too. Price changes were few and those occurring were of little significance. Flax weakened early and finally became strong, with a reaction, so that for the week there was a small net gain.

year ago, especially on the part of the output. Timothy, spot Seed, when of good quality was in good demand and firm. Of high grades there were very few lots on sale. Cash Seed was in sellers' favor, and yet the quotations from day to day exhibited no essential change. Futures were practically nominal. There was no special demand excepting occasional bids for March. The market was quite devoid of sellers. Order trade evidently has been good. Stocks probably are good also for since the closing of the fall season there have been quite liberal arrivals. January delivery was quoted usually at $3 00, February at $3 05, and March was nominally about $3 10@3 15. For country lots values had a range of $2 00@3 25 for poor to fancy; fair to good $2 60@2 80; choice $2 85@3 00, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 45@2 55; tailings lower. Movement was as follows:

Flax—An easy feeling prevailed. Prices sustained 1@2c decline, with a subsequent reaction and a strong closing. Northwestern markets receded somewhat. There was less sensational war news. Very little business was done. Car lot offerings were exceedingly small and there were few speculative orders. As a matter of fact, there was little about the market to interest any one. Receipts were 95 cars, but not to exceed half a dozen cars came on sale; the week before the receipts were 108 cars. Output was 23,558 bu, compared with 23,708 bu a week ago. Chicago stock did not change, but remained at 60,679 bu, against 6,214 bu the same time last year. Minneapolis increased 32,813 bu, reporting 1,632,813 bu, and Duluth with 263,464 bu increase had 5,582,693 bu. No 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest had a range of $1 03@1 04½; closed at $1 04½. No. 1 ranged at 97@98½c; closed at 98½c. Rejected was quotable at 92@98c, depending on quality—outside for choice Northwestern. January opened at 98c, was later 97c bid, and finally 98⅛c bid. May ranged at $1 03 to $1 01, and closed at $1 03.

Clover—There was a firm opening with advance of last week maintained. The week started with contract Seed quoted at $11 50. Later, the market became weaker. Not on account of the offerings here so much as on account of less favorable advi es from elsewhere. There was a decline to $11 35@11 40. The trade was exceedingly limited. Cash offerings were limited to a few small lots. Movement was fair. The shipments especially were good, exceeding those of a year ago, being also considerably in excess of arrivals. Cash values did not change materially. They were in the main nominal, and were usually over a range as follows: Country lots, common to choice at $8 50@11 25; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other week Seeds, $8 00@9 50; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00; fair to good quality about $9 00@10 75.

Same time last year	304,655
Corresponding week last year	302,400

Other Seeds—Arrivals were smaller than the previous week. Shipments were fairly liberal. The regular open market was inactive for want of orders. There was reported a firm market for Hungarian and Millets. Consignments of either kind would have sold had any come on sale. They had a selling value as follows: Hungarian, common to choice at $1 50@1 70. Common Millet, 90c@$1 25 for poor to fancy. German Millet 90c@$1 25. Siberian, 75@90c. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 75@90c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Movement for the week was as follows:

Same time last year	376,828

In the case of Buckwheat there was about 10c decline, prices going from $1 30@1 35 to $1 20@1 25 for good milling. Anything common at a discount. Arrivals lately have been larger. It has been easier to buy, hence bids were reduced.

HAY—The receipts for the week were 3,793 tons, against 3,084 tons for the previous week. Shipments for the week were 167 tons, against 188 tons for the previous week. A firm feeling existed for Timothy Hay during the past week. The offerings were only moderate and the local demand was good. Shipping inquiry was light. Prices ruled steady to 50c per ton higher. The market for Prairie Hay was quiet and rather dull. Arrivals were only fair, but the demand continues light, as local buyers prefer Timothy Hay and there is practically no shipping demand. Prices unchanged. Quotations at the close ranged as follows: Choice Timothy, $11 50@12 50; No. 1 Timothy, $11 00@11 50; No. 2 Timothy, $9 50@10 50; No. 3 Timothy, $8 50@9 50; Choice Prairie, $10 50@11 00; No. 1 Prairie, $9 00@10 00; No. 2 Prairie, $8 00@8 50; No. 3 Prairie, $6 00@7 00; No. 4 Prairie, $5 00@5 50. Inside prices on Prairie Hay for State and outside for Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa Hay. Sales ranged at $7 50@13 00 for poor to choice Timothy, $8 25 for Mixed Hay, $6 75@7 50 for State, and $8 00@11 00 for Iowa, Dakota and Kansas Prairie Hay. Rye Straw sold at $7 50@9 50 for poor to choice. Wheat Straw at $7 00 and Oat Straw at $7 00@7 50.

COOPERAGE Trade was only moderate in the market for Cooperage during the past week, and the undertone in a general way was comparatively easy. Offerings of all kinds were fair, while the demand was moderate. Local packers not inclined to purchase to any extent, and outside orders were somewhat limited. Pork Barrels were in moderate request and quotably steady at $1 27½@1 30 for both ash and oak. Lard Tierces were in rather light demand, and sales were moderate at $1 50@1 65. Iron bound Lard Tierces were in moderate request and quotable at $1 40@1 42½ for six hoop and $1 45@1 47½ for eight hoop.

HOGS—The receipts of Hogs were quite liberal early in the week, but were moderate toward the close. Quality was only fair, and buyers are complaining of too many light weights for the general wants of the trade. The market was quite active on packing account, but the shipping demand was not as urgent as during the previous week, though fairly active. Orders from the Eastern markets were not very large. Early in the week, the feeling rather was easy, owing to the liberal offerings, and prices declined 10@15c on the whole range. Later, the supply fell off, and a stronger feeling was developed, accompanied by an advance of 15@20c. Toward the close, the feeling was not so strong, and prices settled back 10@15c, and the market closed rather steady. Sales during the week were made at $4 30@5 00 for light, $4 45@4 80 for rough packing, $4 45@5 10 for mixed, and $4 65@5 15 for heavy packing and shipping lots, with the bulk of the trading within the range of $4 45@4 95 for fair to good averages. At the close, about 5,500 Hogs remained in the pens unsold. Pigs were in fair supply and rather good demand, and sold at $3 00@4 55, according to size and quality. Receipts of Hogs at the other large Western packing points were rather large and quality fairly good.

PACKING—Another active week prevailed in packing circles and Products were moved quite freely. Hogs were in good supply and packers purchased liberally. Mess Pork made in fair quantities. Other cuts of Pork made moderately. Lard produced in fair quantities, but the average yield was not very good, owing to the lighter weight of Hogs. Only a small proportion placed in tanks. Domestic cuts of Hams made with considerable freedom, and only a small proportion delivered from the block. Skinned Hams cut in fair quantities and chiefly cured by manufacturers. Foreign cuts of Hams neglected. Shoulders made in fair quantities and a moderate proportion sold from the block. Picnic Hams made rather freely, and only a small proportion delivered from the block. Long Clear Sides and Extra Long Clear Sides made in very limited quantities. Short Clear Sides made moderately. Extra Short Clear Sides cut in fair quantities. Short Rib Sides met with a little more favor and the production was enlarged. Extra Short Rib Sides made moderately. Rough Sides cut in fair quantities, and chiefly of medium averages. Backs and Bellies made moderately. Loins cut rather freely to meet current wants. Foreign fancy and special cuts of Meats made in limited quantities.

PROVISIONS—Considerable interest was manifested in the market for Hog Products during the week just closed, and the volume of business was rather liberal. An unsettled feeling prevailed, and fluctuations in prices were frequent. Outside orders were free, and largely on the buying side, especially those from the South, while local trading was quite active. Bulk of the trading was in contracts for May, though July is gradually gaining in favor. The receipts of Hogs were fairly large in the aggregate, and prices ruled irregular, and this feature had some influence on the market for Products at times. The course of the market and prices were influenced to some extent by the war rumors, and the changes in the Grain markets. Returns of the packing of the West for the week exhibited an increase of 120,000 Hogs compared with the returns of the corresponding week in 1903, and this feature had a weakening effect temporarily. Foreign markets were inclined to quietness. Meats were rather slow sale, with prices generally lower, while Lard was steadier, and prices ruled higher. Domestic markets were only fairly active, though considerable Products are being distributed through the larger markets. The receipts of Products from the interior were quite large, as packers were delivering freely on maturing contracts. Shipments were quite large, a fair proportion of which were forwarded to foreign markets. Stocks of all kinds are rather liberal, and the production moderately large. Early in the week, there was considerable activity in the speculative markets. "Longs" were inclined to realize on fair quantities, and packers sold moderately. Prices declined materially on all the leading articles. At the decline the demand improved, and a firmer feeling was developed. With fair miscellaneous buying, and not much property for sale, prices were advanced sharply, but irregular on all descriptions. Toward the close, there was some pressure to sell, partially credited to the packing interest, and a weaker feeling was manifested. Prices settled back moderately, and the market closed rather steady at about medium figures. The firmness in the Corn market had some influence with outside operators. The demand on shipping account was fairly active, and mainly for the wants of the domestic trade. Orders from the Southern markets were rather liberal early in the week, but lighter toward the close. Exporters not inclined to purchase, except in a small way. Offerings were not very large, and holders were rather firm in their views. Supplies of all kinds are liberal. Sales were fair, and prices, as a rule, were without material change.

Pork—Quite an active speculative business was transacted in Mess Pork during the past week and the feeling was somewhat unsettled and prices were regular. At times fluctuations were quite wide. Supply on hand is moderate. Trading confined almost exclusively to May contracts. Outside operators considerably interested in the market. Early in the week the offerings were rather free, while the demand was moderate. A weak feeling prevailed, and prices on the whole range declined 45@50c. At the reduction the demand improved while the offerings were lighter, and the market developed considerable strength. Prices irregularly advanced 65@70c. This advance brought considerable property on the market again toward the close, and a weaker feeling prevailed, was declined 30@35c, and the market in a general way closed at about the medium figures of the week. Demand on shipping account was moderate, and offerings were somewhat limited. Holders firm in their views, and generally asking May figeres. At the close, cash lots were quotable at $13 00@13 12½. Other cuts of Pork were in fair request for small quantities and offerings were moderate. Prices well maintained on all descriptions.

Lard—In a speculative way the Lard market attracted considerable attention, and the volume of trading was fairly large. Outside operators traded with considerable freedom, and local operators were somewhat interested in the market. Operators acted cautiously, owing to the rather light supply on hand, the moderate production, and the rather free shipments. Foreign operators were credited with fair trading. "Shorts" apparently were keeping close to shore. Advices from abroad were more favorable to holders. Early in the week, the offerings were fairly large, while the demand was moderate, and a weak feeling was developed. Prices declined 22½@25c on the whole range. At the reduction, the demand improved materially, with a general slackening in the offerings, and the market exhibited considerable strength. Prices irregularly advanced 35@40c, with rather good trading at the advancing scale. Toward the close, the feeling was not so strong, with a little pressure to sell, and prices settled back 20@22½c, but rallied again quite sharply 12½@15c, and the market closed comparatively steady. A little more trading in July contracts. Demand on shipping account rather light; there was no particular pressure to sell. A few trades were made at about January figures, and closed steady at $6 72½@6 75. Refined in only fair demand and prices entirely nominal. Loose lots were in fair demand, and offerings were somewhat larger. A few trades were made at 70@72½c discount on May figures, and closed at 72½c. Leaf Lard offered rather freely and demand was active. Prices ruled steady, and fair sales were made at $6 75@$6 87½, and closed steady at $6 75. Neutral was in fair supply, with only a moderate demand. Prices ruled lower, and at close ranged at $8 12½@8 25 for No. 1, and $7 37½@7 50 for No. 2.

Short Rib Sides—Trade was quite active in the market for Short Rib Sides during the week just closed. Offerings were moderately large, and the demand was quite active. Bulk of the trading was in May contracts with scattering trades in January and July. Supply quite liberal and production gradually enlarging. Early in the week there was a little pressure to sell, while the demand was moderate and an easy feeling prevailed. Prices declined 15@17½c on the whole range. At the reduction the demand improved and the offerings were moderate. Prices irregularly advanced 25@30c. This advance brought more property on the market, and the feeling was rather easy. Prices settled back 15@17½c, but near the close rallied 10@12½c, and the market closed rather steady. Demand on shipping account was moderate and offerings were somewhat limited. Trading chiefly in a quiet way. At the close cash lots were quotable at $6 25@6 87½ according to weight.

A New York telegram says: "Steel men say that the question of whether the United States Steel Corporation will continue to pay 7 per cent dividends on its preferred stock hinges to a large degree upon the present quarter's and January earnings. If the corporation in January, February and March makes no more than $4,845,942, the total of earnings in December and January of December last, there are influential members of the board of directors who will join a movement to cut the dividend to at least 5 per cent."

The Great Northern and Northern Pacific Railroads have increased Live Stock rates because of the increase in size of the stock cars from 30 feet in length to 36 feet. The rate on Cattle, Sheep and Hogs from Washington and other points in the far Northwest to Chicago will be $261 per car load. The railroad officials claim that really the rate has not been raised, that when the new cars the rates are out of proportion to the increase in the size of the cars.

An official of the International Harvester Company says that while the working forces have been reduced several thousand hands, the plants of the company are still turning out a large volume of business. A great percentage of machinery now made is for export. Domestic conditions will be determined much the crops are further along. He further says that curtailment of shop forces is an ordinary time at this season and would have caused no comment had the times better been than at the close of the past year.

The Wall Street Journal says: "We understand that there is no change whatever in the status of the Chicago and Alton matter so far as any negotiations for purchase of the road from the interests most directly representing it are concerned. The gyrations of the preferred stock are due to operations by speculative Western interests and in connection with this it may be noted that a Western brokerage house is asking holders of common stock to pool their shares with it. Up to the present time the entire movement of Alton stock in the market may safely be regarded as speculative."

A holder of debenture bonds of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company authorizes the statement that he has not deposited his bonds with the protective committee, but that he does not intend to deposit them in favor of the proposed financial plan. It is reported that the Erie Railway Company will take over the securities of the Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Burlington companies held by Hill and Harriman of the Northern Securities Company is declared illegal. When the Vanderbilts joined in buying the Reading Railroad in order to prevent it from pursuing an independent policy regarding coal rates, and securing freight rates on it, they made the purchase in the name of the Lake Shore Company, instead of the New York Central, to avoid possible legal complications. It has been reported for the past week past that the stock of the Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Burlington roads just as the Lake Shore holds the securities of the Reading Company. Hill and Harriman are directors of the Erie.

One of the most prominent New York bankers estimates that during the next year and a half loans aggregating $300,000,000 will have to be financed for railroad improvements and terminations. Some of these loans have been announced already, and preparation is being made for some of the others. The following are the principal loans already announced or under contemplation as the following: Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, $40,000,000; Wabash, $35,000,0 0; Brooklyn Rapid Transit, $50,000,000; three cities, $20,000,000; Pennsylvania, $50,000,000; Southern Railway, $15,000,000; Illinois Central, $15,000,000; Union Pacific-Southern Pacific, $50,000,000; Rock Island, $50,000,00; Iron Mountain $30,000,000; Atlantic Coast Line, $20,000,000; Seaboard Air Line, $50,000,000; Pittsburg Coal Company, $25,000,000.

An Eastern news bureau says: "We understand the call for a special meeting to consider and authorize a new bond issue for Rock Island will be sent to stockholders within the next week. The mortgage will be for a little over $160,000,000, and will be fairly long term, about thirty years. The bonds will probably bear interest at 4 per cent per annum, and will be secured on various lines not bonded, terminal properties, shops, etc., and will be available for refunding other interest-bearing debt. The new bonds likely to be sold in the near future are sufficient to maintain the working capital at about $15,000,000 and to meet the coupon payment of $1,300,000 on May 1, 1904, and to meet any other obligations as may be pending or may be incurred during the year properly chargeable to capital account."

The Chicago Inter Ocean says: "It is the belief of a number of the leading local interests in the Corn Products Company that the dividend on the common stock may, the next fiscal year, to be acted on in March, will not be less than 6 per cent a per cent rate prevailing now. This belief is based on the growing certainty that the company will report earnings for the year ending in excess of those for the preceding year, and also the strong position maintained by the company in the trade and the inability of competition to seriously injure it. Another strong feature of the information it is understood that the earnings for the present fiscal year will be not far short of $6,000,000 in excess of those of the previous year, or about 1 per cent more on the common stock than was shown last year. With this showing, and the excellent condition of the Corn crop, it is only reasonable to expect the common stock dividends to be continued."

The Chicago Inter Ocean says: "The fact that Judge Grosscup has taken the matter of a dividend to Nov. Chicago Street Railroad stock holders under consideration until Monday looks bad for the stockholders, since the dividend, if one had been declared, should have been payable Jan. 15. However, the postponement was made on account of the numerous letters received by the Judge from small holders, asking him not to cut off entirely their income from the stock. The fact that only $77.000 was paid in dividends on the lines during the quarter ended Dec. 31, 1903, should not be considered as too greatly discouraging. The winter months are the time of least profit by the street railroad companies. Furthermore, snowstorms and cold weather are enormously expensive to traction lines, and the three months ended Dec. 31 were the worst for this respect of any corresponding quarter in a decade Traffic, also, is likely to go to the elevated roads in cold and stormy weather The company was fortunate to show as large earnings as it did, and that is a reasonable inference that the warmer months will bring greatly increased earnings."

An Odessa letter of Jan. 4 says: "Reports stocks of Wheat being reduced rapidly—200,000 bu to 300,000 bu daily. Interior arrivals insignificant, weather cold; fields in the South Center bare; outlook for growing crops gloomy; much less sown than previous year; Portugal now buying Wheat and when she starts she does not stop until she has secured a good deal."

Stocks in New York were active and presented a stronger undertone. The market felt the encouraging effect of London being higher, the good bank statement of Saturday and of easier money—1¾ to 2 per cent. The Illinois Central Railway has issued an order that all persons in charge of Live Stock shipments may ride on passenger trains immediately preceding or following the freight train transporting the Cattle. It is likely that other roads will make a similar rule, if the test on the Illinois Central shows that Live Stock shippers appreciate the privilege of riding in passenger coaches instead of freight cabooses.

In the New York Cotton market there was an active and substantially higher opening, influenced by the more pacific advices from the far East and better cables than expected from the market at Liverpool. May sold above 14c, and there was good demand for all months from "shorts" and commission houses with offerings light. Private advices attributed strength at Liverpool to brighter prospects for peace in the Orient, and to New Orleans buying. There was a continued steady inquiry from spot houses. Closing sales were at an advance of 22@25 points.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Prices are unchanged, but the trade is better on both domestic and foreign account. Minneapolis reports heavy sales of Flour on foreign account.

WINTER WHEAT—Ruled firmer and prices show further advances. Quotably about ½@1c higher. Very small receipts prevented large trading. Demand good for choice milling Wheat. No. 2 Red in store nominally 81¾@90c, depending on quality, and fresh arrivals quotably 84@86¼c, with a sale of a car at 90½c. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals nominally 80@85c for ordinary to very choice. No. 2 Hard sold at the river at 82½c and ranged at 80@84½c. No. 3 Hard sold at the river at 76@82c and ranged at 72@82c. No. 4 Hard sold at 64½c.

SPRING WHEAT—Very quiet. Market firm and prices for choice Wheat nominally a shade better than Saturday. Scarcely any choice Wheat arriving hence it is difficult to make quotations. No. 1 Northern in store quotably 84⅝@85⅜c, and fresh arrivals free on board quotably 86@88c. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals quotably 81@87c. No. 3 Spring ranged at 78@86c for ordinary to choice hard variety. No. 4 Spring sold at 68@75c for fair to good and at 80@82c for choice hard variety, with a sale at the river at 61c.

REGULAR WHEAT—The close for the day showed prices about ¼c higher for May, unchanged for July and ⅛c lower for September. The cash sales were 16 loads at the seaboard, but none reported here. The feeling at the close was quite strong for the May future. No. 1 Northern in good demand from shippers with sales of 200,000 bu Wheat was without any war news to encourage the "bull" side, and the "bear" element sold prices to a lower level early, but as the offerings were well absorbed on the decline, the early loss was not only regained but small advances were established. There were many in the trade who were working for a reaction and decline in the absence of war news but no one cared to assume "bear" leadership owing to the strong fortifications that seem to surround the "bulls" in the market, coupled with their ability to influence prices up and down at will. Trade was comparatively quiet on the whole. Rain was reported in California, although it failed to show up on the weather map. Private cables from Argentina said that the weather there was clear and favorable for harvesting. The weather in the Southwest was reported as still dry and moisture badly needed in some sections. Liverpool was ⅛@¼d higher. London unchanged to ⅛@¼d higher. Paris ¼c lower to ¼c higher. Antwerp unchanged. Spot Wheat at Liverpool unchanged to ½d higher. Consols were higher. Routine statistics were construed by the trade as "bullish." World's shipments for the week were small at 5,344,000 bu, compared with 8,232,000 bu the previous week and 6,166,000 bu a year ago. The fact that Russia shipped only 472,000 bu and the Danube only 64,000 bu attracted considerable attention and was a "bull" help in itself. Australian shipments were 792,000 bu. The American shipments were the largest on the list at 3,088,000 bu. There was an increase in the visible supply of only 176,000 bu, making the total 40,375,000 bu, compared with 40,199,000 bu the previous week and 49,727,000 bu a year ago. There was a decrease in the amount on ocean passage of 2,336,000 bu, making the total 21,581,000 bu. Local stocks in public houses increased 16,000 bu for the week and are now 2,930,000 bu, compared with 2,814,000 bu the week before and 7,588,000 bu the same week a year ago. Receipts at Duluth 85 cars and at Minneapolis 461 cars, a total of 546, against 455 cars Saturday, 613 cars a week ago, and 730 cars last year. Local receipts included 12 cars Winter, 26 cars Spring and 1 car mixed, a total 139 cars, against 69 cars last year. Included in above were no cars of contract grade. There were also 8 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 60 cars. Withdrawals were 2,800 bu. Receipts of Western points were 598,383 bu, against 998,016 bu last year. At Eastern points 72,127 bu, against 104,730 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 251,036 bu, against 156,342 bu last year, and from Eastern points 512,150 bu, against 264,832 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 48,108 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 7.8,936 bu.

CORN—Resting spots showed prices ⅛@½c better and the market pretty well sustained around the best prices reached. Cash sales 23 loads at the seaboard and outports and 250,000 bu at Chicago. There was only a moderate trade in this cereal, and the undertone was strong even in the face of selling by the room-trading element. The buying was again led by the principal "longs," but the demand was at no time persistent. The weekly statistics were "bullish." The visible supply increased only 56,000 bu, making the total 8,461,000 bu, compared with 7,070,000 bu a year ago. Chicago stocks decreased 112,000 bu, and are 2,282,000 bu. OATS—Were active, with commission house buying general and the "bull" interest aggressive on the buying side on the breaks. There was heavy selling for profits and a ready absorption of the offerings on all declines. Prices had ⅝c range and closed at gains of ⅛@¼c. The advance in other Grains and "bullish" statistics had a strengthening influence on values. Local stocks decreased 79,000 bu and are 1,124,000 bu. BARLEY—There were increased arrivals. There was not, however, a corresponding increase in spot offerings. More or less cars were delivered on to arrive sales, and that accounts for offerings not increasing. Demand was fair for all grades. The market to all appearances was steady to moderately firm. There was no pressure to sell and no urgency to demand. Values without change from quotations at the close of last week. Receipts were 70 cars. Visible supply decreased 227,000 bu; it was given as 5,112,000 bu, against 2,352,000 bu a year ago. Local stocks increased 11,000 bu. Screenings quotable at 30@43c for poor to choice; some very poor seedy sold at the inside. Good dry milling quotable at $1.20@1.25; common below.

HOG PRODUCTS—There was only a moderate speculative trade in Hog Products. Transactions were largely for local account, outside orders not being very numerous. Feeling developed early was somewhat easier, influenced chiefly by the liberal run of Hogs and lower prices for the same. Professionals and packers were credited with selling, while commission houses were buyers of moderate quantities. Later the market displayed considerable strength, the advance in Grain and demand for Lard strengthening the entire list. The receipts at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 84,000 compared with 31,600 one year ago. Foreign markets were quiet and unchanged. Receipts of Products were moderate—of Lard and Meats about 38 cars. Shipments were fair—of Lard and Meats about 110 cars. The market closed comparatively firm. The trading as usual was confined mainly to contracts in May. Demand on shipping account was fair and offerings were moderate. Sales were not very large and prices ruled comparatively firm. Lard—A fair speculative trade was reported in the market for Lard. Commission houses absorbed the early offerings, part of the buying being credited to foreign account, the selling coming chiefly from professionals and packers. "Shorts" covered toward the close, and the commission house demand became more general. Prices averaged somewhat higher. Liverpool advices noted no particular change in prices in that quarter. Demand on shipping account small and the offerings somewhat limited. Cash lots quotable at $6.7[illegible]. Loose lots called for moderately and offerings moderate. Prices were steady at about 72½c to 75c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in fair request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotably steady at $6.75. CROPS IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

[From Broomhall's Corn Trade News, Jan. 5.]

United Kingdom After a few days hard frost last week, the weather turned milder on Saturday and has become damp and foggy. Supplies of native Wheat are slightly larger in some districts, but it will be a little while longer before the Corn average returns show evidence of the increased supply. A period of dry, open weather would now be of inestimable value to facilitate threshing and to enable farmers to catch up with the many arrears of work, which the late disastrous autumn has left behind.

Russia - Severe weather now prevails in Southern Russia, and in fact severe frost is the rule throughout the Empire. One or two reports have mentioned an absence of snow, but speaking generally the crops appear to have sufficient protection. It was reported in Chicago yesterday that the Odessa stock is rapidly decreasing, but so far we have no confirmation of this; some of the Southern ports report moderate decreases, but these are about counterbalanced by increases in the North, where, especially at Reval, unusually large quantities are held, and sales of full cargoes are being made.

Roumania—The weather has been cold with some snow, but a further fall is wanted to give the crops sufficient protection. Although the close of navigation on the Danube has not yet been officially announced, some ice has already appeared on the river, the buoys have been removed, and it is believed that the last two steamers have already left Braila.

Austria-Hungary—The weather last week was very cold with a moderate snow-fall. On the Buda Pesth market there has been a good demand for the moderate supplies of Wheat on offer, and prices have advanced fully 6d per quarter.

Argentina—Our cable advice of last Thursday again reported harvest making satisfactory progress with favorable weather. To-day in Liverpool it is said that sellers are rather inclined to hold back with offers of Wheat, and estimates of the exportable surplus do not increase.

India—Reports concerning the new crops say that satisfactory progress is being made. Shipments are still liberal for the time of year, but are on a smaller scale than they were. From some quarters we hear that there is now a scarcity of these Wheats, but this is not the rule, for other sellers seem to have plenty to offer; in fact, more than they can sell.

Australasia Shipments to Europe last week amounted to 528,000 bu It seems the export movement is not to be confined to Australia, for to-day the sale of a New Zealand cargo is reported. The weather is more or less rainy, but this cannot do any harm to Wheat now and it should be most beneficial for grass.

France—Cold weather prevailed last week, but so far the desired fall of snow has not been reported. Crop conditions generally are still considered satisfactory. Trade has been dull, for growers offer sparingly and try to obtain some advance, while millers buy only sufficient for current needs and refuse to follow any upward movement.

Italy—The official crop bulletin covering the period December 10 to 20 says that heavy rains caused further interruption to field work in Northern and Central Italy. The young Wheats suffered a little from the rains and from insect pests. In Lower Italy weather conditions were better and field work made satisfactory progress.

Belgium and Holland The weather has been cold, but there are no complaints concerning the crops.

Germany—Keen frost without snow was experienced last week. So far there have been no complaints concerning the crops, but it is thought that a continuance of such conditions would not fail to cause anxiety with regard to the less robust varieties of Wheat.

North Africa—Further beneficial rains have been reported.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Continued clear weather in the Southwest is still the feature of the weather map. There are a few light snows in Manitoba and in Northern Minnesota, and a trace or two in Iowa. With these exceptions there is no precipitation shown. Temperatures are mild.

The forecast for 36 hours is: Kansas and Nebraska, cloudy; colder. Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa, cloudy; warmer. Minnesota, snow flurries; warmer. Dakotas, snow; colder.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The Malt house of the Chicago Consolidated Milling and Malting Company, Chicago, was damaged by fire, Sunday, to the extent of $75,000.

The United Cast Iron Pipe Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1 per cent on its prefered stock, payable March 1. Books close Feb. 1 and reopen March 2.

The Minneapolis General Electric Company has declared a dividend of $3.00 per share on preferred stock, payable Feb 1 to stockholders of record Jan 23. Books close Jan. 23 and reopen Feb. 2.

The three-story car barn and about fifty cars of the Coney Island and Brooklyn Railroad Company in Brooklyn, N. Y., were destroyed by fire Friday. The loss is estimated at from $100,000 to $125,000.

Paris stocks Jan. 1 included 264,000 bu Wheat and 81,000 sacks Flour, equalling together 472,000 bu Wheat, compared with 400,000 bu a month ago, 472,000 bu a year ago, and 2,936,000 bu two years ago.

A representative of the United States Steel Corporation states that the improved business outlook justifies the prediction that all the plants of the company will be in full operation by the last of the month, except at places where repairs caused the stoppage.

The malting house of the Hinchliffe Brewing Company, Paterson, N. J., was destroyed by fire, Friday. The building was a five-story brick structure. It contained 200,000 bu of Hops and Barley and a large quantity of machinery of the most improved type. The loss is estimated at $100,000, and is fully covered by insurance.

Articles of incorporation of the Central Railroad and Bridge Company were filed, Thursday, at Council Bluffs, Iowa, for record in the county clerk's office. The company's capital is placed at $10,000, which may be increased to $3,000,000, and its object is to operate a railway in Iowa and construct a bridge across the Missouri River.

The bondholders' protective committee of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company has fixed Sept. 1 next as the extreme limit of time for putting into effect the new financial plan. The extension of time in which to file deposits to and including Jan 23 may be the last, as soon after that date it will be necessary to make provision for interest on the bonds.

It is reported with some authority that the American Smelting and Refining Company, otherwise known as the smelting trust, has made an offer for the control of the National Lead Company, but nothing as yet has materialized in the matter, owing to the high price demanded by interests in the latter company. However, the negotiations, it is stated, may be taken up again in the future.

Joseph Ramsey, president of the Wabash, says: "The directors have for some time past been considering the consolidation of all our lines east of Toledo, although such a plan may not go into effect for some time. In connection with that project and other important needs of the system a considerable amount of fresh funds will be needed. This money, when required, the directors will have no difficulty in raising. During the second half of the fiscal year just commencing we expect a considerable decrease in our gross earnings; in net, however, we shall about hold our own I will also make the same prediction of a decrease in gross but no decrease in net for the whole year of 1904."

Boston advices say that while the final figures covering the operations of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company for the year ended Dec. 31 have not been made up, it may be said that the surplus after dividends will be larger than in 1902. In answer to the contention that the company is finding it increasingly difficult to pay 7½ per cent dividends on stock issued to take up its 51 per cent of new sub-company stock issues, the dividends upon which do not average 6 per cent, an official of the company makes the following statement: "Notwithstanding we shall be required in 1904 to pay dividends upon a much larger amount of stock than in 1903, we shall find it easier to maintain our 7½ per cent dividend next year than we found it in 1903 or 1902."

Official notice was given, Thursday, to stockholders of the Rock Island system that at a meeting to be held March 21 they will be asked to approve a bond issue of not to exceed $163,000,000, the bonds to bear 4 per cent interest and mature in 1934. The directors announce their plan is to issue only $15,000,000 worth of bonds at once, to meet emergency conditions. They specify that $82,025,000 worth of bonds are to be reserved for retiring various bonds now outstanding, and $13,500,000 of bonds are to be issued to provide funds to the amount of 75 per cent of the purchase price of securities of other companies which the Rock Island may hereafter acquire. In addition to these bonds others amounting to $57,475,000 are to be issued, at a maximum annual rate of $2,500,000, or the cash cost of future improvements or betterments.

The following securities were admitted, Wednesday, to the list of the New York Stock Exchange: One hundred and fifty-four thousand dollars additional first consolidated mortgage 5 per cent coupon bonds of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railroad; $2,000,000 additional capital stock of the Mercantile National Bank; $7,000,000 additional general mortgage 4 per cent 100-year coupon bonds of 1995 of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway; $2,027,000 additional first refunding mortgage 4 per cent guaranteed coupon bonds of 1949 of the Central Pacific Railway Company; $1,000,000 additional first consolidated mortgage 4 per cent coupon bonds of 1996 of the Norfolk and Western Railway Company; $1,000,000 additional first consolidated mortgage 4 per cent prior lien coupon bonds of the Erie Railroad Company; $2,000,000 additional first consolidated mortgage 5 per cent coupon bonds of 1994 of the Southern Railway Company; $1,000,000 additional general mortgage 4 per cent coupon bonds of 1988 of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company; $200,000 additional 5 per cent refunding mortgage coupon bonds of 1947 of the Chicago, Indianapolis and St. Louis Railway Company; $52,900 additional preferred and $482,000 additional common stock of the Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company; $9,835,000 Continental Trust Company engraved certificates of deposit for 5 per cent ten-year convertible debenture bonds of 1911 of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company.

Deliveries on January contracts to-day were 75,000 bu Corn.

Estimated receipts for to-morrow are: Wheat, 45 cars; Corn 225 cars. Oats 115 cars; Hogs, 47,000.

Average cost price of Hogs at Chicago, Monday, was $4 79, against $4 85 Saturday, $4 74 a week ago, $4 93 two weeks ago, and $6 37 a year ago.

Local Securities were moderately traded in and prices were irregular. There was an advance of 3 points in Chicago Edison, and weakness in most other shares.

From Russia and the Danube the exports of Flax Seed from Aug. 1 to Jan. 8 have amounted to 3,461,000 bu, against 3,556,000 bu in the previous year, and 1,996,000 bu in 1901-2.

The receipts of Wheat at Liverpool during the past three days were 256,000 bu, of which 136,000 bu were American. Receipts of Corn 344,000 bu, of which 256,000 bu were American.

During 1903 Antwerp imported 55,720,000 bu of Wheat and for all cereals the total amounted to 91,112,000 bu. In 1902 the total was 81,072,000 bu, including 52,104,000 bu of Wheat.

Lead Ore advanced $6 50 a ton in the Joplin district last week, selling up to $60 50 per ton, highest price in ten years. There was a lively demand for Ore. Several new buyers entered the market.

The New York Commercial says: "Official announcement will be made shortly of the completion of the Steel bond conversion. Yesterday a transaction was completed whereby about $3,000,000 of the bonds were sold to one bond house."

Cotton in New York averaged higher with good trading. Liverpool advanced 10 points. The "bull" forces supported the market and sales for profits were without effect as spot houses were buying. The market closed 15@26 points higher.

The stock of Wheat in the Marche de Paris on Jan. 1 was represented by 210,680 bu, against 80,960 bu ten days ago. The stock of Flour amounted to 14,016 sacks, compared with 13,700 sacks on Dec. 20. The stock of Oats embraced 110,300 bu, against 97,040 bu on Dec. 20.

The official weekly snow map shows no protection South of the Northwest border of Nebraska. There is no covering in Missouri, Kansas or Southward. There is a light covering over the Northeast part of Iowa over the Northern part of Illinois, and over the Ohio Valley.

The Buenos Ayres Standard of Dec. 6 says: "In Rosario the great fear of the day is that the railways will not be able to carry the enormous Wheat harvest to the ports. None of them have yet erected at their stations the sheds for Grain ordered by Congress, so, if heavy rain comes, there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

Stocks in New York were all strong on more peaceful news from abroad, a higher market in London and active covering by "shorts." An easier tone for money, with rates 1¾@2 per cent, was also a factor in favor of an advance and a higher level was reached. Railway shares gained ½ to 1 point, but lost the greater part. Industrials were up 1½ to 4½ and Coalers ½ to 1 point.

Bradstreet's report of the available supply for the past week shows the following changes:

The Corn Trade News of Jan 8 says: "Our correspondent at Oporto, Portugal, writes that the Wheat crop there turned out to be larger than expected, and at present foreign requirements are reckoned at only 2,800,000 bu, against earlier estimates of 4,800,000 bu. A decree authorizing the import of 2,160,000 bu at a duty of about 14s per qr has been submitted to the King, but not yet signed owing to opposition from the millers, who claim that the duty is too high and the quantity insufficient."

Broomhall cabled the following summary on European crops: "United Kingdom—Continued rains prevent seeding and there is increased certainty that acreage finally sown will be very small. France, Germany, Italy and Hungary—Weather during the past week abnormally mild, raining in consequence. Crops liable to suffer damage if sudden severe freeze should occur. Roumania—Recently unusually mild weather caused considerable thaws. Complaints that condition of Wheat plant is poor, owing to dry weather at seeding time. Russia—There have been heavy snow falls during past few days. Owing to severe freezing weather in Southwest it was feared ports of Odessa and Nicolaieff might be closed. Since then it has turned mild, so that closing of navigation at present is not expected. India—Crops have received sufficient rains and prospects splendid."

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—In so far as the local situation is concerned the domestic demand was reported as good, but bids on foreign account were slightly out of line. Minneapolis reported further large sales of Flour for export.

WINTER WHEAT—Was firm and choice Wheat sold at higher prices. Demand good for milling Wheat, but poor Wheat is slow. Sales of 100,000 bu of No. 2 Red in store were made at 90c, and ranged at 85@90c depending on quality, and fresh arrivals free on board sold at 97c. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals choice Wheat sold at 96c and was quotably 87@90c for common to choice. No. 4 Red, a car mixed with Oats sold at 91c. No. 2 Hard free on board sold at 82@84c, and at the river ranged at 80@84c. No. 3 Hard sold in store at 81c, and free on board at 78@80c and ranged at 75@82c for common to choice. No. 4 Hard sold at the river at 67@70c and ranged as low as 60c for poor. No. 3 White sold at 94c free on board.

SPRING WHEAT—Was firm. Demand fair and milling Wheat, the hard variety wanted. No 1 Northern in store ranged at 85@88c and fresh arrivals free on board quotable at 87@89c. No. 2 Northern free on board quotable at 84½@87c. No. 3 Spring fresh arrivals free on board was quotable at 78@86c for common to choice hard variety, with sales at 82½c and at the river at 82c. No 4 Spring quotable at 58@82c for poor to choice hard variety, with sales at 81½@82c.

REGULAR WHEAT—The ninety-cent mark was reached for May to-day and resting prices showed advances of ⅝@1⅛c. The close was firm with May the strongest on the list. "Shorts" were buyers and there was good miscellaneous investment buying. Cash sales were 15 loads at the seaboard 10,000 bu No. 3 Hard Winter at 81c and 100,000 bu No. 2 Red Winter at 90c. The smaller offerings were one of the reasons for the strength. One of the leading features of the morning was the shipments of Wheat at St. Louis and Kansas City, both points sending out 351,000 bu as compared with 356,000 bu received. Continued dry weather in the Southwest, with alternate thawing and freezing in some sections, attracted more or less attention. The early sale of No. 3 Hard Winter at Chicago at 81c was considered a "bull" help. Trade on the whole was only moderate, with commission houses and brokers on both sides of the market. According to the compilations of Bradstreet's the world's available supplies of Breadstuffs decreased 3,910,000 bu for the week, compared with a decrease of 2,517,000 bu a year ago. Continental Wheat stocks January 1 were 44,528,000 bu, compared with 44,840,000 bu December 1 and 24,680,000 bu Jan. 1, 1903. Contract stocks of Wheat in Chicago public houses are now 1,819,000 bu, showing a decrease of 15,017 bu for the week. Total a week ago 1,834,019 bu and a year ago 3,931,147 bu. The official weekly snow map showed no snow protection south of the northern border of Nebraska. There is no covering in Missouri Kansas or southward. There is a light covering over the northeastern part of Iowa, over the northern part of Illinois and over the Ohio Valley. Broomhall's special advices on the foreign crop situation and conditions say that rains in the United Kingdom have prevented seeding and that there is increased certainty that the acreage will finally be very small. In France, Germany, Italy and Hungary cold weather is feared as the Wheat is now passing through mild weather. Roumania is complaining of poor condition of plant. Russia reports heavy snows and India reports sufficient rains, with crop prospects excellent. A local traveler wired from the Southwest that in Oklahoma, Indian Territory and Texas the Winter Wheat plant is in very bad shape, owing to drouth, and that it is being plowed up and will be replaced with Cotton. Minneapolis reported large Flour sales to go to various countries. The weather forecast fails to predict moisture where needed in the Southwest. Receipts at Duluth 121 cars and at Minneapolis 280 cars, a total of 401, against 546 cars yesterday, 416 cars a week ago, and 304 cars last year. Local receipts included 38 cars Winter, 28 cars Spring and 3 car mixed, a total of 69 cars, against 68 cars last year. Included in above were 2 cars of contract grade. There were also 1 car and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 45 cars. Withdrawals were none. Receipts at Western points were 828,515 bu, against 718,299 bu last year. At Eastern points 176,178 bu, against 248,397 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 641,308 bu, against 267,939 bu last year, and from Eastern points 77,593 bu, against 169,331 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 60,321 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 349,037 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Active trade and prices higher.

CORN—Close was strong and around best prices reached. There were advances of ⅛@⅜c. Cash sales 75,000 bu here and 8 loads at the seaboard. The early selling looked like profit taking by "longs," and as the buying was not urgent a dip in values resulted. On the decline there was better buying and the first losses of the morning were more than regained. On the whole, trade was much better than yesterday. The "bulls" favored the buying of May, but were on the selling side of July. Every commission house in the trade was on one side or the other, and most of them had orders to execute on both sides of the market. "Shorts" displayed more or less uneasiness and bought on both the soft and hard spots. Contract Corn in public houses showed a decrease of 119,741 bu for the week, the total now being 2,010,344 bu, compared with 2,130,085 bu the week before and 2,077,346 bu for the corresponding period a year ago. The world's available supply, as compiled by Bradstreet's, showed a decrease of 14,000 bu for the week, compared with a decrease of 31,000 bu for the corresponding period a year ago. Liverpool was ⅛@¼d lower; no report from London. Spot Corn at Liverpool ¼@½d lower. Local inspection was 560 cars, with none contract. There were 278 cars switched from private to public houses and 28,000 bu from store. Local receipts were 518,000 bu and the shipments 216,000 bu. Western receipts were 1,206,369 bu, compared with 1,260,046 bu a year ago. Clearances from the seaboard 172,273 bu. No. 2 closed nominally at 45¼c and No. 2 Yellow at 48c. No. 3 closed about 42@44¼c and No. 3 Yellow 43@48c. No Grade sold at 36@38c, outside for yellow.

Corn by sample—Was in good demand and offerings only fair. The feeling was steady and prices unchanged except for No. 3 White which was quoted ½c higher. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 24@40c. No. 4 at 41@44c. No. 3 at 42½@48c. No. 3 Yellow at 44@48c. No. 3 White at 42@42½c. Ears at 39@43. Billed through: No Grade at 34@36c. No. 4 at 40¼@42c. No. 3 at 41@44½c. No. 3 Yellow at 42½@43¼c. No. 3 White at 42½c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—The market was fairly active and the close ⅛@⅜c higher.

JANUARY—Sold at 45½@45¾c. Opened at 45½c and closed at 45¾c nominally.

MAY—Sold at 49¼@49⅞c. Opened at 49½c to 49¼c, sold to 49⅝@49⅞c, to 49½c, to 49¾c, to 49⅝@49¾c, to 49⅝c, to 49⅞c, to 49¾c, to 49⅞c, to 49¾c, closing at latter.

JULY—Sold at 47¾@48⅛c. Opened at 48c to 47⅞c, sold to 47⅞@48c, to 47⅞c, to 48c. 47¾c, to 48⅛c, and closed at the latter.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 47⅛@47¾c. Opened at 47½c sold to 47⅜c, to 47½c, to 47⅝c, to 47¾c, to 47½c, to 47¾c, closing at latter.

OATS—Were traded in heavily, with houses having the largest orders alternately on both sides. They sold early and turned buyers on ¼@½c break, and made ⅛c advance, only to sell again on the rise. Closing prices were practically the same as yesterday. Prices were influenced somewhat by the action of other Grains. There was heavy selling for profits, but offerings were well absorbed. Cash business was not so good. 75,000 bu. Contract stocks decreased 81,000 bu, and are 1,015,000 bu. Stocks in private elevators increased 51,000 bu and are 2,481,000 bu, and in all positions 3,601,000 bu. Arrivals were 215 cars, with 115 cars estimated to-morrow. Withdrawals were 13,000 bu. Seaboard clearances were 16,000 bu. Car lots to go to store were steady to ½c lower. No. 4 White at 39½c. No. 3 White at 40¼@40¾c. Standard in store closed about 39@39½c.

Oats by sample were not so well taken, buyers holding off. Prices were steady for good early, but closed easier, and poor lots were ½c lower. Offerings were fair, and some samples were carried over. Sales on track and free on board. No Grade at 31c. No. 4 at 37c. No. 4 White at 36@40½c. No. 3 at 38@39c. No. 3 White at 39½@41c. No. 3 at 39¼@39½c. Billed through: No. 4 White at 38@39¼c. No. 3 White at 40½c. At the river: No. 4 at 33c. No. 4 White at 35@38c. No. 3 at 37½c. No. 3 White at 37@39¾c. Standard at 39c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were active and closed firmer, after being lower early.

JANUARY—Dull. Closed at 39c.

MAY—Active. Sold at 41⅝@41⅞c. Opened at 41⅝c to 41¾c, sold to 41⅞c, to 41⅝c, to 41⅞c, to 41⅝c, to 41⅞c, to 41¾@41⅞c at close.

RYE—The market was quiet and the feeling firm under limited offerings. A moderate demand existed. No new feature to note in connection with the market. The receipts were five cars and there were no withdrawals from store here. New York reported 80 bu exported. No. 2 in store nominally 55c and fresh arrivals quotably 59@60c. No. 3 fresh arrivals quotably 51@55c. No. 4 sold at 52c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Offerings light and feeling firm. January nominally 55c. March nominally 56½c. May sold at 58¼c and closed at 58c bid.

BARLEY—There was an easier tone to the market. The wire edge was off. A little more spot Barley was offered. Late advanced prices have had the effect of bringing out more Barley. The impression seemed to be that prospects favor larger arrivals. Demand on the other hand was tame. Maltsters within the past four or five days have bought a good deal to arrive, they felt easy. Mixers recently have bought fair-sized lots of stored Screenings and mixing Barley, and they did not need much. It was easier to purchase to-day. Former extreme prices could not be obtained by sellers. No general decline reported, but there were instances where concessions had to be made. Receipts were 81 cars. Screenings quotable at 30@43c for poor to choice; only sales to day were at 41½c. Barley feed or mixing, depending on quality, was quotable at 40@42c, and poor, musty below; malting low grade about 42@44c; very dirty below; common, 44@46c, fair, 47@50c; good, 50@55c; choice 56@58c; fancy, 60@61c.

SEEDS—There was a firm market for Timothy, though no changes occurred. Other Grass Seeds also steady. In the Flax market there was a sharp advance. Offerings of all Seeds were small.

Timothy—Was quotably strong, but there was little done. There was little to do with. Cash Seed was scarce. It was said to be wanted, especially if of a high grade. Futures did not seem to have much of interest about them. Nothing was heard of them any more than that $3 12½ was bid for March and $3 17½ was asked. January was nominally about $3 02½ and February $3 05@3 07½. Country lots quotable at $2 00@3 25 for poor to fancy; fair to good $2 65@2 85, choice $2 90@3 00, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 40@2 55; tailings lower.

Flax—There was a sharp advance in prices. It amounted to 4@5c for cash and January and 2½c for May. It was a following after the advance in the Northwest. What has been under the market lately seems to be war news for one thing, and it was said to be due also to the influence of strong holders of both Seed and Oil. Receipts were 18 cars or 15,300 bu and 4 cars or 4,184 bu were taken out. Minneapolis got 22 cars and Duluth 75 cars. No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest opened with a sale at $1 10 and closed at $1 11 bid. No. 1 was $1 05 bid. Rejected nominally $1 00@1 05 outside for choice. Northwestern January delivery was $1 05 bid. May sold at $1 08 and that was bid.

Clover—The feeling was a little weaker. A slight decline in prices quoted. Order trade tame and a little more Clover coming forward. About 10c reduction quoted. Prices range as follows: Contract Seed, spot $11 25, and March delivery about $11 35; country lots, common to choice at $8 25@11 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $8 00@9 50; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00, fair to good quality about $9 00@10 50.

Other Seeds—On account of there being no offerings the market was inactive and nominal and quoted steady with former prices obtainable. Quotable: Hungarian, common to choice, quotable at $1 50@1 70. Common Millet 90c@$1 25 for poor to fancy. German Millet, 90c@$1 25. Siberian, 75@90c. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 75@90c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat steady. Good, dry milling quotable at $1 20@1 25; common below.

HOG PRODUCTS—A moderate speculative business was transacted in the market for Hog Products, and the feeling developed was a little unsettled. The situation at the start was firm under a miscellaneous demand, part of the same being credited to "shorts." Receipts of Hogs fell short of expectations, and prices for the same were higher, which was the chief strengthening influence. "Longs" were about the only sellers at the opening, but at the improvement in prices realizing set in, outside holders liquidating, and prices receded. Several of the large packers were also supposed to have sold. The strength in Grain later in the session imparted a steadier tone to the market, and the close was comparatively firm. The receipts at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 82,600 compared with 72,500 one year ago. Foreign markets were irregular. Bacon and Hams being 6d lower, while Lard was 3d higher. Receipts of Products were moderate—of Lard and Meats about 34 cars. Shipments were fairly liberal—of Lard and Meats about 186 cars. Trading is still confined largely to contracts in May, though July is gradually receiving more attention. Demand on shipping account was somewhat improved and sales were larger. Prices ruled comparatively firm.

Mess Pork—The trade in Mess Pork was moderate, and the feeling developed while a little unsettled was on the whole steady. The close showed slight gains. Market started 2½c better and advanced 12½@15c more under a moderate commission house demand. Realizing followed and values receded 12½@15c. Later, prices rallied 7½c, and closed firm around medium figures. The shipping demand was moderate and offerings just fair. Cash lots were quotable at $13 05@13 07½.

JANUARY—Little doing; closed about $12 95.

MAY—Demand fair and offerings moderate. Sales were made at $13 17½ and $13 32½@13 35. Opened at $13 30, sold to $13 32½, to $13 30, to $13 32½@13 35, to $13 20, to $13 22½, to $13 17½, to $13 25, to $13 20, and closed steady.

Lard—Was again the leader in the Provision list, the market however, ruling but moderately active. Commission houses and "shorts" were the principal buyers early in the session, and prices were advanced 7½c. Foreign advices more favorable to holders, and Hogs at the Yards were firmer. At the improvement in values, there was realizing and profit taking by local and outside "longs" and prices settled back 5@7½c. Toward the close the situation became stronger, and prices were advanced 10@12½c and final prices showed 7½@10c advance. Demand on shipping account moderate and offerings somewhat limited. Cash lots quotable at $6 92½. Loose lots called for moderately and offerings moderate. Prices were steady at about 72½c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in fair request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotably steadier at $6 80. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $8 12½@8 25 for No. 1 and $7 37½@7 50 for No. 2.

JANUARY—Sold at $6 87½@6 92½, and closed at $6 92½.

FEBRUARY—Sold at $6 92½.

MAY—Demand good and offerings fair. Sales were made at $7 10@7 20. Opened at $7 10 to $7 15, sold to $7 12½@7 15, to $7 17½, to $7 10@7 12½, to $7 15, to $7 12½, to $7 20, to $7 17½, to $7 20, to $7 17½, and closed steady.

JULY—Demand better and offerings moderate. Sales were made at $7 15@7 17½ and $7 25. Opened at $7 20, sold to $7 15@7 17½, to $7 25 and closed steady.

Short Rib Sides—Only a moderate speculative trade was reported in the market for Short Rib Sides. The feeling manifested was fairly steady and close little changed. Advance in Hogs and Grain values chief support. Commission houses bought and selling was scattered. Shipping demand little better and offerings continue moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6 27½@6 52½ according to weight.

JANUARY—Inactive; closed $6 37½.

MAY—Moderate offerings and fair demand. Sales were made at $6 65@6 72½. Opened at $6 70, sold to $6 72½, to $6 65, to $6 67½, to $6 67½, to $6 65, to $6 70, to $6 67½c, and closed steady.

JULY—Sold at $6 75@6 80. Opened at 6 80, sold to $6 75, to $6 77½, and closed steady.

Other Meats—Rather a better trade was reported in Meats. Domestic demand was fair, but export demand was slow. Offerings of all kinds were fair, but holders continue firm in their views. Green Meats were in fair request, with moderate offerings, and prices ruled firm. Pickled Meats in limited demand, with only small offerings, and prices well maintained. Dry Salted Meats in moderate demand and offerings not very large. Prices ruled rather steady. Smoked Meats in moderate demand, chiefly in a jobbing way, and prices ruled steady. Closing prices ranged as follows:

WHEAT PRICES AND WARS OF THE PAST.

[From the New York Evening Post.]

A really first-class war will be certain to cause a creation of securities on a large scale. We know what has taken place in our own great wars, and the more recent experience of the United States and of France will be fresh in people's recollection. When war breaks out, therefore, or is suddenly threatened, speculators know for certain that an extra demand which will not only disturb the markets temporarily, but may absolutely defeat their speculation.

The two great wars raised Wheat to extraordinary heights. The advance reached its culmination, curiously enough, in August, 1812, when the Emperor's troops were on the way to Moscow. Wheat touched 24s 6d per qr. in Mark Lane. Since the Napoleonic wars Wheat has never been more violently affected by war than in the Crimean contest. There was ample reason for this, in that the Black Sea trade was absolutely demoralized.

The war broke out, so far as England and France were concerned, early in 1854. In 1853 the average price of Wheat on the Liverpool market was equivalent to 7s 4d per bu.—which then was reasonably low. The blockade of Russia's Southern ports began. England's imports of Wheat which in 1853 had been 16,000,000 bu in the season had, fell to 2,950,000 bu in the ensuing year, and the average annual price rulled sucee-sively at 8s 2s 8s in 1854, at 9s 2d in 1855, and at 8s 3d in 1856. The same rise more violent than occurred when our civil war broke out. The Smuerl eck figures show an average annual price of 41 57 in 1860, of 61 83 in 1861, and of 81 25 in 1863. These were the English prices, but the American prices, even in depreciated money, did not vary much more widely.

The failure of Wheat to respond to the civil war influence has been repeated on subsequent occasions. Contrary to general belief, it was not greatly affected by the outbreak of the Franco-Prussian war for the end of a fortnight after declaration of war a London review was able to say "The total advances established in Wheat, on the declaration of war, amount to between 1 and 2 per quarter (4s and 8s per bu), which brings the price to about the point at which it stood previous to the recent fall."

The average English price of Wheat in the year of the Russo-Turkish war of 1877 was 3s per bu above that of the previous year, and that might easily be explained by the very short crop in England and in Russia during the year preceding. No subsequent war has exerted any real influence on the Wheat trade. The asserbing of 1898's corner price of $1 31 to the pendency of the Spanish war was a piece of mere absurdity.

FREIGHT RATES CALLED EXCESSIVE.

[Chicago Record Herald, Jan. 12.]

The Interstate Commerce Commission has decided on a campaign of education for the purpose of showing the public that many of the freight rates put into effect during the last three years are excessive and unjust. In no other way, it is thought will the public be aroused to the point of urgent necessity of giving the commission the power to say what are just rates and compel the railroads to make them.

Every time freight rates made by railroads is to be examined into closely with a view to disclosing the causes which led to the increase and placing facts before the public. Regarding the matter Commissioner Prouty said yesterday: "At the present investigation into increases in the Grain rates from the Missouri River to Chicago it became apparent that the traffic managers of the railroads had nothing to do with it. On the contrary, the Wall Street financiers needed the money, and ordered the rates to be made. The theory upon which the rates are based is that the law of supply under which the traffic will move is a just rate. Therefore, if a raise of 2c per 100 lbs is made on Grain and the Grain still moves, the rate is just.

"My idea of ways been that if freight rates in this country should tend to decrease instead of increase as the volume of traffic grows. The reverse has been the case, and there is no longer a competition of freight rates."

It was rumored that the commission is soon to institute an investigation at St. Paul to ascertain if the Great Northern lines have violated any of the law by the payment of rebates. It is charged that transportation has been given to secure traffic, and that the old practices have been renewed in new forms. The commission yesterday finished its investigation here with the testimony of George F. Brown, general manager of the manufacturing department of the Illinois Steel company. W. O'Brien, assistant sales agent of the Illinois Steel Company, and J. J. P. O'Dell, railroad supply man. Mr. Brown testified that there had been material reductions during the last year in the cost of cars and of materials which go to make them

The weather map shows a few light snows in Manitoba. With this exception there is no precipitation anywhere. The Southwest drouth shows no relief. Temperatures are lower in the extreme North, but continue mild in the West and Southwest.

At 7 A. M the mercury was 8 above to 18 below in the extreme North, 4 below to 24 above in Dakotas and Minnesota, 18 to 31 above in Iowa and Nebraska, 10 to 30 above in Kansas, Missouri, Illinois Indiana and Ohio. The only feature is the Southwest dry weather.

Indications are for fair weather with some snow flurries. Temperatures will fall Wednesday, but the cold wave in the Northwest will probably be broken.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

A Des Moines message, Monday, said: "We see no indication of immediately increased movement of Corn or Oats from Iowa."

The Chicago Board of Trade Inspection Committee met this morning, Monday, to formulate plans for its work in regard to supervising the inspection of Grain where complaints have been made of improper grading. The desire of the committee is to have a uniform inspection both in and out of warehouses.

The indictment gas companies in Venango and Clarion Counties, Pa., has been quashed and the latter corporation called the Pennsylvania Fuel Supply Company, with a capital of $1,000,000. Nineteen towns along the Allegheny Valley and the low grade division of the Pennsylvania Railroad will be supplied.

The first official report for the Punjaub gives the area under Wheat as 7,750,000 acres, against 7,113,000 last year, an increase being 637,000. The condition of the crop is good. The acreage in Bombay and Sind is 1,811,000, against 1,918,000 last year. The condition of the crop in these provinces is also reported as good.

The United Mine Workers of America will hold a convention in Indianapolis, Tuesday. Interest centers in the fact that within the last two months four new districts have been organized and added to the part of severa. of the operators to cut wages 10c a ton. A conflict between operators and miners seems probable.

The San Francisco Weekly Commercial News of Jan. 14 says: "The situation in this State is commencing to look more serious. In the northern and central sections the Grain can get along for a while without further rain, but in the 8 counties of San Joaquin, the lower coast sections, and the south, rain is very badly needed."

Federal Judge Anderson at Indianapolis, Ind., Monday, appointed receivers for the National Manufacturing Company of Elkhart. The creditors sar the concern owes $100,000. The plaintiffs are Receiver Bosworth of the defunct Indiana National Bank, the Indiana Trust Company and the Savings Bank of Chicago, and Charles J. Delber. They hold claims of $50,000.

Mills at Minneapolis, Monday, claimed the largest output of the season. The Consolidated sold 100,000 brls Flour, and in addition to the large domestic business there were sales to Europe, aggregating 60,000 brls, to Brazil, Africa and Cuba. Millers there were large buyers of cash Wheat and futures St. Louis millers also made large sales of Flour for export.

The Hyman-Michaels Company washery of the Delaware and Hudson Company, at Olyphant, Pa., was destroyed by fire, Sunday. The breaker was one of the largest and most modern in the State, having a capacity of 1,000 tons per day. Loss on Coal for six openings. Upwards of 2,500 hands will be thrown idle for two months or more. The company's estimate of the direct loss to breaker and washery is $100,000.

The Corn Trade News of Jan. 4 says of French crops: "The weather during the greater part of last week was very cold and the change was welcomed by growers, who were becoming rather anxious on account of the rapid development of weeds and insect pests. A good cover of snow is now wanted to protect the Wheat in regard to the young crops. Business has been slow, millers only taking enough to fill current requirements, while farmers offer less and hold firmly."

A Des Moines, Iowa, dispatch says: "Unofficial investigation into the affairs of the Citizens' Bank of Mount Ayr, which closed its doors Saturday, shows that there are liabilities of almost $500,000, $150,000 of which represents deposits, with but $700 in cash on hand. The president of the institution declares, however, that the assets will eventually equal the liabilities, but the present estimate is predicted on all paper being worth its face value, an extremely doubtful proposition. Indications are that the creditors will lose heavily."

The San Francisco Weekly Commercial News of Jan. 14 says: "The Pacific Coast Grain bag market is dull, and the outlook is not favorable for much improvement during the coming season, unless the crops turn out better than expected. Locally Calcuttas, spot, are selling in small lots at 5¼c, but large lots could be had for less; demand, however, is very light. Considering the crop prospects in this State, there are almost enough bags left over to last through next season without resorting to importations. The San Quentin mill has put what are not all sold, and that, together with what will be made there this season and at the local factories and the holdover of Calcuttas, will result in the lightest import season in many years."

Passenger officials of railroads running from the Missouri River to Colorado and Texas common points have agreed to begin selling March 1 an interchangeable excursion ticket which will be honored by conductors. This book will take the place of what is known as a scrip ticket, adopted about a year ago. The latter was a ticket which practically was a rebate, but was not so regarded by the railroads.

The new mileage book will cover 2,000 miles and will be sold for $60.00. It is used up exclusively by the purchaser himself. From the face of purchase a rebate of 10 60 will be paid him, thus making his net railroad fare about 2½c a mile.

A director of the General Electric Company is quoted as saying: "The fact must be apparent to everyone that in the present condition of the money and bond market the General Electric Company cannot be recommended as an investment. It, of course, has a large volume of old orders upon its books, but with the interruption to new orders the business becomes very irregular, and many of the companies in general electrical departments must be curtailed and wages reduced or shut-downs take place. We do not think it reasonable to expect the General Electric Company to do as well in 1904 as in 1903. The turbine business is certainly very good."

The debt of the United States, as compiled by the Bureau of Statistics, is placed at $926,011,627. This compares with a total debt of Japan of $608,849,400, and of the German States, $2,687,621,000. Five European countries—France, the United Kingdom, Germany, Italy and Spain—show an aggregate indebtedness of over $17,000,000,000, thus forming one half of the total indebtedness of the world. The per capita debt, as stated in the order of magnitude is: New Zealand, $170 per; Australia, $161 per; Portugal, $101 02; France, $100 31; Uruguay, $132 81; Honduras, $124 19; Spain, $110 72; Argentina, $100 08; United Kingdom, $92 99; Netherlands, $86 03; Belgium, $81 92; Italy, $78 85. The debt of the United States is given at $11 51 per capita

In its current issue the United States Tobacco Journal says that the proposed terms of settlement of Universal Tobacco Company's receivership suit include the formation of a new company to be called the New Commonwealth Company. The capitalization is to be $4,000,000, of which $648,849,400, and of the German States, $2,687,621,000. The capitalization is to be $4,000,000, of which $2,000,000 is to be preferred stock of the Universal, or one share in the new company for two preferred shares of Universal; $111,800 stock for $5,591,900 common stock of the Universal, or one share of stock in the new for fifty shares of common stock of the Universal; $350,300 of bonds and $300,700 to the Butlers for their loans of $350,300 with interest to Jan. 1, 1904, which, with additional detailed allowances, make the total $1,300,000.

The Agricultural Gazette of Jan. 4 says of British crops: "Reports from most parts of the country show that we have entered the New Year with a great deficiency in the area of Wheat sown, and it appears to be seen to what extent the deficiency is made good by sowings in the present month or in February. When the land works fairly in January, which is seldom the case, the Wheat may then put in with a good prospect of success, and this season it would have a better chance than that sown while the soil was full of water in October or November. There are many fields, however, now having rotted in the ground more or less, so that thin plants of Wheat are probably at least as numerous as they were a year ago, although the area is below average in November and December."

A Boston director of the Pere Marquette says: "The Pere Marquette is not endeavoring to secure control of the Wisconsin Central, as far as I know." A stockholder of the Wisconsin Central calls attention to the fact that the voting trust agreements expires on July 1 of this year, and at that time certificates of deferred non-cumulative stock will be delivered to stockholders under the agreement of July 1, 1899. The voting trustees may, according to the agreement, issue stock prior to July 1, if four-fifths of the trustees or a majority of both common and preferred stockholders agree to it at a special meeting called for the purpose. San Francisco dispatches say that whether the control of the road is being sought for prior to the termination of the voting trustee agreement by the St. Paul and the Great Northern Railways.

The Mark Lane Express of Jan. 4 says: "The New Year came in with severe frost and a very dry air, but before 48 hours had passed rain fell in most districts, and ground conditions became unsettled. Our own record of 1903 weather is as follows: Rainfall, 38.39 inches; sunshine, 1,187 hours; temperature, 50.03 degrees. The rainfall tells its own tale, and records 6.02 inches above the average, great evil of the year was the low temperature of the three summer months which averaged 56.77 degrees, against an average of 60 degrees. The sunshine records, though 39 hours above average, is much higher than anticipated, and exceeds that of 1902 by 146 hours. Months of over average sunshine were January, February, March, October and November, while April, June, August and December were colder than an ordinary year. The wrotched quality of this year's cereals is probably a good deal the result of the very cold June, which was extremely wet as well."

It is estimated that the capacity of new Iron and Steel plants started in the United States in 1904 amounted to about 2,000,000 tons. The capacity of new mills to be started in 1905 is estimated at 2,000,000 tons. Much of this must naturally be marketed abroad, since demand in this country has fallen off to such an extent. The best posted steel men look for very keen competition in the Steel industry during the year 1904, and it is said the majority of those who are viewing the situation without regard to the stock market look for lower prices in all lines of finished material.

Appointments made by the Chicago Board of Trade Directors Tuesday were Walter C. Blowney, assistant secretary, R. W. Rathbone, reappointed flour inspector. H. A. Foss was reappointed weighmaster. John A. Tobey, inspector and registrar of provisions; Samuel Powell, manager of the clearing-house, John C. Black, treasurer of the clearing-house, and E. A. Hamill, treasurer of the Board of Trade.

The New York Grain trade, Tuesday, unanimously adopted the proposed rules making No. 3 Red Wheat deliverable on contracts at a penalty of 5c, and No. 2 Northern at the same price. No. 1 Hard 7c; No. 2 Hard, 2c. Also Buffalo receipts were made deliverable at an allowance of the rail rate at and east of Buffalo and the penalty. Trading is to begin Feb. 1 at the basis of contracts for delivery Aug. 1 and later.

The total number of cars of all Grains inspected at Winnipeg for the week ended Jan. 7, 1904, was 624. A year ago the total of all Grains was 1,313 cars. For the corresponding week last year the total number of cars inspected was 1,202 of Wheat, 61 of Oats, 18 of Barley, 30 of Flax, 1 of Speltz. Of the Wheat there were 434 cars of No. 1 Hard, 311 cars of No. 1 Northern, 169 cars No. 2 Northern, 167 cars of No. 3 Northern, 58 cars of No. 4.

Stocks in New York did not move up with the freedom that has characterized the trading for several days. There was heavy selling, over 30,000 shares for London, a drop in British Consols there and a disposition on the part of traders to work for a break. Railway shares were mostly lower early but recovered, and in a few instances closed higher. Industrials were unsettled, with Realty and Sugar up and Copper lower. Money easy at 1¾ to 2 per cent.

One of the New York news agencies, Monday, issued a bulletin in the afternoon stating that the coupons on the Colorado Fuel 5s, due Feb. 1, will not be paid by the company, but will be bought in the interest of the reorganization committee. It was assumed that this step, being a practical default, will be followed by legal measures that will place the affairs of the company in absolute control of the reorganization committee and facilitate the carrying through of the proposed plan.

The new second mortgage 5 per cent bonds of the United States Steel Corporation have been listed for quotation purposes on the London Stock Exchange. The total outstanding of the authorized $250,000,000 is $170,000,000, of which $146,388,500 was issued in exchange for preferred stock received and canceled up to the time the contract between the Steel corporation and the underwriting syndicate was terminated, $20,000,000 was sold for cash and the remainder is to be issued in exchange for preferred stock. The listing of the bonds abroad is an indication that the bond syndicate intends to make a market for them there.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Prices are a little higher and the demand good on domestic and fair on export account.

WINTER WHEAT—The market was steady. Round lots of contract Wheat in store followed the advance in the speculative market and quotably 1@2c higher, but the car lots fresh arrivals were quotably no higher than yesterday. A fair milling demand existed. No. 2 Red in store sold to the extent of 15,000 bu old Wheat at 90c, and was quotably 86@92¼c depending on quality, and fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 94@97c. No. 3 Red sold at 98c for choice fresh arrivals and was quotable at 87@98c—depending on quality. No. 2 Hard Winter at the river quotable at 81@84c. No. 3 Hard at the river sold at 75@78c, and ranged at 73@82c for common to choice. No. 4 Hard at the river sold at 63@73c.

SPRING WHEAT—Was quiet and car lot fresh arrivals unchanged, but round lots of contract Wheat in store advanced 1½@2c in sympathy with the speculative market. No. 1 Northern in store quotable at 86@88½c and fresh arrivals at 87@89c. No. 3 Spring quotable at 78@86c for fair to choice hard variety. No. 4 Spring free on board sold at 60@69c for common to fair and at 73c for fair hard variety and quotably up to 80@82c for very choice, with a sale at the river at 61c.

REGULAR WHEAT—The market not only reached the highest point of the season, but closed within a fraction of the top. The advances were from ⅜c to 2¼c. "Shorts" were buyers all day. The "bull" party was credited with being on both sides of the market. Cash sales were 15,000 bu old No. 2 Red at 90c; at the seaboard 25 loads. This cereal was on new ground again this morning. It was placed there by scattered "shorts," who showed more or less anxiety to even up their accounts. The "longs" doubtless sold May Wheat around the top prices reached, but their sales were not of large enough volume to depress prices a great deal. Market was a nervous and irregular affair. Orders on the buying side were mainly of the stop-loss description and they were quite numerous and well scattered throughout the trade. There was considerable buying of May and selling of July by commission houses. The fact that Consols were as much as 3-16 lower cut quite a figure in the early price making as it indicated fears in certain quarters of the outcome in the far East. Lack of moisture in the Wheat country was a feature as well as a factor in the market. Kansas and Nebraska are promised snow, except in the Southeast, where rain is looked for. Illinois, Indiana, Missouri and Michigan are promised rain, turning to snow. Primary and Northwestern receipts were larger than a year ago and the clearances from the seaboard were more liberal. Liverpool futures were up ⅛d, while the spot market there was unchanged. London was ¼@¾d better. Paris unchanged to ½c lower. Antwerp was unchanged. Southwestern receipts were 230,500 bu (St. Louis and Kansas City), compared with 355,000 bu the week before and 143,200 bu a year ago. Shipments, both points, 228,800 bu. Receipts at Duluth 39 cars and at Minneapolis 344 cars, a total of 383, against 401 cars yesterday, 486 cars a week ago, and 284 cars last year. Local receipts included 24 cars Winter, 21 cars Spring and 2 cars mixed, a total of 47 cars, against 45 cars last year. Included in above was 1 car of contract grade. There was also 11 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 60 cars. Withdrawals were 18,600 bu. Receipts at Western points were 785,068 bu, against 542,914 bu last year. At Eastern points 101,784 bu, against 283,734 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 351,603 bu, against 245,831 bu last year, and from Eastern points 337,321 bu, against 08,775 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 38,142 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 499,960 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Active, excited and higher.

MAY—Sold at 89⅞c and at 92⅛@92¼c. Opened with sales at 89⅞c to 90½c; sold to 90⅛c, to 90¾c, to 91⅛c, to 90⅞c, to 91¾c, to 91¼c, to 90⅞c, to 91¾c, to 91½c, to 91¼c, to 92c to 92⅛@92¼c, to 92⅛c, and closed at 92⅛c bid.

JULY—Sold at 83¼@84⅝c. Opened at 83⅝c to 84⅛c, sold to 83⅞@83½c, to 83⅝c, to 83¼c, to 83⅞c, to 83⅜c, to 83½c, to 84c, to 83¾c, to 83⅞c, to 84⅜c, to 83⅞c, to 84⅝c, and closed at 84⅝c sellers.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 79⅝@80c. Opened at 79⅝c; sold to 79⅞c, to 79¾c, to 80c, to 79⅞c, to 80c, to 79⅞c, and closed at 79⅞c.

CORN—There were advances of ⅜@⅞c, reactions of ⅛@¼c from top showing. Cash sales 25 loads. Cables refused to sympathize with the movements at Chicago, spot Corn coming ¼d lower and futures ⅛d higher. The strength in Wheat and the unfavorable weather in portions of the Corn belt helped the early advance, and the selling of "long" Corn in order to secure profits took the edge off the market. Pit features were few and unimportant, and while trade was active at times the aggregate volume of business was only moderate. The promise of unsettled weather is expected to restrict the movement. Local inspection was 317 cars, but none of it was contract. There were 102 cars switched from private houses and 20,000 bu from store. Local receipts were 432,000 bu, and the shipments 214,000 bu. Primary receipts were 858,000 bu, against 926,000 bu a year ago. Clearances for the day 177,000 bu compared with 480,000 bu a year ago. No. 2 closed nominally at 46¾c, and No. 2 Yellow at 48c. No. 3 closed at 42@46¾c. No. 3 Yellow closed at 43@48c.

Corn by sample. Demand fair and offerings rather small on account of some of the roads not inspecting owing to the rain this morning. Feeling easier, and prices were unchanged to ½c lower. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 30@40c. No. 4 at 37@42c. No. 3 Yellow at 41@45½c. No. 3 White at 42½c. Ears at 39@42c. Billed through. No Grade at 30@40c. No. 4 at 34@42c. No. 3 Yellow at 42@44c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Closing prices showed advances of ⅜@⅞c. The market failed to hold the full advance.

MAY—Sold at 49¾@50⅝c. Opened at 49⅞c to 49¾c, sold to 50c, to 49⅞c, to 50⅛c, to 50c, to 50⅜c to 50½c, to 50¼@50⅜c, to 50⅜c to 50¼c, to 50⅛c, to 50¼c to 50⅜c, closing 50⅜c asked.

JULY—Sold at 48@48¾c. Opened at 48⅛c to 48c, sold to 48¾c, to 48½c, to 48¾c, to 48⅜@48½c, to 48⅛@48⅝c, closing at 48⅝c asked.

OATS—Were advanced ⅛@⅞c and closed at net gains of ⅝@⅞c. There was heavy trading, with free offerings early at 42c by leading "longs," who later bought and advanced prices ⅝c for May. Profit taking was a feature and caused a small recession from the best prices. The strength was largely in sympathy with other Grains. Weather was wet and unfavorable for the country movement. Cash demand was moderate and sales 10,000 bu. Arrivals 117 cars with 125 cars estimated for to-morrow. Seaboard clearances 14,500 bu. Car lots to go to store were firm. No. 3 White in store sold at 40½@41c. Standard in store closed at 39@39½c as to location.

Oats by sample were steady, with moderate trading. Supply was not large, but proved ample, and samples from two of the roads were not brought in owing to the wet weather. Sales on track and free on board. No Grade at 31c. No. 4 at 35@40¼c. No. 4 White at 39@39½c. No. 3 White at 37½@41¼c. Standard at 41@41½c. No. 2 at 39@39¾c. Billed through. Standard at 40½c. At the river. No. 4 White at 36@38¼c. No. 3 White at 38@39c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were active and higher.

JANUARY—Sold at 39c and closed there.

MAY—Active and strong. Sold at 41¾@42⅝c. Opened at 41¾c to 41⅞c, sold to 42⅝c, to 42⅜c, to 42⅜@42½c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 33¼@33¾c. Opened at 33¼c to 33½c, sold to 33¾c, and closed there.

RYE—Was stronger and prices 1@2c higher. There was a better demand and more doing, but wholly in a speculative way and market was influenced by the advance in Wheat and Corn. The receipts were two cars. There were no withdrawals from store here. The export clearances from the seaboard were 8,485 bu. No. 2 in store sold at 56c and fresh arrivals free on board sold at 61c. No. 3 fresh arrivals free on board quotably 54@56c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye. Demand good and prices 1@2c higher. January sold at 56c. March nominally at 58c. May sold at 59⅛c to 60c, and closed at 60c sellers.

BARLEY—On account of very dark weather it was difficult to trade by sample. The Barley market in consequence ruled unusually quiet. Few of the buyers for malting account were present. Car lot offerings were very small also. To-arrive lots were said to be salable at prices recently paid and offerings mild. Low grades for mixing were not in so sharp request as heretofore, but the demand was tame. As to values there was no especial change developed. Forty-three cars were inspected in. Screenings quotable at 30@43c for poor to choice; the only trading was the sale of a few poor Screenings at 34c. Barley, feed or mixing, depending on quality, was quotable at 40@42c, and poor, musty below; malting low grade, about 42@44c; very dirty below; common, 44@46c, fair, 47@50c, good, 50@55c; choice, 58@58c; fancy, 60@61c.

SEEDS—Higher prices for Flax Seed were again reached and the quotation for choice Hungarian was raised. There were no other changes. More cash Timothy offered, but none was of high grade. Little Seed of any other kind on sale.

Timothy—More cash Seed was offered. There were no consignments of high grade or choice; Seed on sale ranged from fair to poor. Such grades were salable; feeling apparently easy. Better grades being scarce were quotably steady. Sales were over a range of $2 25@2 62½, with some better quality sold, but prices paid could not be learned. For country lots there was a quotable range of $2 00@3 25 for poor to fancy: fair to good $2 65@2 85; choice $2 90@3 00, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 40@2 65; tailings lower. Futures remain neglected so as to be about nominal. January was $3 02½ bid and $3 07½ asked. March was nominally $3 12½@3 15.

Flax—Tendency of prices was again upward, there being 1@1½c advance and at the same time the market remained in an inactive state, being practically devoid of offerings. Local movement was 4 cars or 3,400 bu received and 2 cars or 2,049 bu taken out. Minneapolis got 15 cars and Duluth 9 cars. No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest were $1 12½ bid. No. 1 was $1 06 bid. Rejected nominally $1 01@1 06 outside for choice, Northwestern. January delivery was $1 06 bid. May $1 09½ bid.

Clover—Was nominally unchanged. Market about bare of offerings. The weather also was too dark to do anything. Contract Seed spot $11 25, and March delivery about $11 35. country lots, common to choice at $8 25@11 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $5 00@9 50; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00; fair to good quality about $9@10 50.

Other Seeds—It developed that an advanced price had been paid for choice dark color Hungarian Seed. Aside from this improvement there was nothing new to note. Hungarian common to choice, dark color, quotable at $1 30@1 85. Common Millet 90c@$1 25 for poor to fancy. German Millet, 90c@$1 25. Siberian, 75@90c. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 75@90c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat was weaker. Some coming in and season late so there is but a mild demand. For good milling $1 15 was all that was bid.

HOG PRODUCTS—A fair trade was reported in the market for Hog Products and prices were again somewhat irregular. The early tone was firm, notwithstanding the liberal run of Hogs and lower prices for the same the strength in Grain being the chief sustaining influence. There was buying by "shorts" and for outside account, the demand for Lard being the most noticeable. Commission houses absorbed the bulk of the offerings which came mainly from "longs" and the packing interest. Professionals and boot traders also sold. Later in the session feeling was slightly easier, but the close was fairly firm. Liquidation in Pork and Ribs rather more conspicuous on the hard spots. The receipts at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 101,000, compared with 75,000 one year ago. Liverpool quoted Backs 6d lower, while Lard was up 3d. Trade confined chiefly to contracts in May and July. Receipts of Products were fair—of Lard and Meats about 54 cars. Shipments were liberal of Lard and Meats about 183 cars. Demand on shipping account was fair and offerings moderate. Sales gradually enlarging. Prices rather more in sellers favor.

Mess Pork—A moderate trade was reported in the market for Mess Pork and the feeling manifested was comparatively firm. The early strength in Grain offset the decline in Hogs and on buying by commission houses prices were advanced 10c. Realizing and profit-taking caused prices to recede slightly, the close being fairly steady around medium figures. Shipping demand was reported moderate and offerings fair. Cash lost were quotable at $13 15@13 17½.

JANUARY—Very little doing. Sold at $12 95 and closed at $12 95.

MAY—Demand fair and offerings moderately free. Sales were made at $13 17½@13 27½. Opened at $13 17½ to $13 20, sold to $13 17½, to $13 22½, to $13 20 to $13 22½@13 25, to $13 20, to $13 22½, to $13 20, to $13 27½, to $13 22½, to $13 25, to $13 22½, to $13 25, and closed at $13 25 asked.

Lard—There was a fair trade and rather an unsettled feeling, though the tone most of the session was firm. Covering by "shorts" and further buying by commission houses for outside account was responsible for the 7½c advance early in the day. Small stocks and high price of Cotton Seed Oil were among the "bull" helps. Packers were credited with selling, and there was realizing by interests with profits in sight. Foreign advices were favorable to holders. Later in the day the price reacted 5c, but closed steady around medium figures. Demand on shipping account moderate and offerings somewhat limited. Cash lots quotable at $6 97½. Loose lots called for moderately and offerings moderate. Prices were steady at about 72½c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in fair request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotably steady at $6 80. Neutral in only moderate demand with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $8 12½@8 25 for No. 1 and $7 37½@7 50 for No. 2.

JANUARY—Sold at $6 95@7 00. Opened at $6 95, sold to $7 00, to $6 97½ and closed steady.

MAY—Demand very fair and offerings moderate. Sales were made at $7 17½@7 25. Opened at $7 17½, sold to $7 22½, to $7 20 to $7 25, to $7 20, to $7 22½, to $7 20, to $7 22½, to $7 20, and closed at $7 20 sellers.

JULY—Offerings and demand moderate. Sales were made at $7 20@7 27½. Opened at $7 20, sold to $7 25 to $7 22½, to $7 27½, to $7 25 and closed steady.

Short Rib Sides—A moderate trade was witnessed in the market for Short Rib Sides, with the tone prevalent rather firm most of the day. Prices were advanced 5c early on miscellaneous buying by "shorts," the offerings being moderate. Later the price receded slightly, but closed firm around medium figures. Packers supplied part of the demand. Shipping demand fair and the offerings moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6 30@6 35 according to weight.

JANUARY—Sold at $6 37½@6 40, and closed at $6 37½@6 40.

MAY—Demand better and offerings fair. Sales were made at $6 67½@6 72½. Opened at $6 67½, sold to $6 70@6 72½, to $6 70, to $6 72½, to $6 67½@6 70, to $6 72½, to $6 70, and closed at $6 70 asked.

JULY—Moderate demand, also the offerings. Sales were made at $6 77½ and $6 80@6 82½. Opened at $6 77½, sold to $6 80@6 82½, to $6 80, and closed steady.

Other Meats—A moderate trade was reported in Meats. Domestic demand was fair, but export demand was quiet. Offerings of all kinds were fair, but holders continue firm in their views. Green Meats were in fair request, with moderate offerings, and prices ruled steady. Pickled Meats in limited demand, with only small offerings, and prices well maintained. Dry Salted Meats in moderate demand and offerings not very large. Prices ruled rather steady. Smoked Meats in moderate demand, chiefly in a jobbing way, and prices ruled steady. Closing prices ranged as follows:

BREADSTUFFS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

Wheat There is no change in the Wheat markets here exporters have all the Wheat they need to load vessels There is only one chartered vessel on it to here For Tacoma loading there are two vessels that are receiving their cargoes, and all of them are receiving quick dispatch The tonnage to arrive engaged is very small and will be looked after without much trouble, hence exporters wants are very small, and, having no pressing wants to find are out of the market for Wheat prices have ap peared to be very nearly out of freight rates based on the last charter, and values of our cargoes abroad As would be an extreme figure for Chile, Cork for Orders, Valley Wheat, 27s 6d to 28s for milling purposes, as there is no demand for export Millers are also out of the market as the milling demand has fallen off and mills that have to fill, this month have plenty of Wheat for the same. It is reported that several mills are disposing of their large holdings having more Wheat than they need Receipts are coming down quite freely of sales recently made.

Flour—The Flour market is very dull and countries are being filled from interior points. Millers are quite calm in orders, evidently having supplies on hand that they may require for some time to come. Some of the large mills in this territory are working full time to complete old orders, as the slight rate of 10c per barrel advanced from $3 60 to $4 10 per ton after Feb 1, for that month only, and there is no doubt in it the same will go to the old figure after March 1, Vol. 1 Bulk from all points on the Pacific Coast for outcome for any new business after the 1st of the month is not very encouraging and probably all the new business will come from Australian markets picks up again Stocks on hand are very small, and a great many of the mills will run part time to stock up supplies in case any demand should exist. Shipments are also quite light and are reported to be very large. Shipments to Central and South America are good, as the major portion of the same are sent to San Francisco and there re-shipped to foreign countries. It is thought that a war between Japan and Russia would be beneficial to the shipments the last six months over there have been a series of good cargo requirements and stocks ample for some time to come. Quotations for export are higher and range from $3 35 to $4 20 per bbl. Patents are in fair demand; prices are unchanged their stocks on hand are light December are stocking up again, but quotations are without change: $4 00 to $4 25 per bbl for standards are being paid.

AGRICULTURE IN MANITOBA

[From the Winnipeg Commercial, Jan. 16.]

A special report of the Department of Agriculture was laid on the table, Monday evening, by Premier Roblin. It contained a summary of the crop returns received during the year 1903, giving the grain areas, average yield per acre and aggregate yield and other data concerning agriculture in the Province. The crop summary was as follows:

	Acres.	Bushels.
Oats.....	855,481	34.2	38,025,774
Barley.....	330,000	26.5	8,091,000
Flax.....	55,000	10.5	586,940
Rye.....	2,500	18	88,182
Peas.....	1,000	12.16	12,141

Total Grain crop..... 82,376,840

The total yield of Potatoes is given at 4,7 0.0 bu and the average yield per acre at 175 bu. The Root crop is placed at 3,142,340 bu, with an average yield per acre of 1,000 bu. The total yield under all kinds of crops is estimated at 3,751,173 acres.

It is estimated that there are ready to be cropped this coming spring 2,45 805 acres, of which 117,629 are new breaking, 666,140 acres summer fallow, and 1,840,336 acres fall plowing. These figures are 654,510 acres in excess of the amount of land prepared in 1902 for last year's crop.

[New York Producers' Price Current, Jan. 16.]

The market continues in very limited position It is known that exporters are again in the market but will only take fancy growths Sales have been made to exporters within a day or two at 30c for Pacifics and considerable purchases were reported on Thursday by dealers at 29½@29c for average Pacific State hops, of which there are now very few left, are held at 28c in the country; in fact some of the country dealers who are practically the only holders of State hops are now said to be there, have held for 30c and more this week to brewers at 28c On the coast California and Washington are practically cleaned out as far as growers are concerned, while in Oregon it is low grades that are only left, the better ones remaining in growers' hands Holders of Pacifics are asking 29@30c there, according to quality and there is no reason why the situation can be summed up as very strong with some demand from brewers at comparatively full figures. The English market is slightly below a parity of duty but there is very strong and advancing tendency. The German market has also been steadily advancing and the medium grades of earlier in the season are now taking the place of choice.

PRICE OF BREAD RAISED IN LONDON.

[From the Liverpool Milling, Jan. 2.]

Speaking of the baking trade, we learn that the bakers of London have raised the price of Bread by 1d per 4lb loaf during the past few days. The step is a very serious one to take at this time of the year when many of the poorer families of London exist almost, or quite, entirely on Bread and any increase in the price of which means less eat. That bakers have been put, and probably will be put, to great expense in the improvement of their premises is quite too true, and advancing prices not a guilty capitalists they have no alternative but to pass on the impost to the consumers in whose behalf the authority has intervened If the bakers' action in thus raising the standard condition of an industry, the consumer must incur the expense or in many cases drive the manufacturer out of business. No doubt some bakers have not always been in a satisfactory condition, and others will need little change. Probably the competition from these will prevent the rise taking place universally.

CROP REPORTS ARE INDORSED.

WASHINGTON, D C., Jan. 12. The National Board of Trade met here to-day in its thirty-fourth annual session, with seventy-five delegates present representing thirty-five commercial organizations out of a total membership of forty-seven. The principal matter discussed was the report by C B Murray, Chairman of the Committee on Crop Statistics

"The Government crop reports are deserving of favorable recognition and acceptance, as representing all the facts obtainable," the report stated. It was recommended that a committee, probably the Crop Statistics Committee of the Board of Trade, together with delegates from commercial bodies, be appointed to co-operate with the Agricultural Department in securing information. The report was adopted and the committee continued for another year.

The weather map shows good rains or snows in Iowa. Light rains in Illinois, Missouri, Indiana, and Ohio Valley Nebraska Kansas, and Oklahoma have practically no moisture. Merely a trace of snow at Dodge City Very much colder weather is indicated.

Temperatures in Missouri, Kansas, Illinois and Ohio Valley are unseasonably high It looks as if the whole territory would get cold weather by tomorrow

BIG COTTON EXPORTS FOR 1903.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—"King Cotton" made his greatest record in the export figures of the calendar year 1903. From 1883 to 1893 Cotton exports averaged a little more than $750,000 a day. In 1903 they averaged more than $1,000,000 in value per day; in the last three months of 19 3 they averaged more than $2,000,000 per day, and in the closing month of the year nearly $2,500,000 per day. Exports of Cotton in 1903 were greater in value than in any preceding month in the history of Cotton exportation the total being over $22,-660,000.

The value of Cotton exports from the United States during the year was $378,000,000, exceeding by $43,000,000 that of the preceding record year, 1901, which was $335,000,000 in value.

While the total value of the year's exports of Cotton was the highest on record, the quantity was less than in 1898, when the value was much less. The total quantity exported in 1903 was 3,620,000,000 lbs, which exceeded that of any preceding year except 1898, when it was 4,170,000 00 lbs The value of the Cotton exports of 1898, however, was only $320,000,000 or less than 60 per cent as much as that of 1903, although the quantity in 1898 was 13 per cent greater

Cotton constantly forms a very large share of the exports, practically of the agricultural exports, of the United States. During the entire period from 1883 to 1903 the value of Cotton exported aggregated $7,000,000,000 and averaged 33 per cent of the total exports of domestic products and 33 per cent of the agricultural products exported. In 1903 Cotton formed about 25 per cent of the total exports and about 38 per cent of the total agricultural exports.

INCREASED HOME CONSUMPTION.

Is is quite generally conceded by many of the best informed in trade, the New York Evening Post says, that the per capita consumption of Wheat in this country has increased at a rapid rate recently, so that now apparently reasonable to assume that we will use up close to 600,000,0 0 bu for food and seed during the crop year ending July 1 next, leaving approximately only 14,000,0 0 bu for export

As we have already exported about 410 000,0 0 bu it will be seen that any future dullness in the export trade need cause little or no worriment. Of course, this does not necessarily mean an export more than 40,00 ,000 bu in the next six months, but that what we ship in excess of that amount will have to be taken from reserve stocks; in fact, it is highly probable that the total export will be 450,000 bu before the next harvest, and if so, it is reasonable to suppose that May Wheat and other futures will be worth a deal higher than now.

Later, the whole list rallied on good buying. The market closed 20@23 points higher

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR Domestic demand good but export business still moderate, foreigners refusing to follow the advances

WINTER WHEAT—Was just about the same as yesterday Choice Wheat was in good demand on milling account and poor Wheat ruled dull and hard to sell No. 2 Red in store quotable at 84½@92¼c and fresh arrivals free on board ranged during the day at 92@98c, depending on quality. REGULAR WHEAT—The closing was unsettled and ⅛@1⅛c lower for the day Cash trade was small—only 4 loads at the seaboard. Minneapolis stocks increased 150,000 bu in five days. While the market was lower all around the feeling was strong at the declines established There was a sharp decline in values shortly after the outset this morning, the break being brought about by general selling on the part of the small holders. Many believed the chief "long" was a seller and with this idea pervading in the pit the offerings increased in a sensational way and the break resulted The buying early was led by the principal "long" and a sharp rally was brought about. There was July selling on the break of the drouth in the Southwest where the crop was reported to be suffering, coupled with the indifferent cables to the advance at Chicago yesterday Liverpool was ⅛@⅜d lower London unchanged to ⅛d lower. Antwerp up ⅝c and Paris ½c higher to unchanged Advices from Liverpool report Argentine offerings as increasing, with buyers holding off. Northwestern Miller and Price Current in their weekly resumes reported the outlook for Winter Wheat as unchanged, with the marketing of Wheat decreasing slightly, but above the normal Southwestern receipts (St. Louis and Kansas City) were 157,000 bu, compared with 220,000 bu a week ago and 158,000 bu a year ago Shipments from the above points were 194,000 bu. There were selling orders in Wheat from the Southwest, and the seaboard was also on that side of the market. Receipts at Duluth 69 cars and at Minneapolis 255 cars, a total of 321, against 383 cars yesterday, 442 cars a week ago, and 343 cars last year. Local receipts included 21 cars Winter, 12 cars Spring and none mixed, a total of 33 cars, against 31 cars last year. Included in above was none of contract grade. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 326,767 bu.

There were signs of selling by the Eastern "longs," but their offerings were not large The chief "longs" entered the market on the decline and the price rallied in a lively manner The trade was a large one, with brokers and commission houses on both sides. Local inspection was 2[illegible]6 cars, with none of it contract The present weather is not only against the movement of Corn, but is also against its grading. OATS—Were actively traded in and market was excited Heavy selling on stop-loss orders and the break in other Grains made a weak feeling early and prices receded ⅛c to 1⅛c The break was more than recovered May advancing ⅛c to the highest point so far, but yielded ⅛c under renewed selling and closed ⅛@⅛c lower for the day Other months closed ⅛@⅜c lower The leading "long" interest supported the market on the break and added to its holdings Cash business was not so good Receipts were 106 cars, with 1[illegible]5 cars estimated for to-morrow. Withdrawals were 1,500 bu Seaboard clearances 12,300 bu Car lots to go to store were steady to ½c lower. No 3 White sold at 40@40½c Standard at 41c. Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye Quiet. No trading and feeling tame. January nominally 56c and March nominally 58c May 59½c bid and 60c asked.

BARLEY—A slow dull market was experienced. Demand from maltsters was very light. Several of the usual buyers did not even appear on the market Requirements for some time have been in a large measure provided for by purchases to arrive Demand for to-arrive lots also has decreased Low malting grades were almost lifeless, buyers and sellers were a little apart For malting Barley values were not materially changed, for offerings were small. There was at the same time a slow, heavy market Mixing Barley and Screenings were both dull. Not many Oats coming in and mixers do not need much Barley Some are supplied from round lot purchases a week ago. Feed Barley would have to be very nice to bring over late inside quotation. In the Screenings market only good cars were taken. A good many poor on sale and no one wanted them Posted receipts to-day 30 cars Screenings quotable at 30@42c for poor to choice; the only trading was the sale of a few choice at 41c. Barley feed or mixing, depending on quality, was quotable at 40c, choice possibly a shade over, and poor, musty below; malting low grade, about 42@44c; very dirty below; common, 44@46c, fair, 47@50c good, 50@55c choice, 56@58c; fancy, above.

SEEDS A feeling of strength continues to prevail in this market. High grades of Timothy very scarce and wanted. Flax was higher again. The other lines presented no changes particularly Timothy High grade Seed remains scarce It was wanted and was quotably firm. There were fair offerings, consignments ranging from quite common to fair quality. Such lots, while salable, were not wanted like the high grades and were not so firm. Country lots quotable at $2 10@3 25 for poor to fancy, outside figure was bid for high grade Seed; fair to good quotable $2 6 @2 85; choice $2 90@3 00, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 40@2 55; tailings lower. Futures were firm, about 2½c better. January sold at $3 05, and later $3 07½ was bid. March salable at $3 15, and was held at $3 17½c.

Flax—Was again firm. Prices moved up ½@1c. Little business done It was the same kind of a market there has been of late -higher because prices in the Northwest were advanced; very quiet because there were no offerings No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest sold at $1 12½ and closed at $1 13 bid. No. 1 was $1 07 bid Rejected nominally $1 02@1 07, outside for choice Northwestern. Futures inactive; little attention paid to them. January was $1 07 bid; May nominally $1 10

Mustard, 85c@$1 65 Buckwheat was easy; good milling quotable at $1 10@1 15.

HOG PRODUCTS Just a fair speculative business was transacted in the market for Hog Products The feeling manifested while somewhat unsettled was firm on the whole and the close comparatively strong Commission houses were again the principal buyers absorbing the bulk of the offerings which came chiefly from "longs" and packing interests. Market started out stronger under a fair miscellaneous demand, influenced mainly by the moderate run of Hogs and higher prices for the same. The sharp decline in the Grain markets checked the upward tendency and induced considerable realizing by holders with profits, the selling being largely local. Demand improved somewhat toward the close Packing of the West for the season was reported 5,910,000 compared with 5,900,000 for the corresponding period in 1902-3 Private estimates on local stocks —Pork 21,000 brls. The increases compared with last week's estimate are small for the season, especially in Lard and Pork The receipts at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 71,000 compared with 70,000 one year ago. Foreign markets were steady to firm Liverpool quoted Bacon unchanged to 1s higher; Hams and Lard same as yesterday. Receipts of Products were moderate of Lard and Meats about 24 cars Shipments were fair of Lard and Meats about 120 cars Demand on shipping account moderate and offerings only fair. Prices firm and without important change.

Mess Pork A moderate trade and comparatively firm feeling was witnessed in the market for Mess Pork, the close being slightly higher Commission houses were on both sides of the market, with the buying rather better than the selling Hogs were higher and market at one time up 12½c, a reaction of 15c following Later, there was about 7½c recovery, the close being as noted above Shipping demand fair, and offerings moderate. Lard - Attracted a fair amount of attention and the undertone of the market was rather firm Commission houses bought the May with considerable freedom and the price early in the day advanced 7½c Later, however selling by "longs" and some of the larger packers caused a reaction of 10c Later there was a recovery of 5c, and the close was 2½@5c higher. Foreign markets steady Market indirectly affected by action of Grain Demand on shipping account moderate and offerings somewhat limited Cash lots quotable at $7 02½ Loose lots e [illegible] for moder [illegible] and offerings moderate Prices were steady at about 72½c discount on May figures Leaf Lard in fair request and offerings were moderate Prices were quotably steady at $6 50 Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. THE WORLD'S COMMERCE.

[From the Stockholder.]

"Area, population, commerce, revenue, expenditures, indebtedness, currency and stocks of money of the principal countries of the world," is the title of a statement issued by the Department of Commerce and Labor through its Bureau of Statistics. The statement includes all countries and colonies for which statistics of commerce and the other conditions above mentioned are available, and thus presents an approximately complete picture of the commercial and financial conditions throughout the entire civilized world.

The total exports of the countries and colonies included are stated at $10,478,616,000 and the total imports at $11,525,755,000, making the aggregate commerce $21,804,391,000. For most of the countries the figures stated relate to the year 1902; in a few cases they are for 1901, and in some cases for 1903. The aggregate of the world's commerce at the present time may therefore be set down, in round figures, as $22,000,000,000. While, presumably, all exports become, in turn, imports, the stated value of these imports exceeds by more than $1,000,000,000 the stated value of the merchandise in question when stated as exports.

This increased value in the statement of merchandise imported, when compared with the statement of value of the same merchandise when exported is accounted for in part by the value added through transportation, insurance, etc., and in part also by the fact that statements of value are more carefully and rigidly made when the goods are imported than in the statements supplied on exportation. Under the term "exports" is included simply the domestic merchandise of the countries in question, and under the term "imports" the importation for home consumption, the imported merchandise re-exported not being included in the export statement, the purpose being to include in the statement the actual value of a single transaction in the merchandise originally entering into international commerce.

The population of the countries and colonies included in this statement is given at 1,487,159,000, and their area at 40,701,936 square miles. This figure of population in the countries included in the table seems to justify an estimate of 1,600,000,000 as the approximate total of the world's population at the present time.

The total revenue, for the latest available date, of the countries and colonies included in the list is set down at $7,854,201,000 and the total expenditures at $7,[illegible].

The total indebtedness of the countries named in the list is given at $34,380,601,870, but as the statement does not include the indebtedness of certain minor colonies and divisions, the total national indebtedness of the world at the present time may safely be put, in round terms, at $35,000,000,000. The interest charge on the public debt of the countries named is given at $1,416,397,458.

The stocks of money in the countries named are stated at $11,[illegible],000, or, in round terms, twelve billions of dollars, but in this statement the value of the monetary stock of Silver standard countries has not been changed to conform to the decline in Silver values. The monetary stock of Mexico and other countries where the Mexican dollar circulates is given in terms of Mexican dollars. Of this total of twelve billions of dollars, representing the total stocks of money in the countries in question, $5,355,000,000 is stated as Gold, $3,684,700,000 as Silver and $2,963,800,000 as uncovered paper.

The largest imports of any single nation are those of the United Kingdom, $2,571,416,000; Germany second, $1,340,178,000; the United States third, $1,025,719,000; Netherlands fourth, $867,308,000, and France fifth, $848,016,000. The per capita imports are, stated in the order of magnitude per capita: Netherlands, $162.20; New Zealand, $72.58; Belgium, $65.62; Switzerland, $64.89; United Kingdom, $61.28; Commonwealth of Australia, $54.74; the imports of the United States are given at $12.76 per capita. The per capita exports are: Netherlands $137.08; New Zealand, $79.58; Commonwealth of Australia, $54.74; Belgium, $53.55; Switzerland, $50.28; those of the United States are given at $17.32 per capita. These figures, like the others of commerce quoted, relate to domestic exports only.

Gold is stated as the standard of currency in all of the countries named, except Bolivia, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, San Salvador, China, French East Indies, Mexico, Paraguay and certain German colonies. These ten countries, whose standard of currency is given as Silver, show a total commerce of $631,194,000, out of a total commerce of $22,000,000,000, or slightly less than 3 per cent of the grand total.

In the statement of indebtedness of the various countries the totals by countries, in the order of their magnitude, are: France, $5,876,312,892; United Kingdom, $3,885,166,333; Russia, $3,633,939,358; Italy, $2,560,605,000; Spain, $2,061,389,972; Austria-Hungary, $1,102,790,237; British India, $1,102,905,139; Commonwealth of Australia, $1,047,8[illegible]629.

The debt of the United States is stated at $925,011,637. The indebtedness of the German Empire is given at $698,849,400, and of the German States, $2,627,621,000. Five European countries—France, the United Kingdom, Germany, Italy and Spain—show an aggregate indebtedness of over $17,000,000,000, thus forming one-half the total indebtedness of the world. The per capita debt, as stated in the order of magnitude is: New Zealand $327.11; Commonwealth of Australia, $277.79; Portugal, $151.02; France, $150.31; Uruguay, $132.81; Honduras, $124.19; Spain, $110.72; Argentina, $100.08; United Kingdom, $92.59; Netherlands, $85.62; Belgium, $81.28; Italy, $78.85. The debt of the United States is given at $11.51 per capita.

There was an increase in the Minneapolis Flour output last week of 37,000 brls. This week a few of the mills will not run full time, and the Flour production is likely to be reduced to 340,000 brls. The same week a year ago it was 304,165 brls.

Trade with Minneapolis mills during last week was somewhat irregular, though the most of them sold their output or better. While orders came in fairly steady to certain ones, others did the larger part of their business Saturday on the stronger Wheat market. Shipping directions on old business were received more freely and the mills are now pretty well provided for.

Scattering lots of Flour were worked for export, and in the aggregate they made something of a showing. However, foreigners are usually indifferent, and it is difficult to do business with them, except at a sacrifice. The Orient is in the market, but chiefly for second clear. Little can be done with either the United Kingdom or the Continent in first or second clear, as prices here are above views prevailing in those markets.

In the last two days some of the mills have done a good business, the advance in Wheat bringing in orders quite freely.

Compared with a week ago, No. 1 Northern spot Wheat has advanced 3c per bu, and the majority of the mills are asking an advance of 10@15c per brl for Patent. Clears are about stationary.

The range of Eastern prices to-day, Jan. 19, asked by Minneapolis mills for Patent in wood was: Boston, $5 15@5 25; New York rate points $5 15@5 25, Pittsburg points, $5 10@5 25; Baltimore, $5 00@5 15; Philadelphia, $5 15@5 25; Albany, $5 20@5 35; Buffalo, $5 10@5 25; Michigan $4 70@4 85; Iowa, Illinois and Wisconsin, $4 70@4 85.

NATIONAL BOARD OF TRADE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The National Board of Trade to-day adopted resolutions in favor of the following propositions. Appointment of a standing committee of conference with the Department of Commerce and Labor; urging a national incorporation law and recommending the passage of the Palmer bill, with some amendments, and favoring currency reform.

A recommendation that the Chicago drainage canal be increased in size by the United States for navigation to the Gulf was recommitted, opposition developing from Cleveland, New York and Boston delegates, who broadly intimated that Chicago should build her own canal.

The committee on Grain inspection brought in majority and minority reports. The only votes polled for the minority report were those from Chicago in favor of Grain inspection. The majority report opposing inspection was adopted.

ENGLISH WHEAT.

The Board of Agriculture has issued its annual produce statistics for Great Britain, and by adding the Irish returns as far as published, Broomhall arrives at the following result for the United Kingdom so far as Wheat is concerned, and shows in comparison former years' returns:

[From San Francisco Weekly Commercial News.]

The situation over the entire Coast has improved materially. The California market is active and very firm at advanced prices. Preparations are being made to increase the acreage for the coming crop, the business having proven so profitable during the past two years. In Oregon frequent sales have been made at 25c; it is estimated that not 3,000 bales remain in growers' hands. How much dealers have is not known, but they are holding firmly and many refuse to sell at present prices, believing strongly in a future advance.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows general break up in the long drouth. The precipitation in Kansas is light, but it is general. But in Oklahoma, Texas, Arkansas and the South there is heavy precipitation. There are heavy rains or snows all over Iowa, Illinois, Missouri and the Ohio Valley. It is raining or snowing quite generally this morning. The temperatures are some higher.

At 7 A. M. the mercury in the extreme North was 22 above to 14 below; in Dakotas and Minnesota, 8 below to 14 above; in Nebraska and Iowa, 2 below to 34 above; in Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio, 14 to 50 above. The significant circumstance this morning is the general wetting down the Winter Wheat belt gets.

UNITED STATES BUCKWHEAT CROP.

The attached table shows the estimate by the Department of Agriculture of the acreage and yield of Buckwheat in the United States for 1903, by States, with comparative totals:

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The National Self-Winding Clock Company has increased its capital stock from $150,000 to $1,000,000.

Seymour R. Church, who formerly controlled the pig Iron business in San Francisco, has filed a petition in insolvency. He places his liabilities at $165,000 and his assets at $142,550.

Private messages, Wednesday, to a number of houses closely connected with the Southwest reported good rains over the greater part of Oklahoma. One message said: "Apprehensions are relieved. Roots all right."

A plan is said to be on foot to merge all the interests of the Vanderbilts into one great railroad property. This will mean the consolidation of lines that have a total mileage of 11,700 miles and include more than a dozen roads.

Fire, Wednesday, destroyed the stockhouse at the Shelby, Ohio, Steel works, a branch of the United States Steel Corporation. The stockhouse was filled with finished steel tubing, made by the cold drawing process, valued at $3,000,000, which was made useless.

The annual report of the Chicago Telephone Company for the year 1903 shows that the earnings applicable to stock were $1,421,344, or 10.9 per cent on the average capital stock outstanding for the year, as compared with $1,202,471 in 1902, or 10.4 per cent on the average capital during 1902.

The financial report of the Western Stone Company, Chicago, shows the surplus on Jan. 1, 1904, to be $27,905 larger than on Jan. 1, 1903. This would indicate earnings for the year of about 1¼ per cent on the capital stock of $2,250,000. The available surplus increased only $18,813.

The time for depositing with the bondholders' protective committee debenture bonds of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company will expire Saturday. It is stated that the committee will not grant a further extension, and that it will proceed to act upon the bonds already deposited.

Charles H. Keith, a private banker of Ortonville, Minn., filed a petition in bankruptcy, Tuesday, placing his assets at $18,508, of which $3,580 is exempt, and his liabilities at $41,338. Of the assets $16,200 is in real estate and $21,166 in notes and securities. Loaning money caused the failure.

The financial statement of the Central Union Telephone Company shows a surplus of $315,000, an increase of approximately $140,000 over the last fiscal year. But for an increase in the maintenance charges this sum had been even better. The number of stations connected during the year was 148.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, held in Philadelphia, Tuesday, a resolution was passed urging the incoming directors to declare a dividend. This was the result of the agitation which has been going on for more than a year against the present policy of the Lehigh Valley management.

Net earnings of the Chicago Junction Railway and Union Stock Yards Transit Company in the year ended Dec. 31, 1903, were $2,062,823, a decrease of $12,536 as compared with the net in the preceding year. The amount figures 15.57 per cent on the common stock after the payment of 6 per cent on the preferred and the interest on the company's bonds.

The gross earnings of thirty-six roads for the first week of January were $6,262,104, against $6,205,753 for the first week of January, 1903, an increase of $56,351. Nineteen roads show increases and seventeen decreases. Since July 1 the roads referred to above earned $206,819,099, an increase of $15,901,751 over the $190,917,348 reported for the corresponding period last year. For the longer period twenty-nine roads show increases and seven decreases.

There has been an advance of about 30 per cent in most building materials in Chicago within the past ten days. This includes the price of brick, which has been advanced by the independent makers as well as by the Illinois Brick Company. If the Illinois Company can sell the surplus of brick it carried over from last season at remunerative figures the showing of the last year will not be so disappointing, and dividends will be paid before long.

Plans for improvements and alterations on the Pennsylvania Railroad system between New York and Pittsburg involving an expenditure of nearly $70,000,000 have been approved by President Cassatt. This work is exclusive of the North and East River tunnels and the New York terminal. It is the purpose of the Pennsylvania management to four-track the road all of the way from Jersey City to Pittsburg and to have six tracks for a considerable portion of the distance.

A New York dispatch says: "There is some reason to believe that the United States Steel Corporation purchased a considerable block of United States Steel sinking fund 5s for sinking fund purposes at prices probably not above 70 on the average. The company is obligated under the indenture securing these bonds to pay the sum of $1,014,000 annually before April 1, beginning in 1904. This amount is to be invested in the sinking fund bonds."

An interest in the Corn Products Company is quoted as follows: "I am assured by sources perfectly satisfactory to me that the recent talk of a depression in the business of the Corn Products Company was unfounded, and that the company is going to show a comfortable increase in earnings for the fiscal year over its first year's report. The recent cutting of prices of Glucose apparently was a source of loss only to independent makers, and they are the ones who created a commotion about it."

The directors of the New York Central Railroad have authorized the purchase of a sufficient number of high-class locomotives to meet the requirements of the system for the next two years. Negotiations are pending between the New York Central management and the American Locomotive Company for 112 new locomotives to cost $1,750,000, it is said. This would make the cost of each new locomotive $15,625. The contract will be signed before Feb. 1, and deliveries will begin early in the spring.

Stockholders of the Chicago Telephone Company, at their annual meeting, Wednesday, authorized an increase of the capital stock from $15,000,000, the then authorized amount to $20,000,000. The stock will be issued from time to time as the directors may think advisable, and will probably not be all put out for five or six years. Perhaps $2,000,000 will be issued this year, though no decision has been reached yet on the subject. That amount was added to the outstanding capital last year, making the amount outstanding now practically $14,000,000.

The President of the Greenwich Savings Bank and the State Savings Bank Association says with regard to the new Rock Island bond issue: "Under so large an increase as this, provided the whole new issue of bonds is a legal investment for savings banks, it becomes a serious question whether the banks should not go to the legislature and ask that the bonds of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company be stricken from the list of available investments."

A London cable say: "Argentine complaints of damage by rain. Weather fine and accounts now improving. Threshing operations are progressing rapidly."

The receipts of Wheat at Liverpool during the past three days were 256,000 bu, of which 104,000 bu were American. Receipts of Corn, 160 000 bu, of which 104,000 bu were American.

Argentine Wheat visible is 2,904,000 bu, against 1,698,000 bu the previous week, and 738,000 bu last year. Argentine Corn visible is 1 183,000 bu, against 1,929,000 bu the previous week, and 107,000 bu last year.

Tests made on the No. 4 and No Grade Corn shows that it contains 3 to 4 per cent more moisture than last year. Some of the No Grade is softer than has been known for years. This accounts for the wide range of prices.

Shipments of Wheat from Argentina this week 1,672 000 bu, against 392,000 bu the previous week, and 456,000 bu for the corresponding week last year. Shipments since Jan. 1 reported at 2,224,000 bu, against 728,000 bu same time in 1903.

Average cost price of Hogs at Chicago, Thursday, was $4 94, or back to the high point of the year and the highest in over two months. The average cost a week ago was $4 89 and a year ago $6 49. Average cost price for the first four days of this week $4 85, against $4 84 a week ago and $6 46 a year ago.

Bradstreet's reports the exports of Corn from the Atlantic and Gulf ports the past week at 1,150,000 bu, against 978,000 bu for the previous week and 2,376,000 bu for the corresponding week last year. Bradstreet's reports the exports of Wheat and Flour from the United States and Canada for the past week at 3,538 000 bu, against 2,771,000 bu for the previous week, and 3,535,000 bu for the corresponding week last year. The vote on the proposition to make No 2 Hard Winter deliverable under a penalty of 2c was defeated, Thursday, by request of the Directors of the Chicago Board of Trade. The latter agree to post an amended rule at once, covering the ground entirely, and making it clear, so that delivery can be made at any time on trades made after the adoption of the rule. Under the way it read formerly there was some doubt as to its becoming effective before July 1.

The Modern Miller says: "The long drouth in the Southwest portion of the Winter Wheat has been effectually broken, as rain followed by snow has fallen all over the central portion of that country. It is expected that great benefit will be derived by the backward plant as a result of this moisture. The Oklahoma agricultural statist station indicates favorable spring conditions would make a fair, though late, crop from seed not germinated but not yet dead. Reports from California indicate that dry conditions have been relieved."

The St. Louis correspondent of the Northwestern Miller, writing under date of Jan. 18, says: "While there are some unfavorable crop reports coming to hand, the ones that say the condition of the growing crop is satisfactory are in the majority. The crop in this vicinity has received plenty of moisture, has been well protected by snow, and the weather of late has been seasonable. The plant is not as forward as usual, principally owing to the dry fall weather. The roots however, are believed to be in good condition, and with proper weather in the spring, it should turn out all right."

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—The advance of 5@10c in prices at Chicago has caused a quiet market, both the domestic and export trade holding out for the moment.

WINTER WHEAT—Choice milling Wheat was wanted and ruled steady, under small receipts. Buyers picked up all desirable lots quickly, and the market was not influenced by the break in the speculative market. Poor Wheat remains dull. No. 2 Red in store quotable at 86⅛@91⅞c, depending on quality, and closed about ½c lower than yesterday, while fresh arrivals were unchanged and quotable at 9.@98c outside very choice soft Wheat. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals sold free on board at 93½@95c and ranged down to 87c for common. No. 4 Red sold at 85c. No 2 Hard at the river quotable at 80@85c. No 3 Hard local sold at 77c and at the river at 80c and ranged at 73@83c depending on quality. No 4 Hard at the river at 7. .78c.

SPRING WHEAT—Was steady for choice Wheat suitable for milling and fresh arrivals in good demand. Full yesterday's prices were paid. For in store lots of contract Wheat, however, the market followed the speculative market and closed 1½c lower. No 1 Northern in store quotably at 86½@87⅝c and fresh arrivals free on board quotable at 87@90c. No 3 Spring ranged at 75@87c for ordinary to fancy hard variety, with a sale at the river at 82c. No 4 Spring sold at 58@65c for poor to fair up to 82c for choice hard variety.

REGULAR WHEAT—There was a "bear" turn in this market and net losses were shown at the close of 1⅜@1¾c. There was heavy selling by the "bear" element late and scattered "longs" sold out on the decline. Cash sales were small here and only 11 loads were reported at the seaboard. The week's clearances were 3,538,000 bu, compared with 2,771,000 bu last week and 2,376,000 bu in 1903. The large Argentine shipments and lower cables were the factors for active selling at the opening, and as the demand was of rather limited character prices sold off rather sharply. The selling was led by local "bears" and there was moderate selling by commission houses. Some of the Wheat to come out represented losses, while some of it showed a profit. The chief May "long" was not disposed to do anything of importance on either side during the morning. The buying was mainly on limited orders. News from Argentina was generally "bearish," weather good there, and shipments for the week were 1,672,000 bu, compared with 392,000 bu the previous week and 456,000 bu a year ago. Shipments from there since Jan. 1 were 2,224 000 bu, compared with 725,000 bu one year ago. The increase in the Argentine visible supply was a disappointment to the "bulls." There are now in the chief ports 2,904,000 bu, against 1,698,000 bu the previous week and 738,000 bu a year ago. A special cable from that country reports the receipts from the interior as liberal and the quality of the Grain much better than last year. The same cable reported the foreign demand as good. A private message from Milwaukee reported the St. Paul as having issued a blockade notice owing to the elevators at that point being filled. The trade accepted the message with a grain of allowance. The Modern Miller told of the breaking of the long drawn out drouth in the Southwest, with rain or snow over central portion of Winter Wheat belt, which is expected to help the backward plant. The Oklahoma agricultural experiment station indicates that favorable spring conditions would make a fair, though late, crop from seed not germinated, but not yet dead. The California drouth has also been relieved. There was no rain in Kansas and fair and colder is promised. Winnipeg receipts were 36 cars, compared with 67 a year ago. Cables were mainly lower—Liverpool ½@⅝d, London ½@⅝d, Paris ¼@½c, while Antwerp was unchanged. Spot Wheat at Liverpool unchanged to ½d lower. Minneapolis stocks increased only 135,000 bu for the week. Receipts in the Southwest (St. Louis and Kansas City) 161,000 bu, compared with 233,000 bu last Friday and 136,000 bu a year ago. Shipments at both points, 211,800 bu. Receipts at Duluth 58 cars and at Minneapolis 269 cars, a total of 327, against 324 cars yesterday, 421 cars a week ago, and 344 cars last year. Local receipts included 17 cars Winter, 22 cars Spring and none mixed, a total of 39 cars, against 34 cars last year. Included in above was none of contract grade. There was 31 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 30 cars. Withdrawals were 1 000 bu. Receipts at Western points were 803,437 bu, against 536,815 bu last year. At Eastern points 8 916 bu, against 72,200 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 393,174 bu, against 166 897 bu last year, and from Eastern points 1,600 bu, against 45,071 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 1,822 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 9,799 bu. Reports from the East were incomplete owing to wire trouble.

JANUARY Entirely nominal at 96½c.

MAY—Sold at 90⅛@91⅞c. Opened at 91⅞c to 91½c; sold to 91¾c, to 91⅝c, to 91½c, to 91⅛c, to 91⅝c, to 91⅛@91½c, to 91⅝c, to 90⅞c, to 91¼c, to 90¾c, to 91⅜c, to 90⅜c, to 90⅝c, to 90⅛c, to 90½c, and closed at 90½c.

JULY—Sold at 81¼@83c. Opened at 83c to 82⅝c; sold to 82¾c, to 82½c, to 82¾c, to 82⅜c, to 82¾c, to 82c, to 82⅜c, to 81⅞c, to 82⅜c, to 81¾c, to 82c, to 81⅝c to 81½c, to 81¼c, to 81⅜c, and closed at 81⅜c bid.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 77½@78¾c. Opened at 78¾c, sold to 78⅛c, to 78⅝c, to 78c, to 78¼c, to 78⅛c, to 78¼c, to 77½c, and closed at 77½c.

CORN—Lower, the closings here showing declines of ⅜@⅞c for the day. Dullness was turned into activity as the session wore away and the weakness increased under heavy selling pressure. Cash sales for the day small, 6 loads at seaboard. Weekly clearances 1,150,000 bu, compared with 978,000 bu a week ago, and 2,376,000 bu a year ago. The feature in this market was the "bearish" feeling that existed among the room trading element and the selling by one or two of the big "longs." The latter movement was doubtless in the way of profit taking. The buying was scattered and was doubtless on both "short" and investment account. The present weather in the Corn belt is not only against the movement of Corn, but is decidedly against the grading. Argentine shipments for the week were 1,234,000 bu, compared with 1,242,000 bu the week before and 48 000 bu a year ago. The Argentine shipments since January 1 2,810,000 bu, against 479,000 bu a year ago. The visible is now 1,183 000 bu, compared with 1,929,000 bu the week before and 197,000 bu a year ago. The Corn markets down there are reported by special cable as being firm, with higher prices for the week, and arrivals from the interior practically nil. Local inspection was 312 cars, with only 2 cars contract; there were 71 cars switched from private to public houses and 16,000 bu from store. Local receipts were 259,000 bu and the shipments 205,000 bu. Primary receipts were 651 000 bu, compared with 728 000 bu a year ago. Liverpool was ¼d higher to unchanged; spot unchanged to ¼d lower. Clearances for the day 98 000 bu compared with 714,000 bu last year. No 2 closed about 45¾c. No. 2 Yellow closed at 45c. No. 3 closed at 42@44¾c. No 3 Yellow closed at 43@48c. No 4 sold at 41c. No Grade sold at 30@37c.

Corn by sample. Demand good for choice samples, but prices unchanged to ½c lower. Poor, wet Corn continues dull and weak and very difficult sale. Prices were 1@2c lower. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 20@39c. No 4 at 38@41¼c. No. 3 at 47c. No. 3 Yellow at 43¼@49c. No. 2 Yellow at 49@49½c. No. 3 White at 42@46c. No 2 White at 47c. Ears at 42@42½c. Billed through: No Grade at 30@38c. No. 4 at 37@41¾c. No. 3 at 41@41¾c. No 3 Yellow at 41@42½c. No 3 White at 41¾c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—There were declines of ⅜@⅞c in this market. Selling was general on the decline. Volume of trade moderate.

MAY Sold at 48⅞@49c to 50c. Opened at 49⅞c to 50c, sold to 49½c, to 49¾c, to 49¼c to 49½c, to 48⅞@49c, to 49⅜c, to 49⅛c, closing at 49⅛@49¼c bid.

JULY—Sold at 47½c to 48⅛@48¼c. Opened at 48⅛c to 48⅛@48¼c, sold to 47⅝@47¾c, to 48c to 47½c to 47⅞c, to 47⅝@47¾c, closing at 47⅝@47¾c.

SEPTEMBER Sold at 47⅛@47⅝c. Opened at 47⅝c, sold at 47⅜c, to 47½c, to 47⅛c, to 47¼c, closing at 47¼c asked.

OATS—Were weak and ⅝c lower at one time and closed ⅜@½c off. The weakness was in sympathy with other Grains and on selling by commission houses who represent the leading "longs." There was no evidence, however, to show that the latter were getting out and there were very good indications of support from them on the break. Good buying characterized the late buying. Cash business was 80,000 bu. Arrivals 145 cars with 140 cars expected to-morrow. Withdrawals were 2 400 bu. Seaboard clearances were not reported owing to wire trouble. Car lots to go to store were ½c lower. No 4 White at 39c. No. 3 White at 39½@41¼c. Standard in store closed about 39@39½c as to location.

Oats by sample were ½c lower. Eastern shippers did not operate freely, owing to wire trouble. Offerings were fair. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade at 31c. No 4 at 36½@37½c. No. 4 White at 38½@39¾c. No 3 at 38c. No 3 White at 38½@40½c. Standard at 40c. Billed through, No 4 at 37¾c. No. 3 White at 38@39½c. Standard at 40@40½c. No. 2 at 38¼c. At the river, No Grade at 30c. No. 4 White at 34@37½c. No 3 White at 37@38½c. No 2 at 37⅛c.

JANUARY—Slow at 39@39c. Closed at 39c.

MAY—Active and unsettled. Ranged at 41⅝@42¼c. Opened at 42¼c down to 42c, sold to 41⅝c to 42c, to 41⅞c asked at close.

SEPTEMBER Slow. Sold at 33@33⅛c. Opened at 33⅛c, sold to 33c, and closed there.

RYE—The market was easier and prices about 1c lower. Offerings moderate and demand light. The decline was influenced by the break in other Grains. The receipts were two cars. There were withdrawn from public elevator 100 bu. No export clearances. No. 2 in store nominally about 55½c and fresh arrivals free on board sold at 61c. No 3 fresh arrivals nominally 54@56c. No Grade sold at 24@35c, inside price for very poor—hot and rotten Rye.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet and 1c lower. January nominally 55½c and March nominally 58½c. May sold at 59c and closed at 59c sellers.

BARLEY—There was a lack of animation, instead a slow, dull market was experienced. The demand from all sources, for mixing or malting, was tame. Quantity of spot Barley on sale was very moderate and yet the supply was ample. Offerings were of medium to low grade usually, hardly any of a high grade seen. There was common, rusty Barley which has been held for several days. No one cares for it. Common Screenings very dull. To day's postings gave 4 cars inspected in. Screenings quotable 30@42c for poor to choice; Barley, feed or mixing, when good, was quotable at 40c, choice possibly a shade over, and poor, musty below; malting low grade, about 42@44c; very dirty below; common, 44@46c; fair, 47@50c; good, 50@55c; choice, 56@58c; fancy, above.

SEEDS—Good qualities of Timothy were in demand, scarce and higher and some advance also bid for contract future delivery. There was a further small improvement in Flax. The rest of the market presented no changes, being inactive for want of sellers.

Timothy—Firmness was in evidence in this market. For futures bids were advanced 2½c. Sellers scarce, and above the prices bid was asked. January salable at $3 10 and not offered. For March $3 17½ was bid and $3 25 asked. Cash Seed in small supply. Present arrivals light. Demand good for better grades. They were firm and salable at 5@10c advance. Common grades salable but not so strong as better qualities. Country lots quotable at $2 25@3 25 for poor to fancy; fair to good quotable $2 70@3 00; choice $3 00@3 10, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 40@2 60.

Flax—General condition of the market the same as of late. Strength continues to be exhibited and a further small improvement in prices took place. To-day there was ½c advance over yesterday's closing. There was some trading in May delivery, but nothing else was done, there was nothing else offered aside from a little to arrive. There were no receipts posted while 7 cars or 7 618 bu were taken out. Minneapolis receipts were 25 cars and Duluth got 21 cars. No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest sold at $1 12½ to arrive and $1 13½ bid for spot. No 1 was $1 07½ bid. Rejected nominally $1 02@1 07, outside for choice Northwestern. January was $1 07½ bid. May sold at $1 10@1 10½, and closed at $1 10½ bid.

Clover—Was nominally unchanged. The market was inactive to-day because there were no offerings. Contract Seed, spot nominally at $11 25, and March delivery about $11 35; country lots, common to choice at $8 25@11 00; fancy above, mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $8 00@9 50; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00; fair to good quality about $9 50@10 50.

Other Seeds—Were lifeless in consequence of there being no consignments on sale. Former prices were obtainable. Hungarian and Millets were quotably firm. Hungarian, common to choice, dark color, quotable at $1 50@1 85. Common Millet 90c@$1 25 for poor to fancy. German Millet, 90c@$1 25. Siberian, 75@90c. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 75@90c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat was easy; good milling quotable at $1 10@1 15.

HOG PRODUCTS—The trade in Hog Products was only fair. Lard leading—the market, however, at times being only moderately active. Hogs were in moderate supply and higher, which encouraged buying of Product early in the day and prices were stronger on the leading articles. At the improvement in prices there was more pressure to sell and the offerings increased coming chiefly from "longs" rather than packing interests. Prices settled back slightly, but rallied again and the close was fairly firm. Outside orders were fair in number and local trading moderate. Commission houses were on both sides of the market, considerable realizing being noticeable in Lard on the advance. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 53,700, compared with 61,500 one year ago. Foreign markets were quiet and steady. Domestic markets firm. Receipts of Product were moderate—of Lard and Meats about 27 cars. Shipments showed some falling off of Lard and Meats about 98 cars. Demand on shipping account moderate and the offerings only fair. Prices were again firm and in sellers' favor.

Mess Pork—A moderate trade was reported in the market for Mess Pork and the feeling was comparatively firm. Offerings were fair and demand moderately active. Market opened rather firm and prices were advanced 12½c. Later the price receded 7½c on miscellaneous selling, considerable of which was in the way of realizing. At the decline the demand improved and market closed firm around medium figures. Shipping demand moderate and offerings only fair. Cash lots quotable $13 2½@13 3 .

JANUARY Inactive, closed nominally $13 12½.

MAY—Demand fair, and offerings moderately free. Sales were made at $13 30@13 40. Opened at $13 32½ to $13 35, sold to $13 30, to $13 37½, to $13 35 to $13 40, to $13 32½ to $13 35, to $13 30 to $13 35, to $13 32½ and closed steady.

Lard—Rather a good trade was witnessed in the Lard market and the feeling, while somewhat unsettled was on the whole firm. The demand was fairly active and the early offerings moderate. Foreign markets were unchanged. Opening trades were 2½@5c higher, and prices advanced 7½@10c more under a miscellaneous demand the buying being led by commission houses. Later, the feeling was not so strong and on realizing sales prices settled back 7½c. Toward the close situation turned steadier and last prices showed about 10c advance. Demand on shipping account moderate and offerings somewhat limited. Cash lots quotable at $7 02½. Loose lots cabled for moderately and offerings moderate. Prices were firm at about 72½c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in fair request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotably steady at $6 87½. Short Rib Sides—Just a moderate trade in the market for Short Rib Sides and the feeling compared with the rest of the Provision list was barely firm. Floor traders and "shorts" were the principal buyers at the start, offerings being moderate and the price advanced 5@7½c. Later on, there was more selling pressure and the price settled back, but close was steady around medium figures. Demand on shipping account was moderate and offerings fair. Cash lots quotable at $6 37½@6 62½, according to weight.

JANUARY—Sold at $6 42½ and $6 45, and closed at $6 45.

The marketings of Hogs continue fairly liberal, being slightly less than the preceding week but more than the corresponding week last year so that the total for the season to date has overtaken the total for the same time last year. Total Western packing, 3,850,000, compared with 3,950,000 the preceding week and 3,400,000 two weeks ago. For the corresponding time last year the number was 855,000, and two years ago 550,000. From Nov. 1 the total is 5,500,000 against 5,500,000 a year ago—being an increase of 10.0. Prices have declined slightly, the present average for prominent markets being about 4 70 against 4 80 the preceding week and 4 90 two years ago. 4 70 two weeks ago, 2 95 a year ago, 3 60 two years ago, 3 15 three years ago, and 4 55 four years ago. The quality of receipts as reported is generally satisfactory.

The speculative Provision market was on y fairly active the past week. The feeling in the trade is unsettled. Advances in the Grain markets, especially Corn, had a tendency to strengthen prices, but there were liberal receipts of Hogs and some decline in Hog quotations. Foreign markets do not show any particular change to quotes. Quotations at the close show but little change compared with a week ago at Chicago with the exception of Lard, which is considerably higher, and this feature was a sustaining influence on the rest of the list. The export clearances of Product were fair, but show a slight decrease compared with the preceding week, and an increase over the corresponding week last year.

[From the Cincinnati Price Current, Jan. 21.]

The situation of the growing Winter Wheat crop has not changed essentially during the past week. Most of the crop east of the Mississippi River has been well covered with snow, and correspondents generally report that they can not tell much about it till the snow disappears. Some snow got covered, however, has been a favorable condition. Reports from the southern parts of the area generally report that the crop had an unfavorable start, and the appearance of the plants was unpromising before snow covered it, but many believe that the roots of the plant are all right. At present the weather is mild and thawing. In the extreme southwestern part of the Wheat area there has been very little snow protection or moisture all winter; light rains or snow have fallen within the past week, but a general precipitation is needed; the plant growth is very short, but the condition of the crop in this section as a whole is regarded as fair.

While a decreasing movement in Wheat is generally expected at this time of year, the decrease recently has been less than usual, and compared with the past few years has shown up well above the normal. However, at market centers, a small supply of good milling Wheat is generally reported.

The commercial movement of Corn is confined largely to Illinois and Indiana, and moderately so in Nebraska and Northwestern Ohio. In Iowa and Missouri most of the offerings go to local feeders. Complaint of soft Corn continues, and it does not seem to dry out as it was expected to do.

Live Stock has wintered very well so far throughout the Corn belt. Stock generally is healthy and hold or take on flesh favorably. Supply of coarse feed is plentiful. The disposition is general to hurry stock, particularly Hogs, to market as soon as they are in fit condition; and generally lighter weight than usual.

In Ohio nearly the entire Wheat area has been covered with snow for a month or more, affording beneficial protection. Little that is new can be said in regard to the condition. In the northern part of the State the outlook is regarded as favorable; in most central and southern sections the plant was small before the snow covered it. Weather late has been mild, with some thawing. There is moderate soiling of Wheat, and white some are still disposed to hold, selling satisfaction is expressed at p eviling prices. Very little Corn is being shipped, although more liberal offerings are reported from some western counties. Live Stock generally healthy and doing well.

In Indiana little that is new can be said regarding the growing Wheat as it has been reported by correspondents. In northern counties have had snow covering nearly all winter, and the outlook is regarded favorably; in the southern counties the plant did not look promising before the snow came; many express the hope that it will turn out all right if conditions in the future be favorable. Corn movement irregular, some reporting it liberal, others small. Quality generally poor. Prices on the whole; quality reported irregular, but bulk is poor and does not seem to improve. Milling Wheat in southern parts is scarce. Live Stock reported in favorable winter for feeding; Hogs in market closely.

In Illinois the top appearance of the growing Wheat is not promising, being mostly small and of a sickly color; the roots are reported to be safe. Snow has covered most of the area; weather lately mild, with rains. Corn movement is fair; liberal in some localities and smaller in others; quality poor. Hog cholera continues, it does not seem to dry out properly.

In Iowa the movement of grain is comparatively small although roads have been favorable. Corn has been the principal article of movement much shipped. Winter Grains in the ground generally in good condition. Live Stock wintering well; plenty coarse feed.

In Missouri the growing Wheat crop is in fair condition, the dry weather apparently not having been decidedly injurious to the crop. There have been light rains lately, but a general rain is needed at once. Corn movement light, consisting all winter Wheat largely moved from farmers' hands. Corn movement small to moderate, bulk of offerings taken by feeders. All Stock is doing well.

In Kansas the growing Wheat crop is in fair to no snow protection all winter and there is need of no-w since the ground has been frozen. Reports in general are favorable as fair; there is some complaint that dry winds have been unfavorable for it. Not much old Wheat left in central and eastern counties. Not much Corn is being marketed. Live Stock doing well.

ARGENTINE NOTES.

The frequent shipments of Corn in a damp and deteriorated condition, for which complaints describing it as in a fit state for export have been g ven, has necessitated investigation into the methods employed for ascertaining its soundness previous to shipment, and the fact that a reasonable doubt exists as to the want of attention and competency displayed by the receivers by which shippers sustain heavy losses. Experts and practical trustees do work in Europe when the Grain is received from railway wagons cannot be wise, the duties to be fulfilled making the position a responsible one; and such only to be entrusted to men who have had sufficient experience to distinguish between the different classes and qualities of cereals. When the Grain is received through elevators there is sufficient guarantee of proper examination of it and the certificate granted can be relied on as being correct.

Reports from Rosario say that the Flax Seed there is receiving is not much so that an importer announced it to be the best in the world. —Buenos Ayres Herald, Dec. 1.

The freight market continues to be weak in the extreme. Shippers refuse to do business and this has increased the number of steamers arriving here charterless.—Buenos Ayres Standard, Dec. 1.

We were shown yesterday some very fine samples of Barletta Wheat, from the province of Santa Fe. It was a very fine sample, and if the yield per acre turns out as well the will be a record year. —Buenos Ayres Herald. Dec. 3

The idea of straining an average sample of Grain, as adopted by the Cereals Chamber in Liverpool for forwarding similar foreign consuming markets, has been seriously taken up by Rosario Grain firms. In one word it is proposed to arrive at a —Rosario type" of shipping quality for each class of cereals. This would enable exporters to save trouble and expense, say, nothing about consignees, as shipments would be compared with the official standard sample, and the question of the avoidance of costly arbitration is one of the leading points gained.

Flax Seed cutting is in full swing at San Jose de la Esquina, Santa Fe. Within another week farmers intend starting on their Wheat. —Buenos Ayres Standard, Dec. 2.

MONEY OUTLOOK IN LONDON.

The London Statist says: "We anticipate that the supply of money in the London market will not only be more plentiful in the current quarter than usual, but that throughout the current year money will be more plentiful than it was in 1903, while the demand will be greatly reduced. In the first place, the political anxiety has already caused extensive withdrawals of capital; there will be no great war or Transvaal loan to be financed, and thirdly, the contraction in trade will probably reduce the demand for money for commercial purposes. Nor is there likely to be any great demand for money on foreign account.

"The probability of any considerable exports of Gold to New York is reduced by the expected passage of the Currency Bill and the release from the Treasury of the £8,000,000 which is to be paid over to the Panama Canal Company."

THE COAL TRADE.

[From the Coal Trade Journal.]

There can be no fault found with the weather conditions which have existed for the past eight weeks. It is beyond question a period of favorable mining weather such as has not been had in fifteen years at least, and the supplies which were put away so industriously during the early months of the year, as a means of avoiding a short supply during the period of high prices following suspension of labor in the anthracite regions in 1902 are rapidly disappearing. The present course of events is a matter of considerable moment and value to the trade, for if it continues there will be no surplus on hand at the opening of the active shipping season, but we shall go into that period on the "bare boards" again, and that would give the promise of an active season of production and shipments, equal to that of last year. With a repetition of the weather conditions which have held which they fell during the last quarter of 1903, there should be the call for extended tonnage thereto, and the branch of the fuel industry that caters to heat trade will take a better tone.

We are all looking for a readjustment of values on bituminous Coal from the opening of the contract year; there is no doubt that the figures fixed a year ago were up in the air if anything should occur to break the boom, and it did occur. The result was a demoralization of prices in the second half of the year, from which the trade has but just recovered, and in the making of conservative basis one may look for a good business It is the experience of many that a steady price throughout the year, even approximately so, is more likely to avoid fluctuations such as occurred during 1903. The entire fraternity, from working miner to jobber, were in the air, and their descent has not been as agreeable as for them to remain. But the condition been a good one from a sound business standpoint. There is plenty of Coal likely to be used, but it is impossible for it to move with anything like regularity and evenness when the consumer is offered prices that vary cent cents but dollars per ton during the course of the season.

NATIONAL BOARD OF TRADE.

WASHINGTON, Jan 21.—The National Board of Trade, at its morning session, adopted an amendment to its by-laws increasing the dues to be paid by constituent bodies to $20 00 by associations of not more or less and 40 for each 1000 in excess of 100, the maximum dues to be $300.

Resolutions were adopted declaring that "the timber and stone act, the desert land act, and the commutation clause of the homestead act should be forthwith repealed and in future all agricultural and irrigable land reserved exclusively for actual settlers under the homestead act, and that in future no government timber land be sold to the to forest lands, selling only the stumpage of matured timber."

The Committee on Reciprocity reported the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

That the National Board of Trade favors the establishment and maintenance of judicious commercial reciprocal relations with the chief foreign markets of the world, and especially with the Dominion of Canada and other contiguous countries."

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows no precipitation in Kansas, but there are rains or snows in Oklahoma and Texas and precipitation in Illinois, Missouri, Indiana and Ohio. The rainfall is heavy all through the Ohio Valley. There are light snows through Minnesota. Temperatures range in the Northwest, but mild West and Southwest.

Mercury at 7 A. M. was 2 below to 18 below in the extreme North, 6 below to 24 below in Dakotas, 2 below to 24 above in Nebraska and Iowa and 16 to 54 above in Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio. There has been a pretty thorough distribution in Illinois, Indiana, where the moisture the past two days has been light.

The store of Florence, King & Co. and five other business buildings at Marietta, Ga., were burned Wednesday. Loss, $100,000; insurance, $50,000.

A deal was closed at Columbus, Ohio, Thursday, by which the Columbus Terminal and Transfer Company passes to the Norfolk and Western Railroad.

It is said that the Chicago plant of the American Corn Products Company will reopen in about a week. This will increase the consumption of low grade Corn.

An official of the Republic Iron and Steel is quoted as saying that business is improving, and that January probably will show 25 per cent better returns than did either of the three preceding months.

The real feature of the dealings on the New York Stock Exchange, Thursday, was the extraordinary enlargement of the sales of bonds. Sales of these securities were the largest in 4 years, the total running to over $7,000,000, as against less than $1,000,000 Wednesday.

New York bankers have purchased $3,000,000 4½ per cent bonds and $2,000,000 five years' bonds of the Southern Pacific Railroad. These bonds are a portion of the authorized issue of $30,000,000 two to five year 4½ per cent Gold bonds of 1903, of which $8,000,000 is this amount, there are now about $ 26,000,000 outstanding.

A deal is about to be consummated by which the Indianapolis, Ind., Watch Company, capital $1,000,000, will be established with the machines, patents, and assets of the Remington Watch Company, the Schweitzer Watch Company, and the Cram & Roy Watch Case plants will be acquired and the plants moved to Indianapolis.

It is authoritatively stated that the reports of the negotiations pending for the consolidation of the Alaska Packers' Association and the Pacific Packing and Navigation Company, the latter company being the pu chaser, are absolutely without foundation. There is said to be no prospect whatever of such a combination being effected.

Last year the United States Steel Corporation mined 55.8 per cent of all the ore produced in the Lake Superior region. This compares with 57.3 per cent of the total lake ore output in 1902. In 1901 the percentage was 43.1. During the coming season the corporation is expected to reduce its ore output below 12,000,000 tons as it has a surplus ore stock of several millions.

A Des Moines, Iowa, wire, Thursday, said: "A party has made a canvass of the Oat situation and finds there is going to be a big demand for Seed Oats. Farmers have been offered 50 cents a bushel for 25 cars of 1,500 bu each, another 15 cars, and all the others have orders. The Iowa Oats have been tested at the Agricultural College at Ames and only about 70 per cent will germinate."

The decision of Western roads to refuse return transportation to shippers of Live Stock who accompany their shipments to Western markets appears to have been followed by many of the interested lines to the Illinois Railroad and Warehouse Commission for an order concurring in the action of the roads. The Commission has declined to suspend the hearing, and in the meantime the Western lines are taking up the matter with the Railway Commissions of other States.

Net earnings of the Central Union Telephone Company for the year ended Dec. 31, 1903—December partly estimated—were $318,192 after all charges, an increase of $138,877 over the earnings of 1902. This amounts practically to 8 85 per cent earned on the outstanding stock, as compared with earnings of 3½ per cent on the outstanding stock in 1902. The net profits were charged to line repair and maintenance, and there is no thought of beginning dividends for some time.

A New York dispatch says: "Desiring, it is said, to prevent executors selling at Chicago, a board of directors to recover $1,858,000, dividends alleged to have been illegally paid out of its stock instead of from profits, and $650,000 damages caused by the alleged fraudulent and negligent management of the company, the American Malting Company on Wednesday, asked leave to file an amended answer to an action, in which it is named as defendant, together with Charles M. Warner, one of its former directors, by Archibald A. Hutchinson and Victor K. McElhany, Jr., in behalf of themselves and other stockholders similarly situated, Justice Leventritt reserved his decision."

It is announced that the Corn Products Company has advanced the prices for both Glucose and Starch 5c per 100 lbs. The New York Glucose Company has taken a similar action from its agency in Chicago. The request was made in consideration of a re eduction concerned some time ago on shipments of Glucose from Chicago to New York.

The Indianapolis correspondent of the Northwestern Miller, writing under date of Jan. 18, says: "The growing Wheat in the Ohio Valley is well covered by snow, which will protect it from severe cold changes. Reports from the northern portions of Ohio and Indiana are quite good, and from other sections they are brighter than for some time. Some fields are looking much better than different sections. Shelby, O.: The growing Wheat crop is well protected by a heavy coat of snow. Troy, O.: The new Wheat conditions may be considered very good, for the plant is been covered by snow almost continuously since the latter part of November. Monticello, Ind.: The winter has been favorable for the crop sown, which has had a good coating of snow for many weeks. Shelbyville, Ind.: Growing Wheat has been under a cover of snow two weeks. Its condition previously did not look good."

An expert estimate places the total production of Steel rails at all mills in the United States, for the year 1903 at 2,800,000 tons—more than 700,000 less than the orders originally placed late in 1902 and early in 1903. With the exception of rails exported, the price of $28 per ton was maintained. Export tonnage was light last year, but for 1904 orders have already been booked for 100,000 tons for export. The big roads needing rails are said to be holding off in the belief that the price will have to be cut to conform to other reductions.

CAN NOT CLAIM SWITCHING CHARGES.

The Board of Trade Directors have adopted the following regarding switching charges:

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Directory that in the case of Grain sold f. o. b. to be switched from a Western to an Eastern line, and the car containing such Grain is by request of the buyer placed on the team track of the Western line and unloaded, a claim on the buyer by the seller for the payment of $2 switching charge, which would have accrued had the car been switched to the Eastern line, is not a proper claim.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Ruled quiet, but no change in prices. Minneapolis and Milwaukee prices were both reported ½c lower.

WINTER WHEAT—Real choice Wheat held steady, with receipts very small and demand moderate on milling account, but anything below choice, especially poor Wheat, was dull and weak. No. 2 Red in store quotable from 1c under to 1c over May prices, and ranged at 89½@92½c, and fresh arrivals free on board quotably 92@95c. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals free on board quotably 87@97c for ordinary to very choice. No. 2 Hard at the river quotably 91@95c. No. 3 Hard at the river quotably 72@81c for common to choice. No. 4 Hard sold at 85c free on board and at 85c at the river. No. 3 White sold at 94c.

SPRING WHEAT—Ruled firm for choice Wheat with fresh arrivals quotably same as yesterday, but contract grade in store 1c higher. Poor Wheat was very dull—no one cared to buy this very poor Wheat and holders forced to accept lower prices to make sales. No. 1 Northern in store quotably 88½@89½c and sales of 100,000 bu were reported. Fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 87@96c. No. 3 Spring sold at the river at 85c and local range at 75@87c for common to choice hard variety. No. 4 sold local at 55@67c for poor to 65@75c for fair, and ranged nominally to 75@80c for good and even higher for fancy.

REGULAR WHEAT—The close showed advances of ⅜@1¼c for the day. Support was given May by the "longs" on the soft spots. "Shorts" were the best buyers of July, and the May-July spread was narrowed to about 8⅞@9c. The English visible supply increased 225,000 bu for the week, compared with an increase of 56,000 bu a year ago. Cash sales here last night and to-day were reported at 100,000 bu, but they are known to be much larger. Seaboard reported 15 boat loads taken for export. There was a complete change in the feeling this morning, when compared with the close of last night. Many of those who sold on the break yesterday were on the other side of the market this morning. Room traders led the buying and the principal "long" took on moderate quantities of Wheat. The cash sales of No. 1 Northern late last night to New York millers, and the fact that they have taken all the contract Wheat in that market proved a help to the "bulls." Minneapolis stocks decreased 20,000 bu for one day, while Northwestern stocks increased 340,000 bu for the week. Receipts of Wheat in Northwest for the week were 2,372 cars against 2,531 cars last year. The world's shipments for the week 8,300,000 bu, of which Europe will take 7,000,000 bu. A moderate change is expected in the on passage statement. English farmers' deliveries were 432,000 bu at an average price of 82¼c, compared with 462,000 bu a week ago at 81½c. Cables were all lower, but they refused to follow the sharp losses here yesterday. Liverpool closed ⅛@¼d lower; London ⅛@⅜d lower; Paris ¼@¾c lower; spot at Liverpool unchanged to ½d lower; Berlin ⅞c, Buda Pesth ¼c off. Australia ships 1,096,000 bu, compared with 792,000 bu the week previous. The weather map showed cold weather in the north, with the likelihood of cold weather generally. Kansas has had no precipitation, and has had very little on this recent Southwestern storm. London took a holiday. Newspaper advices were less warlike in tone. Receipts at Duluth 40 cars and at Minneapolis 301 cars, a total of 341, against 327 cars yesterday, 455 cars a week ago, and 400 cars last year. Local receipts included 18 cars Winter, 14 cars Spring and none mixed, a total of 32 cars, against 41 cars last year. Included in above was 1 car of contract grade. There was 10 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for Monday are 45 cars. There were no withdrawals. Receipts at Western points were 639,049 bu, against 531,223 bu last year. At Eastern points 107,583 bu, against 123,000 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 289,236 bu, against 208,729 bu last year, and from Eastern points 456,800 bu, against 307,119 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 15,000 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 880,027 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Good trade and market closed higher.

JANUARY—Entirely nominal and closed at about 87c.

CORN—There were advances of ⅛@½c for the day and market closed rather quiet. Cash sales at seaboard 10 loads and 75,000 bu reported here. There was less disposition on the part of the "bears" to sell Corn this morning, and with improved buying there was an early advance. The largest "shorts" in the market continued to do a little selling while the "longs" were the best buyers. There were very few outside orders received, the trade being mainly of a professional character. Spot Corn at Liverpool was ¼d higher. Futures were ⅛@¼d lower. Colder weather is indicated for the Corn belt—much colder and the sort desirable. Receipts of Corn were 276 cars, with 1 cars contract. Arrivals here were 308,000 bu, shipments, 318,000 bu. Western receipts were 726,000 bu, against 807,000 bu a year ago. No. 2 closed about 46¼c, and No. 2 Yellow at 48c. No. 3 closed at 42@46¼c. No. 3 Yellow sold at 42½c, and closed at 42½@48c. The strength was in sympathy with other Grains. Cash sales were 8,000 bu. Seaboard clearances were 13,000 bu. Arrivals 158 cars with 300 cars estimated for Monday. Withdrawals were 28,700 bu. Car lots to go to store were steady. No. 3 White sold at 39½@40½c. Standard at 40c, the latter in store closed about 39¼@39¾c as to location.

Oats by sample were steady for good and easy for poor. Offerings were fair and sales rather slow except for good. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 at 37@37½c. No. 4 White at 31@39c. RYE—The market was very quiet and feeling tame. Operations in this cereal extremely limited, but little interest shown in the market. The receipts were small—only two cars, and 100 bu comprised the withdrawals from store. No export clearances were reported. No. 2 in store nominally 51½c and fresh arrivals free on board quotably about 60c. No. 3 fresh arrivals nominally 53@55c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet and neglected. January nominally 51½c, and March nominally 57c. May 59c asked and 58½c bid.

BARLEY—Low grades, mixing goods, Screenings and Barley below the malting grade, were easier—about 1c lower; there has been some decline the last few days. Demand has been slack but to-day at easier prices more business was done. This condition had some influence on low grade malting and made that easy. Good to choice malting grades remained steady. There were buyers for all offerings. Nothing in the line of fancy offered. Thirty-nine cars inspected in. Screenings quotable 30@43c for poor to choice; Barley feed or mixing sold at 38@39c, poor musty nominally lower, malting—low grade about 40@43c, very dirty below common, 43@45c fair, 45@49c good, 50@55c, choice 56@58c; fancy, above. To arrive sales, nice goods made at 50c.

SEEDS—There were few changes. There was again a fractional advance in Flax Seed. Timothy strong for better grades and easy for common. Of Clover only small lots of poor were offered. Late sowing Seed nominally firm and Buckwheat was a shade better.

Timothy—Was quotably firm for high grades, but of these the market was bare. Steadiness prevailed for good quality, but common to poor, rough and foul Seeds ruled easy. There were moderate offerings ranging from rather poor to good. Futures not traded in. They were quotably steady and firm, with yesterday's advanced prices quotable as current value. January delivery was called $3 10, February $3 15 and March $3 20. Sales on the cash market were mainly at $2 40@2 70. Country lots quotable at $2 25@2 75 for poor to fancy, fair to good quotable $2 70@3 00; choice $3 10@3 10 and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 40@2 60.

Flax—Another ½c advance was added to late upward tendency of prices, under the same conditions also absence of business and due largely to outside influences. There were only 6 cars or 4,200 bu inspected in, with 7 cars or 7,200 bu out. At Minneapolis 17 cars were received and at Duluth 35 cars. No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest salable at $1 14. No. 1 was $1 08 bid. Rejected nominally $1 04@1 08, outside for choice Northwestern. January was $1 08 bid; May $1 11 bid and $1 12 asked.

Clover—There were no offerings aside from a few small lots of very inferior to poor Seed. These lots had to be sold low. Clover of good quality is coming forward very sparingly. Market steady and order trade reported as fair. Contract Seed, spot nominally at $11 25, and March delivery about $11 35; country lots common to choice at $8 25@11 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds $8 00@9 50, poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00; inferior lower; fair to good quality about $9 50@10 50.

Other Seeds—Nothing in the line of Hungarian and Millet offered. Both were quotably firm and salable. Hungarian, common to choice, dark color, quotable at $1 50@1 85. Common Millet 90c @$1 25 for poor to fancy. German Millet 90c@$1 25, Siberian 75@90c. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 75@90c. Mustard, $6@$1 15. Buckwheat was a shade firmer; good milling sold at $1 20. There was little new demand.

HOG PRODUCTS—The trade in Hog Products was more moderate and the feeling prevalent rather firm. Hogs were in smaller supply than expected and prices higher, which with the strength in Grain tended to impart a stronger tone to the situation. Commission houses and "shorts" were buyers, with packing interests credited with selling. Outside orders were moderate in number and local transactions of similar volume to of late. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 46,000, compared with 57,700 for the same day last year. Foreign markets were a little irregular. Liverpool quoted Lard 3d better, while Hams were 6d lower, and Bacon unchanged to 6d higher. Receipts of Product were a little larger of Lard and Meats—about 37 cars. Shipments were moderate—of Lard and Meats about 105 cars. Demand on shipping account was reported moderate and offerings just fair. Prices firm and without special change.

Mess Pork—Just a moderate trade with fluctuations narrow. Feeling was rather firm but the close was unchanged. Commission houses made moderate purchases and prices advanced 7c early. Later receded 7½c, recovered 2½c and closed as noted. Shipping demand moderate with offerings fair. Cash lots quotable at $13 25@13 35.

JANUARY—No trading, nominal close $13 15.

MAY—Just a fair demand and moderate offerings. Sales were made at $13 30@13 37½. Opened at $13 35, sold to $13 37½, to $13 32½, to $13 35, to $13 30, to $13 32½, and closed steady.

Lard—Was only moderately active, but at the same time firm. "Shorts" accepted moderate quantities and commission houses which sold yesterday were buyers to-day. Liverpool advices were favorable to holders. Hogs and Grain higher and were the "bull" helps. Market closed steady around medium figures. Houses with English connections were on the selling side. Demand on shipping account was reported as moderate and the offerings somewhat limited. Cash lots quotable at $7 15. Loose lots called for moderately and offerings moderate. Prices were firm at about 72½c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in fair request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotably steadier at $6 87½. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $8 12½@8 25 for No. 1 and $7 37½@7 50 for No. 2.

JANUARY—Sold at $7 12½ and $7 15 and closed at $7 15.

MAY—Offerings moderate and demand only fair. Sales were made at $7 32½@7 37½. Opened at $7 37½, sold to $7 35, to $7 37½, to $7 32½, to $7 35, to $7 32½, to $7 35 and closed steady.

JULY—Moderate trading at $7 35@7 40. Opened at $7 40, sold to $7 35, to $7 40 and closed steady.

Short Rib Sides—The market was less active and trade of more moderate volume, but under tone comparatively steady. Market started ½c better, reacted 2½c and closed steady at about yesterday's figures. Packing interests were sellers to a moderate extent, while commission houses and "shorts" absorbed the bulk of the offerings. Demand on shipping account moderate and offerings about same as of late. Cash lots quotable $6 37½@6 62½ according to weight.

JANUARY—Sold at $6 42½ and $6 45, and closed at $6 45 asked.

MAY—Demand and offerings moderate. Sales were made at $6 72½@6 77½. Opened at $6 77½, sold to $6 75, to $6 77½, to $6 72½, to $6 75, to $6 72½ @6 75 and closed steady.

JULY—Sold at $6 82½@6 85 and $6 87½. Opened at $6 87½, sold to $6 82½@6 85 and closed steady.

Other Meats—A smaller trade was reported in Meats. Domestic demand fair, but export demand was quiet. Offerings of all kinds were fair, but holders continue firm in their views. Green Meats were in fair request, with moderate offerings, and prices ruled firm. Pickled Meats in limited demand, with only small offerings, and prices well maintained. Dry Salted Meats in moderate demand and offerings not very large. Prices ruled rather firm. Smoked Meats in moderate demand, chiefly in a jobbing way, and prices ruled steady. WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW.

MONEY AND STOCKS.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY EVENING, Jan 22, 1904.

Easiness in the Eastern money markets has been reflected in the West and there is a continued lowering of rates. Demand from all classes of borrowers is not as good as was expected, and there is not the call for money anywhere that existed a few months ago. The higher prices for Grain are not increasing the movement and there is no accumulation at any of the leading points. Loans are being made in Chicago at 5 to 5½ per cent on call, with very little at 6 per cent, even on time. Money is coming from the interior more freely and there is a piling up of funds. At the same time the recent statements of the State banks show that they had lower reserves than usual. In the East there was more disposition to make loans and money was put out on the Stock Exchange at 1¾ to 2½ per cent on sharp call. Time money was easier with a moderate demand there at 3½ to 4½ per cent.

New York exchange was stronger with rates 20c to 30c premium per $1,000 and closed at 20c premium.

Foreign exchange was stronger and rates higher. Offerings of bills are not increasing. Shippers' 6-day documentary sterling bills on London ranged at 482 to 482¾ and closed at 482½@482¾.

With the mercantile trade there was a more hopeful feeling as to the future. Business in many lines that have been quiet of late begins to show signs of improving, and there was more disposition on the part of consumers in most lines to take supplies or see where they can be secured and on what terms. This was especially noticeable in the Iron and Steel trade. In the South where the pig Iron trade has been the most depressed, there was a much better feeling. The surplus has been worked off, production has been cut down to a low point and there is more inclination to buy, both for present and future requirements. Furnace men on the other hand having made large sales are not offering Iron so freely, and the low prices of a few weeks ago are a thing of the past, for the present at least. In finished products there is more doing both in the way of new business and in specification on previously placed orders. The mills at South Chicago which have been closed for repairs and to readjust the wage scale have reopened part of the works and the men have accepted a reduction of 10 to 48 per cent in wages, the highest paid men the latter. With jobbers of shelf and heavy hardware there was a more active business in small lots. Lumber is moving a little more freely, but there is no alteration in prices. Coal is having a good demand and offerings on track here are large, but prices are well held. Groceries were taken fairly and staples showed a steadiness of values. Collections are getting into better shape, although there is still some slowness in a few sections.

Stocks in New York are working to a higher level and despite the liberal selling for profits on the advances, the close was at a fair gain over the previous week. The Eastern situation cut less figure speculators being more disposed to ignore it. At the same time, however, the condition of the London market was an important factor, and when London showed weakness and sent selling orders there was a sympathetic movement in Wall Street. Money was easy down to 1¾c, which was a feature that assisted in speculative buying. The improvement in the Iron trade is the basis for a belief that there are better things in store for the holders of stocks. The "short" interest made numerous demonstrations against the price with irregular effect. Western railway shares were for the most part strong with moderate trading. The low-priced shares were active at times and the feature was a heavy business in Erie on London account; also the large trading in realty, which scored a big advance. Copper and Sugar were stronger with more interest given them. Bonds were more actively traded in and prices held well. Total sales on the New York Stock Exchange for the week were 3,649,000 shares, compared with 2,039,000 the previous week and 3,500,400 last year.

The principal Stocks traded in on the New York Stock Exchange and the number of shares disposed of during the week was as follows:

In the New York Cotton market there was a large business and a higher range of prices. Spot houses did a good deal of buying and the leading "bull" interests operating at New York and New Orleans were also aggresive buyers at times. With more pacific news from the far East, with Liverpool prices higher and receipts at ports running less than last year, consumption has been curtailed, but this does not appear to affect the "bull" interests for the present, as prices were advanced to the highest of the season. Heavy realizing of profits was noticeable on the advances and closing sales were at gains of 90@93 points for the week.

In the Local Security market one of the features of the week was the weakness in North Chicago Railway and its decline to 70, the lowest on record. The selling was based on a fear that dividends may stop entirely as the expenses of the Union Traction Company are eating up the earnings. West Chicago is down to 47. The industrials were irregular, but closed stronger, with a fair business in Can. Biscuit, Boxboard and Swift shares. The latter averaging lower while Biscuit held comparatively strong. The bond market was strong with good trading.

COMMERCIAL.

The improvement noted last week in business on the Chicago Board of Trade has kept up, the trade being of good volume. Fluctuations in the various cereals, as well as in Hog Products, were frequent and continues to attract the small as well as the larger outside speculator. Local traders, too, operated on an extensive scale and the markets at times were most sensitive and nervous. The war scare was not so much of a factor in shaping the course of values this week. Weather conditions the movement, exports and prospective supplies or more legitimate influences were the governing features. The attitude of the "long" interest in Wheat as well as in Corn and Oats, too, had considerable effect on values. The advance in other commodities, such as Cotton and Coffee, no doubt encouraged operators with "bull" views and they became more aggressive in their ideas. Climatic conditions from now on will be watched closely, particularly in the Winter Wheat growing districts. The crop outlook abroad will likewise have an important bearing on the situation, as also the foreign demand. Indications are that the present activity will continue, and the advent of the spring months is likely to witness still broader markets and wider fluctuations.

No material improvement was reported in the foreign crop outlook the past week. Further rains in the United Kingdom have prevented seeding and it is now quite certain the area sown will be unusually small. Abnormally mild weather has prevailed of late in France, Germany, Italy and Hungary accompanied by rains, and the crops are in a condition to be injured should any sudden freeze take place. Showers and mild weather were also reported in Roumania and complaints were more numerous that the crop outlook is poor owing to lack of moisture at time of seeding. Heavy snowfalls have occurred in Russia. Navigation at Odessa and Nicolaieff, however, is still open. Reports from India stated the crops have had ample rain and that prospects are splendid. The weather in Argentina was, on the whole, more favorable. Threshing has been delayed by rains, which, however, were of great benefit to Corn.

Crop conditions in the United States were improved the past week, beneficial rains occurring in sections where much needed. Complaints the first of the week were quite numerous, and outlook in certain sections was far from satisfactory. The official weekly snow map, published Tuesday, showed no snow protection south of the northern border of Nebraska, and no covering in Missouri, Kansas or southward. There was a light covering over the northeastern part of Iowa, the northern part of Illinois and over the Ohio Valley. The outlook in the South, Southwest and West was greatly improved the last of the week. Light but general rains occurred in Kansas, but in Oklahoma, Texas and through the South there was heavy precipitation. There were heavy rains all over Iowa, Illinois, Missouri and the Ohio Valley. Temperatures were on the whole somewhat higher. Conditions over the eastern and more northerly sections are satisfactory. While the crops generally have had a poor appearance, the supposition is that the roots are sound and will be benefited by the rains. Corn continues to grade poorly, there being much soft, wet Corn marketed.

The movement of Grain from the farms and interior elevators was fair the past week. Wheat was marketed with moderate freedom in the Northwest, the arrivals at the principal terminal points comparing favorably with those of last year at this time. Through the West the movement of Corn was fair and moderate o Oats and Wheat. Through the Southwest Wheat continues to come forward freely and is said to be partially due to the railroads cleaning up side tracks. The outward movement at these terminal points at the same time was large and there is little or no accumulation. In the Central West the movement of Grain, outside of Corn, was very moderate. Through the South, as well as on the Pacific Coast, the marketing of Grain was limited. The movement toward the seaboard was fair, considerable Corn going forward all rail. Exports were moderate of Flour and Wheat and fair of Corn. Bookings for forward shipment at Atlantic and Gulf ports were moderate considering the late uncertainty over the war situation in the far East. According to the domestic visible supply of Grain as compiled by the Secretary of the Chicago Board of Trade there was an increase in the supply of Wheat, Corn and Rye and a decrease in Oats and Barley.

A good speculative business was transacted in the leading markets on 'Change the past week and the feeling developed was nervous, with prices quite irregular. Higher prices were scored in all the cereal markets. Wheat, Corn and Oats getting on new ground. "Shorts" covered freely and stop orders were quite a feature. Wheat was congested, the attitude of the "bull" party in May creating a good deal of uneasiness, as also did the more numerous claims of damage and poor outlook for the new crop in the Southwest. Corn, too, was affected by the soft weather, moderate movement and poor grading. Oats sympathized with other Grains, the "long" interest adding to its line, and the situation was decidedly strong. Hog Products were unsettled, influenced at the start by the liberal run of Hogs and lower prices for the same and later on by the advance in Wheat and coarse Grains. Buying for outside account was again a feature, with packing interests supplying the bulk of the demand. Foreign advices indicated an easier feeling in that quarter with the exception of Lard. Prices on the whole ruled fairly firm. Packing of the West for the season was reported at 5,910,000 Hogs, against 6,300,000 in 1902-3, an increase of 10,000 Hogs.

A fair business in cash Grain was reported this week. Offerings were only moderate and the quality rather inferior. Choice Wheat was in fair request from millers and elevator interests, while poor and inferior grades were more difficult sale. Several round lots changed hands at material advances in prices. Corn sold well, that is choice dry samples. Shippers reported a fair demand from the East, but the steady advance in the price of futures tended to restrict sales. Oats, too, were in good request and the current receipts sold quite readily. Seeds were steady to firm, Flax showing a considerable advance. Hay was inclined to dullness, more particularly Prairie, but no special change was noted in prices. Hog Products were fair sale and the offerings moderate. Demand chiefly on domestic account. Prices were firm and more in sellers' favor. Exports for the week, compared with the corresponding period in 1903, show a decrease of 540 brls Pork, an increase of 6,149,000 lbs Lard, and a decrease of 1,050 boxes of Meats. Cattle were in large supply and prices lower. Sheep, too, were marketed freely and values rather unsettled.

FREIGHTS—Cold weather East was unfavorable for the active movement of cars, the shipment of Flour and Grain was delayed. Some of the roads are short of cars and motive power, but in a few instances they are in better shape than a week ago. The tariff is as follows:

Rail rates from Buffalo to the seaboard are 4½c per bu on Wheat, 4¼c on Corn, and 3½c on Oats. To New England they are 5½c on Corn and 3¼c on Oats.

Ocean rates on Grain are steady with a moderate demand. Rates on Grain are ¾@1d per bu from New York and ¾d from Boston. Through rate on Wheat from Chicago to Liverpool is 11¾c per bu and Corn 11¼c. Flour 24.91c per 100 lbs and Provisions 44.06c per 100 lbs.

FLOUR—Owing to the recent advances that have been established in the Wheat markets of the country the price of Flour has been marked up from 5c to 10c at Chicago. As is usual on such occasions, the foreigner is not following the advance, his bids during the past day or so being as much as 1s per 280-lb sack out of line. Here and there, however, moderate sized lots are selling to go abroad, as the old world must have the American Flour for blending purposes. Flour made from the lower Wheats of Argentina, Russia and in fact all other countries will not be accepted by the average Continental or United Kingdom baker before it has been touched up with the white product manufactured in the United States. It was reported a day or so ago by New York that 200,000 brls of Flour had been sold there to go abroad, and while there has been reports of a large export trade in the Northwest the leading authorities up there do not bear out. The domestic demand for Flour is still good, and with small stocks in all positions there is not likely to be any decline in values. The cash Wheat situation in all sections of the country is quite strong, with Ohio and Indiana millers good buyers east of the Missouri River, and Minneapolis millers still taking on the Kansas Wheat. MILLSTUFFS—The market during the week has ruled firm. The receipts were small, all kinds, in fact, were scarce, and the demand good. Bran in bulk quotably about $17 00 and sold in 100-lb sacks, sacks included, at $18 00.

WINTER WHEAT—The market has shown a decidedly firm feeling the past week, and prices were advanced 4@4¼c for Red Winter Wheat or the soft variety and about 8c for Hard Winter Wheat. The fresh arrivals acted somewhat independent of the speculative market, and when the most excitement existed, the car lots did not follow the advance, to the same extent as the speculative market. There has been a good demand—all good to choice milling Wheat sold readily. Very little really desirable Wheat has been received and fresh lots which met the milling requirements were taken up readily. The reason for this lay partially in the fact that the receipts have been very small and less than actual requirements; larger receipts could easily have been disposed of. Soft Red Winter Wheat was what was wanted and choice Hard Winter Wheat also had good sale for certain purposes, but the poor Wheat remained dull. Of course there was sale for the poor lots, but they were not sought after and were relatively harder to sell and that meant less satisfactory prices. No shipping business of consequence was transacted but several round lots sold out of store, evidently for speculative purposes. The receipts for the week aggregated 130 cars, against 120 cars the previous week. There were withdrawn from public elevators 32,500 bu and from private warehouses only 51 cars. No. 3 Red in store quotable at January to May prices and ranged at 83¼@92¼c depending some on quality. Fresh arrivals free on board sold at 95@97c, and were quotable at 91@98c. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals were quotable at 85@97c. No. 4 Red sold at 8c@91c—outside for a good car of Wheat mixed with Oats. No. 2 Hard fresh arrivals free on board quotable at 83@84c, and at the river at 78@84c. No. 3 Hard in store sold at 81c, and at the river at 72@83c. No. 4 Hard at the river sold at 62@76c, and No. 3 White sold at 94c.

SPRING WHEAT—As far as the cash business was concerned there has been but little doing in this market, which ruled quiet all the week, but a firm feeling existed and prices were advanced 4@4¼c for No. 1 Northern or contract Wheat in store, while the fresh arrivals were only 1@2c higher. The car lots of fresh arrivals which had been commanding a large premium heretofore, did not follow advance in futures. There has been no shipping demand for round lots, but a few changed hands in a speculative way. A fair milling demand existed for good to choice milling Wheat, and the fresh arrivals of such were taken up readily, but the receipts have been very small and little business could be done. There was ready sale for all the desirable milling Wheat. Of the poor Wheat there have been a number of cars received, and while ordinary Wheat was salable there has been no special call for it, and low prices had to be accepted—it did not improve to the same extent that the better samples did. The receipts for the week aggregated 123 cars, against 80 cars the previous week. There were withdrawn from public elevators 8,500 bu, and only 35 cars were taken from private warehouses. No. 1 Northern in store ranged at 83¼@88¼c and fresh arrivals free on board at 88@89c. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals ranged at 81@87c, but ruled entirely nominal. No. 3 Spring ranged at 77@87c for fair or ordinary to choice hard variety, with sales at the river at 80@83c. No 4 Spring ranged free on board sold at 58@70c for poor to ordinary, at 73@78c for good and at 80@82c for choice hard variety, up to 85c for very fancy, with sales of common at the river at 61@63½c.

REGULAR WHEAT—This market ruled higher during the week. The upward movements were at times abnormally sharp, while the reactions in the opposite direction were of an undivided character. The "bulls" were in complete control. Gains amounted to 2¾@2⅞c for May, and would doubtless have been more had not scattered "longs" entered the market on the selling side and partially relieved the awful congestion in the May future. July was weaker, losing about 1c, September ⅝c. The chief "long" sold some Wheat on the bulges, but overbalanced his sales by purchases on all the soft spots. There is an enormous shortage in the May future at Chicago and it is said to be scattered. The "long" holdings are concentrated, making the position of the "longs" or "bulls" doubly strong. The contract Wheat at Chicago is but a mere drop in the bucket when compared with the amount needed for delivery to the "longs" on contracts during the month of May. The "bulls" have had the best of the argument for some little time, while the "bears" have been reluctantly following the almost daily gains in prices. The war scare was one of the potent "bull" factors during the early part of the present "bull" campaign in May Wheat, but that has been put aside completely and sentiment has carried the price onward and upward. The "bulls" claim that the market has advanced on its merits, while the "bears" predict that a sharp reaction and decline is likely to start in at any moment. The "bears" point to the fact that the markets of the old world has refused to follow Chicago in its upward movement of values. They also point to the increased offerings by Argentina and to the lack of cash demand on foreign account. The foreign demand for Flour insofar as Minneapolis is concerned has been dull during the week, save for Oriental and South African account, yet reports are sent out by Grain brokers at both New York and Minneapolis as well as at St. Louis, telling of the large amounts of Flour that have been sold for shipment to England and Continental Europe. London and Glasgow stocks of Flour are reported as very heavy, and nearly all grades can be had cheaper on spot than for shipment. Receipts of Flour at those points have been heavy. At Liverpool and Amsterdam Flour is dull, with buyers taking hold only in a consumptive way. The drouth has been broken in the Southwest, removing one of the strongest "bull" helps of a week ago. But the "bulls" claim that a great deal of damage was done to the Winter Wheat plant before the breaking up of the drouth, and that this will be fully demonstrated as soon as we have a few weeks of sunny weather in the spring. The milling demand for Wheat in all parts of the country is without a doubt attracting a great deal of attention, and at the same time restricting the sales of futures in the Chicago market. Elevator men in the Northwest report deliveries of Wheat from farmers as rather light. They also say there is a minority sentiment to the effect that the farmers are holding a considerable amount of Wheat in anticipation of higher prices, but no evidence is at hand to support the proposition. One of the Grain houses in Minneapolis goes so far as to say that farmers' holdings of Wheat are moderate, amounting, perhaps, to about 16,000,000 bu that is for sale to terminal markets. This is said to be outside of country stocks. Receipts of southwestern Wheat at Minneapolis continues of large proportions. The millers up there are credited with owning a large part of the terminal Wheat, or controlling it through elevator companies that are allied with them. A local commission man travelling through Kansas reports that only 25 per cent of the Kansas crop is still in the hands of farmers, and says that the usual spring movement of Wheat will be missing, as the Wheat will not be there for shipment. It is said that a local Grain house has shipped 100 cars Kansas Wheat to the Pacific Coast and that an additional amount is to be sent forward. July Wheat sold at a discount of about 9c under May. Crop news from abroad are of both kinds. Rains in the United Kingdom are certain to reduce the acreage in that country. In France, Germany, Italy and Hungary the plant is reported as bare and open to damage in case of sharp freezing weather. In Roumania the crop was seeded during a drouth and the plant has made poor progress. Snowfalls in Russia have benefited the crops. Prospects in India are flattering, owing to recent heavy rains. Manitoba advices say there will be no pressure of Manitoba Wheat on the market in the spring. Manitoba millers are reported as having a fine business, with considerable Flour sold to go to the Orient. Fall plowing in Manitoba indicates an increased acreage in that country. Consols higher. Routine statistics were construed by the trade as "bullish." World's shipments for the week were small at 5,341,000 bu, compared with 8,232 000 bu the previous week and 6,006,000 bu a year ago. The fact that Russia shipped only 472,000 bu and the Danube only 64,000 bu attracted considerable attention and was a "bull" help in itself. Australian shipments were 792,000 bu. The American shipments were the largest on the list at 3,088,000 bu. There was an increase in the visible supply of only 176,000 bu, making the total 40,375,000 bu, compared with 40,199,000 bu the previous week and 40,727,000 bu a year ago. There was a decrease in the amount on ocean passage of 2,336 000 bu, making the total 21,581 000 bu. Local stocks in public houses increased 96,000 bu for the week and are now 2,910,000 bu, compared with 2,814,000 bu the week before and 7,581,000 bu corresponding week a year ago. According to the compilations of Bradstreet's the world's available supplies of Breadstuffs decreased 3,910,000 bu for the week compared with a decrease of 2,517,000 bu a year ago. Continental Wheat stocks January 1 were 44,528,000 bu, compared with 44,840,000 bu December 1 and 21,630,000 bu Jan. 1, 1903. Contract stocks of Wheat in Chicago public houses are now 1,819,000 bu, showing a decrease of 15,017 bu for the week. Total a week ago 1,834,019 bu and a year ago 3,931,147 bu. The official weekly snow map showed no snow protection south of the northern border of Nebraska. There is no covering in Missouri, Kansas or southward. There is a light covering over the northeastern part of Iowa, over the northern part of Illinois and over Ohio Valley. A local traveler wired from the Southwest that in Oklahoma, Indian Territory and Texas the Winter Wheat plant is in very bad shape, owing to drouth, and that it is being plowed up and will be replaced with Cotton. Northwestern Miller and Price Current in their weekly resumes reported the outlook for Winter Wheat as unchanged, with the marketing of Wheat decreasing slightly, but above the normal. Argentine shipments for the week were 1,672,000 bu, as compared with 392,000 bu the previous week and 456,000 bu a year ago. Since January 1 the shipments were 2,221,000 bu, compared with 728,000 bu for the corresponding period a year ago. Clearances from both coasts for the week were 3 538,000 bu, as compared with 2,771,000 the week before and 3,518,000 bu for the corresponding week a year ago.

CORN—There were advances of ¼@⅜c for the week. While the gains were small when compared with Wheat, the buying was of exceptionally good character. The selling was scattered and not as free as the buying. The trade was less active than that in Wheat and the fluctuations were of smaller breadth. The strength in Corn came partially from Wheat and partially from Oats. The "bull" helps were the poor condition of part of the Corn coming forward and of the poor demand for it even at lower prices. The export inquiry, while better, stipulated old Corn. The "bull" interests in Corn is made up of several rich men of Chicago and a small coterie of rich people in Wall street. Their holdings are large and they are increasing their lines on the soft spots and taking profits on all the advances. The May future is the favorite "bull" month, the longs claiming that there will be comparatively little Corn that will grade contract between now and May 31. The July Corn is without as good backing as the May, the "bulls" being shy of the "long" side of that month in a big way. Every commission house in the trade was on one side or the other, and every broker had orders to execute on both sides of the market. "Shorts" displayed more or less uneasiness. Contract Corn in public houses showed a decrease of 119,741 bu for the week, total now being 2,010,344 bu, compared with 2,130,085 bu the week before and 2,077,346 bu for the corresponding period a year ago. The world's available supply, as compiled by Bradstreet's, showed a decrease of 14,000 bu for the week, compared with a decrease of 31,000 bu for the corresponding period a year ago. The weekly statistics were "bullish." Visible supply increased only 50,000 bu, making the total 6,461,000 bu, compared with 7,050,000 bu a year ago. Chicago stocks decreased 112,000 bu, and are 2,282,000 bu. There was a decrease of 1,105,000 bu in the amount on passage, leaving the total 9,077,000 bu. World's shipments 2,306,000 bu, compared with 2,400,000 bu week before, and 2,555,000 bu a year ago. The Price Current spoke of the many complaints of soft Corn and of the moderate movement. Part of the weather during the week was not only against the grading of Corn, but was also against its movement. There is considerable Corn being switched from private to public houses, showing that the dryers are at work. There is now in Chicago public houses 2,010,344 bu of contract Corn compared with 2,130,085 bu the week before and 2,077,346 bu for the corresponding period a year ago. The stocks showed a decrease of 119,741 bu for last week. Argentine shipments for the week were 1,234,000 bu, against 1,242,000 bu the week before and 48,000 bu for the corresponding period a year ago. Clearances from the seaboard for the week were 1,150,000 bu, against 978,000 bu the week before and 2,376,000 bu a year ago.

OATS—The market for Oats was excited, with heavy trading and a higher range. The advance in other Grains combined with continued absorption of offerings by the leading "bull" interest was responsible for the strength. All the offerings by "longs" who were after profits on large-sized lines were taken by the "shorts" and by the "bull" interest, and fluctuations were frequent within a liberal range. The individual holdings of the "bull" interest is about 12,000,000 bu bought for May, while the "short" interest is scattered. There is also a large Wall Street interest that is heavily "long" and the selling has been scattered among hedgers and speculators. May sold at 41¼@42¾c closed at 41⅞c, a net gain of ¼c. Country movement is small and receipts here are no larger than the trade ordinarily can take care of. In the cash branch of the trade there was a fair run of shipping orders and prices in the sample market advanced 1c, but reacted 1½c, and closed easy. The country offerings were again moderate; the receipts for the week aggregated 907 cars, against 728 cars the previous week, and 1,618 cars last year. Local stocks in public houses decreased 72,972 bu for the week and were 1,148 173 bu against 678,421 bu last year. Total stocks in all positions were 3 610,000 bu, a decrease of 28,000 bu. Contract stocks are 1,014,000 bu, a decrease of 81,000 bu. The visible supply decreased 68,000 bu, and was 8,632,000 bu, compared with 4 106,000 bu last year. Seaboard clearances are 67,175 bu, against 43,000 bu the previous week and 72,000 bu last year.

RYE—A firm feeling existed during the week, and in sympathy with the leading Grains prices were advanced 2c. The market has shown a rather strong undertone for some time. The demand has been moderate and almost wholly speculative, the only cash business done outside of the speculative interests was in the few car lots received from day to day. No shipping business whatever was transacted and the volume of trading in both cash and futures has been of a moderate character. There has been no special desire to sell and the offerings have been limited. The best car lots were taken by millers, distillers and for manufacturing purposes and brought a good premium, while the poor samples were slow sale, no one caring to purchase these excepting at low prices. The receipts for the week aggregated 22 cars, compared with 18 cars the previous week. There were 100 bu withdrawn from public elevators and 9 cars from private warehouses. Export clearances from the seaboard 8,565 bu. The visible supply increased 35,000 bu and was reported at 1,275,000 bu against 1,239,000 bu the previous week and 1,071 000 bu a year ago. The local stock in store was 241,000 bu and a year ago was 303,000 bu. No. 2 in store was nominal and quotably at 54½@56c, and fresh arrivals free on board sold at 60@61c, and at the river at 57c. No. 3 fresh arrivals were quotably 54@56c and sold at the river at 55c. No. 4 sold at 52c and No Grade at 24@35c. For future deliveries the market was firmer. January ranged at 54½@56c, with a sale at 56c. March nominally 56@58c. May sold at 58c to 60c, and closed at 59c asked.

BARLEY—There was not so much done in spot cars as a week ago, but there was a liberal quantity sold to arrive. Early in the week there was a firm market. Later the sharp edge was off a little. Having purchased a good deal to arrive maltsters were less anxious. Mixers from the stored lots bought last week were fairly well supplied. The demand became of a moderate character. For a couple of weeks prices had been going up, and the advance, it was thought, would cause freer shipping from the country. Receipts were increased considerably over previous weeks, but there was hardly a corresponding gain in the offerings. A good deal of Barley was tendered on to-arrive sales. While the feeling and sentiment did change a little values did not present much alteration. There was quoted during the week for Screenings a range of 30@42c for poor to choice. The outside was an extreme to be reached only for possibly an extra car. Barley feed or mixing, depending on quality, was salable at 40@42c with finally 40c about all that buyers would pay; poor, musty lower, malting low grade, about 42@44c; very dirty below; common 44@46c; fair, 47@50c; good, 50@55c; choice, 56@58c; fancy, 60@61c. There were inspected in during the week 243 cars, compared with 151 cars the previous week and 185 cars a year ago. No output from local houses reported. Supply here increased 31,185 bu, being in the last report 319,375 bu, against 1,123 bu the same time last year. Visible supply decreased 22,000 bu, with 5,142,000 bu reported, against 2,362,000 bu a year ago. Exports from New York were 1,333 bu, a week ago they were 14,841 bu and two weeks ago 25,228 bu.

SEEDS—A fair degree of interest was manifested. High grades of Timothy were favored with a good demand, firmness, but the offerings were exceedingly small. Under grades, poor to fair, comprised the supply, were salable, but not fair, comprised the supply, were salable, but not firm like the others. The Flax market witnessed daily advancing prices, and received its buoyancy from the firm reports from the Northwest. In former there was a little weaker tone, mainly manifest by a small decline in prices. Dark, color, fine Hungarian sold higher, and such were equal to only shadows the past week. Buckwheat sustained about 10c decline. On account of season getting a little late the demand waned somewhat, and at the same time more was offered.

Timothy—The market early in the week was quiet and unchanged for both cash and future deliveries; later, however, cash offerings became smaller and sales were 5@10c higher and future sales showed bids which were 5@25c above former prices. High grade Seed was scarce and firm throughout the entire week, while there were fair offerings of Low Grades, which were at times rather slow sale. The volume of business transacted during the week was small, yet offerings of cash Seed cleaned up fairly well. Receipts and shipments were also shown in the increase of arrivals. Shipments, however, were smaller, also much less than a year ago. January delivery ranged at $3 05@3 10; February at $3 05@3 15, and March at $3 05@3 20. Country lots ranged during the week as follows: For poor to fancy $2 00@3 35; fair to good $2 50@2 85, to $2 70@3 00; choice $3 85@3 90, to $4 00@4 10, mixed, dark and bright lots $2 50@3 90. Sales ings lower The market closed at outside prices. Movement was as follows:

Two weeks ago	398,332

Flax—There has been a much stronger market. Daily and steadily prices advanced during the week. Cash and January delivery prices witnessed 8@9c improvement and May advanced 7c. In the manner of trading, the volume of business there were no new features. Little was done. As a rule sellers were scarce. There was no special or large demand. The market received its buoyancy mainly from the sharp upturn of prices in the Northwest. Local receipts were 90 cars and very few of these came on sale; the previous week 85 cars were received, and two weeks ago 108 cars. There were taken out 16,491 bu; the week before 23,- 85 bu; two weeks ago 23,708 bu. There was an moder te gain in stocks in the last report. Duluth showed 17 169 bu more, Minneapolis 82,434 bu increase and Chicago no change. Local stock was 60,979 bu, against 3,211 bu a year ago. Duluth reported 5,739,882 bu and Minneapolis 1,695,337 bu. Prices covered a range as follows: No. 1 advanced from 68½c to 81 00@81 07½. No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest rose from $1 05 to 71 13@. Rejected was quoted early at 9 @98½c up to $1 07@1 07 later, outside quotations always for choice Northwestern. January improved from 90c to $1 00@1 01. May sold early at $1 03¾, went up steadily and closed at $1 10@.

Oiseed—At the opening there was a very quiet but firm market. Reports were fairly encouraging, but later they became more liberal and there was a decline in prices of about 10c all around. Receipts compared with those of last year were smaller and shipments were much larger. The week's demand was fair during the week, but at no time could it be called urgent. Values for cash Seed ranged as following during the week: Early there was a quotation range of $1 30@1 31, which later declined to $1 25, and country lots, after the above changes had been made, closed as follows: Common to choice, $1 20@1 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other Seed, $8 00@9 00; screened or cleaned out of Timothy very foul, down to $3 00 clear, fair to good quotable about $9 50@10 50.

Two weeks ago	380,000

Other Seeds—Very little was done in this line. Offerings during the week were exceedingly small. Hungarian and Millets were quotably good sale and firm, but with consignments on the open market absent, no business was possible. The railroads continue to refuse to handle Canaries, as nothing seems to reach the open market. Values were unchanged and the daily range appears in the table elsewhere given. The movement was as follows:

Same time last year	478,200
Shipments the past week, lbs	776,835

Buckwheat—Few lots came on sale. The offerings at the same time were smaller than a week ago. Some demand existed, still it was of a tame order. The week remained easy, and there was finally about 10c decline. Good Milling Wheat was quotable at $1 02½@1 25 per 100 lbs early to $1 10 @1 25 at the close.

Hay—Receipts for the week were 4,586 tons, against 3,793 tons for the previous week. Shipments for the week were 202 tons, against 167 tons for the previous week. The market for Timothy Hay ruled steady during the early part of the week. A good local demand existed and the offerings were only fair. Later, an easier feeling developed, and while there was no decline in prices declined about 50c per ton. The offerings were no larger, but the demand was not so good. Prairie Hay was quiet and rather dull throughout the week. Inquiry existed and receivers experienced some difficulty in disposing of consignments. Arrivals were moderate and prices showed no particular change. Quotations at the close ranged as follows: Choice Timothy, $9 00@9 50; No. 1 Timothy, $1 00@11 50; No. 2 Timothy, $8 00@9 50; No. 3 Timothy, $8 00@8 50; Choice Prairie $8 00@8 50; No. 1 Prairie, $9 00@10 00; No. 2 Prairie, $8 00@8 50; No. 3 Prairie, $7 00@8 00. Inside prices on Prairie Hay for cities and outside for Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa Hay. Salers quoted $7 50@9 00 for poor to choice Timothy, $7 00 for Threshed Timothy, $5 00@7 00 for State, and $7 50@11 00 for Iowa, Nebraska and Dakota Prairie Hay. Rye Straw sold at $8 00@9 50 and Oat Straw at $7 00@7 50.

Cooperage—There was only a limited trade in the market for Cooperage the past week and the volume of business rather easy. Offerings of all kinds were fair, while the demand was rather slow. Local packers were not disposed to purchase on any extensive scale and outside orders are also rather small quantities. Flour Barrels were in moderate request and quotably easy at $1 05@ 1 07½ for both ash and oak. Lard Tierces were in fair request demand, and sales were moderate at $1 47½@1 50. Iron bound Lard Tierces were in moderate request and quotable at $1 37½@1 40 for six hoop and $1 42½@1 45 for eight hoop.

Hogs—The receipts of Hogs were rather free the first of the week, but more moderate later. The quality continues very fair, but at the same time there was some complaint owing to light weights. The market was rather quiet and inactive on packing account and the shipping demand was reported moderate. Orders from Eastern markets were not very numerous. Early in the week the tone was easy owing to the rather liberal offerings and prices declined 5@10c on the previous week's range. Later, supply became small and a firmer feeling developed and prices advanced 10@ 20c. Toward the close the tone was quite strong and prices held up well. Sales during the week were made at $4 35@5 00 for medium, $4 85@4 90 for rough packing, $4 40@5 05 for mixed, and $4 75@ 5 20 for heavy packing and shipping lots, with the bulk of the trading within the range of $4 60@5 00 for fair to good packing and shipping grades.

Sheep—Hogs remained in the pens unsold. Pigs were in fair supply and rather good demand, and sold at $4 00@4 60, according to size and quality. Receipts of Hogs at the other local Western packing points were rather large and quality fairly good.

PACKING—Rather an active week prevailed in packing circles the past week and the various descriptions of Product were made with considerable freedom. Hogs were in fair supply and packers purchased liberal numbers. Mess Pork was manufactured in fair quantities and other cuts of Pork moderately. Lard was produced in moderate quantities and average yield was only fair owing to the light weight of Hogs. A small proportion was placed in tierces. Smoked Meats Hams were manufactured with considerable freedom and only a small proportion delivered from the block. Smoked Hams were also cut in fair quantities and found a ready market by consumers. Foreign cuts of Hams continue neglected. Shoulders were made in about usual quantities and a fair proportion sold the block. Picnic Hams made with considerable freedom. Bacon Sides and Extra Long Clear Sides made in very small quantities. Short Clear Sides made moderately. Extra Short Clear Sides cut in fair quantities. Backs and Bellies made moderately. Loins cut rather freely to meet current wants. Foreign fancy and special cuts of Meats made in very limited quantities.

PROVISIONS—Another rather active week was witnessed in the market for Hog Products and the volume of business was very fair. The feeling manifested was again somewhat unsettled and fluctuations quite frequent. Outside orders were quite numerous and favored both sides of the market, and local operators and packers traded with considerable freedom. The bulk of the trading was in contracts for May, though July is gradually attracting more attention. The receipts of Hogs were very fair in the aggregate, and prices ruled irregular, and this feature had some influence on the market for Products at times. The course of the market and prices were influenced to some extent by the war rumors and the changes in the Grain markets. Returns of the crop of the West for the week exhibited an increase of 25,- 100 Hogs compared with the returns of the corresponding week in 1903, and this feature had a weakening effect on the market temporarily. Foreign markets were inclined to quietness. Meats were rather better sale, with prices generally steadier. Lard sold was quiet. Domestic markets were only fairly active, though fair amounts of Products are being distributed through the larger markets. The receipts of Products from the interior were only fair, as packers continue delivering freely on maturing contracts. Shipments were rather free, a fair proportion of which were forwarded to foreign markets. Stocks of all kinds moderate, but the general opinion may be early in the week there was fair activity in all the speculative markets. "Longs," both local and outside, were inclined to realize and packers sold with considerable freedom. Prices receded quickly all around. At the decline the demand improved and a firmer tone prevailed. With fair miscellaneous buying and moderate offerings prices advanced for all descriptions, Lard leading. The action of coarse Grains had some influence with outside operators. The demand on shipping account was fairly active, and mainly for the use of the domestic trade. Orders from the Southern markets were moderate most of the week. Exporters were not inclined to purchase, except in a small way. Offerings were only fairly large and holders were rather firm in their views. Supplies of all kinds are liberal. Sales were fair for periods, as a rule, were without material change.

BETTER BUYING OF IRON AND STEEL.

[From the Iron and Machinery World.]

Larger buying of Iron and Steel continues. Trade is in fact so much better that it surprises some of the sellers. And the query which now confronts and interests them is whether the present rather voluminous buying constitutes more the delayed orders, or whether there has been a radical improvement in the consumption. It may take some weeks to determine.

There is one unfortunate indication. The railroad companies are not buying material of any kind with the freedom that is needed by the metal trades to make the industry entirely active. The carriers have not been wholly absent from the market. They have placed a few orders for rails; they have bought a few thousand cars; they have provided for a limited amount of bridge work. But the scale does not approach up into that tonnage that makes heavy calls upon the producing cans itty of the mills.

It is not that the railway companies do not need the metal material, for they are buying below their strict necessities. The condition of the money market may have deferred much buying, but perhaps not to an adequate explanation. Even the prospective buyers regard present prices for rails and other material too high. There is a growing assessment of the financial situation, and tight money is now so great a bar to purchases. The parity of views between the makers and the buyers of rails as to prices tenaciously remains. There have been many intimations from the East that in the cause of the world-wide attack improvements, and it seems to find a certain amount of corroboration in the West.

However in other directions the situation becomes more rosy. There is a brisker demand for structural material. And the shops are certainly buying more freely than for many months, the volume making a tonnage quite satisfactory to the producers who had not been expecting immediately even a noticable change for the better.

And there are some gains in value. Iron bars have advanced with pig from 1.10c to 1.10c. Chicago, or 83.00 per ton. There has been excellent buying of iron bars since Jan. 1. The price of scrap materials is also slightly higher. Pig iron is somewhat lower than down, others have all the low-priced business they want, and the way is thus open for a more conservative course on the part of the rolling-mill interests. Sheet bars also are higher. Buying continues, and there are intimations that an advance may occur soon.

There is little of interest in the Pig Iron market this week. Prices are perhaps tending downward. The new $1000 base quotation for Southern Irons is held by the large producers, perhaps, but it is generally understood that equivalent values may be obtained at $8.75, Birmingham, for No 2, or $14.60, Chicago

POTATOES IN EUROPE.

It will astonish most people to hear that 28,656,637 acres are annually under Potato culture in Europe, and that the total yield therefrom is estimated at 2,520,211,560 cwt. The Gardeners' Magazine dolphied states that in the matter of areas Russia occupies the highest position with 9,015,969 acres. Germany ranks next with 8,004,525 acres, and France occupies third place with 3,678,358 acres. The Potato areas in other countries of Europe are as follows: Austria 2,202,977 acres, Hungary 1,477,164 acres, United Kingdom 1,303,184 acres, Italy 546,000 acres, Holland 396,019 acres, Sweden and Norway 284,000 acres, Belgium 153,626, Denmark 133,387 acres Norway 90,651 acres, Roumania 26,642 acres. Servia 15,540 acres, and Bulgaria 4,481 acres.

In the matter of yield Germany is first with 855,317,595 cwt. Russia second with 549,045,937 cwt, and France third with 286,459,441 cwt. The yields of other countries are: Austria, 220,297,700 cwt; United Kingdom, 118,890 cwt, Hungary, 95,442,203 cwt Holland, 72,945,9 0 cwt; Sweden, 34,821,800 cwt; Belgium, 15,067,140 cwt, Norway, 9,486,142 cwt; Denmark, 21,177,864 ; Italy, 6,868,200 cwt, Roumania, 1,496,314 cwt, Servia, 853,085 cwt, and Bulgaria 40,753 cwt These figures illustrate the great difference in the capacity of the soil of different countries The United Kingdom, which is sixth in area, is fifth in yield, heading Hungary by nearly 23,000,000 cwt, although having an area of about 37,000 acres less.

BOSTON WOOL MARKET.

Boston, Jan. 22 The Commercial Bulletin says: "The shipments of Wool from Boston to date from Dec. 31, 1903, are 48,749,100 lbs, against 17,953,31 the at the corresponding date last year The receipts are 7,58,546 lbs against 8,031,540 lbs for the same period last year. The market is active and strong, with tendency of prices upward and against the buyer. Several of the large concerns, including the American Woolen Company, have been operating with more or less freedom this week. This, too, in the face of low prices and a dull retail trade for goods. Coming at this time, the active demand means that consumers have made up their minds that Wool is cheap. With all foreign markets advancing, the London opening 5@15 per cent higher last Tuesday Boston is the cheapest market in the world. Yet prices, even for domestic medium and low Wools, the supply of which is not equal to the demand, do not materially advance. On one-quarter blood the higher was paid this week, but that is the most that could be said. There is no speculation now, notwithstanding the strong statistical situation."

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather man shows light general snows through Illinois, Eastern Iowa and the Ohio Valley. There are light snows in the Northwest. Kansas shows no precipitation. Temperatures are lower—much lower in the Northwest and colder weather is indicated generally

A cold wave will overspread the western lake region to-day and to-night.

It developed, Thursday, that a large number of corporations have been driven from New Jersey on account of the high taxation A scene of concerns including Morris & Co. and other companies have filed with the have secured their charters and taken up their headquarters in Maine. They claim that the Maine charters answer their purposes better than the New Jersey charters & Co. have a capital of $3,000,000, upon which it will be compelled to pay annual tax of $3,000 under the laws of New Jersey The annual tax on the same amount of capital in Maine is only $300.

An officer of the American Can Company is quoted as saying: "Reports to the contrary notwithstanding, we shall show better returns than last year We have persons lose sight of the fact that the Can company no longer depends solely on on the m nufacture of fruit and vegetable cans for its revenue. Our production has become so diversified that a period of depression in any one line of canned goods will not greatly impair the company's earning power. During the last year the novelty business of the company has grown to such an extent that sale of cans to the packers of fish, meats and kindred commodities"

An officer of the American Railways Company says: "While we feel the falling off in our earnings at the present time, in excess as it is of the usual January and February slump, our March dividend will be absolutely unaffected by present conditions and we shall not be surprised should the Sept. 30 last we earned enough to pay the December and March dividends and to keep something over. As the year progresses we will show a substantial increase in earnings over the corresponding year independently of whether present winter conditions improve or continue unfavorable, it is safe to say, I think, that the June dividend will also be declared at the customary rate."

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Laclede Gas Light Company in St. Louis the retiring directors were re-elected. The company is now controlled by the North American Company and is regarded as one of its most valuable properties. It is understood that considerable money is being expended in increasing the facilities of the Laclede Company Since the company came into the present management vigorous efforts have been made to increase the business. Already these efforts have borne fruit in the form of some 2,000 additional consumers It is understood that a considerable portion of the new business is for heating and power purposes.

WINTER WHEAT—The market closed up 1@2c lower than Saturday. Choice Wheat in light supply and sold well, but poor Wheat ruled dull. No. 2 Red in store quotable at 88@91½c, and fresh arrivals ranged at 89@97c. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals sold at 90@94c. No. 2 Hard at the river quotable at 80@83c. No. 3 Hard sold at the river at 79c and ranged at 72@82c. No. 4 Hard at the river sold at 67c.

SPRING WHEAT—Ruled weaker and closed 1@2c lower in sympathy with the speculative market. Choice Wheat is salable to millers but poor Wheat drags. No. 1 Northern in store quotable at 85@88½c and fresh arrivals free on board quotable at 87@89c. No. 3 Spring sold at the river at 76@78c and hard variety local sold at 85c and ranged at 75@85c for poor to choice. No. 4 sold local at 62@79c and ranged at 53@70c for poor to choice, with sales at the river at 52@67c.

REGULAR WHEAT—Sharp loses were made in Wheat—2c for May, ⅞c for July and ⅝c for September. Cash sales were small—5,000 bu No 1 Northern at Chicago and 15 loads at the seaboard. Late cables from Rosario and San Nicolas spoke of the unsettled condition of the labor question in Argentina and of the small tonnage now offering. There was a wild market in this cereal, the opening prices in May varying as much as ¾c in different parts of the pit. There was an early bulge of as much as ⅝c in the May and 1¼c for the July. This strength was on the terrible cold weather, coupled with the fact that a great deal of Wheat is without snow protection and likely to be damaged by the weather. When the market was at the top prices of the morning it was announced that a large Grain and Stock house of Baltimore had gone down. This turned the tide in a second and prices dropped like so much lead. On the decline May broke from 92⅝c to 89c, and July from 83⅞c to 81½c. The selling was general and many stop loss orders were uncovered. It was figured in the pit that the principal May "long" had sold heavily and also that scattered July "longs" had reduced their holdings. The routine statistics were mainly "bullish" in character. The world's shipments were 10,458,000 bu compared with 5,844,000 bu the previous week, and 7,558,000 bu in 1902. The amount of Wheat, including Flour as Wheat, on ocean passage increased 2,224,000 bu making the total on the ocean destined for importing countries 23,518,000 bu. There was an increase of 237,000 bu in the visible supply during the week, making the total 40,612,000 bu, compared with 48,-055,000 bu a year ago. Chicago stocks increased 24,000 bu for the week and are now 2,934,000 bu. Liverpool stocks decreased 296,000 bu leaving the total 2,720,000 bu. Consols were lower. Cables were unsettled. Liverpool ⅛@⅜d lower, London ⅛@⅜d higher, Paris ¼c lower, Antwerp unchanged. Primary receipts as well as those at the Northwest were considerably below last year. Receipts at Duluth 80 cars and at Minneapolis 340 cars, a total of 420, against 341 cars Saturday, 546 cars a week ago, and 938 cars last year. Local receipts included 18 cars Winter 23 cars Spring and none mixed, a total of 41 cars, against 65 cars last year. Included in above was no car of contract grade. There were 3 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 45 cars. Withdrawals were 1,400 bu. Receipts at Western points were 789,-458 bu, against 1,164,875 bu last year. At Eastern points 50,181 bu, against 68,496 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 370,508 bu, against 157,163 bu last year, and from Eastern points 166,074 bu, against 456,334 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 88,500 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 561,384 bu.

JANUARY—Sold at 86¼@86⅝c, and closed nominally 85¼c.

MAY—Sold at 89@92⅝c. Opened at 91⅞c to 92⅝c; sold to 92⅝c, to 92⅜c, to 91¾c, to 92¼c, to 91⅛c, to 90⅜c, to 89¼c, to 89⅝c, to 89c, to 90⅛c, to 89⅜c, to 90⅛c, to 89⅜c, to 89⅝c, to 89⅜c, to 89½c, to 89⅜c, to 89⅜@89½c, and closed at 89⅜@89½c.

JULY—Sold at 81½@83⅞c. Opened at 82⅞c to 83¾c; sold to 83⅞c, to 83⅜c, to 81½c to 82⅞c, to 83c, to 82⅜c, to 82½c, to 82¼c, to 82⅝c, to 81½c to 82⅛c, to 82c, to 82¼c, to 81½c, to 81⅝c, to 81½@81⅝c, and closed at 81½@81⅝c.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 77@78½c. Opened at 78½c; sold to 78c, to 78⅛c, to 77⅞c, to 78c, to 77c, to 77¾c, to 77½c, to 77⅝c, to 77@77⅛c, to 77¼c, and closed at 77¼c.

CORN—The close was ⅜@¾c lower, with only small reactions and advances from the bottom prices reached. The seaboard reported 6 boat loads, and there were 50,000 bushels sold here. There was rather a quiet market outside of the early spirit. The break in Wheat was felt in the Corn market and it caused scattered selling by holders. The decline in Consols was an early factor. Liverpool closed ⅛@¼d higher. Advices from that market said that importers were holding off owing to the general poor condition of the crop. Stocks at Liverpool decreased 86,000 bu for the week, leaving the total 600,000 bu. World's shipments for the week were larger at 3,611,000 bu, compared with 2,346,000 bu the previous week and 2,694,000 bu the corresponding week one year ago. The amount of Corn on ocean passage increased 223,000 bu for the week, making total now on the ocean destined to importing countries 10,200,000 bu. Local inspection was 430 cars, with 2 cars contract. There were also 99 cars No 3, 101 cars No. 4 and 135 car, No Grade. Primary receipts were 723,000 bu, compared with 638,000 bu a year ago. SEPTEMBER—Sold at 47@47¾c. Opened at 47¾c to 47⅝c, sold to 47⅜c, to 47½c, to 47c, to 47⅛c closing at 47⅛c bid.

OATS—Were active and advanced ⅛@⅜c early, but broke ⅝@⅞c and closed at about the bottom, with a net loss of ⅜c on May and July and unchanged for September. The action of other Grains was the main price-maker. There was good commission house buying by a few, also heavy selling toward the last, making a quick break after the decline was under way. The visible supply decreased 80,000 bu and local stocks increased 9,000 bu. Arrivals were 246 cars, with 215 cars estimated to-morrow. Withdrawals were 29,100 bu and seaboard clearances 10,000 bu. Car lots to go to store were steady to ½c lower. No 4 White at 38½@39¼c. No 3 White at 39¼@40½c. Standard at 40½c. Standard in store closed about 39¼@39¾c as to location.

Oats by sample were traded in moderately. There was a larger proportion of poor lots offered and they sold slowly at ½c decline. Good were in fair demand and steady. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade at 35c. No 4 at 37@37½c. No. 1 White at 38@39½c. No 3 at 37@38c. No 3 White at 38½@40½c. Standard at 41@41½c. No 2 at 38c. Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were stronger early, but weaker and lower later.

JANUARY—No trading, closed at 39¼c asked.

MAY—Active and unsettled. Sold at 41⅝@42½c. Opened at 42¼c, sold to 42½c, to 41⅝c to 41¾c at close.

RYE—Ruled firm early and then eased off ¼c and closed quiet. There was more doing in a speculative way. The receipts were two cars. There were withdrawn from public elevators 1,500 bu and from private warehouse three cars. No. 2 port clearances from New York. The visible supply increased 25,000 bu and local stock decreased 2,000 bu. No 2 in store nominally 55½c and fresh arrivals quotably 59@61c. No. 3 fresh arrivals sold at 54@55c and a car of No Grade water soaked and rotten sold at 20c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Firm early and weak later. January sold at 55½c and that about the closing. March nominally 56½c. May sold at 59c to 58½c, and closed at 58¼c.

BARLEY—The decline in prices for low grades and ordinary grades noted on Saturday was followed by a further decline to-day. At the reduction buyers for mixing account took hold fairly. The malting demand was tame. Few buyers representing this interest were doing anything. With low grades lower, the entire structure of the market settled somewhat, except very choice or fancy; such grades scarce. Eighty-two cars inspected in—a good increase—but it did not appear in the offerings. Some cars sold Saturday were rejected to-day because they were not considered up to sample. Visible supply decreased very moderately, and in local stock there was a small gain. Screenings quotable 30@40c for poor to choice, sales made at 33@40c. Barley feed or mixing sold at 38@39c, mostly at 38c. poor, musty nominally lower: malting low grade about 40@43c; very dirty below; common, 43@45c. fair, 46@48c; good, 50@53c, choice 54@57c; fancy possibly above.

SEEDS—Little was done. Steadiness prevailed for all lines. In some particulars Flax was again slightly improved, but there were no other changes.

Timothy—There were no new developments. Cash Seed sparingly offered. Quotably salable and firm, for high grades at least. Futures inactive, they were nominally steady and unchanged. January delivery remains quotable at $3 10. February at $3 15 and March held at $3 20. Country lots quotable at $2 25@3 12 for poor to fancy; fair to good quotable $2 70@3 00; choice $3 00@3 10, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 40@2 60.

Flax—The week started in with a firm market and there was 1c advance for Northwestern Flax and ½c over Saturday's bid price was paid and bid for May delivery; otherwise there were no changes. No cash or January delivery trading, for there were no offerings. General state of the market the same as last week. Strength based largely on favorable outside advices. Local receipts 20 cars, or 17,000 bu, but no car lots, whatever, offered. There was no output. Minneapolis got 20 cars and Duluth 28 cars. Local stock last week decreased 8,713 bu and reported as 60,679 bu, against 6,214 bu a year ago. No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest salable at $1 15. No. 1 was $1 08 bid. Rejected nominally $1 04@1 08, outside for choice Northwestern. January was $1 08 bid. May sold at $1 11½ and that was bid.

Clover—Was quotably steady to firm. Only a small quantity appeared and some of that was very common. Good qualities absent on the regular market. Contract Seed, spot nominally $11 25, and March delivery about $11 35; country lots, common to choice at $8 25@11 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $5 00@9 50; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00; inferior lower; fair to good quality about $9 50@10 50.

Other Seeds—There was some Millet on the market to-day, but nothing else. All lines quotably steady and salable. No change quoted in prices. Hungarian, common to choice, dark color, quotable at $1 50@1 85. Common Millet 90c@$1 25 for poor to fancy. German Millet, 90c@$1 25. Siberian, 75@90c. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 75@90c. Mustard 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat was steady; none offered. Good milling quotable at $1 20.

HOG PRODUCTS—A very fair trade, and while the feeling was a little unsettled the undertone was on the whole firm. Receipts of Hogs were about as expected, and prices firm, which with the early strength in Grain started the market higher. The chief feature was the demand for Lard by the same interests which have been buying of late and other Products advanced in sympathy. There was some realizing at the improvement in prices, but bulk of the offerings came from packers, both local and outside. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 77,800, compared with 63,201 same time one year ago. Foreign advices were favorable to holders. Liverpool quoted Bacon steady to 6d higher. Hams 6d better, and Lard up 3d. Receipts of Products were moderate—of Lard and Meats about 24 cars. Shipments were fair of Lard and Meats about 124 cars. Demand on shipping account was moderate and offerings fair. Prices were firm and again favored sellers. Exports for the week compared with the corresponding week in 1903 show an increase of 390 brls Pork, 74,000 lbs Lard and 979 boxes of Meats.

Mess Pork—Rather a better trade with the feeling firm, the close being about 15c higher. Commission houses were buyers at the start, and initial trades were at 7½c advance, sold off 2½c, and advanced 17½c. Toward the close there was more pressure to sell, and prices receded 7½@10c, losing as stated. Shipping demand was moderate and offerings fair. Cash lots quotable at $13 40@13 50.

JANUARY—No trading, closed about $13 30.

MAY—Demand more general, and offerings fair. Sales were made at $13 37½@13 55. Opened at $13 40, sold to $13 37½, to $13 42½, to $13 37½, to $13 52½, to $13 50, to $13 45, to $13 55, to $13 45@13 47½, to $13 47½, and closed steady.

JULY—Light trading at $13 52½ and closed nominally $13 60.

Lard—Was again the leader in the Provision list, the chief feature being the purchase of about 15,000 tcs by interests prominently identified of late on the "long" side of the market. Demand was supplied chiefly by local and outside packers, though at the advance there was moderate realizing by "longs." The start was 2½c to 10c higher and advanced irregularly 17½c. At the improvement in prices, there was a little more pressure to sell and prices settled back 5c but the close was steady around outside figures. Foreign markets were stronger. Average weight of Hogs last week 5 lbs lighter than one year ago. Demand on shipping account was reported as moderate and the offerings somewhat limited. Cash lots about 20c under May closing at $7 32½@7 30. Loose lots called for moderately and offerings moderate. Prices were firm at about 72½c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in fair request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotably firm at $7 00. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably firmer at $8 50@8 62½ for No. 1 and $7 75@7 87½ for No. 2.

JANUARY—Sold at $7 27½ and $7 30 and closed about $7 27½@7 30.

MAY—Good demand with fair offerings. Sales were made at $7 37½@7 55. Opened at $7 37½ to $7 45, sold to $7 42½, to $7 50, to $7 47½, to $7 50, to $7 47½, to $7 55, to $7 52½, to $7 55, to $7 50, to $7 52½, to $7 50@7 52½, and closed steady.

JULY—Demand fair with offerings less liberal. Sales were made $7 47½@7 55. Opened at $7 50, sold to $7 47½, to $7 50, to $7 47½, to $7 52½, to $7 47½, to $7 55, and closed steady.

Short Rib Sides—A moderate trade and firm tone values being helped mainly by the strength in Lard. Commission houses were on both sides of the market, with selling by one firm which bought Lard a feature. Packers also sold on the advance. Market started slightly better and sold up 10c, settled back 5c, recovered 2½c, and closed steady around medium figures. Demand on shipping account moderate and offerings about same as of late. Cash lots quotable $6 50@6 75 according to weight.

JANUARY—Sold at $6 52½ and closed about $6 52½.

MAY—Fair demand, with offerings also fair. Sales were made at $6 75@6 85. Opened at $6 75, sold to $6 80, to $6 77½, to $6 82½, to $6 77½@6 80, to $6 85, to $6 82½, to $6 85, to $6 80, to $6 80@6 82½, and closed steady.

JULY—Sales were made at $6 85@6 92½. Opened at $6 85, sold to $6 90@6 92½, to $6 87½, to $6 92½, to $6 90, to $6 90@6 92½, and closed steady.

Other Meats—Rather a light trade reported in Meats. Domestic demand only fair, and export demand was quiet. Offerings of all kinds were fair, but holders continue firm in their views. Green Meats were in fair request, with moderate offerings, and prices ruled firm. Pickled Meats in limited demand, with only small offerings, and prices well maintained. Dry Salted Meats in moderate demand and offerings not very large. Prices ruled rather firm. Smoked Meats in moderate demand, chiefly in a jobbing way, and prices ruled steady. Closing prices ranged as follows:

CROPS IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

[From Broomhall's Corn Trade News, Jan. 12.]

United Kingdom—The weather has again become unseasonable, rain falling nearly every day. Mild open weather is always a bad thing at this time of the year, and the old saying—that "under water, dearth; under snow, bread"—applies closely this season more than ever before. Threshing is again interfered with, but farmers' deliveries may reasonably be expected to show up at the first favorable opportunity; meanwhile they are holding very firmly at rather higher prices than those which have been previously reported.

Russia—The weather in the Southwest is very severe, and navigation to Nikolaieff is being kept open with difficulty. Reports concerning the crops are varied, for while the Southwest complains of only partial snow cover, Azoff districts and the Southeast, as well as the Centre, are reported to have plenty of snow. In the Crimea, crop conditions are considered very promising. The following crop report has appeared in the Novoe Vremya: "Official information as to the growth of Grain and the condition of snow protection during the winter months compel one to fear that if something favorable does not happen there are possibilities of bad harvests over a great extent of our Grain producing regions. Up to the present little snow has fallen and the ground is frozen. If in the coming April and May we have rainless weather, or too much heat, then we must look out for bad harvests, and what is worse, bad harvests over large areas. Generally January, February and the first half of March have winds which bring immense quantities of snow." Shipments are now of moderate size, last week's total being much below the quantity shipped in the same week of last season.

Roumania—Also on the Danube the frost has become severe, and at date of our last mail advices the seedlings were still without a sufficient cover of snow. Shipments last week were relatively liberal, but will doubtless be smaller in the future although there is a fair stock at Sulina upon which to draw.

Austria-Hungary—The weather has been seasonably cold with falls of snow.

Argentina—The weather keeps unfavorable for threshing, but it is confirmed that the crop is a large one. The strike of laborers at the ports is still acute and seriously delays shipments, but it is expected that a start will be made this week.

India—The shipping movement is still well maintained and the season's total is now over 40,000,000 bu. The first official reports, which, however, only relate to the condition up to about the middle of December, give the condition of the crops as favorable, and the area has increased substantially. The increase in the Punjaub and the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh is some 1,400,000 acres. The increase in the area is not general, for in Bombay and Sind there is a small decrease of 100,000 acres, but if we remember, however, how favorable the seeding time was generally, we are bound to come to the conclusion that the final returns for the whole country are likely to show an increase of 1,500,000 to 2,000,000 acres. We hear that rains are now wanted in some parts, but the early "Calcutta" crop appears to be all right and fair quantities continue to be offered and sold.

Australasia—There is no fresh news concerning the crops. The shipping movement is now getting in full swing, nearly 800,000 bu having been put afloat last week.

France—Weather conditions are changeable and not very seasonable. Reports as to the new crops are generally satisfactory, but growers would like to have a lower temperature accompanied by a good fall of snow. Growers continue to hold their Wheat firmly and have been enabled to establish some advance in spite of the reserve of millers who still find that their Flour meets a poor sale.

Spain—The crop outlook is now considered satisfactory, but the rains are so continuous that growers cannot finish their seeding.

Portugal—We hear that it has been discovered that the last harvest was better than expected, and estimates of requirements have been reduced from 4,800,000 bu to 2,800,000 bu.

Belgium and Holland—The frost last week was severe, and interior navigation has stopped. There are no complaints about the crops.

Germany—The weather is winterly, and in Western Prussia the crops have no snow cover. It cannot be said that there are any complaints so far, but the fact that the crops are exposed to damage causes a little comment. Supplies of native Wheat are not large, but are sufficient for the demand.

Chili—There will be no export surplus from the coming crop.

[New York Producers' Price Current, Jan. 23.]

The market has fully maintained its strength during the past week. On the Pacific Coast 27@27½c has been paid for choice growths, and remaining stocks in growers' hands are in narrow compass. On this market an exporter has been paying 3?c for choice Pacifics and that figure has been bid and refused for a line of over 600 bales. Dealers have paid 39c here and it is becoming difficult to find sellers on that basis. In this State the stock is well out of growers' hands and for the few remaining lots held by dealers 35c is asked for most anything good and 37c for choice; in fact some are asking 38c, but we do not hear of that price having been reached as yet from dealers, though brewers have paid 38c for fancy States and 34@35c for Pacifics. The German market continues strong with very reduced stocks. English advices firm.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map this morning shows very low temperatures generally. The extreme North sends no report. It is 14 below in Dakotas and Minnesota. As low as 8 below at Concordia and 8 below at Chicago. There are light snows—traces mostly—in Iowa, Nebraska, Illinois and Ohio Valley. Only a trace in Kansas at Dodge, and at Oklahoma, where the mercury is 16 above.

At 7 A. M. the mercury was 14 below to 34 below in Dakotas and Minnesota, 8 below to 20 below in Iowa and Nebraska, and 8 below to 38 above in Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio Valley.

The indications are that snow in the Middle States will pass away to-night. Fair weather in Northwest to-night and over the entire district Tuesday.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The Wheat Block at Geneva, N. Y., occupied by business firms, was destroyed by fire, Sunday. Loss, $75,000.

Six blocks of frame business houses at Sour Lake, Texas, were burned and considerable damage done to the Cannon tract in the Oil fields by fire, Sunday. Loss, $200,000.

The Illinois Auditor of Accounts has completed his recapitulation of the reports as of Dec. 30, 1903, of the 352 State banks in Illinois, comparing the figures with those in the statements of Dec. 22, 1902. In the period deposits increased about $28,101,000, loans, $23,370,000 and capital stock $5,330,000.

Fifty-one cars of Mess Beef for the Russian army will sail from San Francisco Jan. 27 for the Orient. The Meat was packed in specially built casks which arrived in South Omaha last week. As soon as the casks arrived the work of packing began and was hurried with all possible speed, and the first train load, consisting of twenty-five cars, left South Omaha, Monday, Jan. 18.

The Chicago Drovers' Journal says: "Stockmen in the West are fairly well satisfied with prevailing conditions. The winter thus far has been favorable and it has not been necessary to feed much. There has been an abundance of feed raised in most parts of the West, and stockmen were fortified to withstand a pretty hard winter. The severe weather of last winter taught them a valuable lesson, and many sustained losses that set them back several years. This was especially true in the Sheep country, where some had provided themselves with only a small supply of Hay and others had hoped to get through with none at all, as they had in other years. The result is that the supply of Sheep in the West east of the Cascade range has been reduced so that at present there is plenty of grazing room."

So highly is the Alfalfa crop regarded in Kansas that farmers as a mass refuse to sell it, preferring to retain the Hay upon their farms for feeding, according to information issued by Hon. F. D. Coburn, Secretary of the Kansas State Board of Agriculture. More than this, the crop has had a phenomenal increase. Figures in the Secretary's office at Topeka indicate that the acreage sown to Alfalfa in 1903 was upward of 108,099 acres greater than in 1902 showing an increase of 23 per cent. With only four exceptions, every county in the State is growing Alfalfa. The lowest is sixteen acres, while Jewell County heads the list with 35,518 acres. Alfalfa is a godsend to the West. While we doubt if it be equally successful in the Corn belt proper, it is still so valuable that farmers can afford to give it some serious attention.

From statistics compiled in the Sugar trade for the calendar year just closed experts are able to arrive at an approximate estimate of the annual earnings of the American Sugar Refining Company. The Sugar Trust sold 3,068,164,000 lbs of Sugar during 1903. President Havemeyer gave a basis on which to work when he said the average price for the year on refined Sugar was 4.55c per lb. The gross earnings would therefore be $29,155,408. Those whose business it is to tabulate Sugar statistics say that the average difference between raw and refined Sugar during the year was .918c per lb. On sworn testimony it has been stated by Sugar Trust officials that .625c per lb represents the cost of refining and operating expenses. The net profit would therefore be .293c per lb. Net profits on the whole output of the trust would therefore be $8,990,600. After paying preferred dividends, it is estimated that the American Sugar Refining Company earned on its common stock about 13 per cent.

The weekly snow map shows a general covering as far south as Oklahoma, but over Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri it is shown to be a mere trace of snow.

Average cost price of Hogs at Chicago, Monday, was $5 04, the highest in three months. Average Saturday, $5 02; a week ago, $4 79; a month ago, $4 51, and a year ago, $6 65.

From Russia and the Danube the exports of Flax Seed from Aug. 1 to Jan. 10 have amounted to 3,492,000 bu, against 3,618,000 bu in the previous year and 2,012,000 bu in 1901-2.

The receipts of Wheat at Liverpool during the past three days were 352,000 bu, of which 112,000 bu were American. Receipts of Corn, 336,000 bu, of which 136,000 bu were American.

In the New York Cotton market there was profit taking by the largest holders. Offerings were well absorbed and gave prices a rally. Receipts were moderate. Closing prices were 3@6 points lower.

In Local Securities there was an unsettled tone. North Chicago Railway sold off 2 points on fears of further dividend complications. Selling of Biscuit preferred carried prices off ½. Diamond Match was also weaker, but other shares were mostly higher.

The New York, Chicago and St. Louis Railroad Company has declared dividends of 5 per cent on its first preferred stock and of 3 per cent on second preferred stock. The dividends are the same as have been paid for several years. Payable March 1 to stock of record Feb. 3.

The Echo Agricole, Paris, Jan. 9, states that during the past seven days both frosty and damp weather was experienced, with some rain in the Midland and Eastern Provinces. On the whole, the crop reports are satisfactory, and the young Wheat and Rye plants are doing well.

The shipments of Flax Seed from India from April 1 to date amounted to 17,296,000 bu (Calcutta 11,448,000 bu and Bombay 5,848,000 bu), against 12,-144,000 bu last season (Calcutta 8,440,000 bu and Bombay 3,704,000 bu), and 13,528,000 bu in 1901-2 (Calcutta 10,072,000 bu and Bombay 3,456,000 bu).

The receipts of Flax Seed at Bombay for the week ended Dec 24 amounted to 508 tons, against 1,297 tons in the previous week and 323 tons in the same week last year. The total receipts at Bombay from Jan. 1 to Dec 24 amount to 149,224 tons, against 101,013 tons in the corresponding period in 1902.

The Corn Trade News of Jan. 13 says: "Odessa, Jan 9.—The weather this week has not been very cold until last night, when the thermometer fell from 31 degrees to zero, Fahr., accompanied with a biting wind and some snow. There is nothing good to report in the outlook for next year's crops and from all parts of the country the news is unfavorable."

Stocks in New York advanced despite unfavorable news from the East. There was a movement against the "shorts," and London is said to be heavily "short." Western Railway shares gained ¼ to ⅜ point. Realty was stronger and ⅞ to 2¾ points higher but lost part of it. Industrials all made good gains, but failed to hold the best prices. Coalers were up slightly. Money, 1¾ per cent.

Liverpool Corn Trade News weekly foreign crop summary is as follows: "United Kingdom—The weather during past week has been better than heretofore. France, Germany, Italy, Hungary, Roumania and Bulgaria—Since our report of a week ago the weather has been fairly seasonable. Conditions at the moment are on the whole generally satisfactory, although more snow is desired. Russia—Crops are under snow and reports are now favorable. Stocks at Odessa continue to decrease. Argentine—New Wheat is being offered freely. India—Crop outlook continues favorable."

Dornbusch's Buda Pesth correspondent, writing under date of Jan 9, says of Flour: "The market has been exceedingly firm although no doubt the extreme political tension in the East has had more than a very indirect influence. Consumers are unwilling buyers on the rise, and the week's business with Bohemia, and also on the spot, has been of a sporadic character which satisfied neither as to volume nor in regard to prices paid. Our English customers continue undisturbed in their contemplative placidity, buying moderate quantities only at prices which have no relation whatever to the strong tone of raw material. Deliveries on contracts are very sluggish, and if stocks have not really increased during the week, it is due chiefly to the fact that, over the holidays, millers have continued to run on short time. In milling offal and other feeding stuffs the market has been more encouraging. There has been some inquiry for No. 8 Flour, while coarse Bran has been entirely sold out, and prices have advanced a trifle."

FLOUR—Demand rather slow and feeling easy owing to the recent break in the price of May Wheat in the Chicago market. Bids from abroad are especially off.

WINTER WHEAT—Was firm throughout the session for all choice and fancy Winter Wheat—the soft variety under a good milling demand. The hard variety eased off some at one time, but closed steady. No. 2 Red in store quotably 88¼@91c, and fresh arrivals free on board sold at 97c and ranged at 89@97c; at the river a car sold at 85c. No 3 Red fresh arrivals ranged at 87@95c for ordinary to choice. No 4 Red free on board sold at 82c. No 2 Hard Winter at the river quotably 79@82c. No. 3 Hard local sold at 75c, and at the river at 77½@78c, and ranged at 7.@81c. No 4 Hard at the river sold at 66c.

SPRING WHEAT—All choice hard variety Wheat ruled steady under a good milling demand, but poor Wheat was dull. No 1 Northern in store ranged at 83¾@86½c and fresh arrivals free on board quotably 87@90c, with a sale at the river at 84c. No 3 Spring ranged 75@87c for poor to fancy hard variety, with a sale at the river at 84c. No. 4 Spring local sold at 70@83c for fair to choice, and poor quotably down to 55c, with a sale at the river at 75c.

REGULAR WHEAT—Closing prices showed advances of ¼@⅝c for the day, and the market was up around the top when the bell sounded. The market was filled with sharp changes. Stop loss orders were uncovered early and the break occurred. "Shorts" bought late. There was also persistent buying by the principal "long." The seaboard reported 6 loads, and there was a sale of 20,000 bu No. 1 Northern late yesterday to a local miller. There was another exciting time in this market, with conditions about the same as yesterday, although the aggregate trade was not so large. During the first hour the price of May ranged between 89¾@89⅞c and 87¼c, the decline being brought about by the selling of "long" Wheat by some of those who have been trailing on to the principal "long" in the market. July followed the market in its movements, but the changes were not so violent. The May was supported on the dips, and both months rallied from the bottom prices reached. Besides the local selling there was considerable Wheat to come out on St. Louis account. Room traders as a whole were slow about taking a position in the market, owing to the rapid changes of the past few days, coupled with the heavy holdings of one or two people in the market. Cables refused to follow the sharp losses shown Chicago yesterday, Paris and Antwerp coming unchanged in price, with Liverpool off only ⅜@½d and London ¼d lower. Spot Wheat at Liverpool unchanged to 1d lower. The world's available supply of Breadstuffs showed a decrease of 381,000 bu for was week, compared with a decrease of 3,930,000 bu the week before, and a decrease of 525,000 bu the corresponding period last year. Contract stocks of Wheat at Chicago decreased 28,000 bu for the week, and are now 1,792,000 bu against 1,819,600 bu the week before, and 3,693,000 bu a year ago. Total in public warehouses 2,934,000 bu; in private houses 2,925,000 bu, total 5,859,000 bu. According to the snow map issued, there is only light snow covering as far as the Ohio River, Southern Missouri and Central Oklahoma. The weather indications are for mostly fair weather, although snow flurries are likely. Colder weather is promised in this section to-night. It is expected to moderate west of the Missouri River. Southwestern receipts were 252,000 bu, compared with 306,000 bu a week ago and 231,000 bu a year ago. Shipments from both points 277,000 bu. Receipts at Duluth 38 cars and at Minneapolis 139 cars, a total of 177, against 420 cars yesterday, 401 cars a week ago, and 334 cars last year. Local receipts included 25 cars Winter, 14 cars Spring and 1 car mixed, a total of 40 cars, against 95 cars last year. Included in above were 2 cars of contract grade. There were 3 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 15 cars. Withdrawals were 2,300 bu. Receipts at Western points were 620,-834 bu, against 643,815 bu last year. At Eastern points 173,155 bu, against 78,397 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 395,827 bu, against 167,015 bu last year, and from Eastern points 61,319 bu, against 107,586 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 55,000 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 310,219 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Active trade and market unsettled.

JANUARY—Buyers bid within 3¾c of May prices and closed at 86⅛@86¼c.

MAY—Sold at 87¼@90⅛c. Opened with sales at 89⅝c to 89¼c; sold to 89¾c, to 89⅝c, to 89¾@89⅞c, to 89⅝@89½c, to 89⅝c, to 87¼c, to 88⅝c, to 88½c, to 89c, to 88⅞c, to 89¼c, to 88¾c, to 89½c, to 89¼c, to 90⅛c, to 89⅞c, to 89⅞@90c, and closed at 89⅞@90c.

JULY—Sold at 80¼@81⅝c. Opened at 81½c to 81¼c; sold to 81⅞c, to 81⅝c, to 82⅛c, to 81c, to 81¼c, to 80¾c, to 81¼c, to 81c, to 81¼c, to 80⅞c, to 81⅞c, to 81⅝c, to 82c, to 81⅞c, and closed at 81⅞c sellers.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 76⅞@77¾c. Opened at 77½c; sold to 77⅝c, to 77½c, to 77¼c, to 77c, to 77⅛c, to 76⅞c, to 77½c, and closed at 77½c.

CORN—Gains of ⅜@⅝c were made in this market, and the best prices were reached late. "Shorts" and investors bought late. Cash sales were 150,000 bu here and 3 boat loads at seaboard. A slow and rather narrow Corn market. The room traders were not disposed to do any great amount of business and the commission houses seemed to have few orders on either side. The weather was better for both movement and grading, yet there was only 1 car contract Corn out of 94 cars on the inspection sheet. Receipts were 430,000 bu, and the shipments 341,000 bu. The world's available supply showed an increase of 672,000 bu for the week, as compared with an increase of 569,000 bu for the corresponding period a year ago. The total amount of Corn in Chicago houses is placed at 4,419,000 bu, of which 2,247,000 bu are in private houses and 2,172,000 in public houses. There was a decrease of 112,128 bu in the contract stocks of Corn during the week, the total stock now being 1,898,216 bu, compared with 2,010,344 bu the week before and 2,205,601 bu a year ago. The weather is better for movement and grading, and this fact doubtless helped the "bears" some in their position. The local "bears" led the selling. Cables were lower—Liverpool ⅜d lower, but there was no report from London. Spot Corn at Liverpool was ¼@1d lower. Primary receipts were 775,000 bu, against 1,241,800 a year ago. Clearances from the seaboard were 198,000 bu against 189,000 bu a year ago. No. 2 sold at 40½c and closed at 46¾c. No. 2 Yellow closed at 47c. No. 3 sold at 41c and closed at 41½@40¾c. No. 3 Yellow closed at 41½@47c. No. 4 sold at 40½@41c. No Grade sold at 36@37c. outside for yellow.

Corn by sample—The demand was fair with offerings smaller. Feeling weaker and prices ¼c lower than yesterday. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 33@37c. No. 4 at 40@42c. No 3 at 41½@41½c. No 3 Yellow at 41¾@42½c. No. 3 White at 41½@42c. Ears at 39c. Billed through: No Grade at 32@38c. No. 4 at 40@41c. No. 3 at 41@41¼c. No. 3 Yellow at 41½@41¾c. No 3 White at 41¼@41½c.

MAY—Sold at 48⅞@49⅝c. Opened at 49c to 48⅞@49c, sold to 49⅛c, to 49c, to 48⅞c, to 48⅞c, to 49½c, to 48⅜c, to 49⅝c, closing at 49⅝c asked.

JULY—Sold at 47⅜@47½ to 48c. Opened at 47⅝@47½c to 47⅝c sold to 47½c, to 47⅞@48c to 47½c, to 48c, to 47⅞@48c, closing at 48c asked.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 47⅛@47½c. Opened at 47⅛c to 47¼c, sold to 47½c, to 47⅛c, to 47½c, closing at 47½c bid.

OATS—Were weak and ¼c lower early, but advanced ½@⅞c and closed at a net gain of ⅜@⅝c. Changes were mainly with Wheat. There was a good trade, with liberal buying by a few commission houses and scattered selling. Local traders who sold on the break bought later on the rally. Cash sales were 85,000 bu. Arrivals were 202 cars, with 85 cars estimated for to-morrow. Seaboard clearances were 11,000 bu. Contract stocks increased 2,000 bu and are 1,017,000 bu. Bradstreet's available decreased 833,000 bu, against 141,000 bu increase last year. Private elevator stocks decrease 94,000 bu last week. Car lots to go to store were firm. No. 4 White sold at 38½@39c. No 3 White at 40@40½c. Standard in store closed about 39¼@39¾c as to location.

Oats by sample were firmer and in fair demand with offerings lighter. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 White at 32@39c. No 3 at 37½@38c. No 3 White at 38@40½c. Billed through: No 4 White at 38c. No 3 White at 37@39½c. At the river: No Grade at 31c. No 4 White at 32½@38c. No. 3 White at 37¾@38½c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were lower early, but closed higher.

JANUARY—Slow at 39¼c. Closed at 39¼c.

RYE—The market was steady at about ¼c lower price than the close yesterday. Demand light and offerings light. Choice fresh arrivals of Rye meet with a fair demand for manufacturing purposes, but otherwise very little interest shown in the market. The receipts were two cars and there were five cars withdrawn from private warehouse. There were no export clearances from the seaboard. No 2 in store nominally 55c and fresh arrivals sold at 60@60¼c. No. 3 nominally 53@55c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet. January nominally 55c. March nominally 56½c. May sold at 58c, and that about the closing.

BARLEY—There was a poor market. Buyers were scarce. The demand for mixing account was small and buyers not paying above the recent inside quotation. Some cars of low grade malting, especially when wheaty, were very hard to sell. There was fair to good malting on sale for 2c below what same goods brought last week and then not taken. Some cars have been on hand several days and holders were anxious to sell in order to avoid track service charges. Total quantity of Barley on sale was small and yet it could not all be placed, some cars being again held over. High grades remain scarce, at the same time demand for these also very small. Forty-three cars were inspected in. Screenings quotable 30@40c for poor to choice. Barley, feed or mixing, sold at 37½@38c, inside was ½c easier, poor, musty nominally lower; malting—low grade, about 39@42c, very dirty below; common, 43@44c; fair, 46@48c; good, 49@52c; choice, 53@57c; fancy possibly above.

SEEDS—The market was almost entirely devoid of business; it was without offerings. In the Flax market prices went up rather sharply, but in other lines there was no essential change.

Timothy—There was a nominally steady market. Cash Seed very sparingly offered. Good qualities were quotably firm. No change developed. January was quotably $3 10. February offered at $3 15 and March offered at $3 20. Country lots quotable at $2 25@3 25 for poor to fancy; fair to good quotable $2 70@3 00, choice $3 00@3 10, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 40@2 60.

Flax—Not only did the tendency of prices keep on its late upward course but to-day's advance was more important than any of late. It ranged from 2c to 4c above yesterday's quotations. Nothing was done the market remaining devoid of sellers. There was a sharp advance in the Northwest; it was this which led. No 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest was salable at $1 19, or at 4c gain. No. 1 was $1 10, or 2c higher, and Rejected nominally $1 05@1 10. January delivery quotably $1 10—2c higher—and for May $1 14, or 3½c advance, was bid. There were received in the local market 15 cars, or 12,750 bu, and out 4 cars, or 4,255 bu. Minneapolis got 15 cars and Duluth 11 cars.

Clover—There was no Clover on sale. Cold weather is hardly favorable for trade. Clover would sell and was quotably steady, for high grades possibly firm. Contract Seed, spot still nominally $11 25, and March delivery about $11 35; country lots, common to choice at $8 25@11 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seed, $5 00@9 70; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@8 00; inferior lower; fair to good quality about $9 50@10 50.

Other Seeds—An occasional sample would be shown for value, but there were no regular offerings. The different kinds were quotably steady. Hungarian, common to choice, dark color, quotable at $1 50@1 85. Common Millet 80c@$1 25 for poor to fancy. German Millet, 90c@$1 25. Siberian, 75@90c. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 75@90c. Mustard, 85c@$1 65. Buckwheat was steady; none offered. Good milling quotable at $1 15@1 20.

HOG PRODUCTS—Considerable interest was manifested in the market for Hog Products and the feeling developed was rather unsettled. Prices were more irregular, with closing figures showing slight changes. Outside orders were fairly numerous and local operators and packers traded in fair-sized quantities. Sentiment at the start was moderately "bullish" and fractional advances were recorded, Lard leading. The commission house demand, however was not as general as yesterday, while the offerings from local and outside packers were quite free and prices gradually yielded to this increased selling pressure. The decline in Hog values at the yards and break in Grain prices was partially responsible for the change in sentiment. At the decline there was buying by houses with English connections and several of the packers who sold early, and the feeling became stronger. "Shorts," too, accepted moderate quantities. Receipts of Hogs were about as expected, and the receipts at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 75,000, compared with 72,800 one year ago. Foreign markets were generally firm. Lard at Liverpool advanced 6d, while Bacon was unchanged to 3d better. Hams steady. Receipts of Products were moderate of Lard and Meats about 21 cars. Shipments were just fair—of Lard and Meats about 137 cars. Part of the late selling was by houses with Stock Yards connections, presumably on the theory that receipts of Hogs will be larger with moderating weather. Packers anticipate larger arrivals next month. Demand on shipping account was moderate and the offerings only fair. Prices were comparatively steady, with no important changes.

Mess Pork—A fair speculative trade was reported in the market for Mess Pork and prices were quite irregular. Commission houses were on both sides of the market and packing interests were credited with selling. The market started 2½c better, but sold off irregularly 25c. At the decline "shorts" accepted fair quantities and the price reacted 12½c, and the close was steady around medium figures. Shipping demand continues moderate and offerings fair. Cash lots were quotable at $13 35@13 45.

MAY—Offerings were liberal and demand fair. Sales were made at $13 25@13 50. Opened at $13 50, sold to $13 45, to $13 47½, to $13 37½, to $13 40, to $13 35, to $13 37½, to $13 40, to $13 47½, to $13 25, to $13 32½, to $13 30, to $13 40, and closed steady.

Lard—A good trade was witnessed in the market for Lard, and price changes were frequent within the limits established. Tone prevalent was more unsettled with final figures on May a shade above yesterday. Market started 2½c higher under a fair miscellaneous demand commission houses leading in the buying. At the improvement in prices, speculative offerings increased, local and Western packers selling with considerable freedom, and prices settled back 12½c. Later on there was buying by many of the early sellers; prices recovered 7½@10c, the "long" interest being credited with adding to its line, closing steady as noted above. Foreign advices were favorable to holders, and domestic markets rather firm. Market was affected some later in session by decline in Grain and Hog values. Demand on shipping account was reported as moderate and the offerings somewhat limited. Cash lots about 20c under May, closing around $7 32½. Loose lots called for moderately and offerings moderate. Prices were firm at about 72½c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in fair request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotably steady at $7 60. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $8 50@8 62½ for No 1 and $7 75@7 87½ for No. 2.

JANUARY—Sold at $7 32½ and closed at $7 32½.

MAY—Demand fair with the offerings larger. Sales were made at $7 45@7 57½. Opened at $7 52½ to $7 57½, sold to $7 55, to $7 52½, to $7 55, to $7 52½, to $7 65, to $7 47½, to $7 50, to $7 45, to $7 50, to $7 47½, to $7 52½, to $7 47½, to $7 52½@7 55 and closed steady.

BREADSTUFFS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

Wheat—It is rather difficult to write anything new about the Wheat markets here, as week after week the same story has to be told—nothing doing—sellers holding on for higher prices, and buyers out of the market at prices above an export value. The present situation is about as we have described above. Buyers will only purchase Wheat at present quotations and these are higher than the cargo market would justify based on freight rate of 20s. The export interests have no wants at present, as all the vessels chartered have been loaded, and the few chartered prior to arrival have their Wheat waiting for them on dock here. From now on the market will be of a dragging character. Very few ships will be dispatched unless holders of Wheat come down from their elevated ideas as to the value of Wheat. There is plenty of Wheat in the country to load quite a number of cargoes yet this season, if the same could be purchased on an export value. Cargoes since our last review have declined 6d, although exporters have not reduced their limits for Wheat. Wheat to-day is not worth over 71c per bu for export, to allow the shipper a very small margin of profit. Millers are not after Wheat very heavy at present, as the mills that have export orders have plenty of the same on hand. After the middle of February mills all over the country here will be compelled to close down for lack of orders. Freight rates to the Orient have advanced and demand has let up. The Orient has plenty of Flour to last them six months. Later on the wise holders will be willing to sell at present prices and exporters will have trouble in securing tonnage to carry same abroad and will have to lower prices. If holders are wise they would take advantage of present prices and let go. Quotations at present for Club Wheat are 72c to 73c per bu, Bluestem, 78c to 79c per bu, and Valley 7?c per bu.

Flour. This market is very dull and no signs of improvement can be noted. Orders coming in are for prompt shipment this month, and this can not be complied with as the mills have all they can possibly do from now to the first of February to finish old orders. After that date the freight rate will be advanced to $4 00 per ton for Flour to Orient ports. Stocks over there are very large from all advices received. Shipments will continue during the month of February, but not in any large quantity as heretofore. One large cargo of an unfinished order will go from Puget Sound, comprising about 6,000 tons. For March loading there is nothing in sight. The larger mills will continue shipping as formerly, as they have a good established trade abroad. Locally, mills are doing a large amount of trade. Stocks were allowed to decrease considerable, and buyers are now compelled to stock up their depleted lots. California trade has fallen off and very little is going down either by rail or steamer. A cargo of Flour cleared during the week for Durban, South Africa, the first lot in many months. We quote standard brands from $4 00 to $4 25, and export brands from $3 35 to $3 70 per barrel.

RICE CROP IN INDIA.

[From the Liverpool Corn Trade News, Jan. 13.]

Second General Memorandum on the Rice crop of the season 1903-4 in Bengal, Burma, and Madras: In Bengal the season for autumn Rice was generally unfavorable, owing to a defect in the rainfall in the early part of the season and heavy falls at and after the harvest. Estimated gross outturn of cleaned autumn Rice 41,664,800 cwt, against 47,419,100 last year. For winter Rice also the season has not been altogether favorable, the lack of rain early on having affected the growth of the plants, although abundant rain fell afterwards. Gross outturn of cleaned Rice 273,360,100 cwt, against 308,483,000 cwt last year. In the fourteen principal Rice growing districts of Burma prospects are very favorable. An outturn above normal is expected. Estimated surplus available for export 2,556,000 tons cargo Rice, which equals 43,322,033 cwt cleaned Rice. In Madras the total area under Paddy at the end of November last was 5,771,000 acres, or 5 per cent more than last year. The condition of the crop is reported to be generally good, and the outturn for the whole Presidency is expected to be 90 per cent of the normal.

On account of pension and employes' benefits $21,753 was paid out.

Vice Chancellor Stevenson granted an order, Monday, for cause to be shown in Jersey City on Feb 8 why a receiver should not be appointed for the Old Dominion Copper Mining and Smelting Company. In the application for the appointment of a receiver insolvency is charged, and it is alleged that plans for the betterment of the company's plant have been undertaken at a probable cost of from $600,000 to $700,000, and that there is only about $300,000 available for the purpose.

Stockholders of the Automatic Electric Company, at a special meeting held in Chicago, Monday, voted to increase the capital stock of the company from $3,000 000 to $5,000,000. Of the new stock $1,000 000 is offered to stockholders of record at the meeting at par. The remaining $1,000,000 will be issued at the discretion of the directors, as need for it arises. The leading interests in the company have arranged to take any stock that may not be subscribed for by the stockholders.

On Feb. 1, 1896, the net Gold coin and bullion in the United States Treasury vaults amounted to only $49,846 000, having declined from $297,500,000 on Jan. 1, 1891. At the present time the Treasury holds approximately $700,000 000, nearly twice as much as has ever been held by any single government. The comparison between this enormous total and that of eight years ago seems incredible. It shows that so far as the financial situation is concerned there is a most remarkable difference between 1904 and 1896.

The London Agricultural Gazette of Jan. 11 says: "The New Year has begun as the last one started, with rain nearly every day or night. Since the frost broke up, on the 2d inst., rain had fallen on six days out of seven up to Saturday night, and the total fall had amounted in many places to half the average for the month. The comparative mildness of the weather during the past week has helped the Wheats sown in the latter part of November to prick through the ground, but in some cases the plant is thin at present."

The Hamburg Petroleum Product Company has increased its capital from $750,000 to $3,000,000, and has purchased all the Roumanian petroleum interests of the Deutsche Bank. This company is allied with the Shell Transport and Trading Company, and these transactions, following as they do the formation last week of the new German Petroleum Company of Berlin, with a capital of $5,000,000, indicate, it is thought, a greater interest on the part of German capitalists in the petroleum business than has been seen for ten years past.

A New York dispatch says: "A financier, whose market operations in the stocks of the hard Coal roads have been very large for several years, says: 'The sluggishness of the anthracite stocks, in the face of heavy earnings and the promise of still greater future profits should surprise no one. The Northern Securities decision hangs like a blight over the Coal roads. If the Supreme Court's decision is drastic against the combination, who can say what measures may be taken by the Government against the Temple Iron Company.'"

An Oregon Hop dealer estimates the quantity left in Pacific Coast growers' hands Jan. 1 as follows: Sacramento district, 755 bales; Russian River, 12; Sonoma, 707; Western Washington, 378; Yakima, 700; Oregon, 3,500; total, 6,052 bales. The market is very firm with a strong upward tendency. Speculators' holdings on the coast are estimated at about 20,000 bales. Sales in California have been made at 27@29c, while most holders are at present asking more. In Oregon sales have been reported at 26c, and contracts for new crop are reported at 16@17c.

It is reported that the United States Steel Corporation will consolidate or merge the Lorain Steel Company with the National Tube Company, which are subsidiary companies. If the plan is carried out the headquarters of the merged companies will be at Pittsburg. The National Tube Company operates seventeen subcompanies and has five blast furnaces, with an annual output of 600,000 tons; nine rolling mills and Steel works, and fourteen wrought Iron, Steel pipe and tube works. The Lorain Steel Company operates plants at Lorain, Ohio, and Johnstown, Pa.

The calendar year 1903 and the month of December, 1903, showed, respectively, the highest record of annual and monthly exports from the United States. The year's export figures, as presented by the Department of Commerce and Labor, through its Bureau of Statistics, were $1,484,668,127, and those of the month of December, $174,734,368. The highest preceding record for any calendar year was that of 1900, when the total exports were $1,477,946,113; and the highest preceding record for a single month was that of October, 1900, when the total was $163,389,680.

First forecast of the India Wheat crop for 1903-4: "Department of Land Records and Agriculture, United Provinces of Agra and Oudh—Moisture was ample when Wheat crop was sown. In low lands it was excessive and sowings were delayed in consequence. No rain has fallen since the middle of October last and the crop is now being irrigated. Germination was generally good and prospects are hopeful so far. In some places the plant is reported to be unhealthy owing to excessive moisture. The area sown with Wheat is likely to exceed last year's area by about 10 per cent. This relates to condition up to Dec. 15."

Official figures show that the United States retained its position during 1903 at the head of the world's exporting nations. The value of exports of domestic products during the year was $1 457,565,783. Only two other nations are in the billion-dollar class. Great Britain's exports reaching $1,415,617,552, and those of Germany about $1,200,000,000. In 1875 our domestic exports were valued at $497,263,737, in 1885 at $673,595,596 and in 1895 at $807,742,415. The United States in 1875 stood at the bottom of the list of the four great exporting nations of the world, and reached the top in 1893.

According to the Daily Tacoma News the acreage planted to Hops this year will be increased 10 per cent. A few contracts have been made both in that State and in Oregon for 1904 Hops. Fifteen cents is being offered on contracts, though, of course, the regular contract season has not yet opened. Dealers report that growers are generally pretty well satisfied with the outlook for next year. The plants appear to be wintering well, and the growers are looking forward to a good year. There are only a few bales of 1903 Hops in the State in the hands of the growers, and they are being held generally on speculation, the growers thinking they should receive 25c per pound.

Local Securities were fairly traded in. Industrials were strong and averaged higher. Box Board preferred advanced 1¾, but yielded ¾ on realizing of profits. The weak spots were Chicago Telephone and North Chicago Railway, which lost 2 points. Union Traction preferred gained ½.

It takes 120 days for sailing vessels to go from Australia to London. As most of the Wheat there is shipped in sailing vessels, this means that it will require three months for the Wheat now being shipped to reach London. Very little is forwarded in steamers, which make the trip in seven weeks.

Stocks in New York were strong and advanced fairly in the early trading. Western Railway shares were a feature. Missouri and Rock Island led the advance, but reacted and lost about all at the close. Industrials and Coalers made good gains, extending to 4 points on the first named but the close found most of them lower. The selling was professional and to realize profits. Money 1¾@2 per cent.

Broomhall cabled that Wheat opened unchanged, but later May eased off ⅛d under influence of selling by large houses, induced by liberal Argentine offerings. Early in the afternoon tone became steadier, and slight reaction of ⅛d occurred, market being influenced by cold weather in American Winter Wheat belt. Corn—Following an opening gain of ⅛d, market further advanced ⅛d on poor grading in America and good demand for Corn on spot; undertone very firm.

Cotton in New York was steadied at the start by the comparative firmness of the cables from Liverpool. Later prices yielded sharply to pressure from room sources, but soon improved a little on support from brokers supposed to represent the "bulls." Generally speaking the early market was irregular with little decided tendency either way. Receipts at the ports were small but offset by Neill's confirmation of his recent big crop estimates. Prices rallied later, and closing sales were at an advance of 31@39 points.

In regard to the present fiscal question in England Mr. Broomhall writes as follows: "Should the proposals of Mr. Chamberlain be adopted and a duty of 2s per quarter put on all foreign Wheat coming into this country from all places outside of the Empire, it is very unlikely that this would have any serious disturbance on trade as a consequence. Quite as much Wheat would be consumed and it would take many years to increase the production to any considerable extent in Canada or elsewhere. All Canadian, Indian and Australian Wheat would come to this country and Continental buyers would have to take more American or Russian, which ever could be obtained the cheapest. I may add that some of our millers, even when strongly protectionist, do not like the proposal to tax Wheat because they think it would restrict their choice of raw material and thus handicap them in the keen competition they have to face."

FLOUR—The best hard Spring Wheat patents are selling at $5 10@5 20, latter only in a small way. Trade dull.

WINTER WHEAT—Choice soft Wheat continues in good milling demand and rules comparatively steady, under very small receipts. Poor Wheat is slow and does not meet with any special demand. No. 2 Red in store quotable at 8¼@91⅝c, and fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 90@97c. No 3 Red fresh receipts sold at 90c and ranged at 85@93c for ordinary to choice. No 4 Red sold at 75c for ordinary to 89@88c for good. No 2 Hard at the river quotable at 90@82c, with a sale at 8.c. No. 3 Hard feed sold at 83c and at the river at 75@82c. No 4 Hard at the river sold at 67c. No. 3 White sold at 95c.

SPRING WHEAT—The market closed steady at shade lower prices. Choice fresh arrivals ruled comparatively firm, but regular grade lots weaker. A fair demand existed and sales of 85,000 bu of No 1 Northern were reported to have been taken by Eastern millers. No 1 Northern in store quotable at 3⅝@3¾c under May and ranged at 85½@87c and fresh arrivals free on board at 86@88c. No 3 Spring ranged at 75@86c for ordinary to very choice hard variety, with a sale at the river at 78c. No 4 Spring sold at 68@70c, and ranged at 55@60c for poor to 65@70c for fair and 75@80c for good to choice hard variety and higher for fancy.

REGULAR WHEAT—The close was quiet and showed losses of ⅛c to ½@⅝c for the day. There were fair amounts of "long" May to come out above 90c, but the selling was not pressed and was carefully handled. The July was bought right up to the close. Cash sales were small and consisted of 9 loads at the seaboard and 85,000 bu No 1 Northern at Chicago, latter at 8¾c under May. July was the leading future in the Wheat market to-day. There was investment buying early by several prominent commission houses, and scattered "shorts" were also buyers, rallying the price up sharply soon after the opening. There was a fair trade in May, but as a general thing the trade fought shy of that month, owing to the fact that it is badly congested. There was very little in the news and circumstances surrounding the market that was likely to influence sentiment one way or the other. There were only 2 cars received at Winnipeg to day, compared with 213 cars a year ago. Northwestern and primary receipts were also smaller, the weather retarding movement in many quarters. Light snows were reported in the Dakotas, Nebraska, Iowa and the Ohio Valley, but most of the precipitation was a mere trace. There was no precipitation in Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma or southward. The Kansas temperatures were 4 to 14 above. Indications are for snow flurries in Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa. Liverpool refused to follow Chicago in its advance of yesterday, closing unchanged. London gained ⅛d. Paris was ¼c lower to ¼c higher, and Antwerp was unchanged. Southwestern receipts were 190,000 bu, compared with 231 000 bu a week ago and 191,000 bu in 1903. Shipments both points 171,000 bu. Receipts at Duluth 23 cars and at Minneapolis 183 cars, a total of 206, against 175 cars yesterday, 383 cars a week ago, and 310 cars last year. Local receipts included 7 cars Winter, 9 cars Spring and no cars mixed, a total of 16 cars, against 30 cars last year. Included in above were 2 cars of contract grade. There were 3 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 30 cars. Withdrawals were no bu. Receipts at Western points were 597,041 bu, against 695,865 bu last year. At Eastern points 71,382 bu, against 1.5,759 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 280,015 bu, against 153 864 bu last year, and from Eastern points 48,741 bu, against 76,916 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 7,232 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 81 285 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Good trade and feeling unsettled.

JANUARY. Sold at 85⅝c and closed at 85¾@85⅞c. Quotably about 3⅝@3¾c under May.

MAY—Sold at 89¼@90⅝c. Opened with sales at 89¾c to 89⅞c, sold to 89¾@89⅞c, to 90⅛c, to 90¼c, to 90⅝c, to 90¼c to 90⅜@90½c, to 90c, to 90⅛c to 89⅞c, to 90¼c, to 90c, to 90⅛c, to 89⅞c, to 90⅛@90⅜c, to 89¾c, to 89⅞c, to 89¼c, to 89⅜@89½c, and closed at 89⅜@89½c.

JULY—Sold at 81⅝@81¾c and 82⅛@82¼c. Opened at 81¾c, to 81⅝@81¾c, to 82⅛c, to 81⅞c, to 82⅛c, to 82¼c, to 82⅛@82¼c, to 82⅜c, to 82⅛c, to 82c, to 82⅜c, to 81¾@81⅞c and closed at 81¾@81⅞c.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 77¼@78c. Opened at 77½c; sold to 78c, to 77½c, to 77¾c, to 77½c, 77⅝c, to 77¼c, to 77¼@77⅜c, and closed at 77¼@77⅜c.

CORN—The close was quiet and prices unchanged to ⅛c lower. Cash sales were 3 loads at the seaboard and 20 000 bu for shipment at Chicago. The Corn market felt the early Wheat rally and May again crossed the 50c mark. Besides the buying of May by the principal "longs," the "shorts" took hold rather freely and were anxious to get under cover. The present "shorts" in May gave July considerable attention on the selling side. The weather is not only excellent for the grading and movement of Corn, but the receipts continue small—223 cars on the inspection sheet this morning and only one car contract. There were 372 cars switched from private to public houses and 4,200 bu from store. Receipts were 274 0 0 bu, and the shipments 247,000 bu. Liverpool showed an advance of ⅛@¼d. The local crowd was "bearish" on the July. Primary receipts were 534,000 bu, compared with 1,122,000 bu a year ago. Clearances for the day, 167,136 bu. No. 2 closed about 46⅝c. No 2 Yellow closed at 48c. No. 3 closed at 41½@46¾c. No 3 Yellow closed about 42@47c. No. 4 sold at 40c. No Grade sold at 36@37c.

Corn by sample—There was a better demand and the offerings fair. Feeling was firm and prices ¼@½c higher. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 36@39c. No 4 at 40½@42c. No. 3 at 42@43c. No. 3 Yellow at 42½@48½c. No. 3 White at 42c. Billed through. No Grade at 32½@35½c. No. 4 at 39⅞@41c. No. 3 at 40½@41½c. No. 3 Yellow at 41¾@42¼c. No 2 Yellow at 48c. No. 3 White at 41½c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Only a small trade on the whole and the close showed declines of about ⅛c.

JANUARY. Closed at 46⅝c nominal.

MAY—Sold at 49½@50⅛c. Opened at 49½c to 49⅝@49¾c, sold to 49½@49⅝c, to 50c, to 49⅞c, to 50⅛c, to 49¾c, to 50c, to 49⅝c, to 49¾c, to 49½c, closing at 49½@49⅝c bid.

JULY—Sold at 47¾@47⅞c to 48⅛@48¼c. Opened at 48c, sold to 48⅛@48¼c, to 47⅞c, to 48⅛@48¼c to 47¾@47⅞c, and closed at 47⅞c asked.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 47⅝@47⅝c. Opened at 47½c, sold to 47⅝c to 47⅜c and had latter bid at close.

OATS—Were moderately traded in. A feature was the continued buying by commission houses who have been the largest purchasers for several days. Prices advanced ⅜c with other Grains, but reacted with them and on realizing sales and closed about the same as yesterday to ⅛c lower. Receipts were small, 58 cars, and 100 cars are expected to-morrow. Light arrivals are also predicted the balance of this week. Withdrawals were 7,804 bu. There were 12 cars Standard inspected from private elevators. Seaboard clearances 15,723 bu. Car lots to go to store were ⅛@¼c higher. No. 3 White sold at 40@40¼c. Standard at 41@41½c, and in store closed about 39@39½c as to location.

Oats by sample were ¼@½c higher with smaller offerings and a moderate demand. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 at 37@38c. No. 4 White at 35@39¾c. No. 3 at 38¼@38½c. No. 3 White at 39¾@41c. No. 2 at 39½c. Billed through: No. 4 at 37¼c. No. 4 White at 38½c. No. 3 White at 39½@40½c. At the river: No 4 White at 37@38½c. No. 3 White at 36½@39¼c. Standard at 40¼@40½c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were higher early, but reacted. Trading was moderate.

JANUARY. Sold at 39⅛c and closed at 39c.

SEPTEMBER—Slow at 32⅞@33c. Opened at 32⅞c, sold to 33c, and closed at 32⅞c.

RYE. Ruled steady. Speculative trading light, but there was more cash business, and some car lots were bought out of store, the fresh arrivals not being equal to the demand. It was a milling and manufacturing demand. Only three cars received and three cars withdrawn from private warehouse. No export clearances from New York. No. 2 in store nominally 58¼c, and sales of fresh arrivals at 60½c free on board, and at 58¾c from store delivered. No 3 fresh arrivals sold free on board at 56@58c—outside for fancy, and at 55c at the river.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye. Quiet and steady. January sold at 60¼c and closed at that. March nominally 57½@57c. May sold at 58¼c and closed at 58½ sellers.

BARLEY—The market was dull and heavy for malting grades and some cars had to be sold at concessions. There were few buyers and no competition whatever. For low grades mixing Barley and Screenings the market at the same time was stronger. There was rather a better demand, and some of the best cars of mixing brought ½@1c above what was paid yesterday. Only 28 cars were inspected in. Screenings remain quotably 30@40c for poor to choice, and sales made at 31@39½c. Barley, feed or mixing, sold at 38@33c; poor, musty nominally lower; malting low grade about 39½@42c; very dirty below; common, 43@44c; fair, 46@48c. good, 49@52c; choice, 53@57c; fancy possibly above.

SEEDS—There were no important changes. May Flax declined 1c; that was the only change in that line. Timothy appeared dull, with futures weaker. The rest were steady.

Timothy—Ruled quiet. The market also was dull. Cash offerings moderate and demand the same. It is doubtful if outside orders are up to expectations. Futures were entirely nominal and quotably about 5c easier. January was quotably $3 05; February at $3 10 and March at $3 15. Country lots quotable at $2 25@3 25 for poor to fancy; fair to good quotable $2 70@2 90; choice $3 00@3 10, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 40@2 60.

Flax—Everything was unchanged about the market excepting May delivery; that was 1c lower. Very little was done. Drop in prices in the Northwest did not have much effect. Eleven cars or 9 350 bu were received and 2 cars or 2,080 bu taken out. Minneapolis got 18 cars and Duluth 11 cars. No 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest remained at $1 19. No. 1 was $1 10, and Rejected nominally $1 0@1 10. January delivery quotably $1 19. May sold at $1 13 and closed with that bid.

Clover. Was called steady, for good Seed at least. Offerings remain very small and in most particulars prices were nominal. Quotable as follows: Contract Seed, spot quotable at $11 25, and March delivery about $11 35; country lots, common to choice at $8 25@11 10; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds $8 00@9 50; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00 6 00; inferior lower; fair to good quality about $9 50@10 50.

Other Seeds—There was some Hungarian sold within the late quotable range of prices, but at what figure could not be learned. Both Hungarian and Millets remain steady and firm. Hungarian, common and light color to choice dark, quotable at $1 50@1 85. Common Millet 80c@$1 25 for poor to fancy. German Millet, 90c@$1 25. Siberian, 75@90c. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 75@90c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat nominally steady; none offered the last few days; good milling quotable at $1 15@1 20.

HOG PRODUCTS. There was just a fair trade in the market for Hog Products, with fluctuations confined within narrow limits. The feeling was easier, commission houses evidently having more Product to sell than buy. Early estimate of Hogs liberal, prices lower and the quality better. Offerings at the start were moderately free considerable of which came from houses prominent on the buying side of late. Packers, too, were sellers in a moderate way. Commission house buying was mainly for small lots. Foreign advices indicated a firm tone in that quarter, while domestic markets were easy. Liverpool quoted Bacon 6d higher and other Product unchanged. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 81,400 compared with 58,100 the corresponding day in 1903. Receipts of Product were somewhat larger of Lard and Meats about 40 cars. Shipments were fair of Lard and Meats about 58 cars. The lowering of the estimate on to-day's Hog receipts to 37,000 and recovery in prices was something of a factor later in the session. Shipping demand was moderate and the offerings only fair. Prices steady and without essential change.

Mess Pork—The trade was of more moderate volume and tone easier, closing prices showing a loss of 5@7½c. Easier feeling was attributable chiefly to the decline in Hog values, which brought out increased speculative offerings and prices at one time sold off 10c. At the decline "shorts" accepted moderate quantities and a recovery of 5c followed. Toward the close there was a little more selling pressure, the close being as noted above. Shipping demand continues very moderate and the offerings only fair. Cash lots were quotable at $13 2 @13 40.

JANUARY. Inactive; closed about $13 20.

MAY—Offerings rather more free and demand only fair. Sales were made at $13 30@13 40. Opened at $13 37½, sold to $13 30 to $13 35, to $13 32½, to $13 37½, to $13 35, to $13 40 to $13 32½ and closed steady.

Lard—A fair trade was reported in the Lard market and the feeling manifested, while somewhat unsettled, was on the whole, easier. Commission houses were on both sides of the market, but the "long" interest was credited with liquidating. The better quality of the Hogs, together with the liberal run coming during the cold weather, was one of early "bear" features. Initial trades were at yesterday's final figures, but prices gradually declined 10c under miscellaneous selling. "Shorts" accepted fair quantities on the break and later on there was 5@7½c recovery. Toward the close there was a little more pressure to sell, but the close was easy at and inside figures. Demand on shipping account was reported as moderate and offerings only fair. Cash lots about 20c under May, closing around $7 27½. Loose lots called for moderately and offerings moderate. Prices were steady at about 72½c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in fair request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotably steady at $7 00. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $8 50@8 62½ for No 1 and $7 75@7 87½ for No. 2.

JANUARY—Nothing doing, closed at $7 27½.

MAY. Demand less active and offerings rather freer. Sales were made at $7 45@7 55. Opened at $7 52½ to $7 55 sold to $7 47½, to $7 50 to $7 45, to $7 47½, to $7 45, to $7 50, to $7 47½, to $7 50 $7 52½, to $7 47½ and closed steady.

JULY. Demand moderate and offerings fair. Sales were made $7 47½@7 62½. Opened at $7 72½, sold to $7 47½@7 50, to $7 50, to $7 47½, to $7 72½, to $7 47½ and closed steady.

Short Rib Sides—Just a fair trade in Short Rib Sides the market ruling rather quiet at times. The feeling prevalent was somewhat easier and last prices 5@7½c lower. "Longs" were more disposed to liquidate, and the demand was less general. Commission houses were sellers from the start and prices declined 7½c, when "shorts" accepted fair quantities and a reaction of 5@7½c occurred. Later on the demand slackened, and the close was easy around inside figures. The demand on shipping account was reported more moderate and offerings fair. Cash lots were quotable at $6 45@6 70 according to weight.

JANUARY. Sold at $6 50 and closed at $6 47½.

MAY—Demand moderate, and offerings rather more liberal. Sales were made at $6 72½ and $6 77½@6 80. Opened at $6 77½, sold to $6 15, to $6 77½, to $6 72½, to $6 75@6 77½, to $6 75, to $6 77½@6 80c, to $6 72½@6 75, and closed steady.

JULY. Offerings fair and demand moderate. Sales were made at $6 82½@6 87½. Opened at $6 85, to $6 87½, sold to $6 87½, to $6 82½, and closed steady.

Other Meats—Only a light trade reported in Meats. Domestic demand only fair, and export demand was quiet. Offerings of all kinds were fair, but holders continue firm in their views. Green Meats were in fair request, with moderate offerings, and prices ruled steady. Pickled Meats in limited demand, with only small offerings, and prices well maintained. Dry Salted Meats in moderate demand and offerings not very large. Prices ruled rather steady. Smoked Meats in moderate demand, chiefly in a jobbing way, and prices ruled steady. Closing prices ranged as follows:

THE CREDIT OF GREAT CITIES.

[From the Wall Street Journal, Jan. 25.]

The last bond issue by the City of New York, from which it appears that the municipal credit may be taken to stand on a 3½ per cent basis, has aroused a good deal of comment, some of it not very well informed. The unwisdom of a faulty method of issue, in order to propitiate a noisy and ignorant gallery with merely the vaguest notion of business like financial methods, has already been referred to in these columns. Taking for purpose of argument the credit of the City of New York as equal to the borrowing of money at 3½ per cent, it is interesting to compare this with the financial standing of municipal borrowers in other parts of the world. It may be taken, of course, that New York credit stands as high as that of any other city in the Union, but it will also be seen that it compares unfavorably with cities in other countries, and particularly with the greater British municipalities.

New York stands about on a parity with Berlin, whose 3½ per cent bond sells at a shade over par. Frankfort, which has the advantage of banking interests so strong as the parent house of Rothschild to help its financing, has a 3½ per cent bond issue large enough for comparison, which is also selling a little over par. The 3½ per cent bonds of the City of Hamburg sell at 101 or better, and the 3 per cent at 91, which would be equal to 105 on a 3½ per cent basis. This is a little better than New York if we are to judge by the last bond issue.

The municipal debt of Paris is complicated by drawings and redemption clauses, and it is difficult to draw a comparison, although its 2½ per cent bond, selling at 94, allowing for these special advantages, puts that city on a very high level of credit, only to be compared with London and the principal cities of the United Kingdom. The municipal bond market in London has suffered a considerable decline in the past twelve months, due to the large number of high grade colonial and municipal issues of 1902 and 1903. Even after this decline, however, it will be seen that no city in the United States begins to compare, not merely with London, but with such admirably governed municipalities as Birmingham or Glasgow.

The City of London itself, which as all travelers know comprises the richest square mile in the world and merely represents credit of an old and wealthy corporation, has a 3 per cent bond issue of $5,000,000 which sells at 94; while the old Metropolitan 3 per cent stock brings 96. The later issues of the London city council, mostly 3 per cent bonds, sell at 92. This, on the yield to the investor of New York 3½s at par, equals 107 to 112 on the price the English holder pays for his investment.

Glasgow 3 per cent bonds sell about 94. Liverpool 3 per cent at 92, Manchester as high as 95, and Birmingham 93. These are all 3 per cent issues and indicate a credit as good as that of London. To sell on a parity with such issues New York bonds should bring 107 to 110. There is one very valuable lesson here, and one we should do well to learn. Every independent American observer has reported that the municipal government of the provincial cities in England represents a degree of enlightenment, progress and financial ability to which we have not yet attained. The assets of New York are just as good as those of any city in the world, and while there are several reasons why our bonds are now selling on so low a basis, it is fair to ask whether the difference of from 7 to 12 points indicated in the foregoing comparison is not in some degree at least the difference between good government and government not so good.

RUSSIAN OIL SEED CROPS OF 1903.

According to the annual report of the Russian Trade and Industry Gazette the meteorological conditions during the year have been even more unfavorable to the crops of such Oil Seeds as Linseed and Flax, Hemp, Rape, Sunflower and Mustard Seed than to the crops of Breadstuffs. Generally speaking, the crops in 1903 may be called below the usual average, and especially poor crops were raised in the East of Russia (Linseed and Hemp Seed), in some localities of the Viatka, Oufa, Orenbourg and Poltava Governments, and also in the Northern Caucasus (Linseed and Sunflower Seed). Unsatisfactory crops resulted in the same Eastern districts, but nearer to the Volga River; in Tamboff (Sunflower and Linseed), Penza (Linseed and Hemp Seed), Limbirsk, Nijni-Novgorod, Viatka, Oufa, Orenbourg Governments (Hemp and Linseed), and in some parts of the Saratoff and Voronesch Governments, and also in the Don district (Linseed and Sunflower Seed).

Satisfactory crops are reported in the central agricultural districts of Russia (Hemp Seed chiefly), further in the Southwest (Linseed), and in the South to the North of the Black and Azoff Seas (chiefly Linseed). The best crops are expected in the Northern and Northwest region, especially in the Governments of Kostroma, Yaroslaff, Smolensk and in some parts of the Tver and and Pskoff Governments, in the latter, however, Seeds are cropped especially for sowing purposes (Flax Seed, etc.). It may be stated, however, that the crops of winter-sown Rape (Southwest and West) this year can be taken as the usual average in Russia, and even locally above same. From the spring-sown Oil Seeds the crops of Linseed are generally far below the usual average, especially in the Eastern half of the country.

The crops of Flax Seed (North and Northwest) are, as a whole, above the average, and the crops of Hemp Seed nearly attain the usual average, but perhaps are a little below the same; Sunflower Seed and Mustard Seed (Southeast) this year yield below the average. Unfortunately, there are no official statistical data relating to all Oil Seeds and their crops in Russia, the data usually given deal only with Linseed, Flax Seed and Hemp Seed. Comparing the official data with other trustworthy private sources, it appears that in 1903 there were cropped in Russia 1,961,320 qrs of Linseed and Flax Seed and 1,876,415 qrs of Hemp Seed as follows:

[From the Winnipeg Commercial, Jan. 23.]

A correspondent writing from London, England, under date of December 30, makes the following interesting comment upon the position of Canadian Wheat and Flour in Great Britain:

"During the past few days the Wheat trade has taken a decided turn for the better. We finish up the year in good heart. The year 1903 has not been full of exciting incidents, but on the whole it has been of a satisfactory nature. Not the least noticeable feature has been the remarkable growth of opinion regarding the Wheats of Canada. For the last portion of the year Canadian Wheat has taken first place for all round excellences, and it bids fair to hold its own in the ensuing time. For some reason or other the American Northwest Wheats seem to have fallen away from their high estate. I am induced to think that some portion of them must have gone through a period of incipient sprouting, so slight as to deceive even the 'cutest' miller until it appears in the baking of the Flour and then it is too late to remedy the evil. This is my experience and it is shared by other and more prominent members of the trades.

"British farmers have had an awful year and the least crop of Wheat on record has just been put underground. This year we had 48,000,000 bu with one-quarter of it unfit for all milling purposes. Next harvest will find us with a total yield of perhaps less than 40,000,000 bu, and it will depend upon our uncertain climate as to the amount that can be made into Flour. As time goes on a serious fact begins to stare British millers in the face and that is the remote probability of Canada milling its own Wheat and dumping Flour in the Motherland, a state of things which will be worse than at present. On the whole the Flour makers here are not quite so enthusiastic on preference as they were some three months back, but I should certainly think that this eventually will be amply provided for. Suppose we put a duty of 50c on American Flour and 25c on that from your country. The latter was quite enough to kill American trade a year ago and so the situation is easily explained.

"A great deal of speculation regarding the extra quantity of mill feed we should be able to make and as this would crowd the markets and raise the price farmers would certainly be benefited. The general feeling in the Grain and Flour trades is that the lowest prices have been touched for both Wheat and Flour right up to next harvest. I think so too. Consumption bids fair to be larger than ever and Canada must supply the indispensable strong Wheat. America cannot do so and Russia —the only other rival—is not to be depended upon. All other sorts, I mean colony Wheats, will be abundant but only that variety containing a maximum amount of gluten will be able to dictate prices."

IRON AND METAL TRADES.

[From the Iron Age.]

Advices from the leading distributing centers point rather to a slight weakening tendency in Pig Iron markets. Some of the Southern makers, seeing business going almost entirely to Northern producers, are shading prices. A number of the leading Southern interests continue to work on a plan to harmonize the recent differences and to reach some common ground for prices.

Some interest in the movement has been taken by high officials of the United States Steel Corporation, but the inferences drawn therefrom that the corporation is seeking control are ridiculous. The officials in question are personally interested in one of the Southern companies, and have participated in conferences merely in their private capacity.

In the East there has been a little more demand for basic and low phosphorus pig from the Steel works, whose business has improved somewhat. The latter has sold at $18.00 and $18.50 for round lots.

The deadlock in the Steel rail trade continues, but it looks as though the logic of the situation will force the makers to give way. The mills which reroll old Steel rails into light sections, a special group of small mills, have come together, and have fixed new prices.

There is a little better feeling in the bar trade East and West, but the sheet trade still shows symptoms of weakness. The tonnage in plates and shapes is better, but while pool prices on these materials are firm those works have an advantage which manufacture bridges and buildings from the stuff made in their own rolling mills. They are making low bids on contracts for bridges and buildings. The result is that the views of the consumer are really being met and their interest is being stimulated.

The demand for wire products is very heavy under the stimulus of the recent slight advance. The scrap markets have been quite excited, and the claim is made that in a number of instances prominent dealers have been forced to cover "short" sales.

Advices from abroad are to the effect that the German Steel makers are making very low prices for Steel in the international markets, naming 75 shillings for sheet and tin plate bars, which would be equal to 73 shillings for billets. Our American makers do not appear to be meeting these prices, which would be equivalent to about $14.50 for billets at Pittsburg. As a matter of fact, the leading interest has been declining business offered for delivery during the next few months.

NORTHERN SECURITIES DECISION.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Two facts stood out in the Supreme Court on Monday in which considerable speculation was indulged as to when the Northern Securities case would be handed down. These two facts were: First, that no decisions were announced; second, that the court would take a recess for three weeks from next Monday, Feb. 1.

From the first of these facts the inference was drawn that the members of the court are so busily engaged in considering the Northern Securities case that they had not time to devote to any of the other cases which have been heard and are now awaiting decision by the court. From the second fact taking into consideration the first, it was reasoned that the court would not delay for three weeks a decision in a case which it was important to the business interests of the country should be determined speedily.

While these deductions are purely speculative, still there are many familiar with the practice of the court who consider that they rise above mere conjecture. On the other hand, there are many who believe that the court, during the recess of three weeks, will have more time to give to the Northern Securities case than they have had or would have with the court holding daily sittings, and that during the recess they will arrive by conference at the decision to be rendered and direct, as is usual, one of their members to prepare the decision in accordance with the opinion of the majority of the court.

There seems to be little or no doubt that the court will divide, and that majority and minority decisions will be rendered. Of course, the majority decision is the opinion of the court.

Justice Brown, who has been absent from the bench for a month or more, and who did not hear the arguments in this case, will nevertheless take part in the decision under an agreement made in open court, by which counsel on both sides acquiesced in his participation in the case. This he can very readily do by taking the briefs on both sides and arriving at his own conclusion therefrom. He will have missed only the oral arguments, which, as a matter of fact are only elaborations of points made in the printed final briefs.

The weather map shows a continuance of the low temperatures, although the mercury is some higher in the Southwest. There are light snows in the Dakotas, Nebraska, Iowa and in the Ohio Valley. Most of this precipitation is a mere trace. There is none in Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma or Southward.

The mercury at 7 A. M. was 32 above to 22 below in the extreme North, 28 above to 24 below in Dakotas and Minnesota, 18 below to 16 above in Iowa and Nebraska, and 6 below to 10 above in Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio.

The indications are for light snow flurries. Temperatures will moderate in the Central Valleys, but will be colder again in Northwest Thursday.

Fire, Monday, destroyed the Crandon and Hartzell business blocks at Niles, Ohio. Loss, $75,000; partly covered by insurance.

Reports covering the extreme east of Indian Territory to the Texas panhandle and from Kansas to the Red River tell of good, timely rains Jan. 20. The crops were in need of moisture and have been benefited.

The Societe de Credit Suisse, the Schweitzer Bankverein, and the Union Financiere de Geneve will introduce the common stock of the Baltimore and Ohio Railway on the markets of Zurich, Basle and Geneva, Jan. 26.

The Weather Bureau says: "A very light snow covering was reported, Monday, as far south as the Ohio River, Southern Missouri, and Central Oklahoma. In New England and North Central States the depth is six inches or more, but elsewhere is less than five inches."

It is stated that the Pennsylvania Railroad will spend in all for improvements already planned about $10,000,000, and that this amount will be asked for from the board of directors by President Cassatt. Among other things the company expects to spend $10,000,000 on the tunnel terminal in New York City.

The directors of the North American Company of New York have declared a dividend of 5 per cent per annum, an increase of 1 per cent per annum, payable in four quarterly installments. The dividend will be paid out of the dividends and interest received by the company from its investments without regard to the general profits of the business.

A Boston dispatch says: "Wool has been bought freely during the past six days at firm prices. Although medium Wool continues in largest movement, there is a general demand for all grades, with more interest shown in fine medium stock. The anticipated higher prices have not materialized. A steady business has been done in Territory Wools. In pulled Wools there is a fair amount of trading, with prices firm for medium grades. The market for foreign Wools is quiet."

According to the annual report of Col. G. D. Rogers, Secretary of the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce, farmers have diverted their attention from Grain growing to Stock raising and dairying. The Minneapolis Flour mills and the country mills have greater needs than ever, and it is estimated that they grind in Minnesota and the Dakotas about 146,000,000 bu of Wheat. About 50,000,000 bu are shipped out and 20,000,000 are used on the farms for seed and other purposes. The Wheat receipts for 1903 were 86,864,070 bu, and the shipments 15,608,800 bu.

Statistican Buchanan estimated the remainder of the bourbon whisky crop of 1896, Kentucky inspection, to be 741,000 original gauge gallons on Dec. 31, has since diminished considerably, and as the remaining crop of 1897 now in bond numbers less than 500,000 gallons, these two should be totally absorbed before "force day" arrives, says a Cincinnati paper. There are practically 2,500,000 gallons of '98s left in bond, 7,500,000 gallons of '99s, and in the neighborhood of 11,000,000 gallons of 1900, out of a production of 21,000,000 gallons all all based upon the original gauge.

Feeders of Sheep and Lambs in Nebraska anticipate a great future for their State in that business. Until the last two or three years little attempt had been made to raise Alfalfa in the State. Now it has been discovered that enormous crops of this most valuable feed for Sheep and Lambs can be raised there without irrigation. With its big yields of Corn and Alfalfa Hay and its convenient location to the Western ranges as a base of supply of feeding Stock the conditions for feeding Sheep at the lowest possible expense are about the most favorable of any State in the business.

President Greene of the Greene Copper Company has issued a circular outlining a plan to authorize the enlargement of the capital stock from $7,200,000 to $8,640,000, an increase of 20 per cent. A meeting of the stockholders to ratify the plan is called for Feb. 10. The increase in the company's plant made necessary by the extent and magnitude of the ore bodies opened up within the last two years is the reason given for the increase. New stock is to be offered to stockholders at par, and the entire increase will be underwritten by a syndicate of stockholders.

A dispatch from Salt Lake, Utah, says that negotiations are pending for the sale of the Daly-West and Silver King mines of Park City to the Federal Mining and Smelting Company. The president of the Federal company said that the mines had been examined with a view to their purchase, and that the report was very favorable. If the deal is closed it will be one of the largest of the kind ever consummated in the United States. It is understood that the values placed on the mines are, The Silver King $10,000,000, and the Daly-West $7,000,000. Both mines are heavy producers. The Silver King pays $100,000 a month in dividends and the Daly-West $117,000 a month.

The bondholders' protective committee in the Michigan Telephone Company has about reached a final agreement on a plan for reorganizing the company under the recent foreclosure sale. A series of conferences on the subject have been held in New York in the last two weeks. The plan provides for forming a new company, part of whose securities are to be exchanged for the bonds of the existing company, and for raising a sufficient amount of new money to provide for the purchase expenses, to furnish ample working capital, and to make all necessary improvements. It is expected the plan will be announced in a short time.

Bankers well informed on the affairs of the United States Shipbuilding Company declare that a plan has been evolved which will be the means of settling the litigation now pending and satisfy all interests. The proposed plan, which it is intimated will be officially announced in the near future, provides for the scaling down of the capital from $79,000,000 and a reorganization with a capital stock of $30,000,000, divided into $15,000,000 common and $15,000,000 preferred. There will be raised $3,000,000 cash for working capital upon notes of the Shipbuilding company, which may be renewed from time to time if necessary. The present Shipbuilding stock will be wiped out. It is understood that Charles M. Schwab has offered either personally or in connection with others to advance the $3,000,000. The new apportionment of stock, it is said, will give Mr. Schwab for his bond holdings of the Shipbuilding company $9,000,000 new common stock and $4,000,000 new preferred, while the remaining bondholders will receive $6,000,000 new common and $9,000,000 preferred. This proposition, it is stated, has been accepted by Mr. Schwab and all other interests in the company, except those represented by the bondholders' protective committee.

The new rule recently adopted by the New York Produce Exchange, after being posted ten days, will be effective on all Grain quoted after Feb. 1. The rules on future contracts, which include additional grades and the Buffalo delivery, will be effective Feb. 1 on all contracts maturing on and after Aug. 1. Contract deliveries may be made in lots of 5,000 bu of any contract grade in licensed elevator in New York or Buffalo. New York deliveries will be as heretofore customary; the Buffalo delivery will be less the "published at and east" of Buffalo rail rate, an additional ½c per bu equalization, together with seven days free storage to buyer instead of the present three days at New York. The contract grades and the basis for delivery, the top grades being even with the contract and the lower grades at discounts, follows: Wheat—No. 2 Red, No. 1 Northern, No. 1 Hard Spring, even; No. 2 Hard Winter, No. 2 White, 2c off; No. 3 Red, No. 2 Northern Spring, 5c off; No. 3 Hard Winter, 7c off. Corn—No. 1 White, No. 2 White, No. 1 Yellow, No. 2 Yellow, No. 2 Corn, even; No. 3 Corn, old, 2c off; No. 3 White, No. 3 Yellow, No. 3 Corn, 3c off, February to September, inclusive, or 5c off March to August inclusive. Oats—No. 1 White Clipped, No. 2 White Clipped, No. 1 White, No. 2 White and Standard Oats even; No. 3 White Clipped and No. 3 White Oats, 1c off.

With regard to reports that the recent disagreement between the New York Glucose Company and the Corn Products Company was reaching an acute stage, a person in authority is quoted as follows by a New York paper: "The New York Glucose Company, of course, is always in the market to compete with the Corn Products Company, both concerns being sellers in the open market. The advance of 10c per 100 lbs which has just become effective in both glucose and starch is in keeping with the advance in Corn. There is not as much money in the business as heretofore. That is to say, the profits of the past will not be enjoyed again owing to competition. Since the surplus stocks have been worked off, the acuteness of the rivalry for business among the leading companies has been eliminated from the situation to a considerable extent, with the result that trade conditions are now normal. This surplus of stocks which has been moved off has gone abroad in competition with other cereals. Some sales have been made at less than the price of Corn. The Corn Products Company has large specialties, both in sirups and laundry starch. The company, through the active sale of these specialties, has been enabled to make up for its reduced profits in other products. The Corn Products Company grinds about 25,000 bu Corn daily into specialties, especially family starch."

British Consols in London opened 1-16 lower and closed at a net loss of 2-16 for the day at 87 15-16 money and 88 1-16 account.

Broomhall cables: "Our agent estimates the shipments from Argentina at 2,000 000 bu of Wheat; Corn, 800,000 bu. Quality of new Wheat satisfactory.

Local Securities were slow, with but few important changes. The feature was the selling of Can preferred in the way of taking profits. It broke 1 3/8. Title and Trust was strong and 1/2 higher.

The proportion of the reserve of the Bank of England to liabilities this week 49.20 per cent, against 45.61 per cent last week, and compares with an advance from 46 per cent to 47 1/8 per cent in this week last year.

The Northwestern Miller says: "Special telegrams to this journal as to the condition of the Winter Wheat crop indicate that as a whole it is amply protected by snow from the intense cold which prevails generally throughout the Wheat belt."

The Cincinnati Price Current in its weekly crop summary says: "The growing Wheat condition is maintained. Generally small top growth. Healthy root growth believed in most cases. Wheat movement moderate. No material betterment in Corn condition."

A direct Odessa cable reads: "Think we have seen worst and anticipate a better feeling abroad. Even if you should decline, doubt if we would follow. Prospects for new crop very bad. Receipts of Wheat are small. Wheat stocks are moderate, and Wheat shipments are very small."

The reorganization plan of the Consolidated Lake Superior Company probably will be announced in a few days. Out of a total of $5,056,600 syndicate participants all but about $250,000 have consented to the proposition which allows a liberal interest in the plan to the old stockholders.

Broomhall cables: "Roumania reports severe frosts and insufficient snow covering. It is feared the growing Wheat may suffer severely. Australia Crops will not turn out quite so large as expected. Rust has done a good deal of damage. In Argentina rain in all four Wheat provinces is reported."

Stocks in New York were depressed by unsettling rumors from the far East and on heavy selling by Western operators. Steel preferred lost 2 points on a report that prices of Steel rails are to be cut. Common at the same time declined 3/4. Western Railway shares made losses ranging up to 1 3/4. Copper declined 1 1/2, Sugar 2, but Realty preferred advanced 1 3/8 and reacted 1 point. Money 2 per cent.

Negotiations have been resumed between George J. Gould and the Rock Island-'Frisco system for the joint use of the new Iron Mountain-Texas Pacific route from Memphis to New Orleans. No contract has yet been signed, but it is asserted that the stumbling block to former negotiations, which at one time caused the announcement that the Rock Island would build an independent line to New Orleans, has been removed.

All records of the present season were broken in the New York Cotton market to-day. There was great excitement. The South, "bull" leaders and "shorts" were large buyers. Liverpool was up sharply on a scare among the "shorts" and on American buying. Selling for profits was enormous, but offerings were well taken. July sold to 16.40c. Port receipts were estimated at half of those of last year. Closing sales were at 50@56 points advance.

Extract from letter dated Antwerp, Jan. 16: "Our Wheat market continues to remain very quiet. The whole trade, merchants and millers, remain indifferent about the Japanese-Russian war talk and even if it comes to the worst, that war should be declared, we do not see why prices should be influenced by it. Our personal opinion is that in case of war, Russia would even export more freely than at present, as money would get tied up, and as the Russian banks probably would withdraw the advances made on stocks in the seaports. Offers from River Plate are liberal and would be still more so, unless shippers were in difficulties on account of the strike. But a strike, as you know, cannot go on forever and as soon as there would be an end to it, shipments from Argentina would show a substantial increase."

A St. Paul, Minn., dispatch says: "A sensational turn in the Grain rate war was given Wednesday, when the Chicago Great Western announced its intention to put into effect Jan 30 new proportional rates on Grain from Kansas and Nebraska territory to Chicago and the Twin Cities. The 2c reduction in the Grain rates made by the Chicago and Northwestern Dec. 28 has developed in the publication of new proportional rates from Omaha, Council Bluffs, St. Joseph and Kansas City to Chicago. The local rates to Omaha and Kansas City from Northern Kansas and Southern Nebraska points, added to the 11c rate on Wheat and 13c rate on Corn, the present proportional rates of the Great Western, make a through rate 5c higher than the rate which has been in effect by other lines for the past thirty days. The Great Western has, therefore, found it necessary to make a proportional rate of 9c on Wheat and 8c on Corn from Kansas City and Omaha to Minneapolis to meet the current rates of other lines."

WINTER WHEAT—Ruled steady. Conditions remain unchanged. Choice Wheat was in good demand on milling account, and poor Wheat was slow. No 2 Red in store quotable from 1c under May to 2c over, and ranged at 88@92 1/4c, depending on quality, and fresh arrivals ranged at 90@97c for the soft dark to soft bright yellow variety. No 3 Red fresh arrivals quotably 85@90c, depending on quality—outside very choice soft variety, with a sale of a musty car at 88c. No 2 Hard at the river ranged at 80@84c with a sale of a car at the outside price. No. 3 Hard local sold at 75c, and at the river at 78c, and ranged at 72@83c.

SPRING WHEAT—Trade light and checked some by the small receipts. Choice fresh arrivals of Wheat, suitable for milling, met with a good demand, but poor Wheat remained slow. No 1 Northern in store ranged at 85 1/2@86 3/4c, and fresh arrivals quotable at 86@90c depending on quality. No. 3 Spring local sold at 83@85c, and ranged at 75@80c for ordinary to choice, and sold at the river at 78c. No. 4 Spring local sold at 6@65c for ordinary to 77@78c for good, and quotably 80@82c for fancy hard variety.

REGULAR WHEAT—The market was nervous and prices very easily influenced either way most of the session. Trade at the same time was of smaller volume than of late, mainly local and professional. Last prices showed the May 1/2c better, while the July gained about 1/2c. The early tone was easy influenced to some extent by the selling of July by several of yesterday's buyers, also the Southwest. The Price Current was moderately "bearish," and cables were a little easier, but at the decline the "long" interest gave the market some support and situation became stronger. Foreign crop news was rather "bullish" and imparted some strength to the market. Primary receipts fell 79 000 bu short of those in 1903. Kansas City and St. Louis received 162,000 bu, against 109 000 bu last year, but the shipments were liberal at 210,000 bu. Liverpool quoted spot steady to 1/4d lower and futures were 1/8@3/8d lower. London came 1/4d higher to 1/8d lower. Paris was weak and declined 1/4@1/2c. Antwerp was unchanged. The Price Current stated that growing Wheat conditions were maintained; plant generally has small top growth, but healthy root believed in most cases. An Odessa cable read: "Think we have seen the worst and anticipate a better feeling abroad on Wheat; even if you should decline it is doubtful if we would follow; prospects new crop Wheat very bad; receipts small; stocks moderate and shipments very small." Roumania reported severe frosts and insufficient snow covering, and Australia claimed yield would not turn out quite as large as expected. Broomhall cabled that there was rain in all of four Wheat provinces of Argentine. The Liverpool market was affected by pressure of Argentine offerings and general dullness. The Flour output for the week was 363,000 brls, compared with 189 000 brls same week in 1903. Receipts in the Northwest were 76 cars under those of 1903. Minneapolis stocks have increased but 20,000 bu the past five days. It was rumored that Kansas City had sold 300,000 bu cash late yesterday to go to Minneapolis. The signal service generally predicted fair weather. British consols closed one to two sixteenths lower. Exports were small, and only 12 boat loads were accepted at the seaboard. Part of the strength came from the war talk. Direct London cables referred to the situation in the far East as more critical. Stocks in Wall Street broke and was a factor. The Northwest markets ruled strong, but at 90 1/8c to 90 1/4c for May the market ran into "long" Wheat and prices settled back. Argentine shipment this week were estimated at 2,000,000 bu. Cash sales here small. Receipts at Duluth 31 cars and at Minneapolis 245 cars, a total of 276, against 206 cars yesterday, 324 cars a week ago, and 352 cars last year. Local receipts included 19 cars Winter, 9 cars Spring and no cars mixed, a total of 28 cars, against 89 cars last year. Included in above was none of contract grade. There were 17 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 30 cars. Withdrawals were no bu. Receipts at Western points were 488,137 bu, against 567,254 bu last year. At Eastern points $2,134 bu, against 145,411 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 295 185 bu, against 164 255 bu last year, and from Eastern points 800 bu, against 329 021 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 12,474 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 56,933 bu.

CORN—Was only moderately active, but at the same time rather unsettled with the close 1/4c to 1/4@3/8c higher. Commission houses were on both sides of the market, with floor traders inclined to favor the "bear" side. Early in the session there was considerable selling pressure, and the price settled back 3/8c, but later rallied 1/2@3/8c, being helped by Wheat. Receipts were a little larger than expected at 184 cars, but the grading was poor, 140 cars of the same being off grades. Last year the receipts were 215 cars, and 225 cars are estimated for to-morrow. The weather was favorable for the movement, but the country is selling little, and the Price Current claimed there was no betterment in the condition of the crop. Generally fair weather was predicted. Liverpool quoted spot steady to 1/4d lower and futures 1/8d lower. Receipts West, 461,000 bu, were 246,000 bu smaller than a year ago, and the shipments, 463,000 bu were 287,000 bu less. Shippers reported only a moderate demand and sales were small. Clearings 142 000 bu, with 9 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. There were 29,000 bu and 327 cars transferred from private to public elevators. Local arrivals were 195,000 bu and the shipments 169,000 bu. Southwestern markets were firm. Car lots were in moderate supply and fair request. Feeling was easier and prices about 1/4c lower. Argentine shipments this week were estimated at 800,000 bu. No 2 closed about 47 1/4c and No 2 Yellow at 48c. No 8 closed at 41 1/2@47 1/4c. No 3 Yellow closed at 41 1/2@47 1/2c. No Grade sold at 35@37c. No. 4 at 40@43c. No. 3 White at 42@44c. Ears at 40c. Billed through. No Grade at 35@37 1/2c. No. 4 at 39 1/2@41c. No. 3 at 41@41 1/2c. No 3 Yellow at 41 1/4@41 3/4c. No 3 White at 41@41 1/2c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Moderately active and rather unsettled, closing 1/4c to 1/4@3/8c higher.

OATS—Were unsettled with moderate trading. Prices were off 1/4c early, when the advance in Wheat and good commission house buying made an advance of 1/2c. A reaction followed the bulge, and closing sales were at a net gain of only 1/8c. July was given more attention and advanced 1/2c from the low point on local covering induced by the war scare. Receipts were 87 cars, with 75 cars estimated for to-morrow. There were no withdrawals. Seaboard clearances were 11,684 bu. Car lots to go to store were strong to 1/2c higher. No 3 White sold at 40 1/2@41c. Standard in store closed about 38 3/4@39 1/4c as to location.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 32 3/4@32 7/8c. Opened at 32 7/8c, sold to 32 3/4c, to 32 7/8c at close.

RYE—Was quiet. The firmness and reluctance on the part of holders to recede any checked trading. A moderate demand existed. The receipts were 10 cars. There were withdrawn from private warehouse two cars and from public elevator 9 000 bu. No export clearances from the seaboard. No 2 in store nominally 56 1/4c and fresh arrivals quotably 58@60c. No. 3 fresh arrivals quotably 54@56c. No 4 sold at 46c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet. Holders refuse to make concessions. January nominally 56 1/4c. March nominally 57c. May 58c bid and 58 1/2c asked.

BARLEY—Was exceedingly quiet and dull. Only a limited number of cars of malting Barley on hand, and demand equally restricted. Buyers also indifferent, and their views of values had to prevail. There were some good cars and some poor to fair—no choice to fancy. Feed or mixing Barley, also Screenings, were very scarce. For such goods there was a mild inquiry; former prices could be obtained. Twenty-seven cars inspected in. Light cash supply did not seem to turn any demand to to arrive lots; no business in these heard of. Screenings remain quotably 30@40c for poor to choice. Barley, feed or mixing, salable at 38@39c; poor, musty nominally lower; malting—low grade about 40@42c; very dirty yellow; common, 43@44c; fair, 45@47c; good, 48@52c; choice, 53@57c; fancy possibly above.

SEEDS—There was practically no trading. Market generally bare of offerings. Indications also were that orders were light, for no one seemed to care to purchase. The railroads are reported to be in rather bad shape on account of snow and ice for moving property. Cold weather also retards buying for spring supplies.

Timothy—There was an absence of trading. No cash Seed to-day on sale. There appeared to be no regular demand, though something of attractive quality probably would sell. Futures were not mentioned. The market was in a dull nominal, neglected state. January was quotably $3 05; February at $3 10 and March at $3 15. Country lots at $2 20@3 25 for poor to fancy; fair to good quotably $2 70@2 90; choice, $3 00@3 10, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 40@2 60.

Flax—There was no trading. On account of a decline in the Northwest, No. 1 Northwestern Seed was 1 1/2c lower in value. The rest presented no changes, but all were dull and general tone of the market was easy. Local movement was nil. Only 2 cars or 1,700 bu received and 1 car or 830 bu taken out. At Minneapolis the receipts were 20 cars, at Duluth 10 cars. Values were situated, nominally, as follows: No 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest $1 17 1/2. No 1 was $1 10, and Rejected nominally $1 05@1 10. January delivery quotably $1 10. May was $1 13 asked.

Clover—Was quotably steady and unchanged. Little moving either way at present, due to obstructed freight traffic. No change to note. Seed of good quality steady and firm. Contract Seed, spot about $11 25, and March delivery $11 35; country lots, common to choice $8 25@11 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds $8 00@9 00; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00; inferior lower; fair to good quality about $9 50@10 50.

Other Seeds—All in the Hungarian and Millet lines were quotably steady to firm; both kinds very scarce. In fact, there were no open market offerings. Quotable: Hungarian, common and light color to choice dark, at $1 50@1 85. Common Millet, 95c@$1 25 for poor to fancy. German Millet, 90c@$1 25. Siberian, 75@90c. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 75@90c. Mustard, 85c@$1 15. Buckwheat quiet, nominally easy; good milling quotable at $1 15@1 20.

HOG PRODUCTS—A fairly good trade was reported in Hog Products in a speculative way, and the feeling was somewhat unsettled. Offerings were moderately free by packers and local "longs," influenced to some extent by the liberal Hog supply, and lower prices. The demand was only fair, and "shorts" accepted only moderate quantities. Prices ruled lower on all the leading articles early but rather more steadiness prevailed toward the close. Outside orders were moderate and local trading was only fair. Bulk of the business was in contracts for May and July. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 84,600, compared with 61,300 one year ago. Returns of the packing of the West for the week exhibited an increase of 25,000 Hogs, compared with the corresponding week in 1903. Foreign markets indicated a steady market for Meats at unchanged prices, while Lard was easier and 6d lower. Receipts of Products were only fair—of Lard and Meats about 14 cars. Shipments were moderate—of Lard and Meats about 18 cars. Demand on shipping account was only fair, and offerings were moderate. Sales were not very large, and prices were without material change.

Mess Pork—Trade was moderate in the market for Mess Pork, and the feeling was a little unsettled. Offerings were fair and the demand was only moderate. Trading chiefly in May contract. Stock on hand enlarging slowly. Rather an easy feeling prevailed early and prices ruled 2 1/2@5c lower, but moderate miscellaneous buying caused an advance of 5@7 1/2c. Later, an easier feeling prevailed, and prices settled back again, but rallied 2 1/2@5c, and the market closed rather steady. Shipping demand was moderate and offerings were only fair. Cash lots were quotable at $13 25@13 37 1/2.

Lard—Trade was fairly active in the Lard market, and the feeling was somewhat unsettled. Offerings were fair, and the demand was moderately active. Supply only fair. Foreign advices unfavorable to holders. At the opening, the feeling was easy, and prices ruled 2 1/2@10c lower. Later, a little more steadiness was manifested, and prices rallied 2 1/2@5c. At the advance, there was a little pressure to sell, and prices receded 5c, but toward the close rallied again, and the market closed rather steady at nearly outside figures. Inquiry on shipping account was rather light, and offerings were moderate. Cash lots quotable at about $7 22 1/2@7 25. Loose lots called for moderately and offerings were only fair. Prices were steady at about 70@72 1/2c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in fair request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotably lower at $6 87 1/2@7 00. Short Rib Sides—A fairly good business was reported in the market for Short Rib Sides, and the feeling in a general way was easier. *Minnesota and Dakota mills outside of Minneapolis and Duluth

The Minneapolis output last week decreased 40,000 brls. A break-down by one mill and the closing of others late in the week for repairs to the tail race, worked to curtail the production. To-day, Jan. 26, there are seventeen mills in operation and their output for the week is likely to approximate 3,5,000 brls.

Trade in Flour last week was less active than in the week before. With the output reduced perhaps enough orders were booked to offset the quantity made. But most of the business was done in the middle of the week, on the bulge in Wheat. Domestic buyers were willing to take Flour at old prices, and the business was chiefly done on that basis. Since then most of the mills have experienced a very quiet market. The buying trade is not convinced of the permanency of present Wheat prices, and in most instances, having considerable Flour bought at lower prices, they are not greatly concerned over the advance. However, there are some buyers in the East who have held off in expectation of lower prices, and having been disappointed in this they are still loth to take hold.

When export trade is spoken of millers say that it is so bad as not to be talked about. Importers seem not the least aroused by the boom in Wheat, and they are harder than ever to interest. Some in the trade attribute this to large stocks in Europe, where the re-seller is reported to be temporarily doing what business is current. To sell patent would require too great a sacrifice for most millers. Local mills appear to be out and in the market as to clears, and some sales have been made during the week to London and Holland.

The majority of mills on Saturday reduced the price of patent, and it is now held at a range of $4 40@4 65 per 196 lbs in wood.

The range of Eastern prices to-day, Jan. 26, asked by Minneapolis mills for Patent in wood was: Boston, $5 15@5 25; New York rate points, $5 10@5 25; Pittsburg points, $5 00@5 25; Baltimore, $5 00@5 25, Philadelphia $5 05@5 25; Albany, $5 10@5 25, Buffalo, $5 00@5 25; Michigan $4 65@4 90, Iowa, Illinois and Wisconsin, $4 60@4 85.

Our cable to-day do not show that there has been any improvement in foreign Flour markets during the last week. In Glasgow stocks are heavy and receipts continue large, with what demand there is chiefly for Kansas Patent. Liverpool reports a market that is too quiet to test prices; nearly all grades can be had cheaper on spot than for shipment. London is in the same plight and receipts there have been heavy. The Amsterdam market is quiet but steady, with little or no variation in prices; all grades are moving slowly.

CROP CONDITIONS ABROAD.

"The first complete week of the new year has been attended by weather of very variable character," says the London Times of the 15th inst. "The break up of the frost at the end of the preceding week was followed in most localities by mild, rainy conditions, the precipitation having occasionally been heavy. Fog on one or two days alternated with bright sunshine on others, and on several nights there were slight frosts. The general result has been to reduce the land again to an almost unworkable condition, a circumstance much deplored in many arable districts, where it was hoped that opportunity would arise at this comparatively slack time of the year for overtaking some of the arrears of autumn plowing. The rain following the thaw has practically put an end to carting upon the land at present; country roads, moreover, have fallen into a very rotten condition and are deep in mud.

"Such breadths of Wheat as were planted in time, together with other autumn-sown crops, seem to have emerged from the frost without injury, and for so early a period of the year their appearance may be regarded as not unpromising. The return of mild wet weather served again to check the progress of threshing; and, altogether, most of the kinds of farm work at present seasonable have had to be suspended. The Grain markets are in anything but a healthy condition, and Barley growers in particular are much disheartened at the meagre prices which their produce commands. The course of the trade in 1903 is indicated by the following official average prices per imperial quarter for the several periods specified:

[From the Wall Street Journal, Jan. 26.]

Exports of Merchandise have averaged $1,250,000,000 annually for the last five years and the aggregate foreign trade with a total of $11,500,000,000, has never been below $2,000,000,000 in any year during that period, in which the nation has reached its highest point in trade with the world. During this five-year period the country has sent out an excess of $2,657,000,000 in Merchandise exports and an excess of nearly $112,000,000 in Silver. The excess of imports of Gold was but $41,529,000, and the favorable balance of trade on these items was $2,724,000,000. This is not the full extent of the results of our foreign trade since the era of prosperity began after the election of Mr. McKinley in 1896, for in the final years 1895 and 1897 there was favorable balance of $694,000,000, which would carry the total to three and a third billions of dollars. This unprecedented addition of wealth has been sufficient to cancel the outside indebtedness of the country and to pay for the necessities and lavish luxuries which the nation has purchased abroad. The most marked result has been that on the world at large. The United States has risen to the position of the greatest national money maker, without greatly disturbing its own equanimity or vanity, but the people of other countries have looked on in amazement and wonder at every stage of our growth, one of the most striking influences yet apparent has been in England. Our success has put in motion in that country an influential movement which promises to change a long established economical system and put in force the methods and in part the principles under which the success of the United States has been accomplished. The practical outcome in this country has apparently effected a greater change in the minds of Englishmen in a few years than all the teachings of theorists since Adam Smith published The Wealth of Nations, in the year the Declaration of Independence was signed.

The weather map shows severe cold weather through the Northwest and West. It continues a good deal under zero in the North, and under zero generally all through Iowa and Nebraska. There is no precipitation in Kansas or southward, and only one light snowfall in Missouri. There are light general snows through Iowa and in Nebraska and Minnesota, with a trace or two in Illinois.

The mercury at 7 A. M. was 20 below to 34 above in extreme North, 10 to 20 below in Dakotas and Minnesota, 14 below to 2 above in Iowa and Nebraska, and 4 to 21 above in Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio.

The forecast for 36 hours is: Kansas, Nebraska and the Dakotas, fair; warmer. Illinois and Indiana, fair preceded by snow flurries, colder to-night, warmer Friday. Missouri, fair; colder today, warmer Friday. Michigan, snow flurries and colder; warmer Friday. Wisconsin and Minnesota, fair and cold to-night; warmer Friday. Iowa, fair and cold, warmer Friday.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

A fire, Tuesday, at Waterloo, Iowa, caused a loss of $30,000.

Fire, Tuesday, destroyed the Goddard storage warehouse, Louisville, Ky. The losses aggregate $225,000.

The net earnings of the Pittsburg and Lake Erie Railroad for the past year were $2,491,160, an increase of $254,080 over the preceding year.

The coupons due Feb 1 of the first mortgage 6 per cent bonds of the United Breweries Company of Chicago will be paid at maturity by the Continental Trust Company of New York.

Application was made at Trenton, N. J., Tuesday, for the appointment of a receiver for the Urban and Suburban Realty and Title Company of Newark, N. J. It is claimed the company has liabilities of $314,385, and that their assets are less than $1,000.

There is a report current that independent Starch manufacturers have been approached regarding a plan for a selling company through which products of the trust and outside interests are to be disposed of at uniform prices. No official confirmation is obtainable.

The New York State Superintendent of Banking has thus far passed on the statements of thirty-five trust companies for the year 1903. These thirty-five companies had aggregate resources of $726,429,763 on Jan. 1, 1904. These companies paid in dividends during the year $4,768,000.

The Cincinnati Price Current reports the packing of the West for the week at 520,000 Hogs, compared with 580,000 for the week previous, and 495,000 for the corresponding week in 1903. Aggregate packing since November 1 reported at 6,430,000 Hogs, compared with 6,395,000 for the corresponding time last year—an increase of 35,000 Hogs.

The Fruit crop of California for 1903 will exceed any in the history of the State, and will amount to $55,000,000 exclusive of home consumption. The wholesale Fruit business in California now requires the services of 250,000 men to care for it from orchard to refrigerator car. The Fruit shipped during the year 1903 required 55,000 cars for transportation. In the preceding year the crop amounted to 47,401 car loads.

The bondholders' protective committee of Colorado Fuel and Iron, through its offer to advance the February interest on the debenture bonds deposited in favor of the plan, has obligated itself for $288,175. There have been deposited with the protective committee in favor of the plan $11,527,000 bonds out of a total issue of $14,068,000. The holders of the $2,511,000 bonds not deposited with the committee will lose interest of $63,525.

Fourteen national banks in Chicago reporting their condition on Jan 22 showed an increase of $14,607,000 in deposits since the date of the last previous statements—Nov. 17, 1903—and an increase of nearly the same amount in cash resources. Loans were increased less than $800,000. As compared with the figures in the nearest corresponding statements in 1903 those of Feb. 6, deposits and loans on Jan. 22 were less by $5,000,000, while cash resources were $6,600,000 larger.

The Sheldon syndicate, which will expire by limitation next Friday, will not be extended. It was formed to take over about $4,000,000 bonds of the United States Shipbuilding Company, which the former Trust Company of the Republic was not able to carry. The syndicate agreed to take the bonds at 75, and they can now be bought at from 18 to 21. Its members have paid in about 95 per cent of their original subscriptions. The syndicate loss will be heavy, estimated by some at nearly $2,500,000.

The Pressed Steel Car Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on its preferred stock and the usual dividend of 1 per cent on its common stock, both payable Feb 29. Books close for preferred Feb. 2 and for common Feb. 8. A statement was presented at the meeting, Wednesday, showing net earnings for the year 1903 of $2,768,897, out of which the preferred dividend of 7 per cent has been paid and $260,000 charged off for depreciation, leaving a net surplus for 1903 of $1,653,597.

Official statistics of anthracite mined and marketed in 1903 show the proportion of the Coal carried by each of the railroads. The total amount of Coal marketed was 59,362,831 tons, compared with 31,200,890 tons in 1902, the abnormal strike year, and 53,568,601 tons in 1901, a normal year. Of this record breaking output the Reading carried 19.36 per cent; the Lehigh Valley, 16.40 per cent; Central of New Jersey, 12.47 per cent; Lackawanna, 18.13 per cent, Delaware and Hudson, 9.99 per cent. Pennsylvania, 6.67 per cent, Erie, 1.83 per cent, Ontario and Western, 2.54 per cent; and the Delaware, Susquehanna and Schuylkill, 2.76 per cent.

Through a statement filed with the House Committee on the District of Columbia by the Recorder of Deeds of the District Government, members of Congress, Tuesday, were apprised of the fact that the code of laws for the District which has been in operation during the past two years offers more inducements for incorporations than even those of New Jersey. During this time 922 certificates of incorporation have been issued, of which 720 were business concerns. The aggregate capital of these amounted to $1,511,901,300. The entire amount of fees derived by the District was $1,091, or less than $1 20 for each incorporation. The capital of one concern was $500,000,000 and the cost of its incorporation was $1 25. Another was capitalized for $120,000,000, and still another for $200,000,000, each of which paid the District a fee of $1 25.

Last year the Consolidated Tobacco Company made a 20 per cent dividend to stockholders, at the same time issuing $10,000,000 additional stock, making the total capital stock $40,000,000. The company has declared no dividend this year, it being considered desirable to accumulate a large surplus in the company's treasury. It is expected to begin the payment of regular dividends next year on Consolidated Tobacco stock. In December last the syndicate agreement in the case of the Consolidated Tobacco 4 per cent bonds was extended for a year. So far the syndicate has disposed of only a portion of its holdings and the bonds have not been distributed to any very large extent. The syndicate is understood to have underwritten the issue at about 70 and consequently is not in the market as a seller at the present level of prices.

A banking firm at Richmond, Va., in a pamphlet on the great progress made by the Southern States since the civil war, has the following to say of the Cotton mill interests in the South. "In 1880 the South had invested in Cotton mills $21,000,000; in 1890, $60,000,000; in 1900, $112,000,000, and at the present time $175,000,000 to $200,000,000. The relative growth of this industry in the South as compared with New England is shown in the fact that in 1892 the consumption of Cotton in Northern mills was 2,190,000 bales and in Southern mills 686,000 bales, while for the crop year of 1903 the consumption in Northern mills was 1,967,000 bales and in Southern mills 2,000,000 bales. Thus, while the consumption of Cotton was practically stationary in the country outside of the South, it has more than trebled in the last ten years in the South. Connected with the development of Cotton has been the increase in the manufacture of Cotton Seed Oil and kindred products. In 1880 there were forty Cotton Seed Oil mills in the South, with a capital of $3,500,000. To-day there are over 700, with a capital of $50,000,000."

Announcement was made, Wednesday, by Chairman Wilkins of the Chicago Stock Exchange that the voting trust agreement in the common stock of the Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company, Chicago, will expire Feb. 1, 1904. On and after that date certificates of stocks will be issued to holders of voting trust certificates upon their assignment and surrender to the Central Trust Company of New York. Holders are to notify the trust company whether they wish New York or Chicago certificates, and to give their addresses in full. Also, he said, that the company intended on Feb. 1, 1904 to issue new certificates of stocks for the preferred shares, as the certificates of preferred stock refer to the voting trust agreement on the common stock. The stock list committee has ruled that the certificates, both new and old, will be good delivery on sales of preferred stock from Feb. 1, 1904, until April 1, 1904, after which date only the new certificates will be good delivery. Holders of the old certificates of the preferred stock are requested to make the exchange at their earliest convenience.

A New York special to the Chicago Inter Ocean says: "President J. C. Maben of the Sloss-Sheffield Iron and Steel Company, President Don Bacon of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company, President Alexis W. Thompson of the Republic Iron and Steel Company, and representatives of the various boards of directors were in conference, Tuesday, over the proposition to either re establish the Southern Iron pool or control the trade through consolidation of companies. The Iron situation in the South, it is admitted, is in a condition where organization and concert of action are essential to maintenance of stable trade. Members attending the conference state that nothing positive has yet been done toward the proposed purchase of the three companies by the United States Steel Corporation. It is admitted that consolidation may eventually solve the problem, but details will require time to work out. After a two hours' secret conference, held at the office of the Republic Iron and Steel Company, the representatives of the three companies adjourned without reaching any conclusion."

Owing to increasing complaints from the public regarding the exorbitant prices at which Meat is sold in Vienna, the municipal council, Saturday, resolved to ask the Government on what conditions it would permit the importation of Meat from America, Argentina and Australia. The Government has objected to the introduction of Meat from transoceanic countries on general sanitary grounds. The ministry of the interior has just issued an order prohibiting the importation of frozen Beef from Argentina and Australia coming to Vienna through London, when this Beef is accompanied only by the certificates of the English veterinary surgeon. The importation of frozen Beef and Pork direct from Australia is prohibited also for important veterinary and sanitary reasons. Pending further inquiries the Government is withholding its decision with regard to the importation of frozen Beef direct from Argentina and of frozen Pork direct from Canada. It is thought the Government may relax the stringency of the present provisions in order to aid the municipal council to procure cheaper Meat for the people.

The Chicago Drovers' Journal says: "The Sheepmen of the West are anxious to get the handling of the forest reserves turned over to the Department of Agriculture. They believe in such a change they will be the gainers, for Mr. Wilson is a man who has the interests of all Stockmen at heart and will do everything in his power to adjust the grazing troubles in such a way as to at least please the majority. The main purpose of the Government in restricting the grazing privilege, according to Mr. Pinchot's statement, is to so protect the grass that grazing may be insured perpetually. In other words, the Government is looking more to the future and hopes by building up the overstocked ranges to make them in time capable of maintaining many times the number of Sheep that now are supported by them. In order to do this Sheepmen are denied grazing rights in some sections, and of course they feel as if they had been treated unjustly. There is not much doubt but what the transfer of jurisdiction from the Department of the Interior to the Department of Agriculture will take place soon, but even with such a change Sheepmen should not overlook the Government's main purpose."

A report of the Chicago committee on the intermarket contracts was given out, Wednesday. The Chicago committee, composed of James Petitt, Robert McDougal, and W. H. Merritt have been at work several months and have had conferences with J. F. Parker and E. Pfarrius, representing the New York Produce Exchange. Their endeavor has been to agree upon terms for handling cash Grain. They have formulated plans upon which an agreement has been reached with few exceptions, and these points will probably be adjusted in the near future. When the work is completed it will be submitted to the trade here for ratification. One important feature involves the changing of the rule now in force in Chicago providing for arbitration. It is proposed to have a board of arbitration, consisting of five members, to be appointed by the president of the Chicago Board of Trade, which shall be approved by the board of managers of the New York Produce Exchange, to act in the West, and another board of arbitration, consisting of five members, to be appointed by the New York Produce Exchange, which shall be approved by the board of directors of the Chicago Board of Trade, to act in the East. A fee of $25 shall be paid for each sitting by the party against whom the decision shall be rendered except as the committee may otherwise order. Contracts for shipments by all rail or lake and rail c. i. f. Eastern points shall be subject to these rules as regards adjustments of variations in quantity, brokers' liability, drafts, margins, futures, times of shipment, official samplers, and arbitration. Navigation shall be understood to be open from Lake Erie ports when vessels can get into Buffalo harbor, intermediate water courses continuing open; from other lake ports after arrival of vessels at Buffalo from lower lakes, intermediate water courses continuing open.

"Officials of the United States embassy and of the French Ministry of Commerce express dissatisfaction over the dispatches from Washington indicating a disposition to make a commercial agreement between France and the United States," says the Chicago Drovers' Journal. "Negotiations to that end have been in progress since last July, when the French parliament without warning placed a practically prohibitive rate on American Pork and salt Meat. During the negotiations an official intimation was given that if the prohibitive rates on American Pork were continued President Roosevelt might find it necessary to exercise his authority under the reciprocity agreement of 1898 of suspending the reduced rates which the United States accords to French clarets and other still wines. Under the agreement of 1898 French still wines are admitted into the United States at 35c a gallon, which is considerably below the regular rate, but a clause in the agreement gives the President the right to suspend the reduced rate if France takes any action prejudicial to American trade. The discussions have not reached definite results, as the question of further concessions is dependent on the bill pending in parliament, permitting the French government to restore the low rates on Pork and salt Meats. The measure is meeting with resistance from the agricultural element on the ground that the American products threaten French industry but there are indications that the government influence will secure its passage. The rates, therefore, will be reduced from 50 francs 100 kilos to 20 francs, which is sufficient to renew the trade interrupted since last July. Owing to the friendly attitude of the French authorities it is expected that the readmission of American Pork may lead to a further agreement on other articles discussed."

The young Wheats continue to do well, but more seasonable conditions are wanted to check growth of weeds and kill off vermin. Growers are not without anxiety as to what would be the result of sudden, severe frost on fields, which are saturated with water. Country markets have been firm and 6d to 1s dearer; fine samples are reported to be very scarce on markets of the centre. At yesterday's weekly Paris market trade was slow, but prices about 6d up on the week."

Local Securities were irregular, with a moderate volume of trading. Biscuit preferred, Box Board preferred and Radiator common made good gains, and the balance of the list was easy, with declines in Metropolitan Elevated preferred and South Side Elevated.

The shipments of Flax Seed from Argentina this week were reported at 1,104,000 bu, compared with 618,000 bu last week and 1,256,000 bu for the corresponding week in 1903. Shipments since Jan. 1 reported at 2,672,000 bu, compared with 1,832,000 bu for the corresponding time last year.

Cotton in New York was excited and prices were irregular. The opening witnessed a big demand for March and heavy selling by July "longs." On the break New Orleans was a big buyer. Port receipts were light. Prices yielded rapidly and a good part of yesterday's advance was lost. Closing sales were 7@17 points lower.

Bradstreet's reports the exports of Wheat and Flour from the United States and Canada for the past week at 2,917,000 bu, against 3,538,000 bu for the previous week, and 4,420,000 bu for the corresponding week last year. Exports from July 1 reported at 102,390,000 bu, compared with 147,052,000 bu for the corresponding time in 1902-03.

Flour stocks in London on 31st ult. equaled 275,-835 sacks, against 165,146 sacks on Oct. 1 and 238,883 sacks a year ago. The average weekly consumption during the past three months was 72,351 sacks—the total imports in that period amounted to 1,070,000 sacks. The stocks in principal United Kingdom ports amount to 721,000 sacks, compared with 375,000 sacks in October and 517,000 sacks a year ago.

Stocks in New York were irregular with a hesitating tone. More warlike talk in the press and a break in Consols had an unsettling influence. A good bank statement is expected to-morrow, but there was enough Stock coming out all the time to force prices off for a majority of the list, and in a few instances losses were heavy at one time, but rallies later made the declines small. Money 1¾ per cent.

The Santa Fe Railroad gave notice, Thursday, that it would reduce the rate on Grain 5c from interior Kansas points by direct route to Galveston and this action undoubtedly will be followed by the other Gulf lines. In addition the Rock Island and Missouri Pacific gave notice of a 2c reduction from the Western territory involved through Kansas City to Chicago, presumably upon the theory that this will place Kansas City on a parity with Omaha.

The Kansas City correspondent of the Northwestern Miller says of Kansas Wheat: "Rainfall with some snow and more or less sleet furnished some of the needed moisture over Kansas and other Southwestern Wheat fields last week. Absence of rain through the last three months has allowed the ground to become dry on the surface, and, while there is no pressing need of rain or snow, the need is daily becoming greater, and a heavy snowfall is the one thing most wished for by farmers."

The Modern Miller says: "The Winter Wheat crop has been generally well protected by snow from the late severe cold weather. In the central and western part of Kansas and to some extent in the Territories, snow covering was lacking; but moisture was plentiful in Oklahoma and Northern Texas. The effect of the cold weather on the plant where it was not protected by snow will not be known until growing weather sets in. The movement of soft Wheat is unusually small and of Hard Winter has fallen off considerably."

FLOUR—The market is holding steady. Sales are not very large, as buyers are timid about stocking up at present prices.

WINTER WHEAT—The market ruled firmer and prices about ½@1c higher. Choice Wheat continues in demand and selling to millers, but poor Wheat remained slow. No. 2 Red in store nominally 93@93¼c, and fresh arrivals, choice, bright, soft Wheat sold at 98c, and ranged at 92@ 98c, depending on quality. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals, choice Wheat, sold at 95@96c and ranged at 85@ 96c—inside for dark Wheat. No. 2 Hard at the river quotable at 80@81c. No. 3 Hard, local, sold 78½c, and at the river at 79c and ranged at 73@82c. No. 4 Hard at the river sold at 72½c.

SPRING WHEAT—Not much doing, but feeling firm and prices ½ 1c higher for choice, and unchanged for common. Demand good, but light receipts checked trade. No. 1 Northern in store quotable at 87@87¾c, and fresh arrivals free on board quotable at 87@90c. No. 3 Spring local sold at 84½c and ranged at 76@87c for ordinary to choice hard variety, with a sale at the river at 80c. No. 4 local sold at 60@75c for common to good and ranged at 58@82c for poor to choice hard variety, with sales at the river at 52@65c.

REGULAR WHEAT—This market was again nervous with price changes frequent. The trade was of fair volume and last prices showed the May ¾@⅞c higher, while the July gained ⅝@¾c. The strength was due mainly to the very small Northwest receipts, higher cables, decline of two-sixteenths to four-sixteenths in British consols and unfavorable weather in Southwest. The news from the far East was more warlike and commission houses and "shorts" bought with considerable freedom. At the advance the "long" interest was credited with selling both May and July and prices receded, but later on rallied and closed quite firm. Liverpool quoted futures ⅝@¾d higher, while spot was off ½d. Receipts there the past three days were 224,000 bu. London advanced ⅞@1d. Paris gained ¾@1c while Antwerp was unchanged. Argentine shipments were large, 2,046,000 bu, making 4,280,000 bu since Jan. 1, compared with 1,808,000 bu in 1903. The visible supply there is now reported at 3,568,000 bu; previous week, 2,904,000 bu, last year, 1,328,000 bu. Primary receipts were 31,000 bu under those of 1903. Kansas City and St. Louis received 139,000 bu, against 141,000 bu last year. Shipments were 89,000 bu. Duluth stocks were expected to increase 230,000 bu this week, and Minneapolis decrease 20,000 bu. Snow flurries and moderate temperatures were generally predicted by the Signal Service. Exports were liberal, but total for the week 2,917,000 bu, compared with 4,420,000 bu one year ago. A speculative feature was the selling of July above 83c. The Modern Miller claimed the crop was generally well protected by snow from the late severe cold weather. New York at the close reported five boat loads accepted for export. Receipts at Duluth 37 cars and at Minneapolis 192 cars, a total of 229, against 276 cars yesterday, 327 cars a week ago, and 257 cars last year. Local receipts included 15 cars Winter, 9 cars Spring and no cars mixed, a total of 24 cars, against 45 cars last year. Included in above was none of contract grade. There were 5 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 15 cars. Withdrawals were 5,000 bu. Receipts at Western points were 419,-139 bu, against 522,350 bu last year. At Eastern points 72,286 bu, against 124,264 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 230,775 bu, against 135,622 bu last year, and from Eastern points 221,822 bu, against 58,000 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 81,508 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 602,108 bu.

CORN—Was a live, particularly the first hour with the feeling stronger. The high cables, advance in Wheat, small Argentine shipments, and renewal of the war talk were the "bull" influences. There was a good demand from commission houses and "shorts" and the offerings were moderate and prices advanced. Extreme figures were well maintained, and the close showed gains of ¼c to ⅜@½c. Liverpool was up ½d on futures and spot ½d lower to ¼d higher. Receipts there past three days 128,000 bu. Argentine shipped but 440,-000 bu making 3,250,000 bu since January 1 against 520,000 bu last year. Visible there 808,000 bu, last week 1,183,000 bu, year ago 197,000 bu. Argentine cables reported the weather favorable for the Corn crop and strike sufficiently in force to check shipments. Receipts 215 cars, with 195 cars of same low grades. Last year 259 cars, with 146 cars low grades. Estimated for Saturday 260 cars. South western markets were stronger. Light snows and moderate temperatures were predicted. Exports were fair, 491,000 bu, and total for the week 1,468,-000 bu against 2,016,000 bu last year. Seaboard reported 7 boat loads accepted. Transfers from private to public elevators here 171 cars and 20,250 bu. Local arrivals 170,000 bu; shipments 197,000 bu. Primary receipts 428,000 bu; year ago 594,000 bu. Shipments 409,000 bu, last year 718,000 bu. Shipping demand fair and sales 130,000 bu. Car lots in good demand and prices ¼c higher. Offerings moderate. No. 2 closed at 47½c and No. 2 Yellow at 48½c. No. 3 closed at 41½@47½c and No. 3 Yellow at 42@48c. No. 4 sold at 41c for yellow.

Corn by sample—There was a very fair demand and only moderate offerings. Feeling was unsettled and prices irregular. Local billed was ¼c lower and through billed was shade higher. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 34½ @37½c; No. 4 at 38@43½c; No. 3 at 42¼c; No. 3 Yellow 42¼@48½c; No. 3 White at 42@4?c. Ears at 40@43c. Billed through: No Grade at 37½c; No. 4 at 38@41c; No. 3 at 41½c; No. 3 Yellow at 41¼@42c; No. 3 White at 41¼@42c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Active and stronger and closed ⅛c at ⅜@½c higher.

JANUARY—Quotably 3¼c under May. Sold at 46⅞c and 47c, and closed at 47⅛c nominally.

MAY—Sold at 50c and 50½c. Opened at 50⅛c to 50⅜c, sold at 50¼c, to 50⅛@50¼c, to 50¼c, to 50⅛c to 50¼c, to 50⅛@50¼c, to 50¼c, to 50¼@50⅜c, to 50⅛@50¼c, to 50⅛c, to 50¼@50⅜c, to 50¼@50⅜c to 50½c, to 50¼@50⅜c, and closed at 50¼@50⅜c bid.

JULY—Sold at 48⅛@48¼c and 48½c. Opened at 48¼c to 48½c and sold at 48⅜c, to 48¼@48⅜c, to 48¼c, to 48⅜c, to 48¼c, to 48⅜c, to 48⅛@48¼c, to 48⅜c, to 48⅜c, and closed at 48⅜c.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 47¾@48c. Opened at 47⅞c, sold at 47¾c, to 48c, and closed at 48c asked.

OATS—Sold at the best prices for May on the crop. The advance was ⅝c, and closing prices were the highest. July gained ⅝c and September ¼c. A feature of the May trading was the heavy selling at 42½c, and the readiness with which offerings were absorbed at that figure and later at higher prices. "Shorts" came in above that point and assisted in the advance. A strong cash situation was a feature, and with the advance in other Grains had a strengthening influence. Arrivals were small—74 cars, with 85 cars estimated for to-morrow. Withdrawals were 8,300 bu. Seaboard clearances were 28,000 bu. Cash sales were 150,000 bu. Car lots to go to store were steady to ½c higher. No. 3 White sold at 40½@41½c. Standard in store closed about 40@40½c as to location.

Oats by sample were in active request with local consumers and Eastern shippers competing for the small offerings. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 White at 36@40½c. No. 3 at 39@4? c. No. 3 White at 40@42½c. Standard at 42½c. Billed through: No. 4 White at 39@39½c. Standard at 41@42c. At the river: No Grade at 31½@33c. No. 4 White at 34@38½c. No. 3 White at 39c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were higher, with active trading.

RYE—Ruled firmer and prices ½c higher. Demand good and offerings light. Holders not at all anxious to sell. There were no receipts to-day and only one car withdrawn and that out of private warehouse. No export clearances from the seaboard. The advance in Wheat and renewed war talk was the reason of the advance. No. 2 in store nominally 57c and a car fresh arrivals free on board sold at 61c. Good No. 3 sold at 58½c and No. 4 at 50c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—In fair demand and offerings light. Prices ½c higher. January nominally 57c. May sold at 58½c and that the closing.

BARLEY—Extreme quietness prevailed. For malting grades, especially medium to common, the feeling was weak. Most buyers were absent from the market, they had no interest in it, they seem to have all the Barley they need and are getting it on previous purchases. Only one or two buyers remained. Sellers had no alternative but go to them to sell, no competition whatever was present. Some cars may have had to be shaded, yet no general decline was quoted. There were cars sold yesterday which were refused and had to be resold. The resale was at 1@2c below original sale prices. Feed and Screenings remained steady; meagre offerings of these and demand moderate. To arrive lots of malting Barley were said to be neglected. Posted to-day 73 cars inspected in. Screenings sold at 33@40c and had a quotable range of 30@40c for poor to choice. Barley, feed or mixing, salable at 38@39c; poor, musty nominally lower; malting—low grade about 39@42c; very dirty below; common, 43@44c; fair, 45@47c; good, 48@50c; choice 52@57c; fancy possibly above.

SEEDS—The day passed without trading. Continued cold weather is causing a backward trade in Grass Seeds, and there was no special demand for leading lines. At the same time offerings also were absent. Timothy was weak and the others quotably steady. Flax unchanged.

Timothy—No trading. The indications were of a dull, weak market. No cash Seed offered and apparently no one cared to purchase. Order business said to be dull. Nominal quotations were placed somewhat below former outside prices. The speculative market was inactive, neglected, also quotably easy. January was quotably $3 05; February the same, and March at $3 10. Country lots at $2 25@3 15 for poor to fancy, fair to good quotably $2 60@2 85, choice, $2 90@3 00 and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 40@2 50.

Flax—There was a nominally unchanged market. Some May delivery on sale, but aside from this the market was practically without sellers. Fluctuations in Northwestern markets were without effect here. No business was done aside from the sale of a small bag lot. A little more Flax came in, 12 cars or 10,200 bu, and 10 cars or 10,222 bu taken out. Receipts at Minneapolis were 14 cars and at Duluth 27 cars. No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest quotable at $1 17½; small bag lot by sample sold at $1 15—such lots always at a discount. No. 1 was $1 10, and Rejected nominally $1 05@1 10. January delivery quotably $1 11. May was $1 13 asked.

Clover—Was said to remain about steady here though markets outside, from reports received, seemed to be a little soft. There were no consignments offered. Order trade said to be moderate, though cold weather tends to retard outside business. Contract Seed, spot about $11 25, and March delivery $11 35, country lots, common to choice $8 25@11 00, fancy above, mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $8 00@9 00; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00; inferior lower; fair to good quality about $9 50@10 50.

Other Seeds—Samples of Hungarian were showed for bids. Both Hungarian and Millets were quotably steady to firm. Salable as follows: Hungarian, common and light color to choice dark at $1 50@1 85. Common Millet 90c@$1 25 for poor to fancy. German Millet, 90c@$1 25. Siberian, 75@90c. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 75@90c. Mustard 8c@$1 05. Buckwheat, good milling quotable at $1 15@1 20.

HOG PRODUCTS—Trade in a speculative way only fairly active in the market for Hog Products. Outside orders were fair, and local trading was moderately active. Hogs were in good supply and prices ruled lower, but this feature had little effect on the market for Products, as it sympathized considerably with the stronger feeling in Grain. Offerings in a general way were not very free, while the general demand was fairly active. Less inclination to realize, and "shorts" accepted fair quantities. Fluctuations in prices were within comparatively narrow ranges. Prices averaged slightly higher, and closed steady at inside figures. Trading mainly in May and July contracts, with a moderate business in transferring contracts ahead. Foreign markets were dull and neglected, and quotations were reduced 6d on Lard, Hams and Cumberland Sides. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 79,300, compared with 59,900 one year ago. Receipts of Products were good—of Lard and Meats about 24 cars. Shipments were fair—of Lard and Meats about 128 cars. Shipping demand was moderate in a quiet way, and mainly for domestic wants. Offerings were only fair. Sales were not very large, and prices exhibited very little change.

Mess Pork—A fairly good business was transacted in Mess Pork and the feeling in a general way was steadier. Offerings moderate and the demand fair. Early, the market was rather firm, and prices ruled 2½@5c higher, but a weaker feeling was developed and the advance was lost. Market closed steady around inside figures. Trading chiefly in May contracts. Shipping demand was moderate and offerings were not very large. Cash lots were quotable at $13 25@13 37½.

JANUARY—Quiet with small sales at $13 17½@ 13 25 and closed at $13 17½.

MAY—In fair request and offerings were not very large. Sales were made at $13 32½@13 37½. Opened at $13 35 to $13 37½, sold to $13 32½, to $13 37½ to $13 32½, to $13 35, $13 32½, to $13 35 to $13 32½ and closed steady.

Lard—Rather a good trade was reported in the Lard market and the feeling was comparatively steady. Offerings were not very free and the demand was fair. Early, the feeling was firmer, with fair miscellaneous buying, and prices were 2½@5c higher. Later, there was a little pressure to sell and a weaker feeling was developed. Prices receded 2½@5c, and market closed rather steady. Foreign advices unfavorable to holders. Inquiry on shipping account was rather light and offerings were moderate. Cash lots quotable at about $7 20 @7 25. Loose lots called for moderately and offerings were only fair. Prices were steady at about 70c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in fair request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotably steady at $6 87½. Neutral in only moderate demand with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $8 50@8 62½ for No. 1 and $7 75@7 87½ for No. 2.

JANUARY—Called for sparingly and offerings were light. Sales were made at $7 20@7 25 and closed quiet at $7 22½.

MAY—In fairly good request and offerings were only moderate. Sales were made at $7 40@7 47½. Opened at $7 40 to $7 47½, sold to $7 40, to $7 45 to $7 40 to $7 42½, to $7 40, to $7 42½, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were not very large, and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $7 42½@ 7 47½. Opened at $7 42½ to $7 47½, sold to $7 42½ to $7 45 and closed quiet.

Short Rib Sides—Trade was fair in the market for Short Rib Sides and the feeling was rather steady. Offerings were not very large and the demand was fair. Prices ruled 2½@5c higher early, but an easier feeling prevailed later and prices settled back again. Market closed rather steady around inside figures. Trading chiefly in May contracts. Shipping demand was fair, and offerings were moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6 37½@6 62½, according to weight.

JANUARY—Quiet and quotable at $6 42½.

[Buenos Ayres Cor. Northwestern Miller.]

The Minister of Agriculture has not completed the compilation of his returns concerning the present area under Wheat and Flax Seed, but from the data already at hand it appears the area will not be much different between the completed figures and those already given in these columns, viz., 9,500,000 acres under Wheat and 2,500,000 acres under Flax Seed. The yield this year will, I believe, be far above the average for the last decade, which was 95 bushels per acre sown for Wheat and 285 per acre for Flax Seed. Judging from the present prospects there is a probability of an export surplus over 1902 of 200,000,000 against 170,000,000 for the present year, and 250,000 in 1901, 930,000 in 1901, 19,935,000 in 1900, and 1,713,499 in 1899; and for Flax seed the exportable surplus should reach 70,000 tons, as against 60,000 for the present year, 348,000 for 1902, 370,000 for 1901, 223,000 for 1900, and 218,000 for 1899.

At the time of writing weather conditions are perfect. The Flax Seed harvest has begun, and in the more northerly districts is already in full swing, and the Wheat harvest has already begun in parts.

Last week I took a run through a portion of the cereal belt consisting of a distance of some 700 kilometers, and I have never seen crops look to better magnificent. A large portion of the district I visited has given poor results during the past seasons, but this year they could not be better. The Grain at the present time is simply magnificent.

The trade returns for the first nine months of the year have been published and these show the following returns for cereals, with comparisons for 1902, 1901, 1900, and 1899:

Flax Seed	405,349	348,299

Telegraphic advices from Brazil state that there is every probability of the import duty on Flour being reduced while that on Flour is to be increased. This is to be done so as to protect local Flour industry. While this will be a severe blow to our milling industry we shall be fully repaid from the demand that will accrue for our best Wheats. Our Wheat exports to Brazil have been increasing year by year as the following figures will show:

12 months—	Tons.
1900	175,000
1901	97,000

9 months—	Tons.
1901	41,812
1902	63,611

The statistical department of the Province of Buenos Ayres has published the following data concerning the milling industry. The roller mills have increased in 1902, 102 per cent, and are producing 128,000 tons of Flour, equivalent to 67 per cent, while the old stone mills have utilized 250 tons of Wheat, producing 200 tons of Flour equal to a yield of 55 per cent. The mills in the province have a capacity for 1,321 tons of Wheat a day, and could therefore have dealt with 396,300 tons of Wheat in 300 working days, while their actual output has only been equivalent to 40 per cent of their capacity.

Our sole market is that of Brazil, which took 39,000 tons of our Flour in 1902, while that of the province supplied 90,000 tons, or say 68, per cent of the total capacity. There are 74 roller mills in the province and only 36 of these worked in 1902, which is a remarkable state for an industry which is represented by a capital of $7 139 468 paper, with 3,855 indicated horse power, 584 pairs of rolls and 49 stones, and giving employment to 904 persons. The value of Wheat purchased for the use of the mills was $10 215,000

Our exports to date have been:

[From the Cincinnati Price Current, Jan. 28.]

A general thaw over practically the entire Winter Wheat section, with general rains, melted off the snow cover over the more northern portions, leaving the Wheat bare for a few days during the past week. But the rains were followed by snow, and much of the Wheat territory is again covered by snow, protecting the plant from the present severe cold spell. In Kansas and Missouri, however, the snow cover is light. The general and generous precipitation of the past week is regarded as favorable over the Winter Wheat belt, any section that is seriously lacking in moisture. In much of Northern Ohio, Indiana and Illinois the few days of unbroken sunshine during the past week first time snow has been off the ground for two months or more, the crop in this section is reported in promising condition. Many reports from the southern portions of these States indicate an unpromising condition, the plant being small, thin, brown or sickly, but these complaints are by no means decided enough either in the season, and a few correspondents mention some improvement in the West and Southwest the chief drawback has been overcome by recent general rains Reports from this territory generally indicate, however, that the crop has a small top growth, but healthy root growth, the crop averaging a fair condition. In Kansas the area is irregular—some favorable, some unfavorable. While the present cold snap will have set back, we hold better later, but it is not believed that material harm is done.

There is a moderate movement of Wheat. Incination among holders is variable; some are disposed to let go at present prices, others believe in fixed Wheat for holding.

The Corn situation has undergone no essential change in the past week, the marketing being fair to liberal in parts of Indiana, Illinois, and moderately in Nebraska, Missouri and Ohio Valley. The complaint of soft Corn continues unabated.

It is interesting to observe the tendency in the receipts of Wheat at primary markets as compared with the average of previous years. For a long time since July 1 into periods of five weeks each, the following table shows the weekly averages for such periods, in comparison with like averages for ten years previously:

	For this season.	For ten years.
First period	2,749,760	3,230,000
Second	4,049 000	3,497,000
Third	6,992,000	7,403,000
Fourth	7,741000	6,990,000
Fifth	7,101,03	5,151,000
Sixth	5,310,000	3,310,000

For the first half of the time covered the comparisons show smaller averages for this season than for the ten years. This has been followed by quite a series of large to enormal averages for the latter half of the period.

PORK PACKING AND PROVISIONS.

There has been a fairly good movement of Hogs the past week, although showing some decrease from the previous week, the holding an increase, however, in the comparison with a year ago. Total Western packing 830,000, compared with 1,000,000 preceding week and 800,000 one week ago. For the corresponding time last year the number was 695,000, and two years ago 595,000. From New York the total is 6,400,000, compared with 5,000,000 a year ago. Prices are higher, prominent markets at the close averaging about $4 90 per 100 lbs, compared with $4 75 the preceding week, $4 80 two weeks ago, $5 55 a year ago, $6 05 two years ago, $5 70 three years ago, and $4 65 four years ago.

The speculative Provision market the past week has been rather unsettled, but the undertone has been firm. There was no material change in the price situation, but the level of quotations was slightly higher this week than for the preceding one. The stronger Hog markets, the strength in the Grain markets, reports of large purchases for foreign markets and war talk, were the contributing causes to the strength in the Provision market. Lard led the advance, and also influenced buying of other descriptions. Packers were liberal in their contracts, but July is attracting more attention than a week ago. The export clearances of Provisions were moderate, generally speaking, as compared with the preceding week, but an increase over the corresponding week last year.

Bacon, pounds	11,520,000	10,812,000
Total, Meats	11,891,500	11,324,000
Lard, pounds	11,370,000	11,296,000
Tierces, pounds	1,750,000	2,250,000

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The temperatures are some higher in the extreme North, but lower throughout Iowa, Minnesota, Illinois and Missouri. There are sharp slides in Manitoba, the Dakotas, Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri and Illinois. The heaviest at Valentine—24 inches. Heavy precipitation in Kansas, Oklahoma or Southward.

At 7 A. M. the mercury was zero to 28 above in extreme North, 18 below to 34 above in Dakotas and Minnesota, 16 below to 34 above in Iowa and Nebraska, and 4 below to 24 above in Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio. The feature is the continued lack of moisture in Southwest.

An Italian official crop bulletin for the last ten days of December says that the weather continued favorable for field work and drier weather is being needed. Wheat has made normal growth, except in some flooded districts of Venice. Barley and Oats were being sown, and in some districts Harvesting was coming in Hogs.

A report on the Kansas Wheat crop says: "Kansas Wheat has very little show covering. Can't tell about damage yet but Wheat has had a good season on account of dry weather and early being blown away from around the plant before this cold snap. I think it probable that Wheat has been damaged materially."

The Liverpool Corn Trade News of Jan. 10 says: "Our Hamburg correspondent reports that the weather in Germany is again very mild and wet, and fears are expressed that if sharp frost were to set in suddenly the crops would be damaged. The markets have been rather uncertain, but prices remain unchanged on the week."

The Chicago Drainage Board, Wednesday, sold $1,375,000 worth of twenty-year annual sixper cent bonds, bearing 4 per cent interest, to a Chicago banking firm for par value, with accrued interest added. Under the terms of the agreement $750,000 worth of the bonds will be issued here and the remaining $625,000 worth of the securities will be issued in sixty days.

Stockholders of the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad, at their annual meeting today, authorized the creation of a first mortgage, and the issue thereunder of 4 per cent bonds not exceeding $20,000,000. In an article on railroad earnings in 1903, Bradstreet's says: "For the year as a whole the preliminary returns for all roads thus far reporting show gross earnings that aggregate $814,972 3 7, an increase of $84,700,239, or 11.5 per cent, over 1902. With most complete returns at hand it seems that this ratio of gain will be slightly reduced. It is, however, indicative of the general tendency."

"Forty-five per cent of Flour shipments from the West for export now take the New Orleans gateway," said an official of the Illinois Central Road "The rapidity with which the Crescent City is forging to the front as a great exporting center is truly marvelous. If the present rate of growth it will before many years leave New York and many other ports in the country away in the rear."

The North British Agriculturist of Jan. 13 says: "During the past week the weather has been very variable over different parts of the country. In the northern counties of Scotland the frost still holds the field. Over the southern parts of Scotland the weather has been more favorable for work and open, so that the plow has been kept going where the land was not too wet. The marketing of Potatoes has also been engaging attention, as prices rule the up grower just now, and the crop is worth two in the bush, though the spring promises to bring still higher prices, if the Potatoes keep sound in the pit."

A New York dispatch says: "The action of the Governors of the Stock Exchange in striking from the official list of securities dealt in the stock of the American Steel Foundries Company because of misrepresentations made to the members of the listing committee of the Exchange concerning the property and assets of the company was, although somewhat belated, a commendable proceeding in the day's downward movement of prices. The stock of the American Steel Foundries Company has never been dealt in but in a very small way, and if it had been permitted to go on with the other causes than those assigned the matter would have been considered of very little importance. The action, however, is one that will occur to all familiar with our local financial history in the last two years, the affair must be regarded as of no small moment."

The ranch system has practically broken up the Cattle business in the Indian Territory, and this year there will be a total absence of the big herds that have for years grazed on the rich grasses of the Indian country. The fattening of Cattle there seems to be no more whatever on the part of the Cattlemen to take grazing leases this year. Leases of this kind cannot be made for a period longer than one year, and as the Government policy is one of being fenced the Cowman cannot longer handle his Cattle as under the old regime. The Hereford and Shorthorn have taken the place of the Texas ranger and the herds have been broken up into small bunches, owned and cared for by the farmers Another matter that has had its bearing was the enforcement of the quarantine line. The owners of all Texas Cattle as a tribal tax This tax was resisted last year and thousands of Cattle on which the tax was paid were driven into the Territory by Indian police Last year was a very poor one for Cattlemen because of low prices

The Chicago Drovers' Journal says: "On account of the high price of feed there are many farmers and stockmen in the Corn belt who are limiting their feeding operations as much as possible. Corn is holding up to a pretty high mark, and Cottonseed meal received in the past week sold around $24 There is nothing cheap in the line of feed but roughness, and this cuts but little figure with the man who wants to make Cattle fat. Heavy receipts have kept prices down to a low point for some time, and no sooner do values show signs of advancing than the rush to market upsets things and the trade relapses into a condition of "lonesome desolitude" As long as there is a large supply of Cattle in the country and feeders are nervous about the future there can be no remedy for the state of affairs As soon as the supply is reduced there will be a return of the feeders gain confidence, and then it is hard to induce them to let go. Just at present there is not a very great profit to the feeder who has everything to buy."

A message from New York, Thursday, said: "Cotton ran over 16c this morning and in New Orleans July sold at 16 4c. Nothing can be said of the Cotton market that has not been said again. All opinions, all factors, all expressions are valueless. As long as the big men hold to their positions there is but one course for prices If the attitude of the three big traders in New Orleans and the two large interests in New York can be guaranteed, we don't believe anything could prevent 15c per pound. While the big bears do, it is unwise to say there is a day of reckoning ahead No man knows when it will come, or how. But it will come, and there will be no chance to get out There is but one thing to do, and that is to be out. You must stand aside and watch the fire burn. There will be leaps and bounds before it is over. It is not a market to be long" much Cotton. Holders have had the chance of a lifetime. The rest can safely be intrusted to the gamblers. There has never been but one end to this sort of thing it will be and will be the same. The less one trades now the happier he will be."

The directors of the Milwaukee and Chicago Breweries, limited, recommend payment of a further dividend of 5s per cent on the preference shares, making 10s per cent in addition to the 5s 6d paid on the preference shares Sept 15 The new dividend is to be paid Feb. 20 to stockholders of record Jan. 31. The issued capital of the company consists of 77,500 shares of £10 each and 77,500 shares of £1 each, a total of £855,000 This reduction was made according to the plan prop sed last August, which under an order from the English court for reduction of capital The annual report to be submitted to stockholders at the annual meeting in London Feb. 11, shows that the sales of beer in the fiscal year ended Sept. 30 amounted to 1,046,587 brls, an increase of 58,975 brls, or 7½ per cent, as compared with sales in the preceding year, and an increase of 212,567 brls, or 33 per cent, as compared with sales in 1900. The net profits of the English company the United States Brewing Company of Chicago—show net profits of $234,400 for the fiscal year. REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Export bids still out of line and local demand very moderate. Prices steady as quoted on second page

WINTER WHEAT—A strong feeling existed for choice Wheat, which was wanted by millers. Late quotations well maintained and some sales even show a further advance. Poor Wheat continues slow. No. 2 Red in store quotable 83¾@92⅞c and a choice car fresh arrivals sold at 98c, and quotable at 92@98c for soft, dark Wheat, to choice, bright, yellow variety. No. 3 Red fresh receipts sold at 87¾@98c for fancy and ranged at 87@98c depending on quality. No 4 Red sold at 85c. No 2 Hard at the river quotable at 81@85c. No 3 Hard sold at the river at 78c, and ranged at 72@83c. No. 4 Hard sold local at 73c and at the river at 67c.

SPRING WHEAT—The market was firm for cash Wheat. The demand was good for choice and sales of 125,000 bu of No 1 Northern were reported, besides the car lots of fresh arrivals. No. 1 Northern in store quotable at 85¾@87⅝c and fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 88@91c. No. 3 Spring sold at 86c free on board and ranged at 78@87c for ordinary to choice. No. 4 local sold at 63@65c and ranged at 55@82c for poor to fancy.

REGULAR WHEAT—Only a moderate commission house trade, transactions being largely local. The feeling prevalent was easier, the news at hand being construed as rather "bearish." The close showed the May off ½@⅝c, while July lost ¾@⅞c. The more pacific news regarding the far Eastern situation, advance of one-sixteenth in British consols, and large Australian shipments, 1,432,000 bu, were among the early weakening influences. Locals led in the selling, but on the decline the "long" interest gave the market some support. Flour news from the Northwest was rather unfavorable to holders, several of the mills closing down. It was said the export rate from there to London had been reduced 2c per 100 lbs. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ⅛d higher and futures ⅛d higher. London came ⅛d lower to ⅛d higher. Paris was up 1¼c on spot, while futures declined ¼c. Antwerp unchanged. Outside markets were all weaker. Winnipeg reported 105 cars, against 24 cars same day last year. Receipts in the Northwest for the week 1,574 cars; last week 2,322 cars: year ago 2,556 cars. Local weekly receipts were 266,000 bu; shipments 249,000 bu. Broomhall estimated world's shipments at 9,100,000 bu, and predicted increase on ocean passage. Imports into the United Kingdom this week 4,000,000 bu, against 3,500,000 bu one year ago. English farmers' deliveries were 452,000 bu (same as last week), but price 1c lower at 81½c. Primary receipts this week were 3 323,000 bu, against 4,273,000 bu last week and 4,190 000 bu same week in 1903. Toledo reported the sale of 250,000 bu No. 2 soft Wheat this week, 180 000 bu to outside and 70,000 bu to local mills. Sales here aggregated 125,000 bu. Map showed dry conditions in the Southwest. Snows were predicted in some sections of Winter Wheat belt. Exports fair and seaboard reported 9 boat loads accepted. Minneapolis stocks decreased this week 90,000 bu. Receipts at Kansas City and St Louis, 218,000 bu; last year, 132,000 bu; shipments at two points, 98 000 bu. The English visible supply increased 321,000 bu, compared with 305,000 bu increase same week in 1903. Argentine shippers reported as paying equal to 1½c per bu to get time for shipment extended one month. Receipts at Duluth 28 cars and at Minneapolis 240 cars, a total of 268, against 229 cars yesterday, 311 cars a week ago, and 320 cars last year. Local receipts included 9 cars Winter, 6 cars Spring and no cars mixed, a total of 15 cars, against 23 cars last year. Included in above were 3 cars of contract grade. There was 1 car and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for Monday are 13,300 bu. Withdrawals were 13,300 bu. Receipts at Western points were 536,102 bu against 769 394 bu last year. At Eastern points 34,075 bu, against 123,775 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 187,748 bu, against 173 601 bu last year, and from Eastern points 26,891 bu, against 24,891 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 73,7.1 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 357,770 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Moderate trade and market easier.

MAY—Sold at 89¾@90⅜c. Opened with sales at 90⅝c to 90⅜c; sold to 90⅜c, to 90⅝c, to 90½@90⅝c, to 89⅞c to 90⅛c to 90c, to 90⅛c to 90¼c to 90⅜c, to 89¾c, to 90⅛@90¼c, and closed at 90⅛@90¼c.

JULY—Sold at 82@82⅞c. Opened with sales at 82⅞c to 82¾c: sold to 82⅞c to 82¾c, to 82¾c to 82½@82⅝c, to 82⅝@82¾c, to 82½c, to 82⅜c, to 82⅜@82½c, to 82¼@82⅜c to 82⅜c, to 82½c, to 82¼c, to 82⅜c to 82c, to 82¼c, and closed at 82¼c asked.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 77¼@78c. Opened at 78c; sold to 77¾c, to 77⅞c, to 77¼c, to 77⅝c, and closed at 77⅝c.

CORN—Just a fair trade and while prices were slightly lower, the undertone was comparatively steady. Resting prices showed May off ⅛@¼c and July down ½c. Notwithstanding the better weather of late receipts do not show much increase. The buying was by influential houses and the selling chiefly in the way of profit-taking. Provision interests also sold. Cables did not follow yesterday's rise, Liverpool coming unchanged on futures, and steady to ¼d higher on spot. Market late affected some by action of Wheat. Receipts 278 cars; low grades 235 cars. Last year 330 cars and 115 cars respectively. Monday's estimate 380 cars. Local weekly receipts were 1,481,000 bu, and shipments 1,402 000 bu. Southwestern markets were easy. Primary receipts this week 3,572,000 bu, last week 5,087,000 bu; year ago 5,209,000 bu. Some buying of May and selling of July by professionals. Shipping demand moderate and sales 125,000 bu. Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Was quiet and steady. January sold at 57c. March nominally 58c. May 58c bid and 58½c sellers.

BARLEY—Was about steady. There was a little new demand for malting Barley. Some buyers, for some days absent from the market, were to-day buying. In some cases, cars sold brought apparently some improvement, yet no regular change quotable. Trade has become so quiet that values are hardly established on a dot. To-day there seemed to be a demand for all offered. Feed and mixing goods scarce. Demand fair and market firm especially for anything of nice color. There were 29 cars inspected in. No sales of Screenings to-day; they were quotable at 30@40c for poor to choice. Barley, feed or mixing, steady at 38@39c; poor, musty nominally lower; malting—low grade about 39@42c; very dirty below; common, 43@44c; fair, 45@47c; good, 48@50c; choice, 53@57c; fancy possibly above.

SEEDS—There was continued extreme quietness, and entire lack of change except in the instance of No 1 Northwestern Flax, which ruled 1c lower.

Spot and February delivery contract Seed were nominally $3 05. Cash Seed country lots not offered. There was a quotable range for such of $2 75@3 15 for poor to fancy; fair to good quotably $2 90@2 95; choice, $2 95@3 00, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 40@2 50.

Flax—For Northwestern cash Seed the quotation was reduced 1c in consequence of a decline in the Northwest. Otherwise there was no change. Trading limited to the sale of a car to arrive. May delivery was offered, but otherwise there were no sellers. Four cars or 3 401 bu were received here and 8 cars or 7,695 bu were taken out. Clover—Inactive, with the regular market devoid of country lot offerings. Cold weather is making order trade slow. There was no change in values quoted. Contract Seed, spot about $11 25, and March delivery $11 35, country lots, common to choice $8 25@11 00; fancy above, mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds $8 00@9 70, poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00, inferior lower; fair to good quality about $9 50@10 50.

Other Seeds—Market without offerings. Hungarian and Millets salable and firm. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark at $1 50@1 85. Common Millet 90c@$1 25 for poor to fancy. Buckwheat steady; some sold, but price could not be learned; good milling quotable at $1 15@1 20.

HOG PRODUCTS—With rather a good supply of Hogs and an easy feeling in the Grain markets, there was some inclination on the part of "longs" in Hog Products to realize, while packers were more disposed to sell for future delivery. Under these circumstances an easier feeling prevailed, and prices ruled lower on all the leading articles. Outside orders were moderate, and local trading was only fair. Hogs sold at lower prices. Supply for next week estimated larger than last year. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing estimated at 7 ,800, compared with 67 000 one year ago. Foreign markets quiet and easy at unchanged prices. Domestic markets steady. Receipts of Products were liberal of Lard and Meats about 37 cars. Shipments were fair of Lard and Meats about 133 cars. WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY EVENING, Jan 29, 1904.

The local money market was easy, loans being mainly at 5 to 5½ per cent, there being more 5 per cent money than heretofore, and some loans at 4½ per cent on sharp call. Money has accumulated at the banks and cash reserves have increased faster the past three months than at any corresponding time in several years, gaining 12.48 per cent. Commercial paper is not in large supply and there is a good demand for it at 5 to 5½ per cent. Some of the bankers who have persistently predicted lower rates with the close of January are now looking for a stronger market and a hardening of interest rates within the next thirty days. In New York rates on the Stock Exchange were easy at 1½ to 2 per cent. Time loans were at 4 to 5 per cent.

Foreign exchange was firm with the supply of bills moderate. High prices of Cotton restricted exports. Shippers' sixty-day documentary sterling bills on London ranged at 482½@482¾.

Cotton in New York sold to a higher level than for more than twenty years. All the futures were advanced above the 15c mark and New Orleans was over 16 cents. Smaller receipts, despite the advance in prices were a feature. Reports of reduced consumption do not appear to affect speculation and the price is being made largely by "bull" operations and by wild speculative trading. Foreign markets are following America. Enormous unloading by the largest holders produced quick reactions from the top figures, but the close for the week was at a gain of 118 to 133 points.

Local Securities were easy in the early trading, but stronger later. Industrials were conspicuous for their strength and made strong gains. Boxboard was active toward the last preferred being bought by commission houses, and on the advance realizing sales carried prices off sharply. Biscuit and Can shares were taken more freely, the latter receding after a small rally. Title and Trust made a good gain. Traction shares were unsettled and lower, with North Chicago Railway down to 70, there being a lack of confidence in the dividend continuation. The South Side Elevated was easier and the Metropolitan, while traded in sparingly, made no material change. The bond market both on exchange and over the counter is showing more activity and strength.

Stocks in New York were erratic, the Western speculative interest that has been on the buying side for weeks and was largely instrumental in advancing prices on numerous low priced stocks sold for profits and caused a reaction. Traders ignored the unfavorable news from the far East early, but later it exerted a depressing effect. The general news was of a more cheerful nature and trading at times was very large. London exerted an influence on the selling side on several occasions and assisted in making a decline in prices. Money was easy which is favorable to the "bull" interest. The general business situation in the West is improving and standard railway shares were given more attention and advanced. Industrials were all advanced sharply, but reacted and closed with fair losses, compared with a week ago. Total sales on the New York Stock Exchange for the week were 8,&5,000 shares, compared with 3,64 ,000 shares the previous week, and 2,117,000 shares last year.

The principal Stocks traded in on the New York Stock Exchange and the number of shares disposed of during the week was as follows:

A better tone was observable in the mercantile trade, nearly all lines showing a more cheerful feeling, both among manufacturers and jobbers. Sentiment has changed more than was expected since the first of the year, and the advance in Stocks, Cotton and Grains has had a great deal to do with it. There is a heavy and steady consumption of goods throughout the West. Supplies are not large and the trade situation is a healthy one. Collections are as good as can be expected at this season. There is more buying of Iron and Steel, and prices of Iron bars are up $3.00 per ton, with prospects of an advance in Steel with a short time. Specifications are coming in more freely. The buying of pig Iron was confined to small lots and the tone of the market in the South was easy, prices being occasionally shaded, but on Northern Irons supplies have been reduced, owing to the shutting down of the furnaces every one in the Chicago district being closed but there was more pressure to sell. Cold weather has made an active movement in anthracite and bituminous Coal, but supplies have been ample and prices on bituminous Coal were occasionally shaded. The buying of lumber was slightly increased, railroads having made large purchases of yellow pine timbers within the past week. Cold weather restricted the movement, but there was more inquiry for future shipment. Buying of dry goods, clothing and shoes for forward shipment was of fair volume, and in most of these lines sales are ahead of last year. Rubbers have advanced 5 to 10 per cent. Distribution of Coffee and Sugar was moderate and the market for Coffee was higher.

COMMERCIAL.

Business on the Chicago Board of Trade was rather satisfactory the past week. The speculative branch of the trade was of fair volume, while receiving and shipping operations continue about as of late. Outside interest in principal commodities traded in was quite marked, the Provision list more particularly. Local speculators gave the Grain markets a good deal of attention, the attitude of the "bull" interests in the various cereals being watched closely. The congested condition of the May futures, more especially in Wheat, induced traders in many instances to shift their operations to the July. Trade in the more forward deliveries is gradually broadening. The crop outlook here and abroad is still attracting a good deal of attention, as also the movement, exports and foreign demand. The political situation in the far East was not so much of a factor in shaping the course of values, though toward the close of the week press reports were more warlike and received more serious consideration.

Foreign crop advices this week generally noted some improvement in the crop situation. Better weather was reported in the United Kingdom and in France, Germany, Italy, Hungary, Roumania and Bulgaria conditions were more seasonable and the outlook at the present time as a whole satisfactory. The outlook in Russia is said to be much improved and under snow. Reports from Argentine were more favorable and the first arrivals of Wheat at Liverpool show an excellent quality. In India the crop outlook is good. No complaints are heard from Belgium and Holland. Shipments from Australia are now in full swing and the surplus of Wheat reported large.

The outlook for the Winter Wheat crop in the United States is not materially different from one week ago. Most of the crop East of the Mississippi River has ample snow protection. The effect of the late cold snap in the West and Southwest, however, is yet to be learned. The crop possibly suffered some injury in isolated sections, where protection was lacking, but is not thought to be in any way extensive. Lack of moisture in the Southwest for a long period before snows fell may eventually cause numerous complaints from that section. According to the weekly snow map there is only a light covering as far South as the Ohio River, Southern Missouri and Central Oklahoma. Notwithstanding the recent lowering of temperatures Corn continues to grade poorly and warehousemen have come to the conclusion the crop will require careful handling or severe losses will result with the advent of mild weather in the spring.

During the past week the movement of Grain to distributing markets was on a moderate scale. The very severe weather, no doubt, tended to restrict the receipts at country stations, though it was partially offset by the easing up in the car situation in parts of the West and Southwest. The movement in the aggregate, however, was fair. In the Northwest the movement of Grain and Flax Seed was moderate and this was also the case through the West. In the Southwest the arrivals at terminal points continues fairly liberal, the railroads endeavoring to clean up the side tracks and sidings. The reduction in rail rates to take effect January 30 will probably enlarge the movement somewhat. The Corn movement was moderate and the quality as a rule quite inferior. The marketing of Oats, too, is very moderate, notwithstanding the recent advanced values. The movement of Grain eastward was fair. Exports of Wheat and Flour were moderate, and fair of Corn. Bookings at Atlantic and Gulf ports were small. According to the weekly report of the visible supply of Grain in the United States and Canada, as compiled by the Secretary of the Chicago Board of Trade, there was an increase in the stocks of Wheat, Corn and Rye, and a decrease of Oats and Barley.

A very fair speculative business was transacted in the leading markets on 'Change this week. Sentiment was considerably mixed and fluctuations in the principal commodities frequent within the limits established. Wheat was nervous and sensitive, being easily influenced either up or down. July delivery was in greater favor as the May acted congested. The attitude of the "long" interest had much to do with making the course of values. Price changes in Corn were less sensational, but undertone, all things considered, was firm. The moderate movement and poor quality was again a factor. Oats were irregular, a feature being the continued buying by commission houses which have been the largest purchasers now for some time. Hog Products attracted a good deal of attention. Outside interest is still quite marked and local traders and packers operated with considerable freedom. Prices were irregular with rather more disposition on the part of "longs" to liquidate on the advances, more especially in Lard. The Hog movement, quality and action of Grain were among the chief influences. Packing of the West for the season was reported at 6,100 0 0 Hogs against 6,395 000 in 1902-3, an increase of 3,[illegible] Hogs.

The trade in cash Grain was only moderate the past week. Offerings were comparatively small and the quality as a rule quite ordinary. Wheat was wanted—that is, choice milling—while the poor grades were slow and did not meet with any special inquiry. Prices varied greatly, depending on quality. Several round lots of No. 1 Northern were taken by Eastern millers. Corn was in fair demand with off grades relatively steadier. Oats sold fairly well with the offerings moderate. The trade in Seeds was rather light. Hay was quiet and steady. The trade in Hog Products was nothing large. Domestic call only fair and foreign demand generally for small lots. Offerings about the same as of late and holders firm in their views. Exports for the week compared with the corresponding week in 1903 show an increase of 500 brls Pork, 71,000 lbs Lard and 979 boxes of Meats. Receipts of Cattle were fair and prices favored buyers. Sheep were marketed with considerable freedom and prices lower.

FREIGHTS—Rates on Grain from Omaha to Minneapolis have been reduced 2c effective Jan 30. A similar reduction has also been made from Kansas points to Chicago. The Santa Fe has reduced export rates from Kansas points to the Gulf 5c. The railroads have experienced the worst operating weather of the season both East and West. This has greatly delayed the movement of trains. Eastern roads are short of cars and there is congestion at numerous points. The Eastbound tariff is as follows:

New York	20	15	22	17½
Philadelphia	18	14	20	16½
Newport News	17	13½	19	..

Flour rates are 20c domestic and 16½c for export. Provision rates are 30c per 100 lbs, Chicago to New York.

Rail rates from Buffalo to the seaboard are 4½c per bu on Wheat, 4¼c on Corn, and 3½c on Oats. To New England they are 5½c on Corn and 3¼c on Oats.

Ocean rates on Grain steadier with a moderate demand. Rates on Grain are ¾@1d per bu from New York and ¾d from Boston. Through rate on Wheat from Chicago to Liverpool is 11¼c per bu and Corn 11½c. Flour 24.94c per 100 lbs and Provisions 44.05c per 100 lbs.

FLOUR—Operators in this market are apart in their views and the amount of business reported during the week was exceptionally small. The domestic trade bought only when it was necessary and the export interest made purchases in a small way and invariably on rush orders. The buying side of the Flour market feel that Wheat is too high and that a reaction and decline from the present level is almost certain to be established. They recall the heavy liquidation of May Wheat a year ago and are on the outlook for a repetition of that movement. In case the May Wheat holdings are liquidated, the price would break heavily and Flour would be affected, too. All of the city mills and those controlled by Chicago people are running on full time and a great deal of Flour is being shipped out on old orders. The export bids are not only out of line, but they are not coming as actively as they were a week or two ago. There are only a few lots of Flour being consigned at the present time, the Northwestern as well as the Southwestern miller preferring to sell his Flour outright. Stocks of Flour in the hands of jobbers are rather liberal, but the stocks in the public and private warehouses are not large. Eastern shipments have been curtailed of late, owing to the scarcity of cars as well as to the cold weather and the general scarcity of locomotives on many of the roads between Chicago and the seaboard. During the week prices ranged as follows:

MILLSTUFFS—Business was curtailed the past week by the very limited supply. The receipts have been small and the demand fair. Bran would have sold well, and was quotable at $17 00 per ton in bulk and at $18 00 in sacks, sacks included.

WINTER WHEAT—The market has ruled steady for fresh arrivals and prices underwent but slight changes. The fresh arrivals, especially of choice soft Wheat, were not susceptible to the changes and fluctuations which occurred in the speculative market. Choice Wheat acted independent from the futures; there has been a steady demand chiefly from millers, who accepted all offerings readily. There have been very small receipts and really not enough for the legitimate requirements of the trade. This soft Wheat in particular was wanted and sold distinctly on its merits. Choice Hard Winter was also steady, but the poor Wheat was dull and did not appear to be wanted, excepting at relatively low prices. There was no regular outlet for it and hence met with no competition like the more desirable Wheat. The grade Wheat or contract grade in store followed the fluctuations of the speculative market, and held at fair premium over the Spring Wheat. No shipping business was transacted and no round lots were reported sold. The receipts for the week aggregated 102 cars, against 130 cars the previous week. There were withdrawn from public elevators 7,50 bu and from private warehouses only 69 cars. No 2 Red in store was quotably from 1c under May to 2c over May prices, and ranged at 8 ¼@93½c depending on the quality. Fresh arrivals were quotable at 89@98c—outside for fancy soft, with sales at 97@98c. At the river a car sold at 85c. No 3 Red fresh arrivals sold free on board at 90@95c, and ranged at 85@97c for common to fancy soft. No 4 Red sold at 75c for ordinary to 82@88c for good to choice. No 2 Hard at the river ranged at 78@8 c. No. 3 Hard local sold at 75@83c and at the river at 7 @81c. No. 4 Hard at the river sold at 65@67c. No 3 White local sold at 91@93c.

SPRING WHEAT—The market has ruled rather steady for fresh arrivals of choice hard variety and this description of Wheat met with a demand from the milling and shipping interests. Very little choice Wheat received, only an occasional car. Not alone were the fresh arrivals taken up readily, but some round lots of No. 1 Northern in elevator, grade Wheat, were reported sold to go to various Eastern millers. Prices have averaged higher but top figures reached were not maintained. Of the poor Wheat there have been a number of cars received, and while ordinary Wheat was salable there has been no special call for it and low prices had to be accepted—it did not improve to the same extent that the better samples did. The receipts of the week aggregated 79 cars, against 123 cars the previous week. There were withdrawn from public elevators 5,000 bu, and only 33 cars were taken from private warehouses. No. 1 Northern in store at 3½@4c under May prices and was quotable at 83¾@88½c. Fresh arrivals free on board quotably 86@93c and there was a sale at the river at 81c. No. 3 Spring fresh arrivals ranged at 75@87c for ordinary to choice hard variety, with sales at the river at 76@83c. No 4 Spring local quotable at 55@57c for poor, to 62@70 for ordinary to fair and at 75@80c for fair to good hard variety and 82@83c for fancy; Sales at the river were made at 67@75c.

REGULAR WHEAT—The closing prices showed gains of ⅛c and 1⅛@1¼c for week. Changes in prices have been quite sharp during week, some of them of the necessary breadth to dislodge operators on both the "bull" and the "bear" side. A large line of July Wheat was purchased and sold by a local operator early in the week and the principal "long" in May has kept that future pretty irregular by buying and selling on a large scale. On the whole the Southwest has not been in the market largely, the seaboard has been on both sides, while the Northwest has sold July and bought May at different times and on other occasions has bought July and sold the May. The shortage in May Wheat in the Chicago market is variously estimated at 1 ,000,000 bu to 20,000,000 bu, and of this foreigners are "short" good sized amounts. The news and circumstances during the week have been of all kinds, but the principal factor was the direct movements of the principal traders in the market. In Argentina the weather was unfavorable early in the week, but it has veered around and the shipments are expected to increase—provided the labor troubles down there are settled in the near future. War news cut but little figure in the market early in the week, but was quite an influential "bull" factor later on. Liverpool was more or less affected by the news from the far East. The routine statistics were mainly "bearish" in character. The world's shipments were 10,456,000 bu, compared with 6,344,000 bu the previous week, and 7,250,000 bu in 1903. The amount of Wheat, including Flour as Wheat, on ocean passage increased 2,224,000 bu, making the total on the ocean destined for importing countries 24,808,000 bu. There was an increase of 237,000 bu in the visible supply during the week, making the total 40,612,000 bu, compared with 40,05,000 bu a year ago. Chicago stocks increased 24 0 0 bu for the week and are now 2,934,000 bu. Liverpool stocks decreased 296,000 bu, leaving the total 2,720,000 bu. The world's available supply of Breadstuffs showed a decrease of 331,000 bu for and week, compared with a decrease of 3,910,000 bu the week before, and a decrease of 525,000 bu the corresponding week last year. Contract stocks of Wheat at Chicago decreased 26,999 bu for the week, and are now 1,702,000 bu against 1,819,000 bu the week before, and 3,693,000 bu a year ago. Total in public warehouses 2,934,000 bu; in private houses 2,925,000 bu, total 5,859,000 bu. According to the snow map issued, there was only light snow covering as far as the Ohio River, Southern Missouri and Central Oklahoma. The Price Current stated that growing Wheat conditions were maintained; plant generally has small top growth, but healthy root believed in most cases. There was considerable complaint from some sections owing to the continued drouth in the Southwest. An Odessa cable read: "Think we have seen the worst and anticipate a better feeling abroad on Wheat; even if you should decline it is doubtful if we would follow; prospects new crop Wheat very bad; receipts small; stocks moderate and shipments very small." Roumania reported severe frosts and insufficient snow covering, and Australia claimed yield would not turn out quite as large as expected. Broomhall cabled early in the week that there was rain in all of four Wheat provinces of Argentine. The Liverpool market was affected on different occasions by pressure of Argentine offerings and general dullness. The Flour output for the week was 503,000 brls, compared with 469,000 brls same week in 1903. The latest news from Argentina reported the Wheat markets there as lower than a week ago, but the tone was said to be steady at the decline. Arrivals from the interior were only moderate, while last week they were liberal. Quality of new crop receipts down there continue satisfactory. Argentine shipments for the week were 2,056,000 bu, compared with 1,672,000 bu the previous week, and 1,080,000 bu a year ago. Visible supply in the chief ports of Argentine 3,568,000 bu, against 2,904,000 bu a week ago and 1,328,000 bu a year ago. Clearances from both coasts for the week were 2,917,000 bu, compared with 3,688,000 bu the previous week, and 4,420,000 bu a year ago.

CORN—There was a fair trade in Corn the past week and the feeling prevalent was comparatively firm, the close showing May up 1¼c, July ⅝@¾c better, while September gained ⅝c. Business was more local in character, with the "long" interest less conspicuous in this week's trading. May sold between 48⅞@50½c, and closed at 50¼@50⅜c. July ranged between 47⅜@48½c and rested at 48⅜c, against 47⅝@47¾c one week ago. Sentiment was governed to some extent the opening days by the action of Wheat, the break in the latter cereal causing some selling. The cold weather and expected betterment in the quality of the receipts, too, was one of the "bear" factors. At the decline, and under 49c for May the market had fair support and on miscellaneous buying, chiefly by "shorts," the price advanced to 50½c. Cables, while a little irregular, were comparatively firm. The stocks at Liverpool decreased 86,000 bu for the week, leaving the total 600,000 bu. World's shipments for the week were larger at 3,614,000 bu, compared with 2,340,000 bu the previous week and 2,694,000 bu the corresponding week one year ago. The amount of Corn on ocean passage increased 221,000 bu for the week, making total now on the ocean destined to importing countries 10,200 0 0 bu. The total amount of Corn in Chicago houses is placed at 4,419,000 bu, of which 2,217,000 bu are in private houses and 2,172,000 in public houses. There was a decrease of 112,123 bu in the contract stocks of Corn during the week, the total stock now being 1,8 8,416 bu, compared with 2,010,344 bu the week before and 2, 05,091 bu a year ago. The weather is better for movement and grading, and this fact doubtless helped the "bears" some in their position. Bradstreet's available supply increased 672,000 bu, compared with an increase of 519,000 bu for the corresponding week in 1903. The quality of the arrivals in this week showed little or no improvement, and the Price Current stated there was no betterment in the condition of Corn in the interior. Exports the week were fair at 1,468,000 bu, making 33,086,000 bu since July 1, compared with 19,398,000 bu for the same period in 1902-3. Bookings on the coast for forward shipment were small. The local shipping demand was moderate, but would probably have been better were cars more plentiful and the Corn of good quality. The Argentine shipments showed a marked falling off and was probably partially due to the strikes. Shipments this week were only 440,000 bu, compared with 1,234,000 bu the previous week, and 41,0 0 bu one year ago. Total since January 1 now aggregate 3,250,000 bu, compared with 520,000 bu same period in 1903. The movement through the West showed up smaller than a year ago. There was a better call from elevator interests for the off grades and yellow Corn was more readily taken. The dryers are all busy and the transfers from private to public warehouses the past week were large.

OATS—The market for Oats was active and unsettled, with an advance to the highest point of the season. Prices were largely influenced by the action of Wheat, and by the stronger cash situation. One of the strongest features was the large and persistent buying by commission houses for interests that have been conspicuous for several weeks. May was absorbed by these interests on the soft spots, and holdings by the leading "bull" interest were increased. The pit element was inclined to be "bearish" part of the time and sold, supplying the greater part of the demand, but covered at the last. The range on May was 41⅝@43c, with the close at 43c, a net gain of 1⅛c for the week. July sold between 37⅛c and 38c, and closed at 38c. Cash demand was rather disappointing, being confined to small lots from the Eastern interior. Severe cold weather curtailed the movement, but receipts were liberal. There are also predictions of a light run for next week. Arrivals for the week were 845 cars, against 728 cars the previous week and 1,681 cars last year. In the sample market prices were lower early, but recovered the loss and closed 1c higher. Export clearances aggregated 67,000 bu, compared with 56,176 bu the previous week, and 68,392 bu last year. Local stocks increased 3,273 bu and in public houses were 1,123,000 bu, compared with 611,838 bu last year. Stocks in all positions were 3,510,000 bu, a decrease of 94,000 bu. The visible supply decreased 8 ,000 bu and was 8,552,000 bu, compared with 4,009,000 bu last year.

RYE—A rather steady feeling existed in the market. There were only slight changes in prices and the character of trading was about the same as usual, with the exception perhaps that there has been a little better cash demand. The demand has been moderate and almost wholly speculative. The only cash business done outside of the speculative interests was in the few car lots received, of which there were scarcely enough to supply the requirements and a few car lots were bought delivered out of elevators. No shipping business was transacted and the volume of trading in both cash and futures has been of a moderate character. There has been no special desire to sell and the offerings have been limited. The best car lots were taken by millers, distillers and for manufacturing purposes and brought a good premium, while the poor samples were slow sale, no one caring to purchase these excepting at low prices. The receipts for the week aggregated 19 cars, compared with 22 cars the previous week. There were 1,400 bu withdrawn from public elevators and 14 cars from private warehouses. Export clearances from the seaboard none. The visible supply increased 25,000 bu and was reported at 1,300,000 bu, against 1,275,000 bu the previous week and 1,003,000 bu a year ago. The local stock in store was 239,000 bu and a year ago was 359,000 bu. No. 2 in store was nominal and quotably at 54½@57c, with sales of a few cars delivered from store at 58¾c, and fresh arrivals free on board sold at 60@60½c. No. 3 fresh arrivals sold at 54@58c—outside for choice car of white Rye. No. 4 sold at 46@50c, and a very poor car of No Grade, wet and rotten, at 20c. For future deliveries of No 2 a little business was done. January sold at 55½@56¼c. March was nominal at 56½@57½c. May sold at 5 @59c and closed at 58½c.

BARLEY—An easy feeling with some decline in prices was the experience in the Barley market, owing to a tame and inadequate demand compared with offerings. Demand from maltsters was particularly restricted. Few of these buyers were in attendance on the market. Even though offerings were moderate, sellers found it somewhat difficult to effect sales, and prices which they were obliged to accept were frequently 2@3c below those realized for similar grades a week ago. Feed and mixing Barley sustained 1c decline early in the week, when demand was slow, but later there was some revival of trade and a recovery of prices. In malting grades it was not so, and some cars being held over in the hope of doing better had to be let go in order to avoid paying demurrage charges. Output from store was small, and the last report of local stock exhibited some gain. The visible supply decreased some, though remaining quite liberal compared with a year ago. In the case of Screenings there was not much change. There was a range of 30@40c for poor to very choice; seldom, however, was the outside price reached. Feed Barley sold at 38@39c to 37½@38c, back to 38@39c; very poor, musty, nominally lower. Low grade malting declined from 40@45c to 39@42c; common from 43@45c to 42@44c; fair from 46@49c to 4 @47c, and good from 50@55c to 48@52c, and choice ranged at 53@57c, with fancy possibly above. Receipts during the week were 252 cars, the week before they were 243 cars and two weeks ago 151 cars. Withdrawals were 000 bu. There were exported from New York 46,755 bu, the previous week 1,333 bu and two weeks ago 14,844 bu. In the local stock there was reported 25,681 bu decrease, 345,656 bu remaining, against 1,2 bu a year ago. Visible supply fell off 137,300 bu; it was given as 5,010,000 bu, a year ago it was 2, 8 ,000 bu.

SEEDS—Cold and in many sections stormy weather was bad for Grass Seeds, not only interfering with movement but causing outside dealers to put off their buying. In consequence Timothy was dull, and became easy, and it closed somewhat lower. Clover so sparingly offered as to be exceedingly quiet. Hungarian and Millets were nominally firm. The Flax situation in the Northwest was such as to exert a very firm feeling here and prices rose to a higher level, but did not hold to all that was gained.

Timothy—The market did not make much of a showing the past week. It ruled quiet, developed into dullness, and an easy feeling prevailed. Arrivals were fair, not so large as the preceding week, also less than the corresponding week a year ago. The exhibit in output was quite unfavorable. Shipments falling far below those of recent weeks and the same time last year and they were very much less than the arrivals. The order demand was of a slow order, below what has been looked for. Some disappointment was felt on this account and complaints of dullness were heard. The very cold weather may have been a cause contributing to dullness. Early the feeling was reasonably steady, but it gradually became heavy and finally easier. Price changes not important; there was 5@10c decline. The trade is not supposed to be carrying any large quantity of Seed. Buyers at the same time were slow in taking hold. A considerable quantity is supposed to remain back in the country. Contract spot or January delivery was quoted early at $3 10, later at $3 05, and February ranged at $3 15 to $3 05 while March declined from $3 20 to $3 10. Quotations were nominal, for trading was absent. Country lots covered a quotable range of $2 25@3 25 for poor to fancy, finally $3 15 was about the extreme; fair to good quotable $2 70@2 85; choice $2 90@3 05, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 40@2 50. Receipts and shipments with comparisons were as follows:

Same time last year	1,481,060
Shipments—The past week, lbs	164,300
A week ago	416,025

Flax—There was an advance in price. Upward tendency was but a continuation of what has been lately going on. It was also due mainly to advance in Northwestern markets. Little business was done. Occasionally a few May delivery sales would be made and now and then a few cars were sold. There was a slight reaction from the outside still there was a good net improvement. There is exhibited 2@5c advance; the greatest improvement being for No. 1 Northwestern. Arrivals were small, 64 cars, compared with 90 cars the previous week and 95 cars two weeks ago. Output very moderate; it was 21,337 bu the past week, compared with 16,491 bu the previous week and 23,553 bu two weeks ago. There was a fair net gain in stocks. Chicago stocks fell off 8,713 bu, but Minneapolis gained 26,810 bu and Duluth 1,2,511 bu. There were reported at Chicago 60,679 bu, against 6,214 bu the corresponding week last year. Minneapolis reported 1,722,047 bu and Duluth 6,8 2,373 bu. No. 1 cash ranged—it was a nominal range—at $1 08@1 10; closed at $1 10. No 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest at $1 14@1 19, there was a steady advance and then a reaction to $1 17½; closed at $1 17½. Rejected was nominally $1 03@1 08 early to $1 06@1 10 later. January opened at $1 08 bid and was afterward $1 10 nominal, sometimes bid. May opened at $1 11 bid and $1 12 asked, and advanced to $1 14 bid and then receded to $1 13.

Clover—Since a week ago there has been thawing weather and then a turn to about the coldest of the season. Latter circumstance was hardly favorable. It was inclined to defer rather than accelerate preparations for spring business. Orders were rather slow. The output suggests it: shipments were much smaller than for recent weeks, also much less than a year ago and yet larger than arrivals. Consignments which appeared on sale were usually common to very poor. Trading was of a limited order. Values did not change materially from day to day. Quotations for the better grades were merely nominal; there were no offerings of such. Contract Seed was quoted usually at $11 25, and March delivery at $11 35; country lots, common to choice, at $8 25@11 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $8 00@9 50; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@8 00; inferior lower; fair to good quality about $9 50@10 50. Movement the past week with comparisons was as follows:

Two weeks ago	108,513
Same time last year	108,500
Shipments the past week, lbs.	180,065
The previous week	415,025
Two weeks ago	618,895
Corresponding week last year	758,300

Other Seeds—Transactions were not important and it could not always be learned just what was done. Hungarian scarce. From indications it was in good demand and good quality steady to firm. Millets also salable and steady. Prices quoted are elsewhere given.

Two weeks ago	326,260
Same time last year	308,896
Shipments the past week, lbs	495,245
The previous week	778,635
Two weeks ago	855,845
Same time last year	383,954

Buckwheat was a shade firmer. It reacted 5@10c from last weeks decline. Less was offered and a little new demand developed. Good milling sold at $1 20 and closed at $1 15@1 20.

HAY—The receipts for the week were 5,142 tons, against 4,586 tons for the previous week. Shipments for the week were 206 tons, against 202 tons for the previous week. Only a fair business was transacted in this market during the past week. The receipts were liberal and only a moderate demand existed for both Timothy and Prairie Hay. Local dealers were about the only buyers and they were taking hold sparingly, merely supplying necessary wants. The weather was extremely cold but had no particular effect on the market. Prices ruled steady with no material change to note. Quotations at the close ranged as follows: Choice Timothy, $11 50@12 50; No 1 Timothy, $11 00@11 50; No. 2 Timothy, $9 00@10 00; No. 3 Timothy, $8 00@9 50; Choice Prairie. $10 50@11 00; No. 1 Prairie, $9 00@10 00; No. 2 Prairie, $8 00@8 50; No. 3 Prairie, $6 00@7 00; No. 4 Prairie, $5 00@5 50. Inside prices on Prairie Hay for State and outside for Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa Hay. Sales ranged at $8 00@13 00 for fair to choice Timothy, $7 50 for Clover Mixed, $7 00@8 00 for State, and $7 50@9 50 for poor to fair Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas Prairie Hay. Rye Straw sold at $8 50@9 00, and Oat Straw at $6 75@7 50.

COOPERAGE—The market continues quiet, with rather an easy undertone. Offerings were fair of all descriptions, but the demand was generally slow and indifferent. Local packers purchased only in a moderate way and outside orders as a rule were for small quantities. Pork Barrels were in moderate request and quotably easy at $1 17½@1 20 for ash and $1 20@1 22½ for oak. Lard Tierces were in rather light demand, and sales were moderate at $1 45@1 47½. Iron bound Lard Tierces were in moderate request and quotable at $1 30@1 32½ for six hoop and $1 37½@1 40 for eight hoop.

HOGS—The receipts of Hogs were rather free the past week and the quality a little better, but there is still some complaint owing to the many lightweights. The market the first of the month was inclined to dullness with packers and shippers a little slow about taking hold. Later on the demand improved. Orders from Eastern markets were moderate. Early in the week the tone was steady with offerings very fair. Prices ruled steady. Later there was increase in the offerings and an easier feeling developed and prices declined 5@10c. Toward the close the demand was slower and the market became rather dull Prices sold off 10c more. Sales during the week were made at $4 50@5 05 for light, $4 70@4 90 for rough packing, $4 70@5 20 for mixed, and $4 85@ for heavy packing and shipping lots, with the bulk of the trading within the range of $4 80@5 10 for fair to good averages. At the close, about 9,000 Hogs remained in the pens unsold Pigs were in fair supply and rather good demand, and sold at $4 00@4 60, according to size and quality. Receipts of Hogs at the other large Western packing points were rather large and quality fairly good.

PACKING—Another active week was witnessed in packing circles, the various makes of Product being made with a good deal of freedom. Hogs were in fair supply and packers, while inclined to hold off at first, purchased freely later on. Mess Pork continues to be manufactured in fair quantities and other cuts of Pork moderately. Lard was produced in larger quantities and average yield was better owing to heavier weight of the Hogs. A small proportion was placed in tanks. Domestic cuts of Hams were manufactured with considerable freedom and only a small proportion delivered from the block. Skinned Hams were cut in fair numbers and still cured chiefly by manufacturers. Foreign cuts of Hams were made rather sparingly. Shoulders were made in about usual quantities and a fair proportion sold from the block. Picnic Hams made with considerable freedom. Long Clear Sides and Extra Long Clear Sides made in very moderate quantities. Short Clear Sides also made moderately. Extra Short Clear Sides cut in fair quantities. Short Rib Sides met with rather more favor and the production was liberal. Extra Short Rib Sides made moderately. Rough Sides cut in fair quantities and chiefly of medium averages. Backs and Bellies made moderately. Loins cut rather freely to meet current wants. Foreign fancy and special cuts of Meats made in limited quantities.

PROVISIONS—This week, like the previous one, witnessed a good trade in the market for Hog Products, the volume of business being large. The feeling developed was again quite unsettled and prices at times quite irregular. Outside orders were quite numerous, the execution of which tended to shape the course of prices at different times during the week. Local operators as well as packers, too, were prominently identified with the trade. The bulk of the trade is still in contracts for May, though July continues to attract considerable attention. The receipts of Hogs were very fair in the aggregate, and prices ruled irregular, and this feature had some influence on the market for Products at times. The course of the market and prices were influenced to some extent by changes in the Grain markets. Lard was easily the leader in the Provision list, the attitude of the Southern speculators being quite a factor. "Bull" interests were credited with adding to their lines, evidently expecting to offset their losses in Cotton. Returns of the packing of the West for the week exhibited an increase of 35,000 Hogs, compared with the returns of the corresponding week in 1903, and this feature likewise had some effect on values. Foreign markets, while quiet, were as a rule rather firm, more particularly for Lard. Domestic markets were more active and undertone firm The receipts of Products from the interior were very fair, as packers continue delivering on maturing contracts. Shipments were rather free, a fair proportion of which were forwarded to foreign markets. Stocks of all kinds moderate, but production somewhat larger. Early in the week there was fair activity in all the speculative markets. "Shorts" accepted liberal quantities and investment buying was much in evidence. Higher prices ruled for all descriptions of Product, though the advance in Mess Pork and Short Rib Sides was not as easily effected as in Lard. Prices advanced all around. At the advance offerings increased and under fair miscellaneous selling led by local as well as Western packers and prices receded. "Longs" in many instances were disposed to realize and prices settled back. Toward the close the situation became steadier under a fair demand from "shorts." The action of coarse Grains had some influence with local operators. The demand on shipping account was moderate, and mainly for the wants of the domestic trade. Orders from the Southern markets were moderate most of the week. Exporters were not inclined to purchase, except in a small way. Offerings were not very large, and holders were rather firm in their views. Supplies of all kinds are liberal. Sales were fair, and prices, as a rule, were more in sellers' favor.

Pork—The trade in Mess Pork the past week was fair and fluctuations rather frequent within the limits established. Feeling, all things considered, was steady and the close a shade better than Friday. Sentiment at times was a little mixed, but values were governed mainly by the Hog supply and prices prevalent for the same The stocks on hand, which are very moderate, and the manufacture, too, were influential factors. The trade was confined almost exclusively to contracts in May, transactions in July as yet being limited. Outside interest at times was quite marked and local operators and packers traded in liberal quantities. Early in the week the offerings were only moderate, while the demand was fair and the feeling quite firm. Under a miscellaneous demand prices were advanced 15@17½c. Market later was weakened by the decline in Lard and Grain markets. Prices declined irregularly 20@22½c, but at the reduction the demand improved while the offerings were lighter, and the market developed moderate strength. Prices irregularly advanced about 7½@10c. This advance brought considerable property on the market again toward the close, and an easier feeling prevailed, and prices declined 5@7½c, but the market in a general way closed at about the inside figures of the week. Demand on shipping account was moderate, and offerings were somewhat limited. Holders still firm in their views, and generally asking May figures. At the close, cash lots were quotable at $13 25@13 37½. Other cuts of Pork were in fair request for small quantities and offerings were moderate. Prices well maintained on all descriptions.

Lard—Was again the leader in the Provision list, the market ruling quite active, with prices irregular Outside interest keeps up and local traders and packers operated in good-sized quantities. Sentiment was quite divided, but the "bull" interest was less aggressive on the "long" side. Realizing and profit-taking was more in evidence on the hard spots. Among the strengthening factors was the light stocks and moderately free shipments. "Shorts" were fair buyers the first of the week and May, the active delivery, advanced 25c. Advices from abroad were favorable to holders. At the advance the offerings increased, liquidation by local as well as outside holders being a feature, and prices declined irregularly 20c. The better quality of the Hogs marketed was a "bear" factor. Toward the close the situation became a little steadier, and under a miscellaneous demand prices recovered 10c and the close was comparatively firm. Demand on shipping account moderate: there was no particular pressure to sell. A few trades were made at about January figures, and closed steady at $7 20@7 22½. Refined in only fair demand and prices entirely nominal. Loose lots were in fair demand, and offerings were somewhat larger. A few trades were made at 70@72½c discount on May figures, and closed at 70c. Leaf Lard offered rather freely and demand was active. Prices ruled steady, and fair sales were made at $6 87½@$7 00, and closed steady at $6 87½. Neutral was in fair supply, with only a moderate demand. Prices ruled lower, and at close ranged at $8 50@8 62½ for No 1, and $7 75@7 87½ for No. 2.

Short Rib Sides—Trade was fairly active in the market for Short Rib Sides during the past week, and the feeling was a little unsettled. Offerings were fairly liberal at times, and mainly from packers, while the demand was rather active, and chiefly from the "short" interest. Trading chiefly in May contracts, though July met with more favor. Stocks on hand are steadily enlarging. Outside orders were moderate, and local trading fair Early in the week, the feeling was stronger in a general way, with fair miscellaneous buying, and prices were advanced 10@12½c. At the improvement, there was some inclination to realize, and a weaker feeling was developed. Prices gradually receded 12½@15c, and the market closed steady at the decline. Demand on shipping account was moderate, and offerings were somewhat limited. Trading chiefly in a quiet way. At the close, cash lots were quotable at $6 37½@6 62½, according to weight.

Green Meats—A moderate business was transacted in the market for Green Meats and prices were comparatively steady. Offerings were not very large by most of the packers, and the demand only fair. Local curers were in the market for moderate quantities only, and outside orders showed little increase in number. Hams were in moderate demand and prices quite steady. Skinned Hams were offered more sparingly and prices unchanged. Shoulders were in light demand and prices were comparatively steady. Picnic Hams were in moderate request and prices little changed. Bellies were in small demand and prices about the same as last week.

Pickled Meats—Just a fair business was reported in the market for Pickled Meats during the past week. The foreign demand showed little or no improvement, the orders received generally being for small quantities. The local call was moderate. Offerings were only fair, holders as a rule being quite firm in their views. Supplies were reported moderate. Foreign advices indicated an easier feeling in that quarter. Domestic markets were quiet. Hams were in fair request with heavier averages in most favor. A few lots accepted for future delivery. Skinned Hams were in fair demand and prices rather inclined to favor sellers. Shoulders were quiet with small offerings, and prices were firm. Picnic Hams called for moderately at former figures. Bellies were in small request and prices were without material change.

Dry Salted Meats—There was a fair business booked in Dry Salted Meats this past week. The domestic call continues fairly good both for prompt and forward delivery, while the foreign inquiry was only moderate. Packers sold fair quantities. Foreign cuts of Hams were in small request and prices nominally unchanged. Shoulders were in moderate demand for home wants and prices ruled firm. Long Clear Sides were quiet and very firm at a slight advance. Extra Long Clear Sides were quiet and prices entirely nominal. Short Clear Sides were called for in small quantities, and prices were stronger. Extra Short Clear Sides were in fair request and sales were a trifle larger. Prices ruled firm, and closed at 6½@6⅝c. Extra Short Rib Sides were in moderate demand and prices were rather firm, closing at 6½@6⅝c. Rough Sides were in good request and sales were fairly free. Demand chiefly for medium averages. Prices very well supported, and closed at 6½@6¾c, according to weight. Butts were in fair request and prices quite firm. Plates were in very fair demand, and prices well maintained. Bellies were called for moderately, and prices ruled firm. Backs were in fair demand at about former figures. Foreign fancy special cuts of Meats in request and prices nominally unchanged.

Smoked Meats—The trade in Smoked Meats was only fair the past week. Orders showed no particular increase in number, and as a rule were for moderate quantities. Offerings were fair and prices firm for all descriptions. Demand is still confined chiefly to the Southern trade. Hams were in only fair request and prices little changed. Skinned Hams in rather moderate demand and prices ruled steady. Shoulders were rather quiet and prices without material change. Picnic Hams were in fair request and prices were firm Breakfast Bacon called for moderately and prices easy.

Beef Products—A very moderate trade was reported in the market for Beef Products and the prices but little changed. Offerings were fair and the demand moderate. Foreign markets continue to hold steady and domestic markets were rather quiet. Receipts of Cattle were not so liberal, with prices rather inclined in sellers' favor. Manufacture of Products was fair. Shipments of Dressed Beef were again liberal. Beef Hams were called for moderately and prices were rather firm. Extra Mess Beef in fair request at about former prices. Some inquiry rumored on foreign war account Plate Beef in fair demand and prices ruled steady. Extra Plate Beef in moderate request and prices unchanged. Tallow in fair demand with no particular pressure to sell; prices were well maintained. Oleo Stearine was quiet and rather easy at 6½@6¾c.

Greases—Trade was only moderate this week and the feeling comparatively steady Offerings not very large and demand showed no marked improvement. Prices steady and without important changes.

THE COAL TRADE.

The Coal Trade Journal says: "The 'good Coal-burning' weather continues in all parts of the country, and the supplies in hands of consumers are running down, while the production is proceeding on a moderate pace, because, as is well known, the same conditions which are using up fuel are also tending to very great interruptions in the mining districts and in transportations. With these facts duly noted one may feel that from the producers' standpoint there is a fairly good condition of affairs in the Coal trade; one that bids fair to insure an output of good proportions, and if a settlement of wages for mining soft Coal for another year on an equitable basis is promptly arrived at there is every prospect of a business good in tonnage and profits

"The past year, with its erratic prices, led to an uneven basis of cost, and with values as they are, there should be a reduction therein; if this is not done, then the price of Coal to the consumer must stand at a higher range than certain of the figures we hear of at the present time. The hard Coal wages being fixed for a period of time no reduction can be expected beyond that usual during the summer months If one may place reliance upon information from the convention, there will be no such thing as a screened Coal basis of wages; it seems to be the desire to get down to a mine-run basis in all districts; then the differential between the pick and machine mining is more readily settled. On the question of uniform wages for inside and outside labor, that is to be brought up to the price for the best—say $2 50 per day."

A Kansas City message, Wednesday, said: "Keep in mind the fact that Wheat in Northern Texas, Oklahoma and Southern Kansas will show whether it is alive or not after a week of mild weather in February. By March 1, if it is badly killed, it will be well known The winter has been a trying one and all reports of examination of the plant so far are that it is nearly all dead So that I expect the first reports to show Wheat is in very poor condition, as bad or worse than two years ago, when Kansas had a third as much Wheat as last year, and the bulk of that was in the east end of the State, where dry weather did not affect it."

The weather through the West and Southwest is milder this morning. There are light but quite general snows through the West, except in Kansas and Oklahoma. They are shown in Manitoba, Dakotas, Minnesota, Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri and Illinois. The fall is very light, but at 7 A. M. it was snowing over most of the Western and Northwestern States.

The forecast for 36 hours is: Kansas, snow east, colder and fair Sunday. Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, rain or snow; warmer, colder Sunday. Dakotas, snow east; colder. Nebraska, snow; colder Sunday.

The warehouse of the Bucher & Gibbs Plow Company at Canton, Ohio, was burned, Thursday. Loss, $75,000.

The Consolidated Gas Company, New York, has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 2 per cent, payable March 15. Books close Feb. 25 and reopen March 16.

The American Chicle Company has declared the regular monthly dividend of 1 per cent on its common stock, payable Feb. 20. Books close Feb. 16 and reopen Feb. 23.

Statistical office estimates Germany's imports during 1903 at $1,574,750,000 an increase of $123,250,000, and the exports at $1,274,750,000, an increase of $70,500,000 over the figures of 1902.

The St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad Company has declared the usual quarterly dividend of 1 per cent on its second preferred stock, payable March 1. Books close Feb. 15 and reopen March 2.

The London Star's Kobe correspondent says that the Japanese government will issue exchequer bonds to the amount of $50,000,000 and will raise a war fund by doubling the land, income, and sugar taxes.

At Springfield, Ill., Thursday, the Secretary of State granted the Sanitary Laundry Company of Chicago permission to decrease its capital from $2,000,000 to $1,500,000. The decreasing of its capital was caused by the unloading of treasury stock that had not been issued.

The Iron Age says that foundry Iron is offering in the Central West at low figures, while there is practically no sale of Bessemer pig. Another authority makes the statement that inquiries are making for large amount of Iron, especially for basic and forge grades.

A director of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company says for the year ended with December the American Telephone Company will show a larger surplus after dividends than ever before, notwithstanding the fact that it had to pay dividends on $20,000,000 of new stock.

Linseed Oil has advanced to 39c in car lots for raw. The five barrel is 40c and the single-barrel price 41c. The price is up 7c from the low point of last summer. The advance is due entirely to the appreciation of Flax Seed. Trading of late has increased in Oil, and prospects are for a good spring business.

It is said there has been some discussion of a proposition to list the Atchison stocks on the Berlin Bourse. The matter has not been carried to a point where any definite statement can be made as to whether or not the proposal may be carried out. But it is in the air, and expectation of a consummation of the plan proposed has been responsible for some recent buying of Atchison common.

A telegram from Pittsburg, Pa., says: "The Ashland, Ky., Steel Company is quoting Steel billets at $21.00 at the mill, which, with freight added, permits delivery in Chicago at $1c below pool price. Pittsburg Steel men consider it improbable that the pool price will be maintained. Tin Plate has been reduced $3.00 a ton, and sheets shaded 10c a box. The corporation denies the rumor of a rail cut."

The Illinois Tunnel Company, the new corporation which succeeds the Illinos Telegraph and Telephone Company, Thursday, filed for record a trust deed and mortgage to the Equitable Trust Company to secure $30,000,000 twenty-five year 5 per cent bonds. Of these $15,000,000 are to be issued at once and the remainder reserved until needed. The bonds are redeemable at 105 on any interest date.

Over 75,000 native packer Hides have been sold at Chicago this week at 12c. This is 1½c higher than the figures of sixty days ago. On the break last fall heavy exports were made to Europe, which removed the surplus. The trade now is considered in good condition, as January is always considered an off month for the Hide men. Packers and tanners have small stocks, the latter holding less leather than for years.

The total number of immigrants landed at all ports in the United States during December, 1903, was 44,632, compared with 50,201 in 1902, a decrease of 5,569. In December last there were landed at Ellis Island 34,214 immigrants, of whom 152 were debarred and 44 returned by the authorities after they landed. At the port of Boston the number of immigrants landed was 1,646; at Baltimore, 4,075; Philadelphia, 924; Montreal, Quebec, and St. John, 1,633; San Francisco, 671; Honolulu, 707, Seattle 231; San Juan, 114.

The St. Louis correspondent of the Northwestern Miller says: "During last week copious rains, followed by a heavy fall of snow which extended throughout this section of the country, provided plenty of moisture for the growing crop, and there is no doubt that the crop will be materially benefitted. A liberal covering of snow protects the crop from any severe cold weather that may come. The cold weather predicted did not materialize, and conditions have been all that could be desired to promote the growth of the plant."

France imported 735,000 bu of foreign Wheat for consumption in December, against 60,000 bu in December, 1902. For the five months from Aug. 1 to Dec. 31 the total is 7,176,000 bu, against 5,480,000 bu in 1902; and for the whole year, 1903, 16,976,000 bu, against 9,600,000 in 1902. Algeria and Tunis sent only 5,440,000 bu in 1903, against 7,600,000 bu in 1902. Stocks in bond on Jan. 1 were 2,240,000 bu, against 1,296,000 bu last year, besides which there was held in "temporary admission" against Flour exports 2,496,000 bu, against 2,800,000 bu last year.

"The feeding pens of Larimer County, Colorado, contain 264,409 Sheep and Lambs, which are being fattened on Alfalfa and Grain and fitted for the Eastern markets," says the Fort Collins, Colo., Weekly Courier. "A larger percentage than usual of the total number is made up of ewes and yearling wethers, the increase being due to the success a few feeders had last year in feeding this class of Stock. Wethers and ewes come to the pens full grown, so that neither time nor feed is lost in producing growth, as is the case with Lambs. The ration fed them immediately goes to making flesh, so that the animals are sooner made ready for market and at less cost for Hay and Grain."

The American Locomotive Company has received an order for eighty locomotives from the New York Central. These engines are to be used on the New York Central proper. It is understood that a contract will be signed soon with the Lake Shore for a number of locomotives for use on the Lake Shore. The executive committee of New York Central has ratified the contract and appropriated the necessary money to meet this expenditure. The total order is expected to amount to 112 locomotives or more. Negotiations for this order have been in progress for considerable time. The placing of so large an order is the reason given for the strength of American Locomotive securities.

Chicago employes of the Steel Corporation, Friday, received checks for the $5.00 bonus on shares purchased under the profit-sharing plan begun a year ago. The new offer of Steel preferred at $55.00 a share meets with liberal acceptances. The complaint made by some employes is that the amount offered is limited; otherwise, they say they have practically a five-year option on the stock at remarkable figures. One investor figures the actual cost to him if he holds the stock throughout the five-year period will be $27.00 a share. Many employes became frightened in the late slump; hence the bonuses thus forfeited are swelling the pool which is to be distributed pro rata at the end of the deal.

Some additional details of the formation of the Michigan State Telephone Company, the new company which is to take over the properties of the Michigan Telephone Company, recently bought by the bondholders under foreclosure sale, have reached Chicago. The paid in capital stock of the new company is set for the purposes of incorporation at $10,000: 6 per cent cumulative preferred stock and $15,000 common stock, each possessing equal voting power. Of course this stock is to be increased, but the kinds of shares will doubtless remain as at present. The minority interests in Michigan Telephone have not yet filed appeal, and it is believed that they will not. This step indicates that the bondholders will go ahead with their own plans.

The improved business of the Automatic Electric Company makes it probable that the Strowger Automatic Telephone Exchange will be able to increase its dividends this year. In a statement, issued Friday, to the shareholders the directors say: "We, the members of the board of directors of the Strowger Automatic Telephone Exchange, elected by the stockholders at their last annual meeting, find the affairs of the company in excellent condition. During the last year the company has earned and paid the stockholders a dividend of $1.00 a share on the capital stock, and we now feel assured that with the successful operation of the many exchanges installed by the Automatic Electric Company this dividend rate will be increased in the near future."

The Governing Committee of the New York Stock Exchange, Friday, approved recommendations from the Committee on Stock List for the listing of the following securities: Of the United States of America, $7,000,000 4 per cent Philippine land purchase of 1914-1934. Of the Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company of Chicago, $7,500,000 common stock. Of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad Company, $17,358,000 twenty-five-year 4 per cent debenture coupon bonds of 1928, the Committee on Stock List being empowered to add to the list prior to Feb. 10 $22,644,000 additional of these bonds, making a total of $40,000,000. Of the Weatherford Mineral Wells and Northwestern Railway Company, $500,000 guaranteed first mortgage 5 per cent coupon bonds of 1930.

Advices from Texas show that the winter down there has been exceptionally favorable for stockmen. Very little cold weather has been experienced, and in no quarter have the ranges been overstocked. On this account Cattle are looking better than usual, and there are prospects now that they will pull through in better shape and with less feed than usual. In Southern Texas it has been quite dry and a good rain would not cause any complaint just now, but Stock is not suffering materially. Most of the big ranchmen in late years have put down windmills, and, therefore, are in better shape to stand a drouth than they ever have been before. In Northwest Texas there has been an abundance of rain, and farmers, as well as stockmen, are naturally in a pleasant frame of mind over the prospects.

The Chicago Live Stock Exchange, Thursday, adopted by vote the new retrenchment rules recommended by the National Live Stock Exchange, though a few changes in the original rules were made. Under the new rules members are allowed the privilege of taking friends to dinner, but must not issue meal tickets on restaurants in or adjacent to the Stock Yards. No telegraph or telephone messages are to be paid for except those quoting bona fide sales or purchases of Stock, and no regular solicitors are to be employed, though active members of commission firms or a bona fide salesman may solicit trade in the country for a period of six days in each month, but such solicitors must be residents of the city and actively engaged in the trade here. The new rules go into effect Feb. 1, regardless of the action of Exchanges at other markets.

The River Plate Review of Dec. 19 says: "The weather has been bad during the past week. In Cordoba and Santa Fe considerable rain has fallen. This has caused a fair amount of loss in the fields lately cut, and in which the farmers have had no time to properly stack the Wheat and Flax Seed. In the Province of Buenos Ayres it has been cold and very unseasonable. The weather during the past fortnight has been most unseasonable. It has been cold and wet, and in the Northern and Central Grain belt considerable delay has been caused to harvesting operations. Whereas the rain has proved beneficial to the Corn crop, it is likely to damage the Wheat and Flax Seed that has been cut, threshing will be delayed, and some damage may be done to these two cereals. The Province of Entre Rios will, from all appearances, reap a very considerable crop this season, and the outlook is exceedingly bright after the many years of disappointment. Year by year this Province has seen its crops destroyed, whereas in the other parts of the Republic they have been good and large."

The Bank of England to-day sold $500,000 gold to Egypt and bought $10,000 bar gold in the open market. Gold to the amount of $6,250,000 is expected to arrive here this week. It will probably be bought by the Bank of England, as there is no demand from the Continent.

Broomhall cables: "Rising Consols and large Wheat shipments caused opening decline. There was a slight recovery on small monthly stocks, showing decrease of 776,000 bu and on firm Argentine offerings. Corn was easier in sympathy with Wheat decline and small spot demand."

	Flour, brls	Grain, bu.	Prov., tons.

Stocks in New York started with good selling and prices receded under closing out of thinly margined holdings. Covering by London and good absorption of Atchison, Southern Pacific, Union Pacific and Copper gave the market a good rally, and the Railway shares above mentioned closed higher, but others slightly lower. Copper advanced 2⅜ from the low point. Consolidated Gas lost 1¾. Tractions were under pressure all day and lost ⅞ to 1⅛.

In the New York Cotton market "bull" sentiment again found expression in new records, April, May, June and July all crossing 17c. Profit-taking orders flooded the market at 17c, but the setback was slight and the list continued to rise. Liverpool advices said American buying there was heavy, with offerings light. New York ignored a drop of 10 points in Liverpool after the call, thus emphasizing the "bull" sentiment prevailing. Port receipts estimated light, only 18,000 bales. Closing sales were 47@52 points higher.

FLOUR—The market is quiet. Buyers continue indifferent. Stocks moderate.

REGULAR WHEAT—A fair trade, with the sentiment rather divided. Final figures showed the May ½c higher and July up ½@⅝c. The news was in the main "bearish," but market had good support by the "long" interest. The lower start was attributable chiefly to the easier cables, higher Consols, large shipments from Russia, the Danube, Australia and Argentina, and liberal additions to the amount afloat for Europe. The closing down of all the Minneapolis mills was also a factor. Locals led in the selling, but the offerings were well taken, and later on there was a rush on the part of "shorts" to cover. The news from Kansas regarding supplies was "bullish." Liverpool quoted spot steady to ¼d lower, and futures ⅜@⅝d lower. London came ¼d lower. Paris steady to ⅛c lower and Antwerp unchanged. Liverpool cabled that Australian February shipments would not arrive there until last part of June. Liverpool stocks February 1 were reported at 2 072,000 bu, a decrease of 776,000 bu during January. CORN—Was fairly active and quite unsettled. Prices declined ⅜c early, but later rallied ¾@1⅛c. The close was ¼@⅜c to ⅝c higher. The early selling was better than the buying, the tone being influenced to some extent by the cold weather and easier cables. Later the early sellers turned buyers, the rally in Wheat and Oats being the chief factor. Receipts were 358 cars, with 197 cars off grades, against 301 cars last year, when 148 cars were low grades. Estimates for to-morrow, 675 cars. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ¼d lower, and futures ⅛@¼d lower. World's shipments were 2,788,000 bu, previous week, 3 614,000 bu; year ago, 2,781,000 bu. The prospect of peace in the Far East was apparently one of the early "bear" influences. Milder weather with scattered snows was predicted for the Corn States. OATS—Were excited, with a heavy trade in May. The market for the latter is congested and although prices were off ⅜c from Saturday's close early, they advanced 1⅝c, partly on stop-loss buying, and made a new season's record, the close being at a net gain of 1¼c. July advanced ⅝c and showed ½c gain at the close. September gained ⅛c. There was heavy selling of May for profits all the way up, but offerings were well taken and part of the time May was hard to buy. Local stocks increased 57,000 bu and are 1,189,000 bu. BARLEY—The week opened with more malting Barley offered. It ranged mainly within the range of common to good. Little was of the very low grade, little was really choice and no fancy noticed. There were several buyers present. Competition at the same time was absent. Moderate sales were made, and usually no material change was quoted. Feed and Screenings were scarce. There was a very fair demand, for there was a strong Oats market. No improvement over last quotations, however, could be obtained. Receipts posted at 77 cars. Visible supply decreased some but remains considerably larger than a year ago. Same way with local regular stock. Market for Screenings quotable at 30@40c for poor to choice. Sales made at 39½@40c. For country lots there was a quotable range of $2 20@3 11 for poor to fancy, fair to good quotably $2 60@2 85; choice, $2 90@3 00, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 40@2 50.

Flax—There was 1@2c decline from Saturday's prices. It was due to the influence of lower markets in the Northwest. Some Seed to arrive came on sale. Little spot was offered, though receipts were fair. A little more disposition to sell May and June and some business at a decline. Local receipts, 25 cars or 21,250 bu; no output. Buckwheat steady; good milling quotable at $1 15@1 20.

HOG PRODUCTS—A fairly good speculative business was reported in Hog Products, and the feeling was somewhat unsettled. The receipts of Hogs were liberal, and prices lower, and this feature encouraged packers and local "longs" to sell early in the day. The demand was moderate, and mainly from "shorts." Prices declined early on all descriptions. During the latter part of the session, the feeling was steadier in sympathy with Grain, and prices rallied again, and the market closed steady. Trading confined to May and July deliveries. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 87,700, compared with 70 200 corresponding time one year ago. CROPS IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

[From Broomhall's Corn Trade News, Jan. 19.]

United Kingdom — Unseasonably mild, wet weather has continued to prevail in the United Kingdom during the past seven days, and similar weather conditions have also been experienced in Western and Central Europe. This is not at all the weather that our farmers want for the land is again saturated with moisture, and plowing is impossible. It becomes increasingly certain that the area under Wheat in this country is bound to be small. Had January been fine and dry, there is little doubt that some of the arrears would have been made up, but unless there is a decided change at once, growers will become anxious about the sowing of their spring crops, and will be inclined to seize every opportunity to get on with the sowing of Barley. Should the weather turn fine and dry immediately and keep so till the end of February, there would be some additions made to the Wheat acreage, for February sown Wheat can turn out a good sample, but after that date any Wheat sown must certainly be classed as Spring Wheat, and such finds little favor with British farmers in these times, owing to its relatively low yield.

Russia Severe frost has been reported by telegraph from Odessa and there was a possibility that both that port and Nicolaieff might be closed to navigation for a time, but a telegram received to-day states that the weather has turned quite mild. The frost is unlikely to have harmed the crops as good falls of snow occurred in the interior. Shipments last week were very small, probably due to the holidays and hindrances caused by ice, for steamers at both the ports mentioned have had to be helped by ice-breakers for some time. Our Odessa correspondent again mentions the expected decrease in stocks there in the near future, for there will be little or nothing arriving during the next month or two, to take the place of the outgoings.

Roumania—Braila telegraphed yesterday that a thaw had set in and ice was running on the river. Crop reports are generally favorable, but we hear from our correspondent at Galatz that in Moldavia there are complaints of poor condition, owing to drouth at seeding time and scarcity of moisture since. Shipments last week were very small, but are quite likely to be larger next week, for Sulina has a fair stock and Kustendje should be able to do a relatively good business this winter.

Argentina Our cable of last Thursday reported fine weather, but the previous day or two had been wet and unfavorable for threshing. We have heard nothing to-day, so presume the fine weather is holding. The strike is reported to be finished; there was a moderate increase in the shipments last week and a good increase in the stocks. A good number of steamers have now been chartered to load the new crop, and there should be a substantial increase, in the shipments either this week or next.

India—The latest crop news we have is that sufficient rains have now fallen, some further seeding is being done in the late districts, and generally the outlook is very favorable indeed. The first official report for the Central Provinces gives an increase of 227,000 acres in the area and Berar has an increase of 180,000 acres. Our correspondent at Agra cables that the condition for these States is excellent and a bumper yield is expected. Shipments last week were quite small, but may increase again in the near future, although probably no big quantities will again be dispatched until the new crop is available and the movement in full swing. The season is generally reckoned to start in April, but some sales of Calcuttas have been reported for March.

Australia—Mail advices, dated mid December, mention some loss and bleaching from rains at harvest, but we have had subsequent cables which stated that the yield generally was abundant. The shipment last week was roundly 800,000 bu and the movement may be expected to increase.

France—The weather continues to be mild and wet, and although crop conditions are still considered generally satisfactory, growers would much like to see a return of seasonable frost and snow to check growth, and clear the fields of weeds and vermin Growers are offering their Wheat sparingly and country markets have continued to rule firm Fine Wheat is reported to be scarce.

Italy Excessive rains have caused some damage in Upper Italy, but generally agricultural conditions are satisfactory.

Germany—Also here the weather has been unseasonably mild and wet, and fears are expressed that a sudden return of sharp frost might damage the crops. Native Wheat is not freely offered, and the quantities coming forward meet a ready sale, Scandinavia being still a buyer.

North Africa—Complaints are made that Tunis and Algeria have had excessive rains. Morocco has had good rains.

The weather map shows continued low temperatures and light general snows, except in Kansas and Oklahoma. There was a light snow at Concordia on the Sunday map—.12, but with that small exception there was no precipitation in the Southwest and there is none to-day. There are light snows—very light—in the Dakotas, Nebraska, Illinois, Iowa and the Ohio Valley.

The forecast for 36 hours is: Kansas, warmer to-night; fair; colder west Tuesday. Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Michigan, Minnesota and Iowa, snow flurries; warmer. Dakotas, snows; colder Tuesday. Nebraska, cloudy; warmer to-day; colder Tuesday.

A fire, Friday, at Portland, Ore., caused a loss of $50,000.

Fire, Friday, destroyed the Dupont warehouse, Louisville, Ky. The loss is $80 000

Arbuckle and the Woolson Spice Company advanced the price of package Coffee ½c a lb to 13c Friday. This makes 1c within two weeks.

The Twin City Rapid Transit Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¼ per cent on its common stock, payable Feb. 15. Books close Feb. 3 and reopen Feb. 16.

A Burlington, Iowa, dispatch says: "Peach buds are said to have been killed by the severe weather of the last two days. The cold continues. It was 14 degrees below zero, Friday. Snow affords ample protection to Grain."

The Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railyay Company will pay the cupons due Feb. 1 on its second mortgage bonds, and also the first mortage bonds of the Kansas City and PacificRailroad Company, on and after that date

The Sheldon reorganization committee of the United States Ship Building Company met in New York, Thursday, and discussed the plan of the receiver. No definite action was taken. The committee's existence ends by limitation Jan. 30, but it is believed it will reorganize at once.

"Sales of Wire products for January this year will exceed the volume of a year ago," said an officer of the American Steel and Wire Company. "There is a very good call for goods for spring delivery, and our salesmen on the road send in very encouraging reports concerning the outlook."

There was a most decided difference between the appearance of No. 4 Corn when inspected on the tracks, and after the samples have stood for an hour or so in a warm room. Samples of No 4 Corn shown on the Chicago Board of Trade, Friday, were not accepted at better than No Grade prices, the warmth bringing out the moisture to such an extent that buyers refused to take them otherwise

An official of the American Radiator Company says that while it cannot be consistently expected that the earnings for the fiscal year now closing will equal those of the year preceding, it may be said that the showing will be satisfactory. The spring business of the company thus far shows improvement, and officials expect more new building during 1904 than last year. The company's annual meeting will be held March 2.

The volume of railroad business has grown to such proportions that, according to a prominent operating official of a leading road, there is not enough equipment in the country to handle it, although at the present time the traffic is at the lowest point touched in four years. In proportion to the increase in the country's demands the railways have not, says the same authority, increased their facilities or improved their methods of handling the business. Immediate enlargement of the service is demanded, the official adds, by existing conditions, a point having been reached where shippers can no longer submit to the situation prevailing three years ago, when freight stood on the sidings for weeks on account of lack of motive power.

o Dornbusch's Buda Pesth correspondent, writing under date of Jan. 16, says of Flour: "The market has this week been almost absolutely stagnant for lack of any demand, except at prices so much below current quotations as to be absolutely unacceptable. This had led to a further increase in the stocks, both here and at provincial mills, and threatens the market with congestion of a most embarrassing kind. The only cure seems to be a further radical curtailment of the output, for neither liberal forward sales nor reductions of prices to breaking point seem to bring any relief. Such a stoppage of machinery would probably check the growth of stocks. Whether it would bring really healthy conditions before the end of the season is at least doubtful."

Reported that 96,000 bu Wheat and 40,000 bu Corn were taken at the seaboard to-day for export.

The receipts of Hogs at Chicago during January were the third largest on record for that month.

The weekly map shows no snow covering in Kansas or Oklahoma. There is snow in the Northwest and snow in Northern Nebraska, and there is a general covering from Illinois eastward.

Broomhall cables: "The steadiness at Liverpool was on the firmness of the American markets. Corn was up on a better spot demand. Later, the near future gained because American Corn arrived in poor condition."

The total number of cars of all Grains inspected at Winnipeg for the week ended Jan. 27, 1904, was 417. For the corresponding week last year the total number of cars inspected was 666 of Wheat, 73 of Oats, 4 of Barley and 10 of Flax.

Local Securities were unsettled with a fair trade. Biscuit Common was bought fairly and advanced ⅛, as offerings are decreasing as the annual meeting draws near. Changes in other shares were small, except Pneumatic Tool, which declined 2½.

Experts contend that the margin of profit is materially reduced in manufacture of products of Corn, chiefly glucose, because of poor quality of the Grain. It is said to contain far more than the usual amount of moisture and at present prices Corn is really 10 to 15 per cent higher than at any previous time.

In the New York Cotton market rumors of large private settlements with "shorts" and lower prices in Liverpool started heavy liquidation by "longs," and prices dropped rapidly. Later prices were bid up by the "bull" leaders and losses were more than recovered. The market remained nervous throughout and at the low point was 130 points lower. The close was off 65@75 points on near and 27 points off on deferred deliveries.

Grain receipts at Chicago last week were divided among the carrying roads in the following proportions: Burlington, 18 per cent; Milwaukee and St. Paul, 15 per cent; Chicago and Northwestern, 14 per cent; Rock Island, 13 per cent; Illinois Central, 10 per cent; Elgin, Joliet and Eastern, 8 per cent; Santa Fe 6 per cent; Eastern Illinois and Alton, 5 per cent each; Wabash and Chicago Great Western, 3 per cent each.

Stocks in New York were stronger and sold higher in the morning. Advices from the far East were more pacific. After the early spurt there was heavy selling of the active Stocks. A feature was Anaconda Copper, which advanced 2 points and broke 5. Amalgamated advanced 1¼ and broke 1¾. Realty, Locomotive and Steel common made fair advances. Railway shares were all up, but reacted, although they closed higher. Money 1¾ to 2 per cent.

The Liverpool Corn Trade News weekly summary of crops was as follows. United Kingdom—Weather has again been wet and it is now practically certain that the Wheat area harvested next summer will be the smallest on record. Condition of the autumn sowings is rather poor. France, Germany and Italy—Weather during the past week unseasonably mild and rainy. Roumania, Hungary, Russia—Crop situation practically unchanged; conditions satisfactory. India—Crops progressing satisfactorily. Argentina—Weather favorable for late threshing and crop movement.

REGULAR WHEAT—Just a fair trade and rather nervous, sensitive market, with the close full 1c better for the May and ⅛@⅜c higher for July. The start was strong, the market acting congested. Crop news was not of the best and the movement moderate, which with the strength in coarse Grains, imparted a firm tone to the market. The monthly weather crop bulletin was construed as moderately "bullish" and the weekly snow map showed no covering in Kansas and Oklahoma. There is snow in the Northwest and snow in Northern Nebraska and general covering from Illinois eastward. The foreign situation in the far East was unchanged and Consols steady. On the swell there was a good deal of July on sale by commission houses, part of which was credited to the Southwest. The "long" interest supported the May but around 91¾@91⅞c there was considerable for sale through brokers. Liverpool, while firm, failed to follow yesterday's advance. Spot was quoted steady to ½d lower and futures but ¼d better. London was up ⅜d. Paris was ¼c higher and Antwerp unchanged. Receipts at Liverpool the past three days were liberal, 568,000 bu, of which 160,000 bu came from America. Stocks here in all positions were reported 5 9 3 0 0 bu, a decrease last week of 134,000 bu, and are 4 959,000 bu smaller than on hand one year ago. Contract stocks decreased 40 184 bu and now include 1,751,820 bu compared with 3,844,740 bu one year ago. Bradstreet's available supply decreased 2,507,000 bu, against 2,118,000 bu increase for same period in 1903. Primary receipts were 71,100 bu larger than in 1903. Kansas City and St. Louis received 312,000 bu, against 156 000 bu last year. Shipments at the two points 196 100 bu. The prediction of a cold wave was one of the late "bull" helps. Missouri State report was said to confirm recent private damage claims. New York reported that city mills there had sold 5,100 brls to go to South Africa. Exports were limited and 12 boat loads reported accepted at the the seaboard. Winnepeg received 117 cars, against 154 cars last year. Minneapolis stocks have decreased 200 000 bu so far this week. Receipts at Duluth 70 cars and at Minneapolis 206 cars, a total of 276, against 431 cars yesterday, 175 cars a week ago, and 234 cars last year. Local receipts included 31 cars Winter, 25 cars Spring and no cars mixed, a total of 56 cars, against 81 cars last year. Included in above were 2 cars of contract grade. There was no cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to morrow are 30 cars. Withdrawals were 34 000 bu. Receipts at Western points were 601,306 bu, against 191,410 bu last year. At Eastern points 127,164 bu, against 260,725 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 310,015 bu, against 213,470 bu last year, and from Eastern points 14,400 bu, against 198,549 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 24,049 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 152,620 bu.

CORN—There was a heavy trade and active, broader market in Corn. Feeling developed, while a little unsettled, was stronger on the whole and the close shows May 1⅛c higher, while July gained but ⅛@¼c. Cables were firm, the grading inferior, and recent arrivals at Liverpool were reported in poor condition. Out of 653 cars in, 600 cars were off grades, against 537 cars last year, when 198 cars were low grades. For to-morrow, 215 cars are estimated. Liverpool was unchanged on spot, while futures were up ¼@½d. Receipts at Liverpool the past three days were 104,000 bu, of which 80,000 bu came from America. Commission houses were good buyers, and while large quantities of "long" Corn came on the market, the same was well taken, indicating broadening outside interest. Stocks here in all positions were reported 4,072,000 bu, an increase last week of 253,000 bu, and are 32,000 bu smaller than a year ago. Contract stocks increased only 6,959 bu last week and now include 2 005,185 bu, compared with 2,399,630 bu on the corresponding date one year ago. Bradstreet's available supply increased 1,757,000 bu, against 1,175,000 bu increase corresponding week in 1903. Shippers reported a fair demand, with sales 100,000 bu. Rosario, Argentina, cabled the Corn crop had been damaged by drouth. The Illinois report complained of a good deal of soft Corn. Other months were ⅛@⅜c higher at the last. There was enormous selling for profits by the largest holders who took a good part of their Oats back on the break.
